First Meeting of the Campaign. | eral's office be watchful, vigilant and pure, it is The Democracy Fully Aroused. Large and Enthusiastic Outpouring ! Able and Eloquent Speeches.

Alteona's big Fair begins Tuesday next. SENATOR WALLACE'S REMARKS ENTIRE.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Cambria county was held in the Court House on last Monday evening. The entire success of the meeting is conclusive proof that the "frosty sons of thunder" of Democratic Cambria are fully alive to the all sections of the county alive to the say local news of special import. Hence the and county alive of the approaching State and county election, and that they will perform their full and entire duty. The meet--There is a divinity. The meet-billity shape the legislative end of radicalism ing was organized by calling JOHN H. DOUG-Hity shape the tegch Hewit as they will, and Blair county, rough Hewit as they will, and LASS, Esq., of Clearfield township, to the Chair, electing a Vice President from each election district in the county, and choosing P. J. LITTLE, Esq., of Allegheny township, and four other gentlemen as Secretaries.

The meeting was then addressed in a very two gray horses for which $500 had been able and eloquent manner by Hon. WM. The former "war horse" of the Democracy of Cambria, Dr. WM. A. SMITH now of Philadelphia, was the next speaker. His remarks showed that she taken outs, on Filday last, when the for his political faith is as firm and unwavering as when he was an honored and prominent citizen of our county. Brief but telling speeches were also made by Hon. WM. H. Ress and Cyrus L. PERSHING, Esqs., in their usual happy and vigorous style; after which the meeting adjourned with unmistakable manifestations of good feeling and Citizens or CAMBERS: I come to you tonight with my heartiest thanks, not only for your present ratification of my cardidacy, and hence implied endorsoment of my public career. but also for the unity and vigor of your support at my entrance into political life, nine Fir to Tuesday night was preity good and we wears ago, and I shall be faithless to myself. and to all that men hold dear and sacred, if 1 shall ever betray the trust and confidence these things evince. a check upon every department of the government, and a perfet safeguard against petty stealing, embezzlement or robbery. In its and th pure administration ALONE can the people find protection for their treasure and speedy payment of the State debt. If the people place the control of this department in the hands of a weak or corrupt man, or give the vast revenues of the Commonwealth into the keeping of one who from personal interest or political sympathy serves and obeys those who make the treasury a cource of profit and of power they will find the sad lessons of the present hour recur in rapid succession. Stern integrity, watchful vigilance, fidelity of the loftiest character, and implicit obedience to the law as written, should characterise the incumbent of this important place. We charge that some of these vital qualifications have been found wanting in those who now manage and control our finances. We charge that the Republican candidate for this office is connected, by personal interest and political sympathy, with that ring of the Republican party that runs the State treasury and mismanages its finances. We charge that those who administer the finances of the State and audit its accounts have broken their oaths to support the Constitution, have violated a plain statute and have misapplied the easets of the Commonwealth Thest are grave charges. Let us see the proofs. Ender the last Democratic State administration the Constitution was amended by a provision that looked to the gradual but certain payment of the State debt; by the Constitution itself ertain assets and revenues belonging to the State were devoted to that purpose, and it ob-lered the Legislature of 1528 to select and apply other resources to the same important end; the Constitution, in Section 4 of Article XI, expressly ordered that noise of these resources chould be used otherwise than in extinguishment o the public debt, until it was reduced below five mil lions of dollars. The Legislature of 1858 did disfignite these resources, and under these provisions all of the money arising from the recerds of the sale of the public works, their et annual income, the income or proceeds of stocks owned by the Sinte, all license fees, col-lateral loberitance taxes, baxes on bank char-ters and dividends, on corporations, on auction mmissions and entries, writs, etc., on publi money at interest, on tonnage paid by railroads

I fines and forfeitures, revenues from lands escheuts, accrued interest, refunded cash, ar softis to the State, was to be inviolably applied to the payment of the State debt. The Auditor ral and the State Treasurer each swears that he will support the Constitution of th That onth required them to nwealth apply all these moneys to the payment of the deht. Have they done so? This can best be settled examining their own reports and ascertainig what they have received from these resours and what they have paid upon the State

