Those who know themselves indebted in any way to this office are earnestly requested to "pick up" as soon as possible. We are open for peaceable proceedings of kind and kind of the 23rd of September court. After that date all who are for one year's subscription or up to one to a like extent for advertising, may expect to receive a statement of their respective accounts per postal note, and that the same will follow. We have not had long for our own and, come what will, we are determined to bring matters down to a fine point.

The postal card threat made above has its terror to a few of the fact that our readers are forbidden to do such unless they contain obscene matter. It is of course they can always find means of our business.

There, and the Other Place.
 Belmont on the Nile—juvenile—very funny. The young man, who is a very fine fellow, is at the Belmont House, Cresson, is so well known to all kinds of goods are much to be seen. —Mr. Jacob Hamilton, of Johnstown, has a scarlet geranium, four feet high, the head of which is three feet in diameter, and which on a recent date displayed at one and a half million flowers.

—In a corner of our edition last week we noticed the fact that a young lady named Martha Butler, of Cooperdale, had been severely burned by her clothes taking fire from a cook stove, on Wednesday afternoon previous. We have learned nothing since, and we are inclined to believe that she could not recover.

—The coal miners in and about Gallitzin, to the number of two hundred and fifty or more, have quit work on account of a proposed reduction in mining rates of ten cents on the ton—that is, from 70 to 60 cents, and from 60 to 50 cents per ton, according to vein. All the strikers have gone to work at Lilly's Station and elsewhere, for which, if not for striking, they deserve the encomiums of all.

Blair and Huntingdon counties are to have a big thing at Summitville, Pa., on Tuesday, 19th inst., weather permitting. If not, then on the Thursday following. A grand picnic and a glorious time generally is anticipated, with "two glass lager and a good deal of beer" thrown in promiscuously and abundantly as concomitants. May we be there to see.

—Rev. Father Ryan, of Gallitzin, was on Monday last accidentally thrown backward out of a low-backed buggy, in consequence of the horse giving a sudden lurch to the right. The driver, John Cresson, from Cresson to Loretto, and falling to the ground, sustained a severe compound fracture of the left shoulder. Rev. McHugh, of Wilmore, was riding with him at the time, but maintained his position intact.

General news.—Up in small package young friend, S. R. Riddle, of this county, and the envy of "tother kind"—has presented us with a box of most excellent cigars, which we take great pleasure in puffing. For a similar brand and various other brands, we refer to this county, where you can get them at the lowest rates, call at the Postoffice building, or at the cigar store, High street. No stock in the county exceeds it in quantity or quality.

—Cresson revelled in a phantom ball on Saturday night last, about thirty-five young and middle aged and of both sexes, being present in a hall of 25 feet by 40 feet, some three hundred, more or less, and various "country folk." Ourself included, being the spectators. By way of a change, phantom balls are a success, but if we had a choice between a phantom ball and a fish ball, we would take the fish ball—codfish.

Yesterday afternoon week a young man named John Rourke, a resident of Altoona, was precipitated from the top of a building tower of St. John's Catholic church, at Altoona, Pa., by a fall of a distance of about sixty feet. Strange as the only outward injuries received were a broken arm and a dislocated shoulder. The attending physician feared that he had received internal injuries sufficient to cause his death, and he is now said to be in a fair way of recovery.

—On Sunday afternoon last, says the Brookville Journal of last week, a woman named Shannahan, the wife of a laborer on the railroad, living near Bell's dam, was thrown from a wagon, and killed. The woman was asked her name, and she said it was about a year old, and after placing the child in the care of her neighbor, she deliberately walked out to the dam and jumped into the water. The stream being very high, she was thrown by the dam, and her body was found by some boys on the bank of the river.

—A young man named James Albert James, whose home is in Cambria township, fell dead from a wagon laden with lumber, a short distance this side of Wilmore, Tuesday last. He was subject to heart disease, and he had been suffering for some time. His father was walking in the rear of the wagon at the time and was not aware of the sad fate which had befallen his son until he saw him fall to the ground.

The funeral of the late John Cresson, interment at Lloyd's cemetery, this county.

—It is a big feature in the cap of the Cambria County Insurance Company to say, as we have the authority of the gentlemanly Secretary, T. W. Dick, Esq., for saying, that during an existence of sixteen years he has never been called upon to make slight assessments. It is one of the cheapest and safest companies in which to insure, and makes a specialty of farm buildings and isolated dwellings. During the month of July $60,000 insurance were effected on account of late losses. No assessments of any kind were made.

—We were made glad for a few hours on Tuesday by the welcome presence of our genial friend, Mr. M. A. Murray, of West Philadelphia, who accompanied by Mr. Geo. Nagel, of the same place, and "this," visited Ebensburg especially to see us and "our" n. Mr. Murray landlords it over the Crittenden House, W. Phila., has a good wife and a sweet "olive branch," takes the "Freeman," having paid for it from the Crittenden House, W. Phila., and is about as clever and whole-souled a gentleman as ever "smiled a smile or winked a wink." Peace be with him.

—Two sisters named Elizabeth and Martha McIntyre were, as we learn from the Pittsburgh Courier, attending the convention of the Pennsylvania Female Association, at Philadelphia, Pa., on Saturday last, when they were severely injured by a falling tree.

STANTIAL—BLUCK WILL WIN A LITTLE KNOWLEDGE IS A DANGEROUS THING.
 (From Our Special Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, July 30, 1873.

A LESSON LEARNED.

The New York Board of Underwriters has formally announced that on and after the 1st of January, 1874, all buildings in this city having frame Mansard roofs will be subject to an extra insurance charge of one per cent, in addition to the usual rate, with the exception of dwelling houses, which will be subject to the further action of the Board in regard to rates. All the Fire Underwriters of the city are expected to operate in accordance with the New York insurance interest in the effort to prevent the erection of wooden Mansards, and the perils of such structures are pointed out in the following extracts from the Chicago and Boston dispatches are accordingly learned, and very effectively learned. Property owners who reject reasonable suggestions of Catholic churches. Can any other clergyman say as much.

NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The cornerstone of a new Catholic church was recently laid according to the solemn ceremonial of the Catholic church by Dr. Chadwick, of June, in the presence of a large number and vast numbers of people from Corwith and the vicinity witnessed the ceremony. The church is of Gothic style, 122 by 41 feet. The site is very picturesque, halfway between Corwith and West Corwith, and while complete it will be a conspicuous object to the eye. A YOUNG LADY OUTRAGED NEAR JOHNSTOWN.—Wednesday evening's Johnstown Voice gives the following particulars of an outrage committed on the daughter of a prominent man well known in this vicinity, who has been recently employed on a branch road and residing at the corner of Bradley's Station. The victim of this heinous crime is innocent and unsuspecting as a child, and that she fell an easy prey to the lecherous brute is therefore not to be wondered at. Hengley, who is a widower aged about 40 years, who lives at Johnstown, his home being at Irwin Station, where he was employed as a coal miner. The Voice says:

About seven o'clock Monday evening, Mary Doyle, a seventeen-year-old daughter of Felix Doyle, living in Cambria county, started on her way to her father's house, a distance below that place. Upon her way she was met by a young man named Patrick Haughey, who, she alleged, asked her where she was going and upon entering into conversation, turned around, remarking he was going that way himself. While walking along with her he used all the arts of flattery in his power, and as she was his winning manner persuaded her to walk on past the house where she intended to stop. After they had walked some distance she saw that she had been deceived, and she was forced her by the railroad, and then by sheer strength accomplished his hellish purpose, her screams and cries not being heard.

The young man, who is now said to be in a fair way of recovery.
