THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. It will be seen from the following announcenext that the President of the late Democratic County Convention bas appointed an Executive Committee, as he was authorized to do by the action of that body. The substitution of this ommittee in place of the usual standing Couny Committee being a matter not merely of form, but of substance, the Democracy of the county will expect prompt and energetic work at its hands.

In pursuance of the authority vested in me by the late Democratic County Convention, which assembled at Ebensburg, May 27, 1872, I hereby appoint the following named persons to act as the Democratic County Executive Committee, until the meeting of the next County Convention, in 1873, and to perform all the duties heretofore pertaining to the County Committee which was abolished by said Convention:

N. HORNE, Chairman, Johnstown, JACOB ZIMMERMAN, Johnstown, THOMAS JUDGE, Cambria Borough, HENRY TOPPER, Adams township, JOHN S. RHEY, Ebensburg, JOHN BUCK, Carrolltown, CHARLES O'HAGAN, Galiltzin, JOHN DURBIN, Clearfield township, JOHN FARREN, Washington tp.

In another column will be found an adverisement relating to the Ætna Mowing and Reaping Machines. These machines are said to be the best in the world for the several purposes for which they are intended. G. Huntley is the agent for their sale in northern Cambria. We advise all our farmer friends who have not seen the machines to call at Mr. Huntley's store and investigate their merits. A sour eighteen years ago, a stranger visited Somerset. He happened to say that they made better butter than the Glade where he came from, and the Somerseters put him in jail for it. This is from last week's report of the city councils of Altoona : "Mr. McKiernan stated that a 'verdant, unsophisticated youth from Cambria county, who lately became a sojourner in this city, and being ignorant of the ordinances, was fined $10 for having on his evening walk stopped in front of one of our churches, to listen to the sweet strains of musir that proceeded therefrom,' and as the young man was no ro *dv, and as he did not know the law, he therefore moved that the fine be remitted. Mark the date-the 23d! Fuster, by the way, is landlord of the Cambria House. The patrouage he receives in his line of business shows that his labors for the public are appreciated.

SCOTT MONROE again. He went to the pen tentiary from this place some years ago for larceny, but was pardoned out He came back to tell us all how glad he was at having regained his liberty and went away with a stray coat on his back. Then we heard from him at Hollidaysburg and other points east. and it was always the same old story of thieving and theit. At last, he arrived at Bedford and to arrive at a place was with him to steal It was a roll of butter, and Scott was cap tured, tried, found guilty, and sentenced to the per itentiary for a year. He broke jail-this was last April-and was not heard of till the other day, when he was captured in Cumber land, Md. He is now in the penitentiary. HARRY WHITE always was a fraud. But just now he is a traud and a nuisance combined. One-half the papers we pick up state that he has resigned off the radical State ticket as nominee for Congressman at large, while the other balf declare as by authority that he continues to "stick." As it this were not enough, here comes the report that he has de clined the nomination for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, to be followed, of course, by multitudinous denials. It is no concern of ours, but as a matter of comfort this hot weather we would like to have these provoking contradictions definitely settled Or must we wait till October, when both they and Harry can be so effectually settled that neither will ever afterward be heard of ?

A HEARTHENDING STURY .- A correspondent sends us the following sorrowful narrative of Grand Temple of Honor and Temperance, the journey of the corpse of an Altoona woman from Missouri to Altoona : Some two months ago, a man living in Altoona took his wife to Missouri, to have a cancer removed from her breast. A surgical operation was performed, but unsuccessfully, and the woman just week died The body was shipped for Altoona per railroad in a baggage car, the husband accompanying it. By an oversight, the latter failed to procure a certificate from the physician in attendance, setting for h the cause of her death. The small-pox is greatly teared along the line of the railroad, and the oversight spoken of was most unfortu nate in its results, as will appear upon reading what follows. At one point, where a change of cars became necessary, the conductor refused to allow the coffin to be put on his train. and it was only after the most piteous appeals had been made that he allowed it storage. At Pittsburg, no one could be found willing to help him transfer the coffin, and the conductor also refused to allow it on his train The cof fin was a metallic one, and heavy, and while attempting to carry it, UNAIDED, the husband let it fall, and it broke He was then obliged to wrap his overcoat around it to hide its contents from the gaze of passers-by! He some how found a conductor with enough sympathy in his heart to allow him to take the coffin to Altoons, where it arrived at 12 o'clock, mid-night, last Saturday." A new coffin was procured, and on Sunday morning the wearied body was laid to rest.

A LIYELY SUNDAY -Last Sunday was an eventful day in Altoona. The city was full to overflowing With visitors, drawn thither to witness the ceremonies attendant upon the dedication of a new addition to the German Catholic church, in East Alteona, and the laying of the corner stone of St. Mary's Catholic church. A large procession, headed by a brass band, traversed the streets, and proceeded to the site of the new church. Just as the ceremony of laying the corner-stone was being ceremony of laying the corner-stone was being commenced, the alarm of fire was struck, and in a moment the entire body of worshipers was dispersed, one and all hastening away to the fire. One hote: the American House, on A POSTER headed "Caution," notifying all accorded that Sec. 4 of Chapter 14 of our dispersed, one and all hastening away to the dispersed, one and all hastening away to the dispersed, one and all hastening away to the fire. One hotel, the American House, on Railroad street, and two stables, were burned down. Bishop Domenec officiated at the religious ceremonies. He arrived at Altoona on Sunday on a special train. THE FIREMEN'S PICKIC - We have heretofore announced in these columns that the Dauntless Fire Company would indulge in a grand celebration on the "Glorious 4.h," and in our last issue gave an outline of the programme. It will do no harm, however, to say again that the Company will have a street parade at 9 a m ., preceeded by the engine. hook and indder and hose carriages, etc., a brass band, flags, etc., after which they will repair to Lloyd's Grove for a day's genuiue old-fushioned recreation and amusement. SCRIBNER'S FOR JULY .- The West Point Military Academy and its surroundings are profusely and beautifully illustrated in Scarmers's for July, the bistorical and descriptive text being July, the historical and descriptive text being supplied by Benson J. Lossing. This article appears just at the time that public attention is attracted to the Academy. Another timely paper is that on "Woman as a Smuggler and Woman as a Detective," in which one of the most curious and suggestive branches of the Custom House system is fully exposed. Mr., Warner's "Back-Log Studies" (by the way, one of the best series of magazine articles ever pub-lished in America) are, if anything, more de-lightful than their predecessors. "Draxy Millightful than their predecessors. "Draxy Miller's Dowry," a very fresh and strong piece of characterization, by that mysterious author Saxe Holm, is concluded in this number; and a generous installment is given of Mrs. Oliphant's "At His Gates." Mr. Wilkinson's searching but courteous criticism of "Mr. Lowell's Prose" is concluded. Then we have a strong naturalistic story by James T. McKay, entitled "Harker and Blind; an interesting little illustrated article on spiders ("Will you walk into my Parlor?"); an illustrated paper, "As Others See us," by Prof. Wilder, of "Cornell;," a brief essay on "The Law of the Heart and the Law of the Street," by Hodgkins; and poems by Mrs. Whitney and Miss Osgood. The Editorial Departments, are, as usual, quite full. Dr. Holland, in "Topics of the Time," talks about "The Christian Sabbath in Great Cities," "The Literchristian Sabbath in Great Cities, "The Literary Bureaus Again." "Our President!" and "Indirect Damages." The Old Cabinet has something concerning "Old Probabilities," "My Famous Friend," "Poor Pillicoddy," and "Mrs. Whitney's Pansies."
