

Cambria Freeman.

EBENSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 18, 1871.

This death of Dr. Stanton, Auditor General elect, is likely to give rise to a very serious unpleasantness between Gov. Geary and his Radical friends in the Legislature. The Governor, we understand, claims that under the act of Assembly on the subject he has the power to appoint an Auditor General for the full term of three years from the first Tuesday of May next.

The general election law now in force for the choice of a governor of this Commonwealth shall regulate the election for auditor and surveyor general; and in case any vacancy should occur in either of said offices, by death, resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled by appointment of the governor; and the person so appointed shall continue in office until the end of the term for which his predecessor was elected.

This section can bear but one construction, and that is, that a vacancy in the office can only be created by the death, resignation, or some other disability of a person, not merely elected to the office, but who is in the actual discharge of its duties.

Letter from Ireland--No. 2.

(Correspondence of Cambria Freeman.) LIMERICK CITY, IRELAND. } October 31, 1871.

DEAR MAC--Before I touch on this, the City of the Violated Treaty, I will try, according to promise, to give a brief sketch of Queenstown and surroundings. Queenstown, or as it was once called, the Cove of Cork, is built on the side of a sloping hill. A perpendicular descent of about a mile from the harbor is struck with the peculiar scenic beauty all around him.

After a sail of six miles, full of varied and enchanting scenery, I entered the city of "RIBBEL COEK" situated on the river Lee. Cork is the most important city in the south of Ireland. It is partly built on an island and connected by six bridges. It has some splendid public and private buildings. At the head of Patrick's street is a splendid station called Matthew, the great Apostle of Temperance.

The Cork people have of late years earned the honored title of rebels, owing to their persistent efforts against British tyranny and wrong. Within five miles of Cork is the far-famed BLARNEY STONE, which curiosity led me to visit. This celebrated stone, which possesses so much magic persuasion, is about a height of one hundred feet and twenty feet on the tower of Blarney Castle.

It would be more in accordance with the numerical strength of the two forces, if Mahomet was asked to pass over to the mountain, rather than that the mountain should go to Mahomet. That, however, is a minor consideration in view of the great object to be attained.

Only a few weeks ago the Radical press of our own State sent up a loud howl of indignation over the refusal of two return judges in the Cumberland and Franklin Senatorial District to sign a certificate of election in favor of the Radical candidate.

On the day of the election in New York city, that brace of modest and model females, Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull and her sister, Miss Tinnie C. Claflin, made a vigorous and heroic effort to exercise what they claim to be the highest earthly glory of a woman--the right to vote.

On the day of the election in New York city, that brace of modest and model females, Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull and her sister, Miss Tinnie C. Claflin, made a vigorous and heroic effort to exercise what they claim to be the highest earthly glory of a woman--the right to vote.

The legal right of her and her sister to exercise the franchise. The guardians of the ballot-box, however, were inexorable and impervious to her logic, and the ballots of the firm of Woodhull & Claflin went to protest like so much worthless paper. The disfranchised twain retired from the polling booth sadder and wiser, it is to be hoped, than when they entered it.

Mrs. Margaret M. Miller was more fortunate. She lives in Tweed's district, where the election officers are disposed to be very accommodating, and where the law on the subject of voting is liberally construed, so that all who offer may enjoy that priceless boon.

The Democratic Party and the next Presidency.

We publish in another column, to which the attention of our readers is directed, an article from the St. Louis Republican containing the views of the editor of that paper on the policy which ought to be pursued by the Democratic party in the next Presidential election.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

It is a Radical journal, yet the Republican has long been the recognized organ of the Democracy of Missouri, constantly and fearlessly fighting its battles with an energy and ability not surpassed by any Democratic newspaper in the country.

The Next President.

A Masterly Inactivity Advocated as the Policy of the Democracy. (From the St. Louis Republican.)

The active canvassing of candidates for the Democratic Presidential nomination of 1872 that took place prior to the elections in California and Maine, has been followed by a more careful reflection on the whole subject, and one startling result of this re-consideration is a suggestion of the question whether there ought to be a Democratic nomination at all.

It is expressly stated for public belief that a citizen of Richmond, blind in one eye for three years, was lately kicked in the face by a horse, and the sight of the eye was restored.

News of the Week.

One hundred deaths from small-pox occurred in Philadelphia last week.

The convicts of the Massachusetts Penitentiary sent $600 to the Chicago relief fund.

John Bettlor, of Chester county, voted at the same window for the 70th time at the late election.

An Indian war has broken out in Arizona between the Pimo and Apaches.

