BURNED TO DEATH .- Another Warning. A young lady named Lizzie Albert, aged fifteen years and five months, was burned so seriously in Johnstown, on Thursday morning last, as to produce her death on Saurmorning the family went to church, leaving Miss Albert in charge of the house. She attempted to light a fire in the drawing room, and the kindling not igniting as rapidly as desired, she commenced pouring some carben oil upon it from a can, when an expliately enveloped her clothing. She immediately ran to the street and commenced rolling in the snow, and by that means exinguished the fiames. Several parsons who ran to her assistance were under the impression that although her clothing was almost consumed she was not seriously burned, as she walked unattended into the house. She immediately took her bed, however, and after lingering in great agony until Saturday evening, expired. It is presumed that inhaled the flames from her burning ment. This is another of the off-repeated warnings which those who are incautious in the handling of carbon oil should profit by.

The following is a list of tation of the District Court, which will be presented to the Legislature by our member of Assembly, Mr. Henry. The only hitch in the matter appears to be that the former Judges desire the Court to be remodeled in such a way as to retain the said officers, aithough they are satisfied that it is meet and proper that a new Clerk should be elected. A "respectable minority" contend that an entire new deal shall be made, and unless some satisfactory compromise can be agreed upon, there is a prospect that the matter will remain in statu quo. The probability is that "the friends of the Court" will "agree to disagree," in which event Mr. Henry will be placed in a quandary, as his most ardent upporters are among those who insist that he new bill shall provide for the election of new Judges. In the event of the latter beng successful, it may be put down as among the probabilities that Geo. M. Reade, Esq., of your town, will be solicited to become a SUMMERHILL TWP., Dec. 2, 1872. Dear Freeman-It has been some time since our last appearance in type; still we am not going to indite an apology about it, sickness ing a sufficient excuse for our silence .-However, we are pretty near well again, thanks to that excellent physician, Dr. F. FATAL ACCIDENT .- We have received amunications from two correspondents giving the details of an unfortunate affair which occurred nearMartinsburg on Thanksgiving day, and as both are equally well ritten and substantially agree as to the facts, we give the substance in our own language, in order that neither be slighted.

For some time back, one Stephen Burget, a resident of Huston township, has been engaged in hauling ore for the Cambria Iron ompany from the Springfield mines to Martinsburg. On Thanksgiving day he went Martinsburg with his ore, and afterward oaded his wagen with coal, for Springfield, we presume. While at Martinsburg Burget visited the hotels a little too often, and when he started for home was pretty badly intoxicated. He left Martinsburg between four and five o'clock p. m. and when about one and one-half miles north of that place, lost his balance and fell from the saddle herse. The heavy wagon passed directly over him, crushing his right arm, and-according to one of our correspondents-breaking one of Perrsaurion, PA , Sole Agent. his legs and crushing his breast. +0+ TAYLOR'S BUSINESS CHART .- We promised some weeks ago to give a description of Taylor's Business Chart of Ebensburg. when completed, and as it has been finished and and placed in position in the office of the Mountain House, where all can view it and criticise it at leisure, we will merely say that it is gotton up on canvass, securely framed, and in size six feet high by ten in length There are only sixteen advertisements on the Chart, and embracing as it does nearly all of our live business men, it is a correct finger board for parties wishing to make purchases of almost any kind. The chart is cautifully arranged, tastefully colored and ness represented. Prominent among the cards are S. Suitzbach, eigar manufacturer, Lloyd & Co., Bankers, Geo. Hantley, Geo. C. K. Zahm, E. J. Mills, Myers & Lloyd, J. Patton Thompson, and C. T. Roberts, merchants, L. & S. W. Davis, Book and J. Donovan and "Frenchy's" oyster saloon,

A. A. Barker & Son, dealers in lumber, shooks, shingles, etc.; also one card for the carriage shop of A. A. Barker & Son; D. E. Evans, manufacturer of boots and shoes, A. Blain, barber and hair-dresser, and Richard L. Davis, boot and shoe-maker. The designer and painter of this, the best and most conspicuous advertisement ever gotten up in our town, is R. Nelse Taylor, who makes this cusiness a specialty, and we can truly say gives entire satisfaction to all who patronize nim. We understand he is about going to Huntingdon, where we bespeak for him a large and splended Chart. ...

KILLED INSTANTLY .-- A young lad named Watson McClelland, nephew of Commissioner McClelland, aged thirteen years, met with a sudden death while at his employ-ment as engineer at the merchant mills of the C. I. Co., in Johnstown, on Thursday last. While playing with several other boys in the vicinity of the fly-wheel of his engine, he tripped and fell against one of the spokes the wheel, which was revolving rapidly, and was carried around one revolution and thrown with great force against an oil cupboard, some twenty feet distant. The force of the concussion killed him instantly, al though no bones were apparently broken. The unfortunate lad was the son of a widow, his father having died suddenly about four months ago.
