CHICAGO AND DESTRUCTION.
A full and complete history of Chicago, her past, present and future. With graphic scenes, incidents and full details of the disaster, by Geo. P. Union and J. W. Sherman, editors of the Chicago Tribune. With 200 pages, and 50 illustrations. It is now ready for delivery.

WILLIE AND ANNIE'S PRAYER.
The following poem written by Mrs. SOPHIA P. SNOW is one of the most exquisitely touching and beautiful, says the Pittsburgh Post, we have ever read. It cannot fail to reach the hearts of all who peruse it, besides being peculiarly appropriate to the holidays.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.
MARRIED AND PARTED—DESTINY TRIUMPHS OVER DIVORCE.
The New York Times tells in its editorial columns a remarkable story for the truth of which it vouches, and which is in substance as follows:

A TERRIBLE EPISEPE.
FEARFUL STRUGGLE WITH A MANIAC IN THE BURNING WOODS.
One of the survivors and victims of the late fire in Wisconsin relates some thrilling incidents of these disasters. Subjoined is the experience of a lady:

A PERILIOUS SITUATION.
The Portland (Oregon) Bulletin gives the following account of one of the most thrilling incidents we have ever heard of as occurring on the Oregon and California Railroad between Portland and Salem:

FREE PRINCIPLES.
The only best way to be saved by circulating among the voters such newspapers as advocate a free, liberal, and honest Government.
WE WILL ADVOCATE
The following propositions as essential to the preservation of our political institutions against the machinations of the unscrupulous leaders of the lawless majority.

All persons are therefore cautioned against meddling with the above property, as they are left with the said G. W. LLOYD, subject to my order.

THIRTY YEARS EXPERIENCE
IN THE TREATMENT OF
Chronic and Sexual Diseases.
A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.
The cheapest book ever published, containing nearly three hundred pages, and one hundred and thirty fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the human organs in relation to health and disease, with a treatise on early errors. Its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by a report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address, on receipt of twenty-five cents in stamps or postal currency, by addressing Dr. J. A. CROCK, No. 31 Maiden Lane, Albany, N. Y. The author may be consulted upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally or by mail, and medicines sent to any part of the world.