Taking up the five fiscal years that commenced Dec. 1st, 1865, and ended Nov. 30, 1870, we find that in the year ending Nov. 30, 1866, they re-ceived from these sources the sum of $3,757,746 in 1867, the sum of $3,645,017; in 1868, the sum o $8,423,564; in 1869, the sum of $3,553,560; in 1870 $3.881.064: total received in five years, $18.171.911. very dollar of which, under their official oath should have been applied to the payment of the State debt. Has this money thus been applied? On Dec. 1st, 1865, the whole debt was . $37,476.258 On Dec. 1st, 1870, it was..... 31.111.662

Whole debt paid. The interest paid on the debt during those years was: n 1867 2,257,033 1,979,690 1n 1868. 1n 1869. 1.964.811Total interest paid.....

Leaving a belance of which, in violation of law, of the Constitution and of official oaths, have been wrested from their legitimate purpose and otherwise disposed These facts cannot be denied, and they demoustrate the light consideration that a Republican official places on his oath of office. If to these figures we add the $667,000 they received from the General Government in 1865, which should have gone to payment of the State debt. (for the military loan is included in the figures I give,] and $690,000 for the one per cent. of interest they added upon the $23,000,000 of six per cent. loan, unnecessarily placed, during the three years 1868, 1869 and 1870, and the cost of to be found vigilant and faithful. The first cy of the amendment of 1857 had been carried I set out to prove violation of official oaths and misapplication of trust assets, and these facts and figures are the evidence. Upon the men who now run the inancial and executive branches of the State government we charge either wanton neglect of their official luties, or corrupt connivance in embezzlement of the public moneys. If either proposition be just, they are unfit to fill the places they hold and they and those they seek to place in power should be repudiated by an outraged public. "THEM $290,000." The Evans job is too recent and too plain in Its glaring depravity to need detailed explana-tion. That $291,000 of the people's money is now and has been for months past in the hands of an employe, pet or partner of State officials, or in the hands of those officials themselfes, is a act that they do not attempt to deny. That hey refuse to account for or pay it over, is qually clear. That no legal right or claim or idow of claim exists for this is generally ad-itted. That until within two months neither nitted ... the State Treasurer, the Auditor General nor the Governor attempted to secure the money to the treasury, is undeniable, and is not de-Can any good reason be given for the abso lute silence of the Auditor General and State Treasurer, for four years, in regard to the dongs of this man Evans, whom they and their noticial associates entrust with power over nitlicins of the money of the people? Why was he not cited to settle his accounts long since in the office of the Auditor General? Why has the State Treasurer been so lenient with this the state freasurer been so tentent with this large public debtor? Are they in the job, or are they simply incompetent for their places? Why is it that civil process is issued, with tardy and leisure-like alacrity, and the debtor warned before the process reaches the Sheriff? Why is such a process taken at all? Is it that the State may compel him to take the insolvent laws and she pay the costs? Is it that, in the tedious windings of "the law's delays," public opinion may be blunted and dulled by lapse of time and the debtor and his accomplices both go free? is it that the "short, sharp and decisive" reme y of a warrant and indictment for the palpa le crime would expose to the wronged people wrong done them removed from the place that carns a livelihood for himself and family? If carns a livelihood for miniscif and family? If his statements be false, confront him with the criminal and prove him what your cowardly attack upon him asserts him to be. The truth is patent; the job complete; the ring has robbed the treasury, and four years' silence and tardy and inefficient action when pressed to the wall, demonstrate that the financial officers of the State are different down in the most projectful majority, the fewer in numbers to the minori-ty upon the board. This has come to be recogbized as a fundamental privilege among us, and the people of the State would submit to no law that would take from them the right to choose these officers, and their inherent sense justice grants to the minority their plain right of representation upon these boards.-This is not the law in the great city of Philadelphia. The people there have no right to vote for election officers. They are disfranchised, and their power is vested in a board of alder-nen elected for an entirely different purpose. Here the people elect the assessors and they make out the registry list and place upon it the names of the voters. There, the board of idermen appoint the men to make out th registry lists and invariably appoint two Re-publicans and one Democrat. Here, the Democrats elect a Democratic assessor, in a Demo-cratic district. There, the board appoint two epublicans and one Democrat in every disrict, whether Republican or Democratic, and he majority controls. Under the dictation of orrupt and desperate men this power has rown to be a most frditful source of impurity a the elections of Philadelphia. Men are appointed as canvassers who know no law and recognize no system of morals, but the success of their party and the attainment of their own elfish ends and those of their designing leaders. ey without hesitation strike from the regis try lists the names of voters who are duly qual-fied, and add thereto the names of those who here no shadow of right to vote. No legal power exists to prevent these intraname wrongs. One member of the Legislature holds his place because the names of one hundred and forty-eight legal voters of his district were struck from the registry without authority of law and for purely partisan purposes.

