in the mud.

federate lieroes.

information imparted to them.

beer.

-Two brothers named Walker were shot in Owen county, Ky., on Monday, by

-There was a tereship ed. Those killed were The force of the explana ent of the mill, who it is

-It was, indeed, a melan which could be seen the clar against the Siege and Grover & Baker

-One day last week a book-keeper in the

-A dispatch from Columbia, Tenn.,

says: There is great excitement here over quest of her friends. The villain met her

-Ten years ago Timothy Wheeler, of year thereafter be went thirty-eight days without taking any liquids into his system. A Coor Ride, -On the last day of March | the second year seventy days, the third a man named Patrick Ryan, of Maitland, 130, the fourth 170, and up to Thursday of

-Horrors have accumulated rapidly rewalking became detached, and he drifted cently. One has scarcely been told ere it out to sea. This occurred some time in is followed by another. The latest is the er, which it will be remembered was very man, brutally murdered his father with an severe, he was sighted off Diligence River axe. The mother stepped from the door the following morning. An attempt was of the house into the yard, at eight o'clock made to proceed to his rescue, but, as al- in the morning, discovered the body of her ways happens in such cases, not a boat husband with the top of his skull split off, could be found in which it was safe to while over him stood the murderer with the leave the shore. The wind blowing a gale | bloody axe. The son had been an inmate

-The Staunton (Va.) Vindicator says was blown back in the direction from "Eleven months ago Mr. James McClung, which he had come. He describes his suf- of this county, was suddenly, and without any explicable cause, totally deprived of his power of speech, and since that time has bark was slowly but surely growing smaller | been obliged to use a slate in conveying his thoughts. On Sunday before last he came over it, deluging him almost every minute, | into the sitting room and said 'good mornsuperhuman effort that he succeeded in the throat and a sense of concussion in the hio, and served in the Ohio Conference as

Mr. Lanar continued at some length, in an eloquent strain of tribute to Mr. Summer's statesmaship and worth, concelleding with the significant utterance: "My countrymen, know one another, and you will row one another,"

Som who ought to be nominated, either from personal integrity, popularity or standing ant views each ram and the dog entertained as to the route for enjoying the best seen-before the was then one eise can be found who ought; and, if so, the Demo-tracy will not find us go sniffling and whing the significant utterance: "My countrymen, know one another, and you will row one another, and you will row one another,"

The Times says Dr. Walpole has lost his beautiful chestnut mare. She died suddenties as to the route for enjoying the best seen-being the found who ought; and, if so, the Demo-tracy will not find us go sniffling and with me from Germany. I do to get it from the house. My only more than the party, then surely some one eise can be found who ought; and, if so, the Demo-tracy will not find us go sniffling and with me from Germany. I do to get it from the house. My only more the found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be from the house. My only more the found harrish grant of the substraction of the St. Louis Central day of the substraction of the St. Louis Central day of the found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be from the house. My only more the found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be found harrish the lowa Conference and was afterward as to the route for enjoying the best seen-be found harrish the loward harrish the loward harrish the Party in Illinois.

At a recent meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of Illinois, Mr. A. C. Hesig, one of the editors of the Illinois Stats Zeitung, the most ably conduct-It has been stated in Rupub'ican papers position, voted with the Republicans to per published in the north-west, was called during the past week that Senator John confirm all of them, and of course it was upon for a speech. A bomb-shell exploded Scott, of this State, would be appointed casely done by a two-thirds vote. This was in the room would not have more aston- were murdered, and afterward the house Secretary of the Treasury in place of the not the entertainment to which the Demished his auditors than did Mr. Hesig's represent incumbent, Judge Richardson, ocracy of the State, by the action of their sponse. We give some of his most telling that Grant's particular friend, E. B. Wash- will be remembered that these potent and see how you like it in connection with re-A PRINCIPLE SOLEMNLY ENUNCIATED

> We witness with pride the reducrates of interest upon the balance, and con-

> A speedy resumption of specie payments. gentlemen! What do you think of that in statesmen from Illinois, Mr. Logan and Mr. Ogleshy, are attempting to rob the laboring in the eyes of all civilized people by their labors to secure the issue of $41,000,000 more more substantial than promises to pay .-They would have precisely the same right to do it. The republican imported from Europe to pay from five to ten AN OUNCE OF LEAD iliu. Your party is torn asunder, gentleis your Philadelphia platform? Where are your principles? You have none. What is on left of the republican party but office, ice, office, and what mission has it now will not belong to any party that has no death. there is nothing left to the party but office I will not have anything more to do with at. I prefer to be independent, without the scumbrance of party ties and lying plat-given you my opinions, and having done so, an enemy in the township. shall take my leave.

