-At Portage, this county, last Monday, Samuel Barnes attempted to jump on a pass-ing freight train, but missed his footing and fell on the track. The car-wheels passed over one of his legs, and so dreadfully mangled it that amputation became necessary. The unfortunate man survived the operation only a couple of hours. He was about 20 years old, and a resident of Bedford county. His remains were interred at Wilmore on Wednesday.

-William Christy, aged 15 years, a son of Josiah M. Christy, of Gallitzin, came to his death at Cresson last Thursday evening by the cars running over him. He had gone to Cresson from Gallitzin that evening, and was endeavoring to get aboard a freight train to return home, when he missed his footing and fell on the track. The car-wheels ran over his legs and a part of his body, and so severely injured him that he died shortly afterward. -Charley Albright, Radical nominee for Congressman-at-large, threatens to come to Ebensburg some time during the campaign and make a political speech. Charley used to live here, and his memory is kept fragrant amongst us by remembrance of his connection with Council City, Kansas, in 1854. A great many of his old neighbors would like to hear his dulcet tones again but would hear them on the subject of "paper towns" in preference to politics.

-Randall Morton, who taught school in Ebensburg for two or three years prior to 1840, was in town on a brief visit Tuesday. He was warmly welcomed by many of his old pupils yet living here, all of them now middle-aged men, and some of them parents of children grown to man's estate. Mr. Morton is a nephew of Hon. Marcus Morton, ence next week, and will then give the of Massachusetts, who ran for Governor of that State about twenty-nye that he is now elected once by one majority. He is now living in the neighborhood of Pittsburg. -Ebensburg's new brass band has been fully organized. It is composed of the following named members : R. Litzinger, A. Y. Jones, John O. Evans, E. V. Barker, J. L. Stough, G. W. Jones, George Robinson, Jerry Fagan, D. H. Kinkead, and Erasmus Smith. The horns, which cost $350, arrived last week, and on Monday evening of this week the band took its first lesson. Prof. Braddock, of Johnstown, is tutor. The Professor is leader of Braddock's Johnstown Band, and under his efficient tutorship we expect the boys to make rapid progress in the acquirement of the science of music.

-The Ebensburg Fish Association isn't a bad institution, after all. Catfish were first introduced into the Conemaugh here three years ago, and now that species of fish are not only abundant in this immediate neighborhood, but have been caught nearly so low down as Wilmore. Three live grass pike were put into the same run, at the same point, two years ago, at a cost of $8.331/2 each, and already the small fry are said to be abundant. Not satisfied with what it has already done, the Association proposes introducing bass and sunfish, and an expedition to catch and convey the same hither will go hence inside a week from date.

CARROLTOWN, Aug. 14 1872 Dear Freeman-Since my last, accidents and incidents have been, like angels' visits, few and far between in this latitude, and yet we hear no one complaining of a lack of variety on that account.

In the meantime the brick-work of the tower of St. Benedict's has been finished by the contracter, Mr. Matt. Addlesberger, to the satisfaction of all interested and to the credit of the gentleman named. It is, indeed, a good job and vindicates the confidence we ever had in Mr. Addlesberger as a first class mechanic and a reliable contractor. The spire builder is now putting the timber n place, and ere many days Carrolltown can boast of one of the prettiest fowers and spires in Western Pennsylvania. When finished shall have more to say about it.

Notwithstanding the frequent and drench-ing rains during harvest, the majority of our farmers have secured their crops in good condition.

In a portion of your edition last week, as you assured your readers, you noticed the running off of the team and consquent damage to the fine hack of our mail line. It is but fair to say that no blame attaches to any one in connection with the accident. The lead horse succeeded in working the bridle from his head just as the hack was nearing the convent, and this enabled him to see the flapping of one of the curtains of the hack. which, in connection with the fact that the men at work on the new tower made some noise which attracted, or rather distracted, the horse, caused him to frighten and start to run. Of conrse the driver was powerless to hold him, but manfully clung to the line attached to the other horse until it broke .-A lady with an infant on her lap was thrown from the back, as was also the child. The latter escaped unhurt, but the lady had her corlal-bone fractured. She is improving rapidly. The hack has been reconstructed and made more convenient than ever. E.