Here, in a Democratic district, you cleet the udge and one of the inspectors, and the Re-ublicans elect the other. There, the board of dermen select the election officers in every strict, and invariably choose the men who do bidding and sult the purposes of the Reublican majority of the boards, and in the sesectal care to choose astitle and unscrupu-is Republicans who will do the bidding of cir party friends and almost invariably set illiterate, weak or corruptible men as bemocratic election officers. In many cases, ideed, they violate the plain letter of the law appointing Republicans instead of Demorats. One of the officers of the Republican tate convention was a man who had been apcinted and had acted as a "Democratic" elec-ion officer at the last election ! By the election shrewd and unscrupulous men upon one ide and of incompetent or corruptible men or be other the door to fraud and wrong is wide opened and the purity of the hallot is utter-destroyed. Such has now come to be the se in the city of Philadelphia and the voice f her people is stifled by the wiles and ations of lawless men, acting under the forms of an unjust statute. Canvass Hsts are "docballot-boxes are stuffed; returns are ltered, forged and manipulated, and fraud and iolence in their worst forms are resorted to a order to maintain the political supremacy of esperate and evil men. The true remedy of these wrongs consists in estoring to the people the rights taken from hem and in making the general law applicable the city of Philadelphia.

In the recent session of the Legislature we ought to amend this law by allowing the votes to be counted in the presence of the judges of the courts, by giving the courts the power to out on names left off the registry by mistake or raud and by giving the minority of the board of aldermen the right to select their due proortion of election officers for each election trict. Under the dictation of the men who are now upon the ticket in Philadelphia this was refused by the Republican House of Repesentatives, and we now come to the people to emand the repeal of this unjust law. Its gross justice is so patent that nearly every Republican paper in Philadelphia has condemned it, but it serves their purposes of fraud and false counting. So reckless and bold have these men become that they contemn public optimon and openly proclaim their intention to count themselves in. They reckon without their host if so during a game be attempted. The Democracy of Philadelphia are aroused and determined, and with public sentiment upon their side, they vill do what is necessary to secure a fair count We have the votes and we have the physical power of the city, as well as its moral support and popular voice, and we would be worse than fools to permit again of desperate knates

RIGHLAND AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY-NIAGARA FALLS-ON THE WING AND STILL FLYING-DIS-TRICT COURT-CAMP-MEETING--THEATRE--FIRE JAMPS M. SWANK-BAYARD TAYLOR, SC.

JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 4, 1871. Dear Freeman-The Highland Agricultural Society of Johnstown is going to hold a Fair some time soon, and a pamphlet has just been ssued which indicates that the premiums w be numerous, provided there will be enough of competition to receive them. No doubt the committee will send you a big advertisement, when you can give it an extended notice. The vivid descriptions of Niapara Fulls furnished by your correspondents put me to dreaming of this great wonder, and made me visit the "falls" too, I took the route that Col. Ington took when he went out as agent for Goy. Dinwiddle of Virginia to the Governor of Canada to negotiate a loan for the First National Bank of the United States. The great number of derricks and oil wells that I saw confineed me that I had either missed Washington's put or else that he was entirely reticent on the sub-lect of petrolcum. I left the battle ground of Buena Vista to the left and Waterloo to the right, and steered direct for Lundy's Lane where I had a pleasant Interview with General Scott. At Canoe-place I was furnished with a canoe, and the ghosts of Wolfe and Montcalm and myself started over the lake for the Fails. The day was perfectly clear, but as we neared Goat Island our cance tipped a little, and in fif-teen minutes we were eaveloped in a dense fog. In fifteen minutes more we touched the surface of the water below, when our canoe began to gyrate at the rate of a thousand revolutions er second. The ghosts, being spiritual in their natures, went up with the mists and the rain-bows, and I was left alone "to paddle my own cance." Having read philosophy, and knowing omething of the pressure of the fog. I reasone thus: that the canoe would not upset. stood up and grabbed for the Canada line, which runs near the centre of the river. I succeeded in throwing a pocket handkerchief across it, and by hard pulling I got out of the fearful eddy, but the canoe then struck a bee-line down the river, striking a seven-hundred ton rocs, which it split into fragments, without any injury to the canoe. Suddenly my craft was metamorphosed into a balloon, and when I awoke I was going up with fragments of rain bows and other delusions. I may be going on yet for sught I know. But this is "what I know about the Falls of Ningara." There is some talk here about electing Judges and other officers for the District Court. It is evident that we have a District Court, because the act of the Legislature which created it never was repealed. It is also evident that the Judges of the Courts of Cambria county cannot sit here, for the Supreme Court has so ruled. The only thing that can be done is to elect Judges according to the constitution and the law creating the District Court. This would obviate difficulties under which we now labor. A District Court here would save a vast amount of useless expense in trilling cases, that should never be sent up, and it would be much more convenient for witnesses and parties. The M. E. Church is holding a camp-meeting down at Blacklick, Indiana county, whither a large number of our citizens betook themselves on Sunday last, more through idle curiosity; perhaps, than to seek spiritual consolation. Tony Pastor, the inimitable, and his troupe of vocal and instrumental performers, appear, for this night only at Union Hall. Handen burgh's circus and menagerie was here on Fri day last, and is said to have been a good show. Almost a fire occurred last week under M lough's store, adjoining John J. Murphy' Mansion House corner. A fire somehow origi ated, which communicated to the empty boxe and barrels, and which, but for its timely covery, would have reduced that valuable ner to ashes in thirty minutes. WHERE IS THE MONEY ?

Within the ten years ending Dec. 1st, 1870, more than fitty millions of dollars have gone into the treasury of the State, much of it wrung by taxation from the earnings of the people, whilst the State debt which, on Dec.

1st, 1860, was less than thirty-eight millions, the intention of debt has been paid Harrisburg, Bellefonte, Hollidaysburg, and more than forty three millions re-

Are these the men possessed of stern integrity, watchful vigilance, faithful to their trust and obedient to law, to whom we have entrusted the finances of the State? Can it be that the people design to place in the department that passes and finally adjudicates their own finanf these men? Who does not know, who so blind as not to see, the gross outrages upon the people that such a combination can, and, judging by the past, will, perpetrate. Fraud, false counting, for-gery of returns, riot, bloodshed and murder, all and each in turn, have been perpetrated at he command of the lawless men who run the publican organization in that city, but pubpatience is at last exhausted and those who respect order and love law are upon our side and will give us their support and encourage-ment in their preservation: In the perform-ance of a just act or in the preventien of a gross wrong, public opinion sanctifies the means emsloved

To repeal this vile law, and give those people the rights that you possess, will be one of the first fruits of the victory to which we invite you. The struggle of last session for a just legisla-ive apportionment warns us that we will be tive apportionment warns us that we will be mercilessly treated by our antagonists in the event of their success, in the matter of a Congressional apportionment, and to those who aspire to Congressional honors, or love fair play, this adds an additional argument for zeal the contest.