A CALIFORNIA GHOST STORY. - A rather tough story, and one to be taken with many grains of allowance, comes from Oakland, California. A few nights ago, the residence of Mr. Clark, the paying teller of the Bank of California was the scene of their fears. Rushing past the chair, one of the party entered the parlor and lit the gas. Here they saw a strange sight .-

in motion. The chairs and tables moved about like animate things, and appeared to take no notice whatever of the intruder.

gan again, and again the boarders descended the stairs. To their inexpressible sur-

After that there was no sleep in the house.

to be disarranged and much strained .-

an extraordinary ghostly demonstration. The family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Clark and three young gentlemen boarders, retired about 11 o'clock. For a time long, loud wail of auguish, as of some one in | killed and burned the Hamnet family, near of that Court, and, further, that no qualified citizen shall vote at the election next the noise, until the infernal clatter had in Allegheny City yesterday morning. One tions will effect a permanent cure. -St. bodders me so I got right straight up and account of his strange conduct. sire for companionship seized the boarders, and they all gathered together in one room, and were soon joined by Mr. and Mrs. Clark. The noise still continued, but changing in Ortmier joined in the conversation, and was at length decided on, and leaving | As soon as he had said this be ran off at Mrs. Clark in charge of one of the boarders, the party carefully descended the bannister. The hall was dark as Erebus, though when their eves became accustomed to the dim light, they could perceive low. The noise continued, and now and then a note would be struck on the piano. Just as they reached the foot of the stairs, a chair came gliding out of the parlor, and took up its position in the doorway, bowing and nodding as if to reassure

> CONFESSING THE MURDERS. He gave his name as Ernest Ortmier, and said he was a native of Stuttgart, Wurtemburg, and came to this country about a year ago. He confessed that he murdered the Hamnets. He left their dwelling just after supper on the night of the murder, and went directly to the vilof beer on the way, and that was all he took that night. He continued as follows: In the morning the furniture was found > > killed the boy; he never moved. I can't say, the 28th of April, 1873. tle Emmie were sleeping. There were two beds in the room, one in a corner and the the centre. Both of the little girls were sleeping. I crept over cautiously to where they slumbered, and I dealt Ida a fearful time. She did not groan again. After this inside the door of the room adjoining the kitchen, and waited for Mr. and Mrs. Hamnet to come home. God knows my feelings ; when concealed there. I was desperate now THIRSTED FOR MORE BLOOD. After waiting a long time I heard the footed my axe handle tight. At last they were there. Mr. Hamnet came into the room first. I was standing so that he could not see me, and I struck him from behind, using the same axe, and he fell to the floor. Mrs. Hamnet then came rushing into the room, and Mrs. Hamnet and baby were the only ones I struck twice; the others were killed with one below. I used the axe all the time. I who have spoken of us in commendation the Newfoundland dog was cured by tying and obtained his pocketbook. It contained of the fourth day he was finally sighted case of "Governor" Brooks, of Arkansas, and kindness, but we would despise ourself did we ask them to specifie the best interambition on our part. If we are not the person who ought to be nominated, either from and diversified, of course, by the discording the standard was an extensive rain.

I looked over the house, but all the money I and diversified, of course, by the discording the standard was an extensive rain.

I did not fire the house, and it was not a BODIES BURNED WITH THE HOUSE-AR- part of my plan to cover up the murder,

> I thought it would go out. I did not think road and walked direct to Pittsburgh. 1 stopped at several places, but don't know the names of the places. I came over to Pittsburgh and went to see my friend Baler on Penn street, I think. I don't know locations very well. I was never in Pittsburgh more than three times. After leaving Baler's I crossed over to Allegheny City. I crossed a covered bridge and went to several breweries to get work. I purchased a new suit of clothes yesterday morning, and finally was arrested.

