

A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

more real value

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

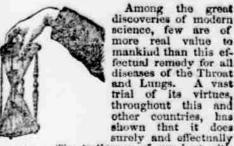

Terms, 52 per year, in advance.

TOLUME VIII.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1874.

Ayer's therry Pectoral.

for Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

The testimony of our best citi-classes, establishes the fact, that PECTORAL will and does relieve and cting disorders of the Throat and I any other medicine. The most ctions of the Pulmonary Organs power; and cases of Consumpby this preparation, are public-remarkable as hardly to be be-they not proven beyond dispute. t is adequate, on which the public all protection. By curing Coughs, more serious disease, it saves was, and an amount of suffering ted. It challenges trial, and con-sceptical. Every family should as a protection against the early ed attack of Pulmonary Affections, Iv met at first, but which become no often fatal, if neglected. Tenhis defence; and it is unwise to As a safeguard to children, amid diseases which beset the Throat ildhood, CHERRY PECTORAL for, by its timely use, multi-and from premature graves, and a and affection centred on them. and surely against ordinary colds i and health-restoring sleep. No troublesome Influenza and pain-Bouchitis, when they know how ensily e product of long, laborious, and cal investigation, no cost or toil sking every bottle in the utmost It may be confidently resing all the virtues it has ever d, and capable of producing cures as ble as the greatest it has ever effected.

PREPARED BY M.J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chevatets.

POSTPONED TO November 30, 1874. DRAWING CERTAIN at THAT DATE. diseases of the Throat LIST OF CIFTS. One Grand Cash Gift. $250.000 Ine Grand Cash Gift. 100,000 75,000 50,000 25,000 100,000 140,000 One Grand Cash Gift. One Grand Cash Gift. One Grand Cash Gift. 5 Cash Gifts, $20,000 each 10 Cash Gifts, 14,000 each 15 Cash Gifts, 16,000 each 150,000 100,000 20 Cash Gifts 5.000 each 25 Cash Gifts, 20 Cash Gifts, 4,000 each 100.000 8,000 each 2,000 each 90,000 100,000 50 Cash Gifts. 100 Cash Gifts, 1.000 each 100,000 240 Cash Gifts, 500 Cash Gifts, 500 each 100 each 50.00019,000 Cash Gifts, 50 each 950,000 Grand Total, 20,000 Gifts, all cash $2,500,000 PRICE OF TICKETS. HOLE TICKETS .. 50.00 HALVES FENTE, OR FACE COUPON 5,60 500.00 1,000.00 WHOLE TICKETS for ... 22 1-2 TICKETS for For Tickets and information, address

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ANOTHER CHANCE

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

IN ATD OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY of KENTUCKY

THO. E. BRAMLETTE. AGENT AND MANAGER, Public Library Building, Louisville, Ky. Or THOS. H. HAYS & CO., 669 Broadway, New York.

EVERYBODY'S OWN PHYSICIAN! W. GLEASON, M. D. A magaificent volum by C. W. GLEASON, M. D. A magnificent volume of 488 octave pages—incutifully introducted and elegently house. Contains matter just adapted to the wants of every family. Over 250 emprotes. One agent sold 190 copies in one work, another 36 in three days, and another 25 in four days. Cir-culars, with Complete Index, free. Liberal dis-counts and exclusive territory. Agents Wann-ed. Address at once H. N. McKinney & Co., Publ'rs, 725 Sanson St., Philadelphia, Pa.

MANNEWANG MAGHINE MEDICO

From my seat 'neath the glowing, Blooming, tall magnolia tree, I watch the river gently flowing, Onward ever, to the sea; Far beyond, my feeble vision Scarce discerns the other shore, Which seems like some field elysian, Or like heaven's half-opened door.

HEREAFTER.

Blossoms, bright and fair, are pending From the swinging boughs, close by; Would their lustre were unending; Would that they might never dio. Ah! I feel my faint soul tremble, Yet with more of joy than fear. For this beauty must resemble Something in a higher sphere.

> It must be that which we cherish, As by these fair, white flowers, Shall not, with the future, perish, But illumine heavenly bowers. For, was not the promise given, By the Saviour-Prince of men-That within the inture heaven, All we love shall live again?

