

CAMBRIA FREEMAN. EBENSBURG, PA., Morning, - - July 25, 1873. LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A man named McDonald was shamefully beaten by a couple of roughs at Fountain Mills, Westmoreland county, on Friday last, because he disclosed a plot to rob a store in the vicinity, which he had overheard the two villains concocting between themselves.

Patrick Moreland's wife fell from a cherry tree on their farm near Allegheny Forge, Blair county, on Monday afternoon, and fractured both of her arms at the wrists, besides sustaining other severe injuries. Mrs. Moreland resides at Bennington.

Our much esteemed and highly competent clerical friend, James P. Murphy, has just left the Car Record Office, Altoona, for the purpose of accepting the position of clerk on a railroad now being constructed by the Erie by our late townsman, Phil. Collins, Esq. May prosperity ever attend him.

A man named Hugh Kane, while being drawn out of a well which he was engaged in digging in North Mahoning township, Indiana county, about two weeks ago, was overcome by foul air or gas, and falling from the bucket to the bottom of the well, a distance of about fifteen feet, was suffocated before he could be rescued.

Remember that the "Hayes Quartette," as the "Old Folks," in the quaint costumes of one hundred years ago, will appear this (Friday) evening at the Court House, and to-morrow evening at the Court House, for the purpose of their sweet singing, go anyhow and see how it is about the old woman with the big fire-scuttle on her head, so profusely portrayed in their large bills.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. STRAY MULE.—Strayed from the Towns of S. H. Smith, Esq., in Washington Township, a dark gray MARE MULE, about 4 feet 4 inches in height, with a cut in the left ear, about 8 inches long, two white spots on her neck and mane, and trimmed. Has a left hind leg injured. Any information that will lead to the recovery of said mule will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded. JOHN LEAP, Hemlock, July 25, 1873.
