EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1873.

Terms, $2 per year, In advance.

YOLUME VII.

BUYERS ouse-Furnishing STORE.

d respectfully informs the aburn and the public gener-ade a GREAT REDUCTION NG and REAPING MACHINES

AND HEATING STOVES esigns and of all styles, I qualities:

URDWARE, ALL KIND! ews. Butt Hinges, Shutter s. Botts, fron and Nails, Table Knives and Forks, Forks, Pocket Knives, Taand Forks, Pocket Knives, Tase, Meat Cutters, Apple Parers, hazors and Strops, Hammers, foring Machines, Augurs, Chispasses, Squares, Files, Rusps, caches, Rip, Panel and Crossof all kinds, Shovels, Spades, has lockes, Forks, Sleigh-Bells, wax, Bristios, Clothes Washbeaut Charms and Patons Grind Stones, Patent Mo-ores, Lumber Sticks, Cast Revolvers, Pistols, Car-band, Horse Shoes and Grates and Fire Bricks, Ser, Ne.: d Saddlery Ware eat variety; ILLOW WARE and OIL LAMPS. occal Oit, Lubricating Oil, critishes, Turpeutine, Al-ced Ware, Glassware, &c.

Groceries. Sugars, Syrups Molasses, Dried Apples, Hominy, bacco and Cigars. ich, Scrutt, Horse, Shoe, and Tooth Brushes, al

SE SPOUTING A liberal discount made to

I not chill. ill not quat. equal to the best Lard Oil. on have any kind of Machinesk for OLENA; and if you ot buy it at home, send for a ular and price list to AINE, ABLETT & TRIPP. MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS No. 369 Penn Auenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

A CARD. URG WOOLEN FACTORY

ed parties have been reporting in bern part of this county that our acturing Wooten Goods, &c. of the public to publish the LIST OF PRICES.

.. 50 ets. per yard. oluning 20 cts. per lb M. JONES & SONS, Ebensburg Woolen Factory

LUUPAND AT IT! MAKING AND UNDERTAKING.

at Oberal favors, the subscricat Oberal favors, the subscriterm the people of Ebensburg he astill carrying on the busal in all its branches, on High existe the Public School House.
As Farmitire of all kind sold Collins of any desirable size on short notice, and funerroughly and satisfactority.

ROBERT EVANS.
reh 21, 1873.-6m.

ELENSBURG OLEN FACTORY!

new machinery into our ce are now prepared to notice, CLOTHS, CASSIchange for goods or M. JUNES & SUNS desires to inform the citi-"F. Stoem and Tools, and will is respectfully solicited

COLUMN RESIDE

'n eschange for work. WM, H. JONES. WI 5, 1813, $* [11-6m.] JOHNSTON & CO.,

NKERS. bensburg, Pa.

LO. C. E. ZAHM, Cashier, & CO., BANKERS, EBENSBURG, PA. vernment Leans, and and sold. Interest al-

the United States, and a

LLOYD & CO. BANKIBIS, ALTOONA, PA. clish etties and Silver and tettions made. Monies re-nyable on demand without with interest at fair rates. DICK, ATTOENET AT-LAW, Eby

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WORKING CLASS MALE OR FEMALE, $60 a week guaranteed. Respectable employment at home, day or evening; no capital required; full instructions and valuable package of goods sent free by mail. Address, with six cents return stamp, M. YOUNG & CO., 173 Greenwich-st., N. Y.

DOMESTIC" Agents Wanted.

DOMESTIC SEWING MACHINE CO., NEW YORK

Breech-loading St.ot Guns, $40 to $300. Double Shot Guns, $8 to $150. Single Guns, $3 to $20. Rifles, $8 to $75. Revolvers, $6 to $25. Pistols, $1 to $8. Gun Material, Fishing Tackle. Large discount to Dealers or Clubs. Army Guns, Revolvers, &c., bought or traded for. Goods sent by express C.O.D., to examine before paying for

PAR ICE RAFT An Official and Thrilling History of The POLARIS EXPEDITION

Under the late Capt, HALL, his untimely death, remarkable recous of the crew from a floating field of ice. Also, a History of all the Expedi-tions to the Arctic World from Earliest Times. Profusely illustrated. Agents Wanted. Address PHILALELPHIA BOOK COMPANY, PHILA.

