Johnstown, Oct. 19, 1871. DEAR FREEMAN-The melancholy days have come. The flowers are rapidly decaying. The withered leaves are falling to the ground .-The song of the bird is heard no more. The howling Autumn winds send a dismal wail to the melancholy heart. The frosts have gathered their harvest. Lone apples clinging to lonely branches, mourn the loss of their companions. The chequered landscape has put on the garb of the mourner. The smoke and haze of the Indian summer screens the discolution of nature's beauties from the observing this week as if it was printed in a town glance. The Dector has our very best wishes for his The Doctor has our very best wisnes for his future happiness and prosperity. He has done well in deserting the lonely and forbidding path which leads down to buttonless, comfortless, cheerless old bachelorhood and taking unto himself a wife and helpmate whom we are sure will always stand ready to console him in his afflictions, soothe him in his sorrows, rejoice with him in his prosperity, and love and com-fort him under all circumstances. Pence and plenty be ever with them through life, say we.
HILL-BLAIN.-Married, in this place, on Thursday last, by Rev. T. R. Jones, Mr. WILLIAM HILL and Miss ANNIE BLAIN, eldest daugher of Mr. Abram Blain, barber, all of this place. The happy couple very kindly remembered the printer, and for so doing they have our sin-cere thanks and best wishes. "Bill" is well known to everybody as the hostler at the Mansion House, and a more worthy or better he-haved man, white or colored, in this humble sphere, we have never met. We feel sure that he has got a good wife, and that both will do their utmost to perform all the duties pertaining to the happy state upon which they have just entered. No one who knows them can do aught than wish them an acundance of happiness, and as we are confident that they deserve it all, we trust they will live long to edjoy this world's blessings.

OBITUARY.

CARNEY.—Died, in Allegheny township, on Friday last, Oct. 13th, Mrs. MARGARET CARNEY, reliet of Daniel Carney, sr., aged about 80 years. The deceased was born in the county Derry, Ireland, and was there married to her late husband and became the mother of six children-all boys. She came to this country in the year 1850, and one year thereafter removed with her family to this county, where she resided until the time of her death. Her husband preceded her to the grave some twelve months or more ago, but all her offspring are still living, and all but one of them we believe reside in this county. In all the walks of life as wife, mother and neighbor—Mrs. Carbey performed her part as became a true christian and a good woman, and as she lived a devout and sincere member Cane seat chairs re-caned and fitted up as of the Catholic church and received all the consolations of that religion in her dying moments, there is every reason to believe that she has gone to enjoy the eternal reward youchsafed to all who die pure in spirit and free from guile. BUTLER.-Died, at Conemaugh, on the 10th isst., of injuries received on the railroad, John SMAY BUTLER, aged 23 years. His remains were brought home to Wilmore for interment, where quite an elequent and affecting discourse was delivered by the Rev. Wagoner, of the U. B. church, as a parting tribute to him who had seen the last of earth and passed away.

That brow is cold—those lips are mute— That value we'll hear sgain, oh! never; le lay there like a broken lute Whose thrilling tones are hushed forever.

Those clear blue eyes forever sealed
Will light not with the olden gladness.
And hearts whose grief may yet be healed
Will mourn their withered hopes in sadness.

We ne'er shall see that face again. Unless when sleepful dreams are baunting, And ever in the world's refrain That sweet voice will be sadly wanting.

GIBSON—Died, in Philadelphia, on Thursday, 12th instant, Rosanna, wife of Alfred C. Gib-son, Esq. Her husband is well known by many of our citizens, and is a brother-in-law of Gen.
M'Donald, of this place. We take the following notice of her death and funeral ceremonics from the Philadelphia Catholic Standard: IN MEMORIUM .- On Monday last, 16th inst. IN MEMORIUM.—On Monday last, lith inst., the mortuary solemnities of Mrs. Rosanna Gibson took place in the Church of the Assumption. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. David Kenrick, C. M., of Germantown, assisted by Rev. J. A. Gallagher as Deacon, and Rev. Father Wall, Subdeacon. The absolution of the body was given by Very Rev. Father Carter, V. G., who paid a well deserved tribute to the well known worth and merits of the deceased. The following gentlemen acted as ceased. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Hon. James Campbell, Mark Wil-cox, Charles A. Repplier, and Daniel Milevitt.

Requiescat in pace. E. J. WATERS, Lustice-of-the-Peace, has removed to the office recently occupied by Dr. E. H. Plank, on the east side of Centre street, opposite Colonade Row.

The deceased was a most exemplary lady, respected and esteemed by all who knew her.