Let us humbly live, and lowly, That the unknown coming years Find a spirit pure and holy. Meet to dwell in higher spheres! And the words of praise, that ringing, Greet us as we near the shore,

Be melodious as the singing Of some loved one we adore.

THE BOARD FENCE.

"Shoo, shoo, get home, you plagay critters !" eried Mr. Balscock, waving his arms as he chased a dozen sheep and lambs through a gap in the fence.

to be men of peaceful dispositions, they had compromised the matter and avoided a quartel; but if, on the contrary, they be sooner sacrifice their own comfort and con-

And of this class were the present owners

Again and again they had consulted their respective lawyers on the subject and dragged from their hiding places musty old

"I say it belongs to you to keep it in re had already amounted to a sum sufficient to have built a fence around their entire estates, but what was that compared to the

There were not wanting in the neighbor-

At last, one day, Miss Letitia Gill, a woman much respected in the village, and of some weight as a land owner and tax payer, sent for Mr. Babcock to come and Miss Letitia sat at her window sewing a on the place, and maybe he wouldn't be exactly impartial in his judgment about our

"Well, the state of the case is this

When Isaac came up from the long meadow to dinner-they're mowing the meadow today, and an uncommonly good yield there is-when he came up to dinner, he found that stray cows had broken into the vegeta-

"Jes' so," said Mr. Babcock.

otherwise where a lady was concerned?

satisfaction of having their own way?

deeds and records, but always with the same result.

moment.

affairs.'

It was a wooden fence, and when he had succeed d in driving the animals the other side of it, he lifted it from its reclining position and propped it up with stakes. This done." was an operation he had found himself obliged to repeat many times in the course of the season, and not only of that season, but of several previous seasons. Yet Mr. Babcock was neither slack not thrifdess; in fact, he rather prided himself on the ordinary appearance of his farm, and not without reason. How then shall we accoant for his negligefice in this particular the orchard and clover field before they got Miss Letitia was in a manner re-ponsible for into the garden. Just you come and see ;" and putting on her sun-bonnet Miss Letitia showed Mr. Babcock over the damaged prezinets.

"You don't happen to know whose animals did the mischief?' said Mr. Babcock. "Well, I didn't observe them in particular myself, but Isaac said there was one with a peculiar white mark, something like a cross, on its haunch."

"Why, that's Small's old brindle," cried Mr. Babcock. "I know the mark as well as I know the nose on my face. She had balls on her horns, didn't she ?" "Yes, so Isaac said."

"And a kind of hump on her back

"A perfect dromedary," said Miss Letitia. "I noticed that myself." "They were Small's cows, no doubt of it at all," said Mr. Babcock, rubbing his bands. "No sheep with them, hey ?"

"Well, now I think of it, there were sheep -they ran away as soon as they saw Isaac. Yes, certainly they were sheep," said Miss Letitia.

"I knew it-they always go with the cows ; and what do you wish of me-" "It's to fix the damages," said Miss Letitia. "As I said before, women folks are no judges about such matters." Mr. Babcock meditated a moment, and then said .--"Well, I wouldn't take a cent less than seventy-five dollars, if I were you-not a cent."

"Seventy-five dollars ! Isn't that a good deal, Mr. Babcock? You know I don't wish to be hard on the poor man; all I want is a fair compensation for the mischief

"Seventy-five dollars is fair, ma'am-in fact, I might say it's low; I wouldn't have a herd of cattle and sheep tramping through my premises in that way for a hundred."

"There's one thing I forgot to statethe orchard gate was open or they couldn't have got in ; that may make a difference." "Not a bit-not a bit. You'd a right to have your gate open, but Small's cows had no right to run losse. I hope Isaac drove what had happened, on account of the open gate, for had they not assured her that circumstance did not alter the case? It was useless to say that she had no right to keep the cows in custody, for had they not coanseled her to do so? As to going to law about it, would they not thus become the sport of the whole town?