SUMMERHILL TWP., Aug. 13, 1872.

Dear Freeman-George Hull and Joseph Woleslagle fell from a scaffolding at P. M. Woleslagle's mill, in Wilmore, on last Friday, in consequence of which both were severely injured, the latter having his left arm broken at the wrist. The cause of the accident was the giving way of the scaffolding, which they had erected for the purpose of repairing the building. The distance they fell was twenty feet, and it was providen-tial that they escaped as safely as they did. We attended the funeral of Father Brown of Johnstown, on Saturday last. A special train conveyed the remains to Cresson, whence they were taken to the Catholic cemetery at the Summit and interred by the side of Father McCullough an old schoolmate and friend of deceased. The funeral was a very large one, indeed one of the largest I ever witnessed. On the return seven passengers cars were found inadequate to ccomodate the multitude and two freight cars were attached, and then the platforms were crowded to their utmost capacity,-Bishop Domenee and several clergy attend-ed the funeral. The writer hereof was a warm personal friend of Father Brown from the time we first met until the grave closed over the form of one of the most eloquent, talented, gentlemanly, and warm hearted priests we have ever met. May his soul rest in eternal peace !

A young man by the name of Barnes, a brother of Mr Jeremiah Barnes, of Portage Station, had one of his legs so terribly manwas as good as-yes, we will say better than gled yesterday evening by slipping, under the wheels of a car on which he attempted pect to have to report like occurrences at

MADE TO LAST.—An exchange paper tells about a suit of clothes found at the foot of a tree, from which the occupant appeared to have been climinated by a flash of lightning. A suit of clothes that could stand such a pressure as that must surely have been bought from S. J. Hess & Bro., 241 Main street, Johnstown, for it is well known that for durability of make and material, as well as for beauty of style and cheapness of price, the clothing of this firm is unapproached and unapproachable.

"THE picnic's far behind us, Kate : 'twill take them long to find us, Kate;-there's a world of bliss in a harmless kiss, and no one near to mind us, Kate." She said she'd rather not engage in such delightful pastime, as it might muss the new Dolly Varden dress she had just purchased from I. T. Coppock, who, by the way, has lately become sole proprietor of the popular and elegant dress goods emporium heretofore owned by Aldendifer & Coppock, at No. 212 Main st., Opera House, Johnstown.

BAD LUCK .- A youth in Johnstown had a $20 gold piece. A magpie stole the gold piece; a cat caught and ate the magpie; a dog killed the cat, and a butcher who don't live there served up the dog in the shape of bologna sau-sage. The youth said he wouldn't care so much about it, only he was saving that gold piece to buy a suit of ready-made clothing at Mayer's renowned clothing store, Johnstown, where he knew he could get wearing apparel very cheap, very stylish and very durable very stylish and very durable

LET those who would their lives prolong, and from their presence drive all earthly ills, just bear in mind as worldly ways they throng that there is such a man as E. J. Mills, who keeps a store on the street called High, and sells to all who have ready cash to pay for the best of flour and feed, chopped corn and rye, and groceries, too, fresh and cheap—that's what we say. On Mills then call and at fair prices buy of what he keeps a full supply.

MUTUAL Fire Insurance.

The Mutual Plan guarantees to the mutually insured the greatest security for the least pos-sible cost. The premium notes are the capital. On this no dividends are paid to the stockholders, but it is simply assessed to pay deficiencies arising after the payment of losses and expenses —which in the COLUMBIA INSURANCE COM-PANY, during the total 12% years of its exist-ence, have averaged but 6% per centum upon the premium note, being lower than the rates pail. In the best solvent stock companies during the same period of time. In insuring at stock rates, the insured must pronounce to himself that he pays every year enough—1st. To form an accumulated fund for emergencies; 2d. To pay large dividends to the capital invested in the Company; 3d. Runs the risk of a "Chicago fire" coming and wiping his Company out of existence. In a Mutual Company he keeps his own reserve in hand until needed, and pays no dividend to capitalists. The mutually insured. being themselves the capitalists, look after the business, its character and its agents in all places, thus protecting each other.