As quick as possible the alarm was raised, but little could be done until daylight, when the search of the ruins began. The search resulted in the finding of the bodies of Mr. Hamnett and his wife in what was known as the sitting room of the house. Portions of their clothes still adhered to the excitement in the city, and a large crowd charred remains, and by these their bodies of citizens collected around the Mayor's fidently expect that an excellent national were easily recognized. The remaining office. Later in the day the excitement members of the family were found in various parts of the ruins. The partially con- best to remove the prisoner to the county sumed clothing on the bodies gave rise to jail. the theory that they had not retired at the time of the fire, and that they had been from the burning building. The next body was found in the kitchen. practising physician of note in Toronto, any Congressional interference. It was that of Robert Smith, the apprenc'usion and cannot be defended, if they hon- carrency. I believe the people need more tice. The face was badly disfigured. The in this city. He has successfully performbut it should be based on something | right hand was whole but shrunken and | ed the very difficult operation of blood | wind twenty-five feet and dashed against | molishing the building and shrivelied. The left arm was dislocated at transfusion quite a number of times for the another house. The first house was comthe shoulder, the member lying across the cure of consumption. Yesterday afternoon | pletely destroyed and the other badly dam- | were killed outright and for breast. The feet were entirely burned off. he performed this operation for the second aged. The throat was cut in three places. The time upon Mrs. Campbell, wife of Frank skull was fractured and jammed to a pulp. M. Campbell, foreman of Oxley's Iron French settlement at Shanghai. The Chi- The boiler weighing tive to A hatchet found in the ruins was brought | Works. Not long since she was brought | nese attacked the French residents and six hundred feet. There in and the poll or head of it fitted naturally to this city so weak that she was unable burned several of their houses. The police citement in the village into a cavity or depression in the boy's to walk. She received the first operation interfered, and several of the rioters were threatened to lynch Torante (Tuesday) in the hands of a joint committee gress never existed. If you want to indorse skull. The feathers of a pillow found on about ten days ago, since which time she killed.

> of age. The features were totally unrecog- even remarkable. The principle upon run a farm, a grist-mill, a saw-mill-an, that was presented to the vied by portions of clothing still clinging to sumption is induced when the blood loses who while fishing one day last week caught | tions on the way down to New the remains. The wires of a hoopskirt its vitality or power of reproduction. The a muscalonge weighing over twenty-two were still about the body, furnishing proof remedy then is to impart to the blood of pounds. The boy was pulled into the river, before had been a cutton if sumed, but were saturated with blood, was supposed to be the possessor of considerable money, which it is thought he kept go on reproducing itself, just as the ingraft-I'am much obliged to you for listening to in his house. He was a man well liked in ed bud does. me. I was called upon to speak. I have the community, and was not known to have One of the principal obstacles in the way

PITTSBURG, May 3 .- The fiend who Ernest Love or Ortmier was suspected on day evening, while a number of men were talking about the murder on Troy Hill, said that he had worked for Mr. Hamnet. full steed. Officer Ouirk, of the Allegheny police force, gave chase, and soon captured him. His carpet bag, containing a lot of clothes, was found in a store on Ohio street. In a vest was an assessment paper directed taken to the central lock-up. When search- prairie States will be a matter of much moed no weapons were found and but little money. He seemed to be stupefied with drink, and either could or would not talk ing rapidity; and, if the farmers of the an example of honorable moderation which in English. Yesterday morning, however, Mr. Philip Holderman, who speaks German fluently, visited him in his cell, and he all at once became communicative.

lage of Homestead. He drank two glasses Just as I was leaving the saloon it came money. I thought he had a great deal of money in the house, and as I felt so queer all at once in my head I though I must get it. I went directly to the house, but don't ow how I got there. I suppose I must have been out of my mind. After getting the State Legislature has been asked to that the abscess would break within two into the house I found Mr. and Mrs. Hamnet | make the day a legal holiday. Each owner | days, and that the chances were that he kitchen where Rob't Smith and myself slept. KILLING THE CHILDREN. how it was that the boy's throat was cut. 1 groaned. After the boy was dead I went into the adjoining room, where Ida and litother, the one occupied by the children, near moved a muscle, she was dead in a minute. I then raised the axe and struck at Emmie. She uttered a cry and I hit her the second I went down stairs and took a position just

The Break-Up of the Republican The Work of an Inhuman Fiend. I were good friends, and I always liked Mr. AN ENTIRE FAMILY MURDERED AND THEIR

