-Dr. W. W. Jamison, of Loretto, was by some mishap thrown from his buggy, near Buck's Mill, Allegheny township, on Thursday of last week, and very severely, and, it was thought for a time, seriously bruised and cut, but we are pleased to learn that he is coming around all right and will soon be himself again. firm of Collins, Johnston & Co. is about to be erected adjacent to Mr. Zahm's store. Business at the new banking house has commenced very auspiciously, and with such an affable, capable and popular gentleman as Mr. Zahm for cashier, its future success cannot be doubted.

-Ebensburg's silver cornet band was out for the third time on Wednesday night and very agreeably surprised all who heard them by the great progress they have made in the short space of about one month .-Better material for a band than our boys or a better teacher of instrumental music of that kind than Prof. Braddock, are not to be scared up anywhere.

-Mr. M. L. Oatman, accompanied by his wife and their little "well spring of pleasure," has betaken himself to Ohio on a brief visit. In the meantime, his clever young Congressman, and other able and accommodating clerk, Charley Shryrs from abroad, will address these ock, has full authority to sell dry goods, groceries, flour, etc., just as cheap for the ready cash as if the proprietor himself were present superintending the operation. -Our assertion about the Carrolltown chime of bells, which, by the way, arrived at the station here on Wednesday night, honor, now freely awarded by us, of having sonable advice-Lay in your winprecedence in that particular. He was of course severely bruised, but no bones were broken day following went to church at Wilmore, and he is now in a fair way of speedy re-

-We have received a lengthy communication from Gallitzin, signed "Fair Play," on the subject of Mr. Buckalew's course in the Senate last winter on the bill in reference to the ventilation of mines, but do not publish it this week, simply because we are of the opinion that the writer is in error, as we believe we can show if we can procure a complete report of Mr. Buckalew's late speech at Pottsville, a portion of which refers to the same subject about which our correspondent writes.

-The Johnstown Democrat of last week contains a very elaborate, but none the less deserved commendation of the artistic skill of Mr. James Wilkinson, marble manrks, Johnstown, was severely burnand few equals in his line of business .- married life and final parting, etc.,-all tain monuments of his skill and mechanical genius, and all of them are master-pieces of which Mr. Wilkinson may well feel proud. Work done by Mr. W. is well done, and that to at fair prices.

-Two weeks ago we said that Carrolltown was about to receive the first chime of bells ever brought to Cambria county; last week, on what we deemed reliable authority, we reiterated that assertion in the face of the Johnstown Democrat's denial of the claim; and this week we come down from our high horse and admit that the Democrat was right and we were wrongthat Cambria City is justly entitled to the honor, and that we have nothing more to say on the subject. There now !

-A stranger giving the name of John Curry and representing himself as a sailor by occupation and a native of New York, was struck by the Southern Express west on the Pa. R. R., about a mile east of Mineral Point, this county, at an early hour on Friday morning last, and was fatally injured. He was taken to Johnstown and his wounds attended to, but he died soon after. He was aged about twenty-six years, and was destitute of money. Mr. John Bloch, poor house director, took charge of the remains and had them decently interred.