John B. Royer, near the Red Mill, in Potter township, Centre county, had one acre of corn which produced 765 bushels.

Mrs. David Schilder, of Pottstown, had her infant smothered in her shawl on Tuesday last.

It is expressly stated for public belief that a citizen of Richmond, blind in one eye for three years, was lately kicked in the face by a horse, and the sight of the eye was restored.

L. B. Byar, of Pottstown, has an apple in his possession which was grown thirty-seven years ago.

Five brothers, whose ages average seventy-nine years, took their first meal together in Lewistown recently.

Having won her suit for a few millions' worth of New Orleans, Mrs. Myra Gaines feels that she can now afford to push her claim against the government for more than $60 a month pension.

Another race between Goldsmith Maid and Lucy for $5,000 came off on Tuesday at Suffolk Park.

Miss Smith, of Wisconsin, was sufficiently provident to present the Chicagoans with $5, which her father had given her for a new gown.

A misanthropic Newfoundland dog turned a cider mill in a confectioner's window on Third Avenue, New York, twelve hours a day.

James J. Taylor, postmaster of Kersey, E.K. county, has been arrested and held to bail in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the United States Court, at Erie.

On Thursday last week a jealous wife named Slater, wife of James Keller, of Hoboken, N. J., killed her husband.

Joseph Massina, of Robesonia, Berks county, beat his wife so cruelly a few weeks ago that she was obliged to flee from his home.

The residence of Mrs. Frost, in Ashburnham, Mass., is assailed with stones thrown by some invisible agent.

The parents of Mary Collins, of North Bergen, New Jersey, objected to her receiving the services of James Keller, of Hoboken.

Robert Layton, a colored jury, was rudely snatched from the jury box merely because he had stolen a fifty dollar trunk.

The lamented death of Dr. Stanton is ascribed to the inhalation of noxious effluvia.

There are grounds for alarm in the report from Washington as to the cause of the terrible spread of small pox in our Eastern cities.

A terrible tragedy--A terrible tragedy terminated a turbulent matrimonial career at Nashville last week.

News of the Week.

One hundred deaths from small-pox occurred in Philadelphia last week.

The convicts of the Massachusetts Penitentiary sent $600 to the Chicago relief fund.

John Bettlor, of Chester county, voted at the same window for the 70th time at the late election.

An Indian war has broken out in Arizona between the Pimo and Apaches.

John B. Royer, near the Red Mill, in Potter township, Centre county, had one acre of corn which produced 765 bushels.

Mrs. David Schilder, of Pottstown, had her infant smothered in her shawl on Tuesday last.

It is expressly stated for public belief that a citizen of Richmond, blind in one eye for three years, was lately kicked in the face by a horse, and the sight of the eye was restored.

L. B. Byar, of Pottstown, has an apple in his possession which was grown thirty-seven years ago.

Five brothers, whose ages average seventy-nine years, took their first meal together in Lewistown recently.

Having won her suit for a few millions' worth of New Orleans, Mrs. Myra Gaines feels that she can now afford to push her claim against the government for more than $60 a month pension.

Another race between Goldsmith Maid and Lucy for $5,000 came off on Tuesday at Suffolk Park.

Miss Smith, of Wisconsin, was sufficiently provident to present the Chicagoans with $5, which her father had given her for a new gown.

A misanthropic Newfoundland dog turned a cider mill in a confectioner's window on Third Avenue, New York, twelve hours a day.

James J. Taylor, postmaster of Kersey, E.K. county, has been arrested and held to bail in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the United States Court, at Erie.

On Thursday last week a jealous wife named Slater, wife of James Keller, of Hoboken, N. J., killed her husband.

Joseph Massina, of Robesonia, Berks county, beat his wife so cruelly a few weeks ago that she was obliged to flee from his home.

The residence of Mrs. Frost, in Ashburnham, Mass., is assailed with stones thrown by some invisible agent.

The parents of Mary Collins, of North Bergen, New Jersey, objected to her receiving the services of James Keller, of Hoboken.

Robert Layton, a colored jury, was rudely snatched from the jury box merely because he had stolen a fifty dollar trunk.

The lamented death of Dr. Stanton is ascribed to the inhalation of noxious effluvia.

There are grounds for alarm in the report from Washington as to the cause of the terrible spread of small pox in our Eastern cities.

A terrible tragedy--A terrible tragedy terminated a turbulent matrimonial career at Nashville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore were two residents of that city who had been twice divorced and three times married.