REST AND CONFESSION OF THE ASSASSIN. When searching the house I put an lamp in the sitting room, and when rashing away from the building it was overturned. PITTSBURGH, April 30 .- On Thursday night, in Millin township, on the Mononabandoning their former publicly declared ed and influential German Republican pagahela river, six miles from this city, Mr. the house would burn. As soon as I left John Hamnett, a well to do farmer, his the building I proceeded at once to the railwife, their child 24 years old, a daughter, and an adopted son named Robert Smith, was fired and completely destroyed. The fire was discovered about 3 A. M. esterday by a coal miner, who was passing along the road. Then a few smouldering ruins alone remained. A brisk wind was blowing at the time, and the fire seems to have made short work of the building,

> Two persons who visited the prisoner yesterday morning say that they live near | Dr. Mary Walker, to be placed somewhere | oddest part of the animal was a the scene of the terrible tragedy, and they on the coast to warn off vessels. ideatify him as Ernest Love, who was employed there. The arrest caused intense became so great that the authorities tho't

TRANSFUSION OF BLOOD .- A Successful murdered. If they had not been murdered Performance of One of the Most Formida- Gen. Butler's birthday a national fast day. they would have had ample time to escape | ble Operations in Surgery-A Cure for Con- If Butlerism continues to flourish we will ley Railroad, thirty miles from sumption .- Dr. McMasters, for years a have several national fast days without Canada, has recently established an office | -At Malden, Mass., Thursday, a two- leaving the shop, just Logan indorse him, but I will not. Indorse the murdered boy's breast were not con- has rapidly improved, has gained two and -Castleton, Vt., boasts a Caleb Quotem of criminal negligence one-half pounds in weight, and is so far re- of a citizen who is a good boot and shoe condemned boiler. The next body found was believed to covered as to be able to walk out upon the maker, cabinet maker, upholsterer, carpen- erected at a cost of $100.00 have been that of Emma Hannett, 4 years street for exercise. Her improvement is ter and painter, while, if need be, he can which this cure is being effected is readily | thing but a gir-mill. The body of Mrs. Hamnett was recogniz- understood. It is well known that conout to supply office-seekers with fat places? that she had not retired when she met her the patient the power of reproduction. - | and a Newfoundland dog brought both After a controversy of more than two cen- fisher and fish ashore. Mr. Hamnett was an Englishman by turies it has been proven beyond a doubt birth and was an old resident of Millin that the blood of a healthy human, if trans- tory has enacted that physicians, clergy- top of the smokeless the was township. He owned a splendid farm, and planted to the veins of another, while liv- men and priests shall not be protected by rooster. His wings hang > of the general adoption of this cure has Living with the Hamnett's was Ernest | been the inability to construct such an in-Love, a Swede, who was employed as a strument as would transmit the blood withfarm hand. He had been in their employ out allowing it to cool, and the consequent since January last. Who he was or where | danger attending it. Dr. McMasters is the he came from could not be ascertained. inventor, however, of an instrument which, out. Lose had got 50 cents from Mrs. Hamnett | thought not yet completed to his satisfacand was seen drinking about 3 o' clock in tion, obviates this difficulty. Yesterday the Shellbark saloou in the village. After afternoon he lifted a vein in the wrist of Wm. Smoat. One of the brothers died those who have the that he mounted his horse and rode away. the patient, and also one in the wrist of instantly, and the other was dangerously. A few drops of That was the last seen of him. All the her husband, who is a very strong, healthy wounded. Smoat charged them with havfacts in the case point strongly to him as man, and, hancing them applied the instru- ing secured an indictment against him the murderer, and detectives are on his ment. In about thirty minutes two ounces | in the Federal Court for some misdemennor. of blood of the patient resembled in color -A German saloon keeper in Millers- to remember this. ed much redder, showing that the work of sleeps not goot. I dreams in mine head reproduction had already commenced. It dat I hear dem vimens brayin" and singis thought about three or four more opera- ing in my ears dot Jesus loves me. Dot Louis Democrat, May 1.

ARBOR DAY IN NEBRASEA. -It is a fact that tree planting on a large scale is needed on the Nebraska prairie, and the people of the State are fully aware of the importance the hone of the left arm, of which there of the subject. On the bluffs, and on the had been an ununited fracture, the result banks of rivers and streams, there is abund- of a bite of a lion over thirty years ago, was CHOICE MIXED ance of wood, and a large variety of native | so clear that the identification of the body trees: but there is not sufficient for the was placed beyond all doubt. country. The manner in which lumber is being cut, without the forests being replaced to John Hamnet, giving the valuation of in the east, also points to the time when, if Governor, the Democracy of Ohio refused his property at $12,720. Ortmier was trees are planted, the lumber crop of the to make an apportionment of the State ment to the country at large. country are equal to their opportunities, ought to have some effect upon the Pennnot many years will elapse before the treeless prairie is adorned with waving woods, | pected that it will be imitated. the lumber of which will add largely to the revenue of the owners of the soil.