NEVER Neglect a Cough. Nothing is more certain to lay the foundation for future evil consequences.

WELLS' CARBOLIC TABLETS are a sure cure for all diseases of the Respira-tory Organs. Sore Throat, Colds, Croup, Dip-theria, Asthma, Catarrh, Hoarseness, Dryness of the Throat, Windpipe, or Bronchial Tubes, and all Diseases of the Lungs.

In all cases of sudden cold, however taker, these TABLETS should be promptly and freely used. They equalize the circulation of blood, mitigate the severity of the attack, and will, in a very short time restore healthy article to the severity of the attack, and will, in a very short time restore healthy article to the same and putting his feet on the plazza, unfolded a newspaper. Miss Becky Newton bit her lip and went on with the severity of the attack, and will, in a very short time restore healthy article to the plazza. t very short time, restore healthy action to the tations, Sold by druggists. Price 25 cts, per box, JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt-st., N. York, Send for Circular. Sole Agent for U. States.

CANVASSING BOOKS SENT FREE FOR THE

Five Years in the Territories. he only complete history of that vast region stween the Mississippi and the Pacific: Its Re-surces, Climate, Inhabitants, Natural Carlosi rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. did not yet know how intensite loved rapid flood beneath she soon left asicep. The shifting experience, etc., NATIONAL PUBLISHING COM- orical embellishments, and on being Had she possessed any power of fores. Fred Eckerson. Besides she did not

It is specially adapted to constitutions "worn Jown" and debilitated by the warm weather of Spring and Summer, when the blood is not in active circulation, consequently gathering im-purities from sluggishness and imperfect action the secretive organs, and is manifested by mors. Eruptions, Blotches, Beils, Pustules, When weary and languid from overwork, and of energy and vigor, the system needs a Tonic to build it up and help the Vital Forces to reproducing weakness of stomach and intestines and a predisposition to bilious derangement.

Dr. Well's EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA is prepared directly from the SOUTH AMERICAN PLANT, and is peculiarly suited to all those difficulties; it will cleanse the VITLATED BLOOD, strengthen the LIFE-GIVING POWERS, and RE-MOVE ALL OBSTRUCTIONS from IMPAIRED AND

It should be freely taken, as Jurubeba is proin the whole range of medical plants.

JOHN O. KELLOGG, IS Platt St. N. Y.,

Sole Agent for the United States.

Price One Dollar per Bottle. Send for Circular.

DIPLOMA awarded by the AMER-ICAN INSTITUTE to J. W. MCKEE for Embroidering and Fluting Machines. "It is ingenious and will meet the wants of every matron in the land." EXHIBITION OF 1872.

John E. Gavit, Rec. Sec. F. A. Barnard, Pres. Sam'l D. Tiliman, Corresponding Sec'y, New York, November 20, 1872. This simple and ingenious Machine is as useful as the Sewing Machine, and is fast becoming popular with hidies, in the place of expensive Needle-work, its work being much more hand-some, requiring less time and not one-tenth part the expense. No lady's tollet is now complete without it. A machine with illustrated circular and full instructions sent on receipt of 82, or finished in silver plate for $2.75.

Address, The McKee Manufacturing Co.,

O Broadway, New York. [9-5.-cow6m.] DR. GARVIN'S ELIXER OF TAR is recommended by regular Medical practitioners and speedy cure guaranteed for Colds, Coughs, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Consumption and all Pulmonary Complaints. Serofula, Erysipelas, Dyspepsia and Gout. Dysentery, Cholera-morbus, Cholera, and all liver and bowel complaints. Kidney diseases and all affections of the Urinal Organs diseases and all affections of the Uribal Organs —perfectly harmless—free from Mineral or Aicoholic properties—pleasant to take and aever known to fail. Price $1 per Bottle. Full particulars, with medical testimony and certificates, sent on application. Address L. F. HYDE & Co., 195 Seventh Avenue, New York. [cow.]