Under the famous gerrymander of 1862, we have been distranchised and outraged. Its practical workings during the last four terms, when reduced to an average, demonstrate that t required 35,805 votes to elect a Democratic ongressman, while 17,800 votes were enough to dect a Republican. The difference between the arties in the whole role polled at these elections as been but about 31,000 votes, yet during bese four terms sixty-four Republicans have been sent to Congress whilst but thirty-one Democrats have filled the place.

Can I addree any more potent argument for the necessity for work than these figures show?

NO NEW DEPARTURE. Our enemy plumes himself uyon our alleged listractions and divisions and argues hence an easy victory. Let me tell him to "lay not this finitering unction too near his soul." The so called distractions and divisions of the De acy are settled in their own ranks and in their own way. They will bring neither aid nor com-fort to the enemy. That which they are pleased o call a "new departure" is a simple recogni-ion of the doctrine they have always maintain-d: to obey that which has the forms and sanction of constituted authority until relieved from their obligation to obey by the constitution-al tribunal or the power that enacted the law. n this we differ now, as we always have differed, with our antagonists; we obey law; they nullify their obligations and preach a higher law. We have made no departure from our universally received and recognized doctrine, that the control of the question of suffrage within the States ought to belong to the States and the people, nor does either our practice or our theory warrant the charge that we would millify any enactment by fraud or violence.which the government grew to greatness and o power, and which the Democracy has always nunciated and maintained : obedience to law, the right of local self government, the sound practice of constitutional government, economy in public expenditure, and the just rights of the States and of the people. The Democ-racy of Pennsylvania have closed up their ranks and will come to the polls with unbroken front, buoyant with hope and inspired with onfidence, proud of their candidates, who be ong to no ring and have no affiliation with orrupt eliques, whose personal, civil and military record are above reproach, whose gallant-ry has been tested on many battle fields, where they were trusted in many battle heids, where they were trusted lengths in a fighting corps that has been and will be the pride of every true Pennsylvanian. The Democracy will be at the polls an harmonious, united and deter-mined party, ready to meet an effecte, corrupt and degraded organization, whose chief boast is that they have made the negro their equal, whose great nower is the corrupt use of the whose great power is the corrupt use of the public moneys, whose most trusted leaders are disgusted and recalcitrant, whose present leaders are mainly federal officials and whose or-ganization, in almost every leading Republican county in the State, is broken into fragments, cliques and sections. It is a shell full of emptiness and rottenness, and it will collapse and stink when punctured and broken by the ser-ried ranks of a victorious Democracy.

A FINISHED Scour DREL - The Keytesville (Mo.) True Democrat of Aug. 19th devotes epwards of a column and a half to the exposure of the "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" of a certa'n John T. Bateman, a man (if it is proper to so designate such a creature) who was born and reared, and married his first wife in Ebensburgh, and who has recently abandoned his second wife and child (born since his departure), besides leaving several confiding creditors in that place in the lurch for various sums of money which in his hurry he forgot to pay. Bateman, as we have soid, was married to his first wife in this place. and by this marriage became connected with some of the most respectable people in this vicinity. It is many years ago, however, since he left this country for the country's good, and none but residenters of nearly two decades standing will remember to have known him while in our midst. His present whereabouts is supposed to be California.

A POLYGEOT BUSINESS .- The while-spread influence of American skill and enterprise has outstripped the comprehension of the Americans themselves. The tabries of our mills clothe the savages of both continents. They wrap the loins of Africa and the tawny skins of South American pampas. But wider still she spread the products of our skill in medicines. A late visit to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s laboratory and office in Lowell showed us that the whole sur-face of the habitable globe pays its tribute there. There they cater to and serve the re-quirements of almost all nations. Their publications are in the many tongues that widely-severed peoples use. Their letters must be read front and written in many tongues, for which there sits a long range of correspondents with the indispensable accomplishments for their duties. Their daily mail of half a bushel of letters brittgs them advices, orders and remit-tances from the circle of the world. We were overwhelmed with amazement, and our readers would be by an inspection of this wonderfully-extensive, health-dealing enterprise. – Holiy Springs (Miss.) Conservative.