Trees are now being planted in Nebraska an outrage committed by a nogro, named by the millions. The Hon. J. Sterling Mor- Merrett Voorlis, upon the person of a on, of Nebraska City, Otoe county, has young lady whose name is withheld by rebeen one of the pioneers in the tree planting movement. He originated the idea of on the outskirts of the city about nine o'setting apart one day in each Spring to the clock at night, and accomplished his purspecial work of tree planting. The first pose before the neighbors, who had been aroused by her screams, could go to her two million trees was planted. In 1872 and assistance. The police are in pursuit of 873, "arbor-day" was dropped, but it was the negro. commended to the farmers to choose for themselves a day in April, and set it apart | employ of a lumber firm in Detroit, Mich ... head that I must have Hamnet's for tree planting. This year, however, the became suddenly ill, and the Free Press State Board of Agriculture has been de- says the several physicians who called determined to go back to the original plan .- | cided that one of his lungs was affected It was resolved that "arbor-day" should with an abscess, caused by rubbing his a de be the second Wednesday in April; and against the edge of the table. He was told had not come home. It occurred to me that of land was recommended to plant at least | would die. He made preparations for his to get the money I must kill the children. I one tree; and the State Board will award | decease, and his death occurred within a found an axe in the kitchen, and taking that a premium to the person who planted the few minutes after the abscess broke. with me I went up into the room over the largest number. It is now the custom of the Board to give a premium to the land Waterbury Centre, Vt., adopted a strictly The bed was in the corner of the room and owner who has planted the most trees on vegetarian diet, and five years ago became saw that Robert was sleeping soundly any given day in April; and, at a recent impressed that nature did not require so with his face toward me. I took a position meeting of the Board, the prize was award- much liquid to quench thirst as is common to the front of the bod, and with one blow ed to a farmer who set out 27,800 trees on ly used. The result has been that the first

N. S., was walking along the shores of last week he had gone 228 days in the fifth Minas Basin on the board ice, which ex- year without drinking anything whatsotended some yards from the banks, when ever .- Montpeller Argus. suddenly the piece upon which he was blow, which silenced her forever. She never the forenoon. After drifting about all story related of a frightful parricide at a night, exposed to the severity of the weath- village in Maine. James P. Davis, a young at the time, the man drifted out of sight in of a lunatic asylum, but was considered a short time. During the night the wind | cured. veered round and the unfortunate man ferings from exposure and hunger during this time as beyond description. His frail before his eyes, while the waves dashed as she passed through the door I struck her, and thus added to the miseries of his conbut did not kill her. She shricked once or twice, "O God, John!" and then I struck a second blow, which killed her instantly.—

dition. He dare not sit down lest he might has conversed as well as ever since that.—

fall asleep, from which he knew well he Just as he spoke Sunday, he experienced a of Cambria Could never awake. It was called the limited to the misseries of his conversed as well as ever since that.—

Just as he spoke Sunday, he experienced a of Cambria Could never awake. would never awake. It was only by the most convulsive movement of the muscles of keeping awake, and from constantly chang- head." committed the deed to get Mr. Hamnet's ling his position managed to keep himself money. I searched Mr. Hamnet's pockets from perishing with cold. On the morning desk to the political arena is given in the Thursday. ing his position managed to keep himself

THE Times says Dr. Walpole has lost his beautiful chestnut mare. She died sudden frown county, Ia., has given birth to a baby which is sure to have its quarrel his limbs with a red hot in just. That is to say, it is "thrice-armed." | wards poured spirits of tours. -Charles F. King was shot and mor- naked body and set him tally wounded by G. Adolph Wurgler, at condition he escaped and sa Indianapolis, on Saturday. Wurgler was tinguishing the flames. -If there is one time more than another | more. His back and legs. when a woman should be entirely alone it crisp. His recovery is don is when a line fall of clothes comes down reported that the persons a -Paul McAferry and Thomas Brobson quarrelled about a young woman, in Cass at La Grange, Brant county county, Ill., on Friday, and Brobson was nose was rather longer than fatally shot by McAferry. -It is suggested that Congress shall give nearly two inches beyond the Vinnie Ream $10,000 for a brass statue of gave the head an odd armeant placed directly in the centre head, and larger than the ere -The Pennsylvania railroad company will hereafter contract for no wood for its grown horse. Mr. Edda . engines unless with the condition that it once had the monstrosity skin be in sticks of two feet and a half in length. serving the head, hade and -The Decoration Association of Illinois have resolved that they will make no dis- having them properly stuffer tinction on Decoration Day, but will dec- eyes usually are seen in a cole orate alike the graves of Union and Con- smooth and solid, and covered -An exchange is in favor of making village of Shawangunk, on the