DARTS FROM THE DEVIL: or Cupid the "Personals" that have appeared in New the "PERSONALS" that have appeared in New York Newspapers; their history and lessons. Stylish Villains fully exposed. Advertisements from desperatement to beautiful women; Ciandestine meetings; how frustrated. The History of the Goodrich Tragely, the result of a "personal." Description of Laving Broadway Stators. Exposes social corruption. Sent on receipt of 50 cents. Address, Unique Printing House, 35 Nesey St., N. Y. [9-5.-cow.]

WANTED.—We will give BUSINESS THAT WILL PAY from $4 to $8 per day. Can be pursued in your own neighborhood. It is a rare chance for those

KEADE, Attorney-at-Law, WILLIAM KITTELL, Attorney-allow such a chance of becoming a low such a

IF WE WOULD.

If we would but check the speaker When he spoils his neighbor's fame, If we would but help the erring

Ere we utter words of blame; If we would, how many might we Tear from paths of sin and shame!

Ah, the wrong that might be righted If we would but see the way! Ah, the pains that might be lightened Every hour and every day, If we would but hear the pleadings

Of the hearts that go astray. Let us step outside the stronghold Of our selfishness and pride; Let us lift our fainting brothers, Let us strengthen ere we chide;

Hold a light to cheer and guide. Ah, how blessed-ah, how blessed Earth would be if we'd but try Thus to aid and right the weaker, Thus to check each brother's sigh; Thus to talk of duty's pathway

Let us, ere we blame the fallen,

To our better life on high. In each life, however lowly, There are seeds of mighty good; Still, we shrink from souls appealing With a timid "If we could;" But a God who judges all things

LOVE ON A LOG.

Knows the truth is, "If we would."

"Miss Becky Newton." "Well, sir."

"Will you marry me?" "No, I won't."

"Very well, then don't, that's all." Mr. Fred Eckerson drew away his chair and putting his feet on the piazwas going to be the last of it. She had felt this proposal coming for near-Wells' Carrente organs.

Wells' Carrente Tablets are put up only in blue bases. Take no substitutes. If they can't be found at your druggists, send at once to the Agent in New York, who will forward them by return mail. Boa't be Beceived by Imitations, Schille deliberations. ticipated was not at all like this. She had intended to refuse him, but it was to be done gracefully. She was to remain firm, notwithstanding his most eager entreaties. She was to have she could never be more than an apcould have cried with vexation. "You will never have a better as he deliberately turned over the ports. "A better chance for what?" she asked shortly.

"A better chance to marry a young. good-looking man, whose gallantry to the sex is only exceeded by his bravery in their defence." Fred was quoting from his newspaper, but Miss Newton did not know it.

"And whose egotism is only exceeded by his impudence," retorted the

"Before long," continued Fred, "you gain their recuperative ower.

In the heat of Summer frequently the Liver and Splem do not property perform their functions; the Uterine and Urinary Organs are imetive, chances, you know are getting slim-"Sir!"

> you are ineligible. You will grow old and wrinkled, and _____" "Such rudeness to a lady, sir, is monstrous!" exclaimed Miss Newton, nounced by medical writers the most efficient PURIFIER, TONIC and DEOBSTRUENT known rising hastily and flushing to the tem-

"I'll give you a final opportunity, Miss Becky. Will you mar-" "Not if you were the king of England." interrupted Miss Newton, throwing down her work. "I am not accustomed to such insults, sir." And so saying she passed into the house and slammed the door behind her. "She is never as handsome as when she is in a rage," thought Fred to himself after she had gone, as he slowly folded up his paper and replaced it in his pocket. "I was a fool to goad her so. I shall never win her in that way. But I'll have her," he exclaimed aloud. "By heaven! I'll have her, cost what it may."