SHOCKING SUICIDE AT GALLITZIN .- AN OLD MAN FOUND DEAD WITH HIS THROAT CUT .- The citizens of Gallitzin, as we learn from our venerable friend, Sam'l Craig, Esq., were horrified on Saturday evening last by the discovery that an old man named Wm. Cole, who for the past ten or twelve years has been living by himself in a small but comfortable cabin at that place, had committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, severing the windpipe and jugular vein, and no doubt causing death almost immediately and apparently without a struggle. The unfortunate man, who was a laborer by occupation, had not been seen since the previous Thursday evening, at which time he was slightly under the influence of liquor. and some of his neighbors becoming alarmed at his unusual absence from work, and probably supposing that sickness or some other mishap had befallen him, a party of them r paired to his cabin on Saturday evening for the purpose of solving the mystery. The door of the cabin was found to be bolted and barred, but entrance was readily effected through one of the windows, and there lying upon the floor face downwards were discovered the lifeless remains of the man they were seeking. Turning him over, the ghastly spectacle that presented itself may well be imagined, and whatever else might have been needed to complete the horrible picture was readily supplied by a bloody razor found within a few inches of the body. The deceased was between 55 and 60 years of age, and originally came from Chester county, where he is supposed to have relatives now residing. Little is known of him, as he was always very reticent in regard to himself. but all who knew him bear witness to the fact that he was a quiet, inoffensive, hardworking man, his only weakness being a fondness for liquor, which was no doubt the primary cause of his tragic death. An inquest was held by John Bradley, Esq., and the facts above given by our informant, Mr. Craig, who was a member of the jury, were then and there elicited. The remains were decently interred on land belonging to the deceased and near the scene of the shocking occurrence. A CONFIDENCE GAME WELL PLAYED .-An individual giving the name of Ray, claiming to be a farmer and drover and alleging that he lived a short distance north of this place, recently dawned upon the departments full of value and interest. Only farmers of Summerhill township and for One Dollar and a Half a year, or trial for two long weeks boarded around, free gratis three months for Twenty-Five Cents, which for nothing, under the plea that he was is less than cost. AN INTERVIEW WITH MOORE.-MANY COMPLAINTS BUT NO APPARENT REPENT-ANCE.-lu company with Sheriff Bonacker, and at the special solicitation of Michael Moore, now under sentence of death, we on Monday last visited the unfortunate man in his cell, and for a half hour or more listened to what he claimed to be a truthful account of his movements on the 24th, 25th and 26th -A new building for the new banking of last January, on which days it was shown on his trial that he was in Philadelphia and afterwards at Osceola, Clearfield county. His story in brief is that he was at work in Smith's coal bank at No. 3 on the day first named, as could have been proven by Chas. Woolford, Andrew Gillespie, Thomas Me-Creery, Robert McKim, John Myers, and others, had his lawyers (of whom he complained very bitterly, and, as all know who heard their earnest appeals in his behalf, very unjustly,) seen fit to summon them as witnesses; that he loaded a car of coal on that day, and then went home to Mineral Point. On the 25th, as his story goes, he went to Johnstown, where he bought a barrel of flour and three sacks of corn from Mr. Rankin, on Washington street, which flour and corn was manifested to him at the Viaduct, a day or two after; that next day he went to Portage Station on noon train, and took dinner at Peter McGongh's along with that gentleman and Wm. Flynn, who boarded with McGough; that while waiting dinner Mr. Flynn commenced writing, and while doing so asked McGongh what day of the month it was, and McGough replied that it was the 26th of January, and he (Moore) then remarked that that was his birth-day had some talk with McGough about buying farm, which I went to see after dinner, but said I could not get my money until April, has brought out a communication in this as I had it deposited as security for my week's Democrat from several citizens of wife's appearance to answer a suit at law Cambria City, in which they claim the told McGough to calculate the time from that date to 6th of April, which he did on one of the boards on the side of the house. This, and much else of like import, which would neither benefit the prisoner or interest our readers, was the burthen of his story, his entire purpose being, as he vainly hoped, to explain away some of the most convinc-ing evidence which led to his conviction, and to induce us and our readers to believe > be for the ignominious death which awaits The condemned man was afterwards, with his own consent, visited by two gentlemen representing the Johnstown Tribune and the Echo, to whom, in addition to the story told us, he made the following statement regarding the fatal trunk check and other matters of less importance: On the 26th of February I received a letter from Philadelphia, without signature, telling me to look out for a trunk which had been sent to Altoona for me. A strange man, I think from Somerset, read the letter for me in Johnstown. Did and while on my way there I found the trunk check lying in the snow near the head of the path leading from my house to Mineral Point, Picked up the check and noticed that it had a green mould on it. Put it in my pocket and thought no more about it until John Harris came into Hagan's house and said he wanted me to go to Johnstown with him. Asked him what he wanted .-He wouldn't tell me then, but did tell me outside of the house that he wanted me on a charge of murder for killing the woman found near Mineral Point. Moore then went on to tell when and where he first met Annie E. Boyle, how long it was time they lived together: denied th photograph found in the trunk was her likeness, or that the letters purporting to be from her were written by the said Annie E. Boyle, ufacturer of Loretto, who has no superior detailed other matters connected with their Many of the cemeteries of this county con- which we have not the necessary space, even if we had the inclination, to give in extense.