-A serious riot has occurred in the sengers of a Mississipid str -A story is told of a boy in Iowa City a short cut across some lon the tops of trees above to -The Legislature of Washington Terri- rising a foot above the si he was the sole survivor be -The following is said to be an excelent He did not seem to care to be remedy for corns : One teaspoonful of tar, he hoisted no signal for relione of coarse brown sugar, and one of salt- steamer, with a passing a petre. The whole to be warmed together. alone in his glory. As the so Spread it on kid leather the size of the him he raised his off-wine to his corns, and in two days they will be drawn waved a sad farewell with h > times a day, will keen them u Fishermen, sailors, and others w valk on de floor and take anuder glass of | near county ingstone was very much decomposed when it arrived in England, but the condition of -With complete nower in their hands, with both houses of the legislature and the more favorable to themselves than that which now exists, and which the Republisylvania legislaturs, but it is not to be ex-

THE NEW PLORENCE

HORSEPOWE CRAIN THRESHING

A. W. Gray & MIDDLETON'S. Parties who wish to percit

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA.,

France, will be the coming man.

our best wishes for a continued and enlarged success.

EX-PRESIDENT ANDREW JOHNSON has stated his intention of being a candidate for United States Senator from Tennessee, to succeed Parson Brownlow, whose term will expire on the 4th of next March. We have taken no political stock in Andy Johnson since he ran as a volunteer candidate for Congressman at large from his State in November, 1872, thereby defeating Gen. Cheatham, the Democratic candidate, and electing Horace Maynard, a bitter Republican. We predict that Andy will not succouningly he may manage it.

works in law, literature and science. He ed to this unparalleled infamy, was a highly respectable gentleman and a prominent Democratic politician, but with inuate modesty always refused to hold any political office, although often tendered to

THE Legislature, by a joint resolution passed some time ago, fixed Friday next as the day for final adjournment. We think it will not be done. A re-union of what is known as the Army of the Potomac will take place at Harrisburg commencing on next Monday, and will last through Tuesday and Wednesday. Gen. Grant, Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Hancock, and other distinguished military men, will be there, and of course during their presence and the festivities of the occasion, the well known Latin maxim, "inter armas silent leges," will be the order of the day. We do not look for an earlier adjournment than the 22d, and then will this Republican Legislature, with all its sins of omission and commission, be handed over to the solemn and impartial judgment of the people. the candidates eleven weeks time within which to canvass their claims before the people, and surely that is sufficient for any man's political aspirations.

On last Monday week, when eulogiums livered the most notable speech of the day. other genderen named for the nomination. Mr. Lamar was an extreme Southern man, a violent secessionist and a firm believer in the institution of slavery. His tribute to the memory of Mr. Sumner was brief and eloquent, and indicates emphatically that the bitter feelings engendered by the late civil war have given place to kindly and fraternal sentiments, and that "the era of Mr. Speaker: I rise to second the resolutions presented by the member from Massachusetts. I believe that they express a sentiment which pervades the hearts of all people whose representatives are here assem-bled. To-day Mississippi regrets the death of Charles Sumner, and sincerely unites in paying honors to his memory, not because the splendor of his intellect, not because of the high culture, elegant scholarship, and varied learning which revealed themselves so clearly in all his public efforts, or to the ustice of the application to him of Johnson's felicitous expression, 'He touched nothing which he did not sdorn;" not this, but be-cause of those peculiar and strongly marked moral traits of his character which gave coloring to the whole tenor of his singularly dramatic public career, making him for a long period to a large portion of his countrymen the object of as deep and passionate a hostility as to another he was one of enthusiday over his lifeless remains.

astic admiration, and which are not the less the cause that now unites all these parties the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties amusement as he could extract from their barry to gratify even a seeming to the cause that now unites all these parties are the cause that now unites all these parties are the cause that now unites all these parties are the cause that now unites all these parties are the cause that now unites all these parties are the cause that now unites all the cause that now unites are the cause that now unites all the cause that now unites are the cause that now unites all the cause that now unites all the cause that now unites are the cau

Store and Hartranft's Judges Confirmed.

