

HOW LUCY LOST HER BEAU.

BY DAISY BURNS.

Everybody wonders how Lucy Will lost her lover. She is a very pretty girl as well as accomplished and intelligent, and Dr. Hampton was a great catch.

THE WHISKY OF TO-DAY.

My dear sir—you with that glass of whisky at your lips—if you were to see a man go into a drug store and buy a pint of raw alcohol, and take that alcohol out and mix it with water, and drink it you would say he was an old guzzler.

What Causes Hard Times.

Too many spend money, and too few earn it. Too much money is spent wastefully and needlessly, and too little saved and made productive and accumulative.

We depend too much upon our "sharpness" and "cuteness," and the readiness to take advantage of our own industry.

We roll about much like stones and gather no moss, enrich corporations and speculate capitalists, and defrauding ourselves of the profit of our own industry.

One dark night, the darkness of which was lighted by the moon, the inmates of a quiet farm house in England were startled by piteous cries from a little stream running past the foot of the brae on which the homestead stood.

THE OLD LIBERTY BELL.

The Centennial Alliance, just issued, gives some interesting facts in relation to the Liberty Bell. It was cast in 1752, at the foundry of John Wright, in Philadelphia.

The bell arrived at the State House in the city of Philadelphia on the 21st of September, 1776.

The bell was hung in its present position during the month of April, 1783.

Among the items are "three gallons of beer" and "a barrel of beer." It seems that the tone of this bell is defective.

It is also mentioned that the bell was struck by lightning on the 22nd of April, 1792.
