|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| nprise, eatior ana Pubither. |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| VOLUIIE 6. |  | EBENSBURG, PA., SATURDA.Y, FEBRUARY 24, 1872. |  |  |  | UMMBER |
| ner Gilertisements. many cood bargains ERPWINS  III DRI C00RS BIZAR and 174 Federal Street, A1 19 Cents, |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | meditation, and much resembled the well |  |  |  |
|  |  | The day of rest-that happy day  The week's hard labor now is done, The time tor rest is now begunThe toilful week is o'er; now may |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | The fatu way soan nom may |  |  |  | - |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | , |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | mind |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | PERSEVERANCE MIATILDA.  A Leap Year Love Tale.  dy paul parallet. |  |  |  | sis |
| YARD WIDE SHEETING. |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| BEST OIHLITY GINGIIHMS |  |  |  |  |  | to a ene of lis endition lise prinit oee |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ed Country Flann |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ND WOOL |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| AS. |  | dismal time when gutters yawn nard po- licemen sleep. But it mas not total dark- |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| INS fand fllll S SLE | TLLABLE BELL ESTMTE |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  | . |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| IN |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | swepp, and transformed into flies, stand unseen in the room of Withelm Currentia, |  | , that |  |  |
|  |  | the only fon of Geofficy Currentia, his father and parental parent. Withelm stands before us, and we will take a look |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | at him Ho ina yourg man who his |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | forty summers, more or less, and possess- ed in detail of the followitg appurtenan- |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | befure it has reached the dirty ground.His nose was a cross between the Grecian | pro |  |  | Then |
|  |  |  |  | (ind |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| epsy or mits |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | "Then flestied the lie livid lightuing from ber |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | Ten |  | How |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | yearnings.has devoted all her sleepless nights, en-couraged alike by the impulses of her own | her feet and started at full speed she knewnot whither, but still clinging to the fiddle |  |  |
| COLORED PLAT |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | and the bow. Away she went like s me teor, her flowing locks, resembling a com |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | about sunrise Enveloped in the gar-ments of invisibility, we enter a bedroomin the third and last story of a hotel A |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | the fairy goddess, he is a picture of a manwho has passed an uneasy and unquietnight. That once classic form trembles |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | strength as the distance lengthened beTime also went on- |  |  |
| Sotice. The min |  |  |  |  | upon his return to conscionsness he at-tempted to open his eyes, to move hishands, to speah, but found himself unable |  |
|  |  | false) :  bilt, opon my squl, I bill !'  nd then the fell to peeling her potato. citaiter iii |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | French for night-gown) is "tattered andtorn," and his general appearance is "allforkorn." An hour is spent in dressing, |  |  |  |
|  |  | CHAFTER ini. "Gone, but not forgotten."-Anonymoes. Perseverance Matilda was desperatel |  |  |  |  |
| , |  |  |  |  | this cili, this blact nese of farkenest tha: |  |
| Thicr |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | but it is with love. His emaciated form -the result of a vinegar and slate-pencil diet-shows it. His eyes are two wit- |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | , |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