On vesterday week, when the late judieial nominations of Gov. Hartranft came before the Senate the third time for confirm-Friday Morning, - - - May 8, 1874. ation, the Democratic Senators wilted, and who by common consent must and will re- Sevators on two former occasions, had just points : tire. The latest information, however, is grounds to believe they were invited. It | Listen, genttlemen, to the thirteenth resburne, of Illinois, and now Minister to grave Senators refused to vote for Hartranft's nominations unless the radical ma- representatives from Illinois in the United jority in the Legislature would change and THAT able, fearless, and always fore- modify the apportionment bill so as to do by the party:
"We denounce repudiation of the public most defender of Democratic principles, equal and even handed justice to the Democratic principles, equal and even handed justice to the Democratic principles, as a national the Lancaster Intelligencer, daily and week- beratic party of the State. In taking this crime. ly, has passed into the hands of Messrs. position they were sustained by the gener- tion of the principal of the debt, and of the Steinman & Hensel, Hon. d. G. Smith al approval of the Democratic press. If having just disposed of his interest to the believed, as they proclaimed by their currency will be perfected by a speedy rethose two gentlemen, the former of whom refusal to vote on the first and second at- sumption of specie payments. was his late partner. We are sorry to lose tempt to confirm the aforesaid Judges, that Harry from the ranks editorial, but hope they were right, why did they surrender the face of the fact that your illustrious he will ere long again grace, as he has their convictions of duty on the third trial? ever done the high profession he has just | Consistency is a jewel and is always to be abandoned. The new proprietors have commended. It seems to us that their final BRINGING THIS COUNTRY INTO DISGRACE action was a most lame and impotent conestly believed in their position on the first | money, and second occasions. What did their party | Where is all this going to stop? Suppose gain or profit by it? Did the radicals so uext year, they print $1,000,000,090 instead change and modify the legislative apporthonment bill as to mete out justice to the party, by its statesmen, as they are called Democrats of the State? We have not been | will compel people who have to buy goods able to discover the fact. The bill is now per cent, more than if the Forty-second Con-

tee of conference from the Senate and House, each of which contains a majority of radical members, whose report will be in his leg, and I suppose he ought to be in-advoted by both Houses and that will be adopted by both Houses, and that will be ceed in his nice political game, however the inglorious end of all this "fuss and men-there is nothing left of you. feathers' on the part of the Democratic members of the State Squate. "Oh ! what MR. JOHN CAMPBELL, who was born in a fall was there, my countrymen !" When the County Armagh, Ireland, in 1810, died | we read the bill as it finally passes on the at his residence in Philadelphia one day report of the committee of conference, perlast week. He was well known to many of | kaps we may be induced to change our the members of the legal profession in this views on this subject, but we are afraid we county. He came to this country in 1843 cannot do so. We venture to say that no and opened a book store in the city where | similar action of the Democratic members he died. He always made it his peculiar of the Senate of this State has ever herotostudy to keep on hand and furnish his cus- fore occurred. Now let them meet their tomers with the rarest and most standard | constituents and answer why they consent-

