

| VOLUME 5. |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  | (1)riginal 箪oetry. "hbimgange, "Heimzang !"-so the German peopleWhisper when they hear the bell Whisper when they hear the bellTolling from some grey old steeple, Death's familiar tale to tell;When they hear the organ's surges And the singers chanting dirges-"Heimgning ""-ine is going home! |  | loins. Dismayed by this unexpected obstruction, for the space of a breath or twothe tigress stood at bay, and then, with a | How to Get a gerit in a steep- |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Ting. We coild hear Silis bones break |  | sisted, but as soon as the coinductor's back was turned renewed the fight with the next  white hat, insisting just as positively nex |
| WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ationery and notions, |  |  |  | flight to watch this shocking contest beItween undaunted man and untamed brate.In vain she turned and twisted, reared | Eirls in ned over to me. It is a little hard |  |
|  |  |  | things he can find to du; for I du believe he has on his mind some rude idea of |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | personal atonement for the blood he shed not let it speak out of your eyes to him, | and plonedj Bill held fast thought the | Nobody bead protecioni if if ny one does, |  |
|  |  |  |  | The beast's sight-held fast with the gripof eveelasting fate, till Mr. Kingsley, | I was reminded of this by an adven-ture that thapened to me the other night |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | ture that happened to me the olerer no in New York. I was about leaving on the nine o'elock train for Washington | tiful maidens, dignified matrons and snow y headed fathers of the latid. I only awohe ton.-Don Piatt. |
| Between 13 th and 14 Sth Sts, Altoona. |  |  |  | ereape, stretered his firm hand, and sent | when a man who was in saarch of me ap- proached. I knew he was in search of |  |
|  |  |  |  | braine One siarp convisiso of the h wy | me. Le was in search of some respect- able, benevolent individual to put a wo- | ton.-Don Piatt.  THEE SEA CAPTAIN'S EIEEAMI: |
|  |  |  |  | Bill beneath her crushing weight. Ten- |  | he sea captan's bream. |
|  |  |  |  |  | Mapen |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | the compliment. When I came to vecure a secion in the sleeping car, I found that |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | a deleation of pious people was giong to |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | Secred two at leatt 1 thoonh 1 bad |  |
|  |  | Cauls, Slietures, Aucciotes, fit. |  |  | catpet sacks, strap blicely in motking |  |
|  |  |  |  | could be done for him in this world.-Even in his agony he was so grateful for |  | ery of the body of Adams by means of a dream. |
|  |  |  |  |  | tected female could not abide the sleepingcars. She said she felt li..e suffocating, | Coit had an office at Broadtray and Chambers street, in the building now |
|  |  |  |  | it he wondered that any had eared, for him, and it was ouching to hear him gasp |  |  |
| BA |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | pany. When Adams was mised, suypi- cion pointed to Colt, whose offlioe was |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| STOCK OFNEW GOODS |  |  |  |  | sid positively that she coutd not teitiont |  |
|  | Improve your sigh |  |  |  |  |  |
| AS LO |  |  |  |  | that the would rather sit op. 1 then gave |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | (Mr. Kingley took the cold hand in |  | shifted. While this was in progress one The captain took him aside, and said |
|  |  |  |  | many more than one, perhaps, and gave yours, too!" | ladder, the steward and two pious old pumps, my unprotected female was boost- |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | able about this afficir. There is no doubt sel, and I am convinced in my own mind |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | (hat the body of Adams is in in it" The stipowner was thunderstreck that |
| CARLY VISTS FROM ONE AND ALL |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | "But he is just, too, murnured the | that if I had told them earlier the blunder might havo been remedied. liot as i |  |
|  |  |  |  | say Ho wanted an eye for an eye, a tooth |  | -Will - will,", procoteded the captian, "I |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | and I've always leen lookin' out for thechance. It was lon $\varepsilon$-comin'; but I got | ment, and then went off about his busi- |  |
| W Ood, Morrell & CO.,  washiggton street, | LADIES' FANCY FURS! |  |  |  | the platform as we started, whe e he was | it prudent to withold it from them, at least  the present.  "Last night," the eaptain said, "I slept |
|  | - JOHN FAREIRA |  |  | make it even"  Mr. Kings ey twas erying like a child. |  | "Last night," the eaptain said, "I slepton board, and awoke this morning strangey impres $-d$, for I drea ned that a bos |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Than I can say." | Stis pocket, and the inebria ed fellow | and stowed away in the ho . In the |
|  |  |  |  |  | very melancholy way some time after, |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | when this intoxicated fellow stuck his "I would like to have a drink." "I would like to ha | mpreses me erery 5 ange when 1 awoke! |
|  |  |  | of childeren for a theriving Sondy yshoolhad entered earty,nodnoistly seeured nearly all the front seats, and delighted anticipation stone on rows ot chubby and |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | "You took me, when all be wordamo out, and youte never given |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | "Well," I responded, "I am sorry tosay that I have none about me." |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | Aried that the box bad been found and opened, and in it was a body believed to If of he missing man Adams. |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | when I suddonly becameaware that some. thing serious was the matter, tor $I$ saw | but suddenly he was looking at us wide awake, and spoke out firm and clear: "And there was such a lot of little uns |  | It was decided on the spol, betiw en the owner and the captain; t. t no immediafemention should be made t the dream, as the laiter would not for the world have his name : sociated in the papers with the the strange dream was spuken of, even by |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | statueqquestand in fill front of the amued | I'se made it even !"And then the peace of death settleddown on the pale face of Quiet Bill. |  |  |
| Women |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| LOOK WELLTO TOUR |  |  | as well he might be, having just discov- ered that the migbty beast beside him bad, by some utinoticed frantic effort, so | Hasxan on tue Rall-There is a | othing in the constitution nor in the sixleenth amendenen tuat pronibinisyourfom | the strange dream was spuken of, even by The guilt of Colt was fixed, and be |
| HO |  |  |  |  |  | as convicted despite the formidable ef er too palpably true to admit of tangi |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | der it fe tfully unsafe. There was nut a minute to be lost in the creature's evidently excited condition, further aggravated by |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | at the farriter end of the car: 1 t ook the sitution at a gince. Here |  |
|  | $\mathrm{S}^{\text {Herifer }}$ |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | white hat. 1 immediately remored that white $h$ hat. 1 carried it turther slong and |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| burg, A |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| tewn and vicinity. Office in rear of buil |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| , Bapt |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| al Panking business $t$ |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