. ... BOY SHOT AND FATALLY INJURED. - One of those sad occurrences which occasionally loom up as a terrible warning against the careless handling of loaded firearms, and especially against permitting children to have uch dangerous weapons in their possession, happened near Lilly's Station, this county, on Sunday morning last. It seems that four lads varying in age from about eight to eleven years left the village on the morning stated for the purpose of hunting chestnuts, one of the elder boys taking with him an old musket heavily charged with powder and small stones. Some time after reaching the woods the boys seated themselves on the grass, when the lad with the musket commenced amusing himself by pounding the but end of the weapon on the ground, the barrel at the time extending through under his arm and pointing in the direction of one of the younger lads, a boy named Thomas Davey, son we believe of Mr. Bernard Davey. As a natural result of the pounding process, the gun was eventually discharged, the contents for the most part taking effect in one side of the face and neck of young Davey, lacerating him in a most shocking manner and inflicting injuries which the attending physician deems fatal, if indeed death has not ensued ere this. As may well be conceived, the other lads were greatly frightened, but they had presence of mind enough to attempt to convey the injured boy home. They only succeeded, however, either through fear or inability, in earrying him to the old Portage railroad embankment, where they left him, and where he shortly after attracted by motions the attention of a couple of gentlemen returning from church, who carried him to his home, where he was lying at last accounts, as we have intimated, in a precarious condition.

. ... FATAL FALL FROM A TREE. -On Sunday afternoon last a boy named Devine, aged about thirteen years, son of Mr. Thomas Devine, of Loretto, and nephew of our townsman, Mr. H. C. Devine, climbed up a willow tree in front of the post-office building in that place for the purpose of attempting the capture of a squirrel which he had seen ascending the tree, and in doing so ventured out too far upon one of the upper limbs, and the result was that the limb broke and young Devine came to the ground, and, alighting upon his head and shoulders, sustained injuries which culminated in his death on the following morning. When picked up by the bystanders he was found to be insensible, with blood issuing from his mouth and nose, and in this condition he was conveyed to his home, where he lingered without recovering consciousness until an early hour on Monday morning, as already stated. There seems to be a strange fatality attending Mr. Devine's family, one of his older sons having met with a violent death last May a year in consequence of the running away of a team he was driving, as noticed by us at the time. Another son had an arm broken and one of the daughters, we believe, is afflicted with deafness. Mr. Devine, who is a hard-working, inoffensive mechanic, has, in common with his bereaved family, the sympathies of all feeling hearts.

"Always Pure and High Toned." This is the volunteer endorsement of the Aristian Advocate on the "Peoples Monthly" of Pittsburgh, adding "it will do good wherever circulated. We hope it will rapidly take the place of the trashy Eastern papers." THE leaves are loosening from the trees, and gently to the ground are falling, and people wise who bargains seek at Huntley's store are calling; for there they find at lowest rates, stoves and pipes, and also grates, besides groceries fresh, the very best, and hardware, too, and all the rest of things that Huntley keeps in great array and sells to all who call that way at prices which none can e'er excel for cheapness, no matter where

THERE is great diversity of opinion among voters on the subject of politics, but there is none whatever among those who have had an opportunity to test the admirable qualities of the excellent flour kept for sale by E. J. Mills, at his flour and feed depot, High street, near the Diamond. All unite in expressing their entire satisfaction with the quality of Mills' flour, feed, groceries, etc., as well as with prices charged for the same.