---

The Supreme Court Judge. We assume that the candidate of the Democratic party, to be nominated by the State Convention, for Judge of the Supreme Court, will, in accordance with "the fitness the State. The new constitution provides its inmates had all fallen asleep. Suddenfor the election of two additional Judges ly from the lower part of the house came a November for more than one candidate. _ awakened every one in the house. A denominated by both the Republican and ted, and hence the great importance of character very frequently. An exploration making good selections. We were never much in favor of demanding, or even asking, that any Democrat ought to be nom- stairs. Each held a revolver in his hand, inated for an office simply on the ground and with the other nervously clutched the of his peculiar location or residence. The names of several good and competent Democratic lawyers have been suggest- any object that might be in the rooms be-A FULL meeting of the Democratic State | ed in various counties in the interior for Central Committee was held in Philadel- this important office, and that it is one of phia last Monday, the chairman, Dr. Ne- the highest and most responsible positions binger, presiding. A resolution was unani- in the State will not be denied by any inmonsly adopted fixing Wednesday, August telligent man of either political party .-26th, as the time and Pittsburgh as the place | Without consultation therefore with Ronfor holding the State Convention. This | RET L. JOHNSTON, Esq., of this place, we action of the Committee will meet with the recommend his nomination by the conven- Every article of furniture in the room was general approval of the Democracy of the tion. Mr. Johnston is an able and experi-State. This matter having been thus def- enced lawyer and has acquired by patient initely settled, we are of the opinion that and laborious industry a deservedly high Gradually the noises ceased, and the furour county convention ought not be called reputation in his profession. He is a Dem- niture became stationary. After waiting earlier than Monday, the 10th of August. ocrat from conviction, is an apright and an awhile the party returned to their respec-The committee can then elect an additional | honest gentleman in all his business trans. | tive rooms. In a short time the noises berepresentative delegate from this county to | actions, and has heretofore twice been houthe convention and also appoint conferees ored by the Democratic vote of this coun- prise, they found the parlor door taken to meet those from Blair county to elect a ty as a candidate for Congress. He is from its hinges and deposited on the floor. Senatorial delegate. We merely throw out | well and familiarly known to the Demothis suggestion in order that the chairman | cracy of the State, and is as pure as the of the county committee, and the Democ- mountain breezes under whose inspiring The outside bars and bolts were perfectly racy of the county generally, may consider and invigorating influences he has flourishit. We are entirely opposed to a long cam- ed and prospered. We cordially recompaign, but want it short, sharp and decis- mend him as a candidate worthy the highive. The time suggested by us will give est and most earnest consideration of the

JACOB ZIEGLER, Esq., in his Herald with the Democratic nomination for Lieugood feeling" between the South and North and favorably known to the Democracy of ured twenty-six inches around the breast, is once more happily restored—a consum-the State, and from his long experience at men. His hands and feet were coarsely crations of the latter body. He says : State. We have never sought the nomination for a State office, although we have been voted for in State Convention, and we des-pise that trickery which too often is resorted to to accomplish particular ends in the interest of a ring or clique. If the Democ-Governor, well and good; if not there is no harm done to us, and we hope none to the party. Certain it is we shall not cry about secure, and there was no trace to show that any one had entered the house. The explanation of the phenomena is awaited. State Convention, knowing from our long and Taylor, in a late letter from Egypt, gives A RACE OF PIGMIRS DISCOVERED. -Baypersonal knowledge of him that he is both an account of the recent discovery of a race nonest and capable and that he would be of pigmies in Central Africa. Speaking "the right man in the right place." We of two in care of the Khedive, he says the have simply expressed our sincere opinion questioning, steady eyes, while I examined were pronounced in Congress upon the life about Mr. Johnston in this hastily written and measured them. Tubbell was fortyand services of the late Charles Sammer, article, without intending in the most re- six inches in height, his legs being twenty- may have struck him twice, but he never Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, de- vote degree to disparage the claims of the two inches, and the body with head twenty-four inches, which is somewhat better proportioned than is usual in savage tribes. The head and arms were quite symmetrical, but the spine curved in remarkably from published at Butler, Pa., refers to the fre- out the abdomen, which was already much the shoulders to the hip joint, throwing quent mention of his name in connection distended, probably from their diet of beans and bananas, yet the head was erect, tenant Governor in the following manly and there was no stoop in the posture of the the shoulders on the line of gravity, and sensible language. "Uncle Jake" is well body, as in South Africa. Tubbell meas-Harrisburg, both as clerk of the House and formed but not large, only the knee joint afterwards of the Senate, would make an being disproportionably thick and clumsy. admirable presiding officer over the delib. The facial angle was fully up to the average. There was a good development of brain, fine, intelligent eyes, and nose so We have been mentioned in connection flattened, that in looking down the forewith the office of Lieutenant Governor, but we have this to say to the Democracy of the Projecting beyond it. The nostrils were astonishingly wide and square. The complexion was that of a dark mulatto.

> CARE FOR SHEEP CHASING DOGS. - Many racy, in State Convention assembled, chooses that the best possible cure for a sheep chaspeople will assent heartily to the principle nominate us for the office of Lieutenant ing dog is to kill him at the earliest moment; but there may be exceptional cases, A correspondent of the London Field seems to think so at least, and relates an instance Our thanks shall be always due to those where after other attempts had failed, a