"He that diggeth a pit, he him-elf shall fall into it," said Miss Letitia, who read what was passing in their minds as well as if they had spoken, for the light of Isaac's lantern fell full on their faces, "However, on one condition 1 will free the cows and forgive you the debt."

"What is that ?" Both thought the question, but did not ask it. "The condition is, that you promise put a good new fence in place of the old one that separates your estates, dividing the coast between you, and that henceforth you will live together peaceably so far as in you lies. Do you promise?"

"Yes," muttered both, in a voice scarcely andible. "Shake hands upon it, then," said Miss Letitia.

They did so.

vant, Lanc.

"Now let the cows out, Isaac ; it's time they were milked," said she. And the two men went away driving their cows before them, and a shame-faced air greatly in contrast to the look of triumph with which they had quitted her presence.

The fence was built, and the strife ceased when the cause was removed, but it was long before Miss Letitia's part in the affair came to the public ear; for she herself maintained a strict silence concerning it. and enjoined the same upon her man-ser- thrown in.

Joke on the Undertakers.

A night or two since, while on his beat through B-street, Officer S- found an incbriated individual reposing on a bench in front of Wilson & Brown's undertaking establishment. The officer shook the fellow until he awoke him from his dranken slamber, then explained to him that he would be obliged to escort him to the station house unless he hunted other quarters. The man told the officer that he was a stranger in town, that he had but four bits, and the night being warm he had concluded it would be good economy to sleep out of doors and save his four bits to bay his breakfast in the morning. Not being a hard hearted man, the officer told the fellow that he might finish his succe, provided he would get up and move out of sight before the people were astir on the streets. Pa-sing that way again in the course of an hoar or two, Mr. S- found that his snoozer had rolled off the bench and was lying in the empty case of a coffin which was sitting at the edge of the sidewalk. Rousing his man again, the officer told him he "mast get out of there."

LOTS OF FUN ABOUT LOTS.

HOW THE FAT CONTRIBUTOR GOT A HOME FOR ONE DOLLAR & WEEK.

I joined a building association the other night. I had been told that by the payment of a dollar a week one could secure a home, and I wanted some of it. One dollar a week is very reasonable for a home. Singular so many people are without homes when they can be secured for so little monhad just one dollar in my pocket, and that the assizes held in his native county of Oxof the association.

the money.

it, perhaps I'll keep it right along, handing in a dollar each week."

The secretary smiled and said they hadn't to suit me, but if I would sit down a little while perhaps some would be handed in from which I could make a selection. told him I wasn't as particular as some. cellar well stocked, gas and water on every country places in the vicinity of Oxford. five minutes' walk of the post-office.- his companions, and riding up to a way-Wouldn't mind paying half a dollar or so side inn, without any money in his pocket, home comfortable and happy. The secretary said that could all be fixed easily enough. Asked if I wouldn't like to her mother that she was a great sufferer have a pair of horses and a few servants from fever and ague, and that the doctors dealt in building lots. One dollar a week, feet a cure. Taking a piece of parchment, for two or three years, paid for a building he wrote upon it a cabalistic word in the lot. That changed the aspect of things Greek characters, bound it tightly upon materially. I never could feel entirely at the wrist of the girl, and then assured her home in a vacant lot, no matter if it did that while she retained it she would have only cost a doilar a week. To be sure a no further return of her chills and fever man might be able to get his board so long He remained at the inn for several days, as the fence lasted, but his lodging wouldn't | and the girl had no return of her sickness. be entirely agreeable during inclement When demanding his bill, the g weather. Suppose I secured the lot, not mother said she had no charge against knowing when I would be able to build on him, and only regretted that her limited it. I couldn't build much on half a dozen menus would not permit her to make him lets obtained in that way. Imagine a col- more ample payment for the healing of her ony of us, all settled out there on lots we daughter. He rode away in triumph. And couldn't build on, and every man complain- now, as he sat on the bench as the Lord ing of his lot. What lots of complaining Chief Justice of England, he knew that would be going on. Leave the gate open the decrepit old woman on trial for her at night, and all your children would be life before him was the daughter of the down with a cold next merning. No trou- woman who kept the way-side iun, and ble about catching rain water, though. upon whose wrist he had bound the parch-Whenever it rained hard wouldn't we catch | ment charm forty years before.