Very different was the Fred Eckerson of the present, pacing nervously up and down the piazza, from Fred Eckerson of a few moments ago, receiving his dismissal from the woman he loved with such a calm and imperturbable exterior. For he loved Becky Newton with all his heart. The real difficulty in the way, as he more than half suspected, was not so much in himself as in his pocket. Becky Newton had an insuperable objection to an empty wallet. The daughter of a wealthy Louisiana planter, reared in luxury, and the recipient of a weekly allowance of pin money sufficient to pay Fred's whole bills, for a whole turn completely over and tip them off. its branches in the brown flood. Quick an average?" month, she had no immediate idea of At last she said:

changing her situation for one of less comfort and independence. Besides, it had been intimated to her that a shall go on to New Orleans," he reneighboring planter of unusually aris- plied. tocratic lineage had looked upon her Office on front room of T.

Of in her present mercenary state of mind, for a long distance is not to be ne- the projecting branch, dragging his For the street. All Particulars free.

Address Sept. 5.-6t. 202 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

In another gleeted. You can go ashore if you clinging burden after him. In another gleeted. You can go ashore if you clinging burden after him. In another gleeted. You can go ashore if you clinging burden after him. In another missant the cottonwood had broken instant the cottonwood had broken above.

Becky was really so indifferent to Fred me so." Eckerson, why did she run up stairs after that interview, and take the her closer to him, quickly-"cruel to very nearly precipitated into the starch all out of her nice clean pillow- you?" shams by crying herself into hysterics on the bed? It was not all wrath, not all vexation, not all pique. There Newton's heart, a feeling very much akin to remorse. She was not sure was dependent on a man. that she would not one day be sorry doubt she could be very happy as Fred Eckerson's wife, after all.

"But then," she cried, growing hot with the recollection, "he was so rude neighborhood." and so insulting! I could never live with such a man-never!"

When Fred Eckerson had walked he concluded to take a look at the way." river. The Mississippi, which flowed within five hundred yards of the house, bid waters, rushing swiftly toward the sea, had nearly filled the banks and, in many places had broken through the levees and flooded the lowlands for many miles. A crevasse of this description has been made in the far- he replied. ther bank, nearly opposite the house. and the windows of the Newton mansion commanded a view of a vast and glittering inland sea, not laid down on the map. The main current of the another chance." stream bore upon its coffee-colored bosom an enormous mass of floating timber, which was dashed along in the boiling flood, rendering navigation wholly impossible. The waters were still rising, and the frequent crashes far and near told of the undermining she would have accepted him or not. power of the current, as sections of the sandy banks succumbed and diswhich overhung the stream. coincidence, Miss Newton also resolved | and decrepit planters, and she recog-Undeveloped WEST told him that, though respecting his to look at the river. She dried her nized the fact that a man who could Scenery, Lands, People and Curtosities of the Great West. Agents are selling from 15 to 25 feet. But instead, he had asked her upon the grass, and lulled by the quite washed out of her soul, and she nervously. The simple question, without any rhet-rapid flood beneath she soon fell asleep. did not yet know how much she loved "Fred!" answered, had plunged at once into seeing the future, it would have been half believe him. his newspaper, as though he had mere- the last thing she would have done, with the soft surlight flittering through

"Well!"

"Where am I?" asked Becky, shivering and looking around her. "You are in the middle of the Mis-"It won't be a great while before in the fork of a cottonwood tree, and > carry you." "How came you here?" elf, Miss Becky. In fact, you and I plantation, which I fear is lost to him Becky was silent. She was thinking, not of the accident or their perilous position, but of her appearance when she was lying asleep on the

"How long were you there before this happened?" she asked.

the tree when you came !" "You had no right to be up there," she said, coloring, "a spy upon my "Nonsense!" he replied, "You in-truded upon my privacy, and while you slept I watched over you like the sweet little cherub that sits up aloft." "Thank you for the service, I'm sure," she said, bridling. "You snored awfully."

"Mr. Eckerson, remove your arm from my waist." "Then put yours around my neck."

"Indeed, I shall do no such thing." "You will fall into the river if you Becky was silent for a few moments, while the unwieldy raft whirled along in the current, rolling from side to shot suddenly under a large sycamore side, and threatening every instant to which overhung the bank and trailed master to one of his pupils, "what is

"What are we to do?"

"To New Orleans!" exclaimed was old and ugly, but he was rich, and "Yes, and the chance of a free ride With a sudden spring Fred gained a hundred and twenty eggs a year."

