

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Steps and Missions... After "Legend" to hand. Will appear next week.

Shocking cold days this week. Thermometer down to ten degrees below zero.

Another charge of the "Eastern Star" floor just received by the Catholic.

An Indiana county man was exiled out of $150 by "roofing cement" swindlers, a few days ago.

Mr. Robert E. Jones has, we understand, been employed to stand guard over Moore, the alleged murderer.

Many friends from all sections came in to see this week—some with money, some with help.

Mrs. Joanna B. Moore, sister of George of Cambridge, through, was found dead in her bed on Monday morning last.

An exquisite poem from the sweet songstress, "Linnet," appears in our paper to day.

David Thomas and family, of Cambria township, have pulled up stakes and have gone to Iowa. We wish them luck in their new home.

Mr. William E. Linton, late County Treasurer, has purchased the "Summit Mansion House" Summitville, and will take possession on the first of April.

All that the people could wish or the appetite craves in this matter, is a speedy trial.

With the Herald please point out the chapter and verse in which we promised to show the people the perfection of economy?

Mr. Patrick Cassidy offers through our paper and handbills his farm in Munster township, together with live stock and other property.

Rev. Father Christy, pastor of the Catholic church in this place, has consented to deliver a lecture in St. John's church, Johnstown, on the evening of St. Patrick's day, March 17th.

Subject not stated.

It was reported in Altoona last Saturday that a woman in that city had been arrested for poisoning to death four of her children.

But as the Altoona papers say nothing about the matter, we presume the report was without foundation in fact.

—Judge Devise and Will Ott, those two and no more, freighted a lumber car the other day, and yet it would seem as if there really had been ten persons employed at the job—the judge being one, and you know one and Ott makes ten the world over.

—And now Ed Thompson, of Saltsburg, Indiana county, has got himself badly burned just because that confounded stuff, coal oil, which is not a new discovery, but which can be so smouldering cost free without exploding the can and playing L. J. generally.

—Owing to the death of Mr. Jacob Pircher, recorded elsewhere, the entire stock of clothing he owned in the store of Messrs. Holliday & Company, will be sold at public auction.

The goods are of the very best quality and well made, and buyers will be sure to get bargains.

—Down at Sam Cristie's St. Charles Hotel, the "Herald" was the subject of a discussion.

The latter got angry and said to Mausey: "Well, if you don't get to boots or shoes, why you can shut your mouth—b-l-a-h-d!" Mausey thereupon set —Ten thousand nine hundred and eighty-seven men, women and children, of all ages, sexes and conditions, are wanted as soon as possible to pay down the cash and carry away the elegant articles they want from T. Roberts' new jewelry and fancy goods emporium.

Cham, will deal on the square with every mother's son and daughter of them.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

any kind of a picture your heart may desire, on a dozen or hundred of them, if in plain words, and in the best style of art.

—The Herald says we are about the only newspaper man who takes pride in his littleness.

It is a pity that the gentleman who is so contemptuous, etc. All right, if grammatical errors had been included, he is out best friend who informs us of our failings.

All which leads us to remark that the Herald man is not that only who takes little or no pride in avoiding such errors.

—At very little expense, and without any expense you can obtain from our artist friend

A BLOODY DEED!

A Woman Strangled to Death and Burned.

OUT IN THE MOUNTAINS

More than a Parallel to the Betsy Holder and the Paul-Munday Slaughters!

ARREST OF THE SUPPOSED CRIMINAL

IN JAIL, AND "WAITING FOR THE VERDICT."

THE UNFORTUNATE VICTIM!

Who She Was, Where She Lived, and all Known Facts Connected with Her Life!

HARROWING CHAPTER OF SIN, SORROW, AND SHAME!

Full Particulars.

Mineral Point is an unpretentious little village, of say 100 inhabitants, situated on the line of the P. R. R. about seven miles east of Johnstown. Its location is wild and picturesque in the extreme. It is a town of the Allegheny mountains, with far reaching trees in every direction, and rocks of mammoth proportions for a background.

It was on Friday morning of last week, a deed of blood was committed in this village, which, for its ghastly nature and entire isolation, is being alluded to by the Betsy Holder murder or by the Paul-Munday slaughter.

Yesterday afternoon a deposition of newspaper men, compiling representatives of the FREEMAN, HERALD, ECO, and N. Y. WORLD, waited on the Sheriff to obtain, if possible, an interview with the prisoner, Moore, but in accordance with the advice of the Sheriff, the reporter declined to grant the request, such interview being deemed imprudent.

It was in the afternoon of the day mentioned, that a woman named John Shriver, a resident of the vicinity of Mineral Point, was out fox hunting on the morning of the day mentioned.

On March 1st, I started and got the team to haul wood; hauled two loads, and the third load was about to be hauled, when the dog started and ran towards me, and I followed it to a small clearing, where I found a woman lying on the ground, apparently dead.