NUMBER 36.

WHITE WITCHES.

A. CURIOUS INCIDENT.

We have received from an eminent American jurist the following interesting narrative

Near the close of the seventeenth century that renowned judge, Sir John Holt, Lord Chief Justice of England, esteemed by his contemporaries, as well as by men of after-ages, as an embodiment both of ey. So I went to one of their meetings. I the law and of justice, was presiding at I planked down at once before the secretary ford. A decrepit old woman was put on trial, charged with the crime of witchcraft. "What's that for ?" he inquired, eyeing The history of the case, the offense of which the prisoner was alleged to be guilty, were "That's for a home," said I. "You may laid before the jury by the Attorney Gengive me one of the best homes you have on eral proscenting for the Crown. The Chief hand, and I will try it for a week. If I like Justice listened to the opening of the case with unusual earnestness, for there was recalled to his memory a curious incident connected with his own early life. When any homes in just then that would be likely a student at the University of Oxford his habits were wild and irregular, and he gave no promise of his great future eminence. In company with several other young students he had been for several only wanted a home with eight or ten rooms, days on a carouse through some of the floor, front and back entrance and within Young Holt had separated himself from extra for the use of a piano, billiard table, he yet directed his horse to be fed and an library and other little articles to make ample dinner prepared for himself. Strolling into the kitchen, he noticed the daughter of the hostess was sick, and was told by had been unable to cure her. The young Then he explained that the association collegian at once declared his ability to ef-

UD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

ERIFF'S SALES .- By virtue sundry writs of Vend. Expon. issued Court of Common Pleas of Cambria 1 to me directed, there will be exposed at the Court House in Ebensonry a the following real estate, to will right, title and interest of Theodore M. in I to a piece or parcel of land site Lohn Dean, Thomas Powell, Troxell a thers, containing 657 acres, more over, Taken in execution and to out of John Daily, for use of Chuz.

right, title and interest of Charles and to a piece or parcel of land imagen township, Cambria county, is of James Dennison, M. M. Adams, e.s., containing 40 acres, more or less, sof which are cleared now in pos-aries Johnston. Taken in execution I at the suit of James Deniston, Ali-Ann Jackson and others HERMAN BAUMER, Sherift Office, Ebensburg, Sept. 14, 1874.-3t.

HANS' COURT SALE -By of an order of the Orohaus' Court County, I will offer at public sale, on . 1874, at 20 clock, p. st., the following elestate, to wit: THE UNDIVIDED LF PART of a PIECE OR PARCEL the in the Township of Susquehan Cambria, and State of Pennsylva lands of Abraham Bartlebaugh James Somerville, and others 96 Acres, more or less, unimproved, well timbered and underland with

" Sata -- Ten per cent, of the purchase el on day of sale, one-thirt of the mustion of sale; and the residue in r, with interest, to be secured Mand mortgage of the pur MESSE M. HARTER, teministrator of EDWARD KING, dee'd.

LUD TOWN PROPERTY ALE .- A very elegant and comin Ebensburg borough will be terms. The House is brick and a feet halls and basement wash-128x284 feet and is well sot iralis and shrubbery. Large Sta-and three Buildings used as law erty is desirable for a large fami-tile improvement would make a ner hoarding house. JNO. E. SCANLAN, Agent. wz. Aug. 21, 1574-41.

UNISTRATION NOTICE. Estate of JAMES FARRAN, dec'd. given that Letters of Adminis-te of James Farren, late of the dington, county of Cambria, de-biggranted to the undersigned by only. Persons indebted to said ited to make payment forthwith, g claims against the same will duly authenticated for settlement. O'HARRA, Administrator, Twp., Sept. 11, 1874.-6t.

TE OF DENNIS GOUGH-E. A LUNATIC.-In the matter of EPHRAIM GOLGHNOUR, COM-

- Coursour, a lunatic : Catabria County, notice is hereby above account has been filed in the tary, and that the same will infirmation and allowance at the Office, Ebensburg, Sept. 14, 74, 3t.

MINISTRATION NOTICE.