"Cruel," exclaimed Fred, drawing

There was no help for it, and she again relapsed into silence, quite con- to the trunk by a series of gymnastics tent, apparently, to remain in Fred's that would have done no discredit to was somewhere deep down in Becky arms, and evincing now no disposi- Blondin, and in a moment more both tion to rebel. For once in her life she had reached the ground in safety.

"I want to go to New Orleans," for what she had done. She had no continued Fred, after a pause, "be- breath. "Now where are we?" cause there is a young lady of my acquaintance residing there whom I have an intention of inviting into this them, a short distance from where lived very happily together for a time. "Oh !"

"If we don't go to New Orleans, and if we get safe out of this scrape, off some of his feelings on the piazza, I shall write for her to come any-of its regular "spring rise." It's tur- as long as I remain your father's again guest. I can ride over after breakfast every morning you see.'

"I shall obtain board for her in St.

"She is an intimate friend, then," said Becky.

"I expect to marry her before long," "Marry her! Why you-you proposed to me this morning." "Yes, but you refused me. I told that cottonwood log, with his feet in It was Becky who spoke first. the water and his arm around her waist, proposed to her a second time, To be sure a marvellous change had not? come over Becky's feelings since her one strong arm like that which sup- else to sav. Now it happened that by a curious ported her was worth a thousand old

Their clumsy vessel floated on, young lady in New Orleans?" ly inquired the time of day. She for although it was very pleasant now root first, now sideways, and now dropping asleep there in the shade, half submerged beneath the boiling current. Their precarious hold be- fore you-before you write?" chance," he continued, after a pause, the leaves overhead, the awakening came more uncertain as their frames was not at all to her mind. A terri- became chilled by the cold water, and and opened them wide. sheet to find the latest telegraph re- ble crash made chaos of her dreams; every plunge of the log threatened to the tall cottonwood toppled and fell; cast them once more into the river. and Miss Becky Newton found herself In vain Fred endeavored to attract night," said Becky, bending low to called her, and got no invitations out to immersed in the cold flood, with her the attention of some one on the hide her face, and carefully separating tea. She was totally ignorant of the demouth full of muddy water. In a shore. The cottonwood retained a the fringe of her mantilla, "that-per-lights of shopping, and never attended a moment more, somebody's arm was course nearly in the middle of the haps-if you asked me again the same matinee in all her life. When she went around her and she felt herself lifted stream, too far from either bank to question-that you did yesterday out to promenade she never looked around up and placed in the sunshine, though render their outcries of much avail. morning-I might answer a little dif- to see what other women had on. precisely where, she was as yet too As it grew dark their situation seemed ferent. bewildered to know. Getting her eyes | more and more helpless, and to Becky open at last, she found Fred Ecker- there appeared to be no escape from shoulder, and her face became imme- bothered with a "hired girl." She didn't son's whiskers nearly brushing her face. certain death, either by drowning in diately lost to view. the darkness, or by exhaustion before ed not wholly a terror. She could wholly a myth. But when, may I ask, the kitchen steps. hardly think, if death must come, of did you change your mind?" sissippi," replied Fred, "and you are any way in which she would rather in the fork of a cottonwood tree, and meet it. Was it possible she loved mered. "I have loved you all the Mexico just as fast as the freshet can within the valley of the shadow benight." fore she could know her heart? Had she loved him all along? While she Eckerson is asked where it was that "In the same conveyance with your- was thinking about it, chilled by the she fell in love with her husband, she night air, she fell asleep. When she answers "on a log!" and the tree all came together, to say awoke the stars were out, but she was nothing of a portion of your father's warm and comfortable. Raising her head, she found herself enveloped in

Fred's coat. "Fred!"

"Well!" "You have robbed yourself to keep me warm. You are freezing." "No I ain't. I took it off because it was so awful hot;" and, taking out his handkerchief with his disengaged "As long as you were. I was up in hand, he made a pretense of wiping the perspiration from his brow. "How long have I been asleep?" "About three hours. We are drifting ashore now."

"Shall we be saved?"

"I don't know. Put your arms around my neck, for I am going to take mine away."