During the past two years they had been frequently in the courts, where they had at divers times vainly endeavored to adjust their domestic difficulties.

Such being the case, one would naturally suppose that they would have seen at length the advisability of a permanent separation;

but this does not seem to have occurred to them except at rare intervals.

The crisis was finally reached a few days ago, when the woman clef the skull of her husband with a hatchet, inflicting a mortal wound.

Before Gilmore became insensible he stated that his wife quietly approached him from behind and cut him with the hatchet, without having given the slightest warning of her intent; that he had just finished supper, and had one of the children in his arms, little suspecting that she meant to harm him, that he then had ordered her to kill him; whereupon she took the hatchet and drove it into his skull, let it fall and ran out of the door, he in the meantime picking it up and throwing it at her as she passed out.

as they had not quarreled for some time past. She stated that he had recently maltreated her in a brutal manner, and on the evening in question whipped her and said that one or the other must die;

The testimony of disinterested outsiders is damaging to both husband and wife.

HUNTINGDON wants a new court house.

News of the Week.

One hundred deaths from small-pox occurred in Philadelphia last week.

The convicts of the Massachusetts Penitentiary sent $600 to the Chicago relief fund.

John Bettlor, of Chester county, voted at the same window for the 70th time at the late election.

An Indian war has broken out in Arizona between the Pimo and Apaches.

John B. Royer, near the Red Mill, in Potter township, Centre county, had one acre of corn which produced 765 bushels.

Mrs. David Schilder, of Pottstown, had her infant smothered in her shawl on Tuesday last.

It is expressly stated for public belief that a citizen of Richmond, blind in one eye for three years, was lately kicked in the face by a horse, and the sight of the eye was restored.

L. B. Byar, of Pottstown, has an apple in his possession which was grown thirty-seven years ago.

Five brothers, whose ages average seventy-nine years, took their first meal together in Lewistown recently.

Having won her suit for a few millions' worth of New Orleans, Mrs. Myra Gaines feels that she can now afford to push her claim against the government for more than $60 a month pension.

Another race between Goldsmith Maid and Lucy for $5,000 came off on Tuesday at Suffolk Park.

Miss Smith, of Wisconsin, was sufficiently provident to present the Chicagoans with $5, which her father had given her for a new gown.

A misanthropic Newfoundland dog turned a cider mill in a confectioner's window on Third Avenue, New York, twelve hours a day.

James J. Taylor, postmaster of Kersey, E.K. county, has been arrested and held to bail in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the United States Court, at Erie.

On Thursday last week a jealous wife named Slater, wife of James Keller, of Hoboken, N. J., killed her husband.

Joseph Massina, of Robesonia, Berks county, beat his wife so cruelly a few weeks ago that she was obliged to flee from his home.

The residence of Mrs. Frost, in Ashburnham, Mass., is assailed with stones thrown by some invisible agent.

The parents of Mary Collins, of North Bergen, New Jersey, objected to her receiving the services of James Keller, of Hoboken.

Robert Layton, a colored jury, was rudely snatched from the jury box merely because he had stolen a fifty dollar trunk.

The lamented death of Dr. Stanton is ascribed to the inhalation of noxious effluvia.

There are grounds for alarm in the report from Washington as to the cause of the terrible spread of small pox in our Eastern cities.

A terrible tragedy--A terrible tragedy terminated a turbulent matrimonial career at Nashville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore were two residents of that city who had been twice divorced and three times married.

During the past two years they had been frequently in the courts, where they had at divers times vainly endeavored to adjust their domestic difficulties.

Such being the case, one would naturally suppose that they would have seen at length the advisability of a permanent separation;

but this does not seem to have occurred to them except at rare intervals.

The crisis was finally reached a few days ago, when the woman clef the skull of her husband with a hatchet, inflicting a mortal wound.

Before Gilmore became insensible he stated that his wife quietly approached him from behind and cut him with the hatchet,

without having given the slightest warning of her intent; that he had just finished supper, and had one of the children in his arms, little suspecting that she meant to harm him, that he then had ordered her to kill him; whereupon she took the hatchet and drove it into his skull, let it fall and ran out of the door, he in the meantime picking it up and throwing it at her as she passed out.

as they had not quarreled for some time past. She stated that he had recently maltreated her in a brutal manner, and on the evening in question whipped her and said that one or the other must die;

The testimony of disinterested outsiders is damaging to both husband and wife.

HUNTINGDON wants a new court house.

FALL BULLETIN. W A N A M A K E R 1871. AUTUMN. CONSEQUENCES!

We have bought more largely, and therefore more cheaply, than ever before.