Estate of JOHN MISEL, deceased infistration on the estate of John Carroll township, Cambria county, granted to the undersigned, all pera said estate are requested to make with, and those having demands as will present them properly pro-

THOMAS MISEL, Administrator. Sept. 4, 1874,-61, given that the first and partial B. BONACKER, Esq., Assignee of ART, of Johnstown borough, has Prothonotary's Office at Ebens-presented to the next Argument in unless cause is shown to the M J. BUCK, M. D., if you owe your butcher nothing, than to quest of his brindle. The two men stared trampled so that you wouldn't know which Burles cause be shown to the contrary.

T. J. K. HITE, Protonotary.
* Office, Ebensburg, Sept. 9, 1874.31.
ICK Association of the contrary.
Office in rear of John Buck's store. Night calls may be made the residence of Johns Buck's store.
Buck, Esq. [April 4, 1873.-tf.] chough to rouse anybody's temper." "It is, so," said Mr. Babcock. "And that isn't all, for by the looks of themselves? It was useless to plead that themselves? It was useless to plead that was beets and which was cucambers, it's at each other for an instant in blank dismay, dine off lamb and roast beef and know that enough to rouse anybody's temper." DICK, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Ebe J. GALLITZIN LAKE, things they must have been rampaging in themselves? It was useless to plead that ture, or clothes, or jewelry. The provide the street of the Attorney-at-Law,

PATENT IMPROVED BUTTER. One of the most valuable discoveries of the day. Fure butter made from the fresh caul fat of Horad Cattle, which does not become rancid, and is in every respect equal to, and for culinary purposes superior to, ordinary Butter. Process very simple, uperforted ordinary functor. Process very stands, ost of apparatus triffing, and $P \circ dist Large$. The indersigned are sole owners of the Patentright or Pennsylvania, and are now ready to sell Coun-y Licenses on application. A Factory being in peration in Bethlehem, the process can be then ughly inspected. Address F. W. LEINBACH & lo., Bethlehem, Pa.

Costar Exterminators And Insect Powder.

For RATS, MICE, ANTS, BED-BUGS, BOTHS, &c. fence had been a source of unending bicker-J. F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., N Y., SOLE AGENTS. ings and strife

ONE MILLION ACRES MICHIGAN LANDS SPLENDID FOR SALE!

Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad has been finished, is 320 miles long, and its entire hand grant earned i

In Farming Lands to Actual Settlers, for Individuals or Colonics. pair ; that's as plain as a pike-s.aff," Mr. Babcock would say. Special BARCAINS for 1874. 100.010 neres have been sold already. The lands are coll limbered, making the less hind of forens. Strong solls of great producing power. Easily reached by rail or water. thend Markets. Railroad runs through the grant. Michigan is one of the less that the drand most prosperous States in the West. It sucheds are unclauded—its immu-cial standing No. 1. Nodificently in transportation. "And I say it belongs to you-any fool might see that," Mr. Small would reply, and then high words would follow, and they would part in anger, more determined and obstinate than ever. The lawyers' fees and the loss by damages from each other's cattle Pence and prosperity are in its borders. Lands from $4 to $* per here. Time sufficient. Interest 7 per cent. W.A. A. HOWAND, Land Comm'r, P. R. L. PIERCE, Grand Kapids, Mich. See'y Land Department.

$5 2 $20 gen day at home. Terms free, Address 55 2 Store & Co., Portland, Me. A WEEK guaranteed to Male and! Fe-

SI male Agents, in their own locality. Costs NOTHING to try it. Particulars Free-P. O. VICKERY & CO., Augusta, Me.

see her on business ; a summons which he young and middle aged man, having the largest made haste to obey, as how could it be patronage and the best facilities for instruction of any business college in existence, Students Received at any Time.

seam, but she dropped her work and took For circulars giving full information as to course off her spectacles when Mr. Babcock made of study, method of instruction, necessary expenses, etc., address, J. C. SMITH, A. M., his appearance. Principal.

SASH-DOORS, BRACKETS AND MOULDINGS. LUMBER of EVERY DESCRIPTION. SHINGLES and POSTS-Cedar and Locust. seroll-Sawing and Re-sawing done to order.