On the 11th of March, I started and got the team to haul wood; hauled two loads, and the third load was about to be hauled, when the dog started and ran towards me, and I followed it to a small clearing, where I found a woman lying on the ground, apparently dead.

On the 11th of March, I started and got the team to haul wood; hauled two loads, and the third load was about to be hauled, when the dog started and ran towards me, and I followed it to a small clearing, where I found a woman lying on the ground, apparently dead.

On the 11th of March, I started and got the team to haul wood; hauled two loads, and the third load was about to be hauled, when the dog started and ran towards me, and I followed it to a small clearing, where I found a woman lying on the ground, apparently dead.

On the 11th of March, I started and got the team to haul wood; hauled two loads, and the third load was about to be hauled, when the dog started and ran towards me, and I followed it to a small clearing, where I found a woman lying on the ground, apparently dead.

The remains of the murdered woman, as we have said, were buried so as to be unrecognizable. At first, it was thought that the victim was a Mrs. Ambrose, a milliner, who lived in Altoona, and that the name of a woman of Altoona was mentioned; and many other names were suggested in the same connection.

But it appears to be definitely settled that the woman whose life was lost in this manner, was a woman named Ann Doyle, one of the women whom Moore called wife. We are not intimately acquainted with the history of the woman Doyle, but have gleaned these facts connected with her career.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Her father's name was John Doyle, and her husband's name was John Doyle, who was a shoemaker, and worked at that business for a time for Hon. R. Jones. He married a woman named Doyle, who lived in Altoona.

Local Correspondence.

JOHNSTOWN, MARCH 6, 1872.

DEAR FREEMAN—Burgess Strayer has asked the council to fence the Public Square. This is a good move, and in the right direction. It needs a fence, then trees, then a fountain.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last. The body was found by a man named John B. Davis, who lives in Johnstown.

Our District Court will soon meet more than it comes to. The President Judge, Judge C. W. Easley, has become editor of the ECO, and the editor must see to it that he has a pointed pen and a quill pen, and all he wants is elbow room.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows. It is a third story room and has eight windows.

COMMUNICATIONS.

HEMLOCK, PA., MARCH 4, 1872.

Editor of Cambridge Freeman—In looking over the columns of your paper a short time ago I observed a notice from your office, in regard to the late Mrs. Moore, which was published in your paper of the 27th inst. I was glad to find it in the person of the collector and treasurer of the Hemlock school.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

The body of a female was found near Mineral Point, three fourths of a mile east of Samuel Richards's dwelling house, and one and a half miles from the town of Johnstown, on Saturday night last.

Literary Notices.

The Celtic Wreath.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading. There are no advertisements of any kind in it, and the price is very low.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

The Celtic Wreath—Such is the title of a new story paper just to hand. It contains no less than twenty original serials, besides finished stories, humorous sketches, and a host of other excellent reading.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS!

SPECIAL PRICES

4-4 Penn Mill No 1 Sheeting, 13 1/2 cts. 4-4 Anchor No 1 " 13 1/2 " 4-4 Heavy Standard " 11 1/2 " 4-4 Imperial " 10 1/2 " 4-4 Avondale " 9 1/2 " 4-4 Red Bank, Bleached, 11 1/2 " 4-4 Carleton " 11 1/2 " 4-4 Vaughan " 11 1/2 " 4-4 Hugs " 12 1/2 " 4-4 Peabody " 10 1/2 "

Lancaster Gingham,

Good American Gingham, 10 Cents. Heavy Domestic " 11 "

American, Coche Co, Merrimack, Lowell, Springfield, and Boston.

Hartel's & Allen's Prints, Splendid Styles at Agent's Prices.

CASSIMERES & DRESS GOODS

At less than jobbers' prices, and goods cut in the most desirable manner.

A. W. Erwin & Co., 172 and 174 Federal St. ALLEGHENY, PA.

Agents Wanted FOR THE FLORENCE Sewing Machine.

Wherever the FLORENCE Machine has been introduced, it has met with the greatest success. It runs like clockwork, and makes beautiful stitches.

HECKERT & McKIN, No. 8 Sixth Street, PITTSBURGH.

LIST OF CAUSES set down for trial at a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Johnstown, Pa., on Monday, the 4th day of March, A. D. 1872.

Edwards, for use of the property, against the estate of John B. Phillips, Executor. Gaites, for use of the property, against the estate of John B. Phillips, Executor.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers, the name of the medicine he used.

M. B. COCHRAN, Pittsburg, Pa.

DISSENTION NOTICE.

A partnership existing between the undersigned and others, for the purpose of manufacturing and selling woolen goods, has been dissolved by mutual consent.

WHEELER & WILSON Sewing Machine.

The undersigned, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers, the name of the medicine he used.

W. M. LLOYD & Co., BANKERS, ALTOONA, PA.

WHEELER & WILSON Sewing Machine.

The undersigned, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers, the name of the medicine he used.