three years ago a young man of rather a gorgeous exterior, but limited in his intel lectual endowments, was paying attentions to a young woman of the neighborlicod. At times she encouraged him, but at length she appeared to have concluded that his assiduities were not acceptable. --But he persevered in calling upon her, and ultimately he arrived at such a state of mind as to declare that if she did not telent and marry him he would destroy himself. He accompanied this pathetic protestation with a flourish of a firearm, and though he steadfastly declared during the subsequent trial that he sought a pistel himself, it so fell out that it was the woman who was shot, and that through the heart. Even if he intended to shoot himself, it will occur to most renders that a herse-pistol is a rather injudicious utensil to court a woman with, anyhow; although, money of our patrons go as far as owing to the unfortunate scarcity of women, a man sometimes has to employ desperate expedients to get a wife. A good motto in California is, "Get americal by all means; peaccably if you can, forcibly if you must." At any rate the man was condemned to the Pennantiary for a number of years. There his conduct was so exent placy that he was promoted to a eleckship, at a stipend of $70 a month (we do things that way in California), and a few weeks ago, namely through the intervention of his father, he was paidoned out by the Governor. During his incarceration be AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES corresponded regularly with a young woman of this neighbalhood. She is somewhat fascinating, is a good shot with a rifle, sits a horse fearlessly and gracefully, is a brilliant dancer, a good cook, and a notable homsewife for her two brothers --The faintest of suspicion was never blown against her character, but she has that pretty wilfulness, that charming audacity and independence generally mistaken by foreigners for bold depravity. She never hesitates for a moment to champion anybody whom she considers wrongfully slandered or abused, provided that person honest and has good intentions. Therefore, when the late jull-bird was liberated he made basic to present himself before her. She not only publicly rade out with him several times, but accepted his escort twice to a surprise party, an old-fashioned way that rural Californians have of enjoying the winter nights occasionally. Although one or two of her relatives were thrown into homeure constrruition by the proceeding, the general public has looked on very tranquilly, and the general conscience does not appear to have been anywise severely shocked. It is not looked upon as an e-capade that is at all likely to disjoint society or corrupt the public morals. Everything is quiet along the lines at present. That young man coming out with the savor of the pententiary walls fresh upon him, has by these occurrences been endowed with an amount of social capital that will give him a good send-off in the world again. But how wisely her sympathy has been bestowed may be judged from the circumstance that the young man has all this time been playing the gallan with his father's dilapidated old horse and buggy, while the poor old man has been compelled to budge about the country on

More Eggs-aggeration. -- Some time since one of the Bedtond county papers an egg." This was thought to be a curious freak of nature, and a challenge was thrown out for competition. Blair county being of a sort of jealous disposition, was determined not to be beaten by Bedford and produced a "Siamese Twin" egg, being two perfectly formed eggs connected at the smaller end by a cord-like ligature one inch long, and as thick as a pipe stem. And now comes the Shamokin Times determined to cap the climax. It says :--Last week Mr. Henry Kline, of Juniata township, brought to this office one of the most remarkable curiosities we ever saw. This consisted of a hen's egg having a well developed make inside the shell. egg was one that was fresh laid, and full size. When broken, Mr. Kline noticed something mixed in the white which he thought he would take out. He therefore lifted it up, when he noticed it move, and out in the most approved snake fashion, while the eyes could be plainly seen. So singular a freak of nature was worth particular notice, and so be placed the egg and snake in a class and bound in the egg and snake in a class and bound in the egg general Banking business transmeted. closer examination showed a tongue dart and snake in a glass and brought it to this office, where it was examined by a great number of persons, all of whom expressed their great astonishment. The snake was about two inches long and about as thick as a turkey quill, and was almost colorless. Interest, or on time with interest at fair rates. The questions which naturally arise are: how too a come there, and what would have been the result had the egg been