We have selected EVERY PIECE of Goods with the utmost care, and had EVERY YARD examined, and well SPONGED before making-up.

We have rejected all COTTON Goods, and have manufactured nothing but ALL WOOL.

We have studied all the New Styles--English, French, and American--and have adopted only the best, together with many New Designs originated by Ourselves.

We have made many improvements in Making-up, and have more confidence than ever in the superiority of our Workmanship.

We have labored to suit all tastes, and have Plain Styles as well as more Fashionable Cuts, and every variety of Shade and Material.

We have determined to do a Larger Trade than ever, and so have combined every inducement that can possibly be offered.

OAK HALL, AND OAK HALL, MARKET AND SIXTH STS. MARKET AND SIXTH STS. BROWN.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES TO CASH CUSTOMERS! AT THE EBENSBURG HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE.

The undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Ebensburg and the public generally that he has made a great reduction in prices to CASH BUYERS.

My stock consists in part of every variety of Tin, Sheet-Iron, COPPER AND BRASS WARES, ENAMELED AND PLAIN SAUCE-PANS, BOILERS, COAL SHOVELS, MINE LAMPS, CANS, HOUSEFURNISHING WARE OF EVERY KIND.

Spout, Valleys and Conductors, all of which will be made out of best materials and put up by competent workmen.

Lamp Burners, Wick and Chimneys, WHOLESALE OR RETAIL. I would call particular attention to the Light House Burner, with Glass Globe, for giving more light than any other in use.

SUGAR KETTLES AND CAULDRONS of all sizes constantly on hand.

Special attention given to Jobbing in Tin, Copper and Sheet-Iron, at lowest possible rates.

Wholesale Merchants' Lists now ready, and will be sent on application by mail or in person.

Hoping to see all my old customers at many new ones this Spring, I return my most sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage I have already received, and will endeavor to please all who may call, whether they buy or not.

Removal and Enlargement, COOKING STOVES, HEATING STOVES, TIN, COPPER & SHEET-IRON WARE.

Having recently taken possession of the newly fitted up and commodious building on High street, two doors east of the Bank and opposite the Mountain House, the subscriber is better prepared than ever to manufacture articles in the TIN, COPPER and SHEET-IRON WARE line, all of which will be furnished to buyers at the very lowest living prices, and satisfaction to all.

The subscriber also proposes to keep a full and varied assortment of Cooking, Parlor and Heating Stoves of the most approved designs.

REPAIRING promptly attended to, and all work done by me will be guaranteed on fair terms, and all STOVES and HEATING apparatus can be depended upon for their durability and economy in fuel.

Also keeps on hand all kinds of Vegetables, Fresh Butter, etc., which he receives daily from the best sources.

Will visit Ebensburg, Carrollton, Loreto each week during the season. May 28, 1871.

JOHN MALPHANT, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fresh Fish, Oysters, Vegetables, Fruits, &c. No. 93 Market Street, JOHNSTOWN, PA.

Western Fish, at 10c per lb. Fresh Shad, at 15c per lb. Extra No. 2 Mackerel, per lb., at 10c. Extra No. 1 Mackerel, per lb., at 12c. Extra No. 3 Mackerel, per lb., at 8c. Also keeps on hand all kinds of Vegetables, Fresh Butter, etc., which he receives daily from the best sources.

Will visit Ebensburg, Carrollton, Loreto each week during the season. May 28, 1871.

JOHN MALPHANT, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fresh Fish, Oysters, Vegetables, Fruits, &c. No. 93 Market Street, JOHNSTOWN, PA.

Western Fish, at 10c per lb. Fresh Shad, at 15c per lb. Extra No. 2 Mackerel, per lb., at 10c. Extra No. 1 Mackerel, per lb., at 12c. Extra No. 3 Mackerel, per lb., at 8c. Also keeps on hand all kinds of Vegetables, Fresh Butter, etc., which he receives daily from the best sources.

Will visit Ebensburg, Carrollton, Loreto each week during the season. May 28, 1871.

JOHN MALPHANT, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fresh Fish, Oysters, Vegetables, Fruits, &c. No. 93 Market Street, JOHNSTOWN, PA.

Western Fish, at 10c per lb. Fresh Shad, at 15c per lb. Extra No. 2 Mackerel, per lb., at 10c. Extra No. 1 Mackerel, per lb., at 12c. Extra No. 3 Mackerel, per lb., at 8c. Also keeps on hand all kinds of Vegetables, Fresh Butter, etc., which he receives daily from the best sources.