From the Ravenna (Ohto) Democrat, July, 1867 A very spirited and interesting Mowing Match was held on the farm of C. H. Bostwick, Esq., mear Compbellsport, in this county, on the 15th inst. There was a large attendance of speciators, and more than ordinary interest manifested in the friendly competition. An agreement had been enfered into, between the parties representing the different machines, that only Common Machines (such as are ordinarity offered for sale, and not made for special occasions) should be allowed to enter the contest, cach machine should mow an equal amount of grass, and one team and driver should be used for all, in order that the trial might be a fair one, and the merits of the machines alone lay claim to public favor. The ".ETNA" Mower, made by the ÆTNA Manufacturing Co. of Salem, Ohio, for which Peter H. Bean appeared as agent, proved to have the lightest draught, and this, with its simplicity of construction and beauty of design, combined with its powerful cutting qualities, made it the favorite of the dar.

SERIOUS SHOOTING AFFRAY AT ST. AU-GUSTINE .- From a young man who was present and witnessed the occurrence, we learn the following particulars of a shooting affray which took place at St. Augustine on Monpastor, Father Brown. day last, and which it is now feared will result in the death of the victim : About three o'clock in the afternoon of the day indicated, Bernard J. for a brief time, however, for McFeely soon renewed his threats, and the result was that Barnacle took hold of him and ejected him from the house. McFeely lost no time in ejected him, after which he passed behind the bar, and, taking a gun from under the counter, pointed it at McFeely and told him that he would shoot him if he came back .--Not heeding the threat, McFeely once more entered the room, when Barnacle pulled the trigger and the ball sped on its course, striking him in the thigh, fracturing the bone and odging under the skin in the back part of his leg. The wounded man sank to the floor and for a time all wascommotion. Barnacle himself sent for a physician, and ere long Dr. Sloan appeared on the scene, and after a careful examination determined that the un-fortunate man's life could only be saved, if saved at all, by the amputation of the leg close to his body. This operation was accomplished forthwith, but our informant says that McFeely's condition gives but little promise of a favorable result. So far as we know, Barnacle has not been arrested, nor do we know what action, if any, the authorities propose to take in the matter.

Among the athletes was John H. Harr, who, while attempting a difficult feat, missed his hold and fell. He struck on his forehead, and with such great force that his neck was broken, death ensuing instantly. The de-ceased was the second son of M. S. Harr, formerly of Ebensburg, but for a number of years past a resident of Auburn. He was about 23 years old, and an estimable young man. Those who knew him here in other years, and particularly his playmates, will be sorry to hear of this tragic death of young "Nonly.

A GOOD WORD .- Though we uniformly differ in politics with our townsman, Hon. A. A. Barker, and sometimes venture to express ourself to that effect in these columns, yet we know him to be an energetic, honest, and useful citizen, and when a good word is said of him as a man, we have no hesitation in giving it currency to the full extent of our circulation. We clip the annexed extract from a communication from Menno township, Mifflin county, to a Lew-last Thursday night, Rev. Peter Brown, the priest of St. John's (Catholic) church, Johns-town, was gathered to his fathers. The de-ceased was one of the ablest and most eloquent divines in the State ; and, more than that, he was the worthy recipient of unbounded respect and esteem from al. who knew him.

By his talents and learning, as well by his beautiful traits of private character, he had endeared himself to one and all, and his death has cast a gloom over the community which time only can eradicate. At 7% o'- clock Saturday morning, solemn High Mass was celebrated in the church, with Bishop

Domenec as celebrant, assisted by Fathers

Farren, Christy, and Gallagher. After mass, the Bishop delivered an eloquent and impressive address on the life and character of the deceased, dwelling particularly on his useful life and happy death. The ceremonies were concluded at 9½ o'clock, when the fu-neral procession, to the number of at least one thousand, proceeded to the railroad sta-