Becky did this time as she was bid. She did not only throw her arms quickly around his neck, but laid her head upon his breast without the slightest hesitation. In the darkness Fred did not know that she imprinted a kiss upon his shirt bosom.

"Hold fast, now!" he cried. "Hold on for dear life !" The log had been gradually nearing the shore for some time, and it now as thought Fred seized the limb above his head and pulled with all his might, ar, promptly, "that hens lay eggs on. "I think, now that I am started, I The headlong course of the cottonwood was checked; it plunged heavily boy?" inquired the pedagogue. and partly turned over; its top bea terrific crackling of limbs ensued. as how a hen would lay, on an average, instant the cottonwood had broken man like when he pops the question? June, Berry, I'll kick your rasp, Berry, away and continued its voyage down Acquiescence.

But alas for human nature! If "You are cruel," she said, "to treat | the river, while the bent sycamore regained its shape with such a quick bound that the two travelers were half dragging Becky, worked his way

"That is a business we are well out of," he said, when he had regained his

He looked about. A light was glimmering from a habitation behind they stood. Becky could not walk her lightly in his arms and started for with dressmaker's bills. She wasn't torwas at that time nearly at the height Jean, which will be convenient for me and shelter Becky was soon herself shoes (she made a slip, but she couldn't day, Fred having procured the loan of | wouldn't have known how to make back the planter's horse and chaise for that | numbers available. It never occurred to purpose, promising to return them by her to go into the lecture-field, and as for Mr. Newton's servants the day after. voting, she did not know what it meant, The morning was bright and clear, If they were going out to an evening party and the fragrance of the orange groves was in the air. Becky, who had maintained almost utter silence since their you then you would never have escape from the cottonwood, was no less silent now. Fred himself did not Becky was silent again. It is a appear particularly communicative, matter of some doubt whether, had and many miles of the long ride were Fred at that moment, sitting astride taken without a remark from either.

"Fred," she said.

"Yes!"

appeared, carrying with them the trees tumble into the river. She felt that marked, not knowing exactly what band in hand, discussing the improvements

"I thank you very much."

"Quite welcome, I'm sure." manly worth and upright character, tears, and putting on her hat, slipped talk so coolly and unconcernedly in a broken only by the sound of the for what we know. out by the back door to avoid Fred, situation of such extreme peril was horse's hoofs upon the road. Fred preciative friend. She had intended and soon found herself at the foot of of no ordinary courage. But she was himself seemed to have lost some of Eve employed herself when not wandering to shed a few tears, perhaps, as he a huge cottonwood tree on the bank not yet quite prepared to give up her his habitual ease, for he kept his whip in Eden. There was no sewing society for

"Yes!" "Are you going to write to that "I s'pose so." "Hadn't you-better try again-be-He turned his eyes full upon her,

"Try again; try what?"

Becky's head went against Fred's never intended to do otherwise. The of changing the kitchen girls every week, Yet to die in this man's arms seem- young lady in New Orleans was and there were no "fellers" hanging around

"I have never changed it," she mur-

And to this day, when Mrs. Becky

SARATOGA lawyers are unequal to the exercise of a complete dance, and this is the way they manage to slide out. "Eli Perkins" is our authority. The young lady is introduced to the substitute with the following casual to have and to hold in trust, one-half dress, and from that early period until the of my right, title and claim, and my present, that love has gradually increased advantage, in a dance known as a son, with all her hair, paniers, grass- founded a very extensive family. Besides 'Railroad Galop,' with Amelia Johnhopper bend, rings, fans, belt, hairpins, the Massachssetts Adams, the entire husmelling bottle, with all the right and man family may trace back to Mr. and advantages therein; with full power to Mrs. Adam, if their traces are long enough. have, hold, encircle, whirl, toss, wig- We don't learn that Eve cut up very much gle, push, jam, squeeze, or otherwise after that affair in the garden. If she use-except to smash, break, or other- 'raised Cain' it was because Cain was wise damage and with right to tempo- tough and hearty. If he had been a sickly rarily convey the said Amelia Johnson, child perhaps she wouldn't have been able her hair, rings and paniers, and other to raise him. articles heretofore or hereinafter mentioned, after such whirl, squeeze, wiggle, jam, etc., to her natural parents now living, and without regard to any The well known antipathy to telling her deed or deeds or instruments, of what- age which characterizes women in all ages ever kind or nature soever, to the con- and under every clime, may perhaps actrary in anywise notwithstanding."

