> CURIOUS FREAK OF NATURE. - A Double Limbed Child Burn .-- A letter from Grayville, White county, Ill., to the Chicago Post says: We have here the greatest envi-osity of the age, a human monstrosity. It is no less than a child with one head, four cars, two eyes, one nose, and one mouth, It was born dead, and given to the physician who made the acconchement. That gentleman afterwards made a post mortem examination, and reports as follows: "It has a double body as far down as the umbilieus, and united face to face, forming a perfect sounce. It has four perfectly for od arms, hands and shoulders, even to scap ulas. The shoulders also form a perfect square. There are two spinal columns passing up through the neck-therefore, we spines inclosed in one neck. Four lower extremities are present, all perfectly developed, and of the same size and length The ribs of two children are present. Could the being have lived, it would undoubtedly have had perfect use of all eight of its limbs-four arms and four legs, with twen ty fingers and toes. In the head I found two occipital hones, and two perfect brains enclosed in one skull, and attached to different spinal cords. There was one thoraic eavity and one abdominal.
