

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., Friday Morning, - - Sept. 12, 1873.

Democratic State Nominations.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT: JAMES R. LUDLOW, Philadelphia.

Democratic County Ticket.

HENRY SCANLAN, Carrolltown. HERMAN BAUMER, Conemaugh Boro. A. D. CRISTE, Munster Township.

LAST week being the first week of Court, and the rural districts being well represented, the radical candidate for County Treasurer undertook to ingratiate himself into high favor with the Democracy in a way that was decidedly peculiar.

When it is considered that this same loyal Republican would at any time walk three miles "in thunder, lightning and in rain" to cast his vote against a Democrat, his present love for that class of men is eminently disgusting.

AN election for members of the Legislature took place in California on Wednesday of last week. The contest was essentially between the people irrespective of party on the one side and the Central Pacific Rail Road monopoly on the other.

THE election in Maine, which took place last Monday, resulted, as a political fatality, in the success of the radical ticket, but by a largely decreased majority.

Radical Hypocrisy.

Radical hypocrisy never assumed so shameless a front as when in its conventions, both State and county, it undertakes to adopt resolutions denouncing Congress for passing the back-pay bill, and at the same time avoids any allusion to Grant's agency in the matter.

Resolved, That we condemn the action of those members of Congress who were in any way identified with the Credit Mobilier question, or who are generally known as the "Salary Grab," and that we believe it would be for the good of the country if not one of those thus identified should ever again be placed in a position of honor or trust in the Government.

It will be seen from this resolution that the radicals of Cambria county condemn the members of Congress "who were in any way identified" with the "Salary Grab," but have not one word of censure for Grant, whose signature to the bill, as Gen. Garfield told his radical constituents, made it a law.

MOSBY, the noted Virginia chieftain during the civil war, has played a very scurvy trick on his particular friend Grant. About a year ago he made it known that he had become a warm admirer of the administration of our "Second Washington."

CARPENTER, of Wisconsin, radical President protem of the United States Senate, has not yet instituted his threatened libel suit against the New York Tribune for its exposure of his disgraceful conduct at Long Branch.

Failure of the Balloon Expedition.

THE Trans-Atlantic Balloon expedition, about which so much has been said and written during the past few months, was to have left New York on last Wednesday afternoon, but owing to the fact that the mammoth balloon became totally unmanageable, after being being about one-fourth filled with gas, the time for departure was postponed until yesterday afternoon, since when nothing further has been learned.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6, 1873.—General: Your communication of the 30th ultimo has been received. The nomination by the Convention you represent was to me a surprise, for in a letter addressed to a delegate, and written one week before the Convention assembled, I declined absolutely to be a candidate.

THE judicial office, when voluntarily tendered, especially to one already in commission as a judicial officer, cannot be declined. My duty therefore seems to be as imperative as it is plain, and I accept the nomination.

SENOR CASTELAR is now President of Spain, with unusual powers lodged in his hands. He can enlarge the army, purchase rifles and munitions of war, and raise funds for carrying on a vigorous campaign against the enemies of the Republic.

A FINANCIAL WONDER.—The payment of the indemnity fund by France is the most remarkable financial event the world ever witnessed. When it is remembered that the war indemnity was five billion francs, or a billion of dollars, and that the interest, the requisitions, the fines and the war contributions exacted from Paris, carried it up to a billion and a half of francs, or three hundred million dollars more, the magnitude of this financial feat may be properly estimated.

DR. ANDREW NEBINGER, of Philadelphia, who was President of the Wilkesbarre Convention, has been elected Chairman of the State Central Committee. Dr. Nebinger is a gentleman of high character, and possesses all the qualifications for a faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of the position for which he has been selected.

The Delaware County Poor House.

MORE STARTLING REVELATIONS.—HORRIBLE CONDITION OF THE INMATES. The people of Delaware county, in this State, have been much excited of late over certain allegations concerning the condition of their insane poor, and have held an indignation meeting at which the authors of the reports were severely censured and an attempt made to whitewash the officers of the institution.

THE State of things in the insane department of the Delaware County Poor House, we are about to state them, within the last seven months. Our statement is based upon the evidence of several gentlemen of this city, of the highest integrity, who have, separately or together, visited the institution in February, March and July of the present year.

IN February last a visit was made to this almshouse, and an insane inmate was seen, a young woman over twenty years of age, whose whole dress consisted of thin chemise with short sleeves, a single skirt, and a pair of shoes. When brought before the visitor a borrowed cloak was thrown over her shoulders. She was blue with cold, and utterly filthy in person.

IN an adjoining cell, the visitors found a man lying on an old mattress, the only sign of furniture which they saw in either of the rooms inspected. They were informed that the inmate was a woman; but upon one of the gentlemen calling to him he sat up, and it was seen that it was a man, the attendant, with some confusion, explained that "he must have been brought in while he was away."

THE STATE FAIR.—One of the notable events of the year is to take place at Erie on the 30th of September. At the most propitious season of our usually bright autumn, the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold its annual exhibition. The display gives fruitful promise that it will be one of the very best ever held under the auspices of the Society.

AN American Tichborne has appeared at Mauch Chunk. He claims forty thousand acres of mineral land in Luzerne county. These lands were purchased years ago, and are now owned by tax titles, or insufficient conveyances, it is claimed.

News and Political Items.

—Matthew Samuel, of Luzerne county, aged sixty years, was arrested on Friday for attempting to commit an outrage on his own daughter, who is but twelve years old.

—A Lewisburg (Ark.) editor claims that his town is the home of a lady who is now seventy-three years old, and who has shed tears at the graves of ten departed husbands.

—The Missouri Republican has news to the effect that Miss Miranda Thompson, of Illinois, shears sheep, mows grass and binds wheat, and goes to market on Sunday with the biggest basket in town.

—A negro member of the Mississippi Legislature is in jail for stealing a hog. His friends say he really didn't want the hog, but felt that, as a Radical leader, he must eat something, and could find nothing else to steal.

—The body of a child buried eight years ago was exhumed in Chester county the other day. The coffin was found in a position it occupied when deposited in the grave, while the inner coffin was standing at an angle of thirty-five degrees.

—On Saturday afternoon at half-past two o'clock, Nelson E. Wade, the brutal murderer of Melville's family, was sentenced to be hanged. He received the sentence very coolly and replied: "Thank you, I'll have a home when I leave this world of sin behind me."