"JAMES JENKINS," said a school-

"A thing, sir," answered the schol-"Why do you say that, you foolish

"Because, sir," said the youth, "I came entangled in the sycamore, and heard a gentleman say the other day

NUMBER 33. MOTHER EVE. BY THE "FAT CONTRIBUTOR."

In writing the biographies of eminent stream again. Fred, half supporting, women it is eminently fit that we begin with mother Eve herself. Eve belonged to one of our first families-in fact, the very first. She was related to the first man on the Adam side, although she had deep cause to lament that she ever left Adam's side. Philosophers who have probed deep into the subject connect Eve's early career as a rib with the female fondness for a ribbon. Eve became Mrs. Adam, and they There was no other woman for her to be without great pain, and Fred lifted jealous of, and her husband wasn't pestered the house. It proved to be the dwell- tured by discovering love letters from uning of a small planter, who was not known females in Adam's coat tail pocket lacking in hospitality. Here their and Adam never blew her up because his wants were quickly attended to, and buttons weren't sewed on. Eve never saw under the cheering influence of warmth a fashion plate, never wore high-heeled make a slipper,) or chignons; and if there They drove home on the following had been lots of newspapers printed, she she didn't keep Adam waiting for her until he was ready to Adam everything, and he was never known to come home with another man's hat or overcoat on. How Eve could live without another woman to gossip with it is hard to understand at this day, but she did. Adam is supposed to have been kept in a glow of continual happiness by the reflection that he hadn't any mother-in-law lying around, "You have saved my life, have you and couldn't have. Oh, but those were delightful days when our parents, in their "Happy to do it any day," he re- simplicity, wandered about Eden Park, that might be made; here an avenue, there a promenade, here an archway and there a tunnel for an diffuent pipe. They might There was another long silence, have had a plan for filling up Deer Creek

There is little record as to how mother It contains 240 time engravings of the later than later than the later than to be made up for the little heathen, as there were very little heathen until the settlement of New York city. She couldn't play the piano, because she had none. Had she possessed one of those boons she would probably have driven her husband out of paradise without the intervention of the scrpeol. She couldn't paint or draw. There wasn't a drawer on earth at that time to say nothing about a pair of 'em. She "I've been thinking through the couldn't receive calls, except when Adam

There was some compensation for being the only woman in the world. Eve wasn't know what it was to have a Bridget in the "You darling!" he exclaimed, "I kitchen. She was spared the annoyance

Everything seemed to go well with Eve until the fruit season set in, and then-well very child knows the story. She was tempted into an apple tree to plack some fruit that wasn't quite ripe, and fell. Adam fell, too-that is, he fell to and helped eat it, although, with a meanness somewhat characteristic of his sex, he endeavored to throw all the blame on the woman when detected. Too lazy to shake the tree himself, he was ready enough to partake of the fruit when brought to his hand.

After this faux pas Adam and Eve were obliged to take their respective leaves of Eden. They were fig-leaves. Eve had auddenly become possessed with a love for among the sex, until now it amounts to a veritable passion with many of them. Eve

It is recorded that Adam reached the good old age of nine hundred and thirty years before he died, but no mention is made of Eve's age when she passed away,

THE BERRY STORY-TELL IT RIGHT WHILE YOU'RE ABOUT IT .- The papers are rehashing the old Berry story, but they don't conclude it in accordance with the facts. This is the correct version: A celcheated comedian arranged with his green ocer; one Berry, to pay him quarterly; but Berry once sent in his account long before the quarter was up. Thereupon the comedian, in great wrath, called upon the grocer and said to him: "I say, here's a pretty mull, Berry; you have sent in your bill, Berry, before it was due, Berry, Your father, the elder Berry, would not have been such a goose, Berry. But you needn't look so blue, Berry, for I don't care a straw, WHAT kind of essence does a young Berry; and if you come here again before