CORNER ROBINSON AND ANDERSON STS., [9-18.] ALLEGHENY CITY, PA. [3m.]

UPHOLSTERING.-Having loca-U red permanently in this place, (at the Carriage Shop of D. M. Chute.) the undersigned desires to inform the people of Northern Cambria and parts adjacent that he is propared to do all kind of UPHOLSTERING, such as trimming car-riages, buggies and other vehicles, upholstering sofas, chairs, ottomans, bedding, etc., and in fact doing all work in that line. Oid articles of jurni-ture, vehicles, etc., made as good as new in this watering , and now to see it all torn and them to the pound, didn't he?" The truth was that this fence formed the boundary line between his estate and that "I heard him say he shut 'em up some of Mr. Small ; and three generations of men where, and didn't mean to let 'em out till who owned these estates had been unable to the owner calls for 'em. Bat, Mr. Babcock, what if he should refuse to pay the damages? decide to whom it belonged to rebuild and keep it in repair. If the owners had chanced I should hate to go to law about it."

"He won't refase; if he does, keep the critters till he will pay. As to haw, I guess he's had about enough of that." "I'm sare I thank you for your advice," longed to that much larger class who would said Miss Letitia, "and I mean to act upon it to the very letter." venience than their so-called rights, this And Mr. Babcock took his departure with a happy expression of countenance. Scarcely was be out of sight when Mis Letitia sent a sammons for Mr. Small. which he obeyed as promptly as his neighhar had done

She made to him precisely the same state ment she had made to Mr. Babcock, showed him the injured property, and asked him to fix the damages. It was remarkable before he did this that he should ask the same question Mr. Babcock had asked, namely, whether she had any suspicion to whom the animals belonged. "Well, one of them I observed had a terribly crooked horn." "Precisely-it's Babcock's heifer, I should know her among a thousand. She was black and white, wasn't she?" "Well, now I think of it, she was; one seldom sees so clear a black and white on a cow." "To be sure : they're Babcock's animals hood peace-makers who would gladly have fast enough. Well, let me see-what you. settled the affair by arbitration, but to this neither of the beiligerents would listen for a want is just a fair estimate, I suppose?" "Certainly."

with."

"Well, I should say ninety dollars was as low as he ought to be allowed to get off

"Ob, but I fear that will seem as if I meant to take advantage. Suppose we call it-say seventy-five?" "Just as you please, of course; but hanged if Td let him off for a cent less than a hundred, if it were my case."

"And if he refuses to pay?" "Wby, keep the animals till he comes round, that's all."

"So you got my message ; thank you for "But there's one thing I neglected. to coming, I'm sure. Sit down, do. I supmention-our gate was standing open ; that pose my man Isaac told you I wanted to may alter the case." consult you on a matter of basiness-a mat-

"Not at all-there's no law against keeping your gate open ; there is against stray animals."

"Very well; thank you for your advice," said Miss Letitia ; and Mr. Small departed with as smiling a countenance as Mr. Babcock had worn.

But at milking time that night he made a strange discovery ; old brindle was missing! At about the same hour Mr. Babcock made a similar discovery; the black and white heifer was nowhere to be found. A horrible suspicion seized them both-a suspicion which they would not have made known to each other for the world.

They waited till it was dark, and then Mr.

While he stood looking over into the pen staked off to get a foothold I shall begin to the conductor, she exclaimed, piteously, has taken with that garden is something Better to gaze upon bare walls than pic-COUNT NOTICE .- Notice is where the cows were confined, and trying to "Mr. Conductor, do please stop the train : amazing; working in it, Mr. Babcock. HENRY JONES, of Vermont, on his dy. I've left my baby." The train was stopbuild. early and late, weeding and digging and negotiate with Miss Letitia for the release tures unpaid for. given that the second and final Better to eat thin soup from earthenware. ing bed, said he had never written a word ped and the baby recovered, amidst the H. KINEEAD, Esq., Assignee of JOBN of Allegheny township, has been filed thonotary's Office at Ebensburg, and of the heifer, along came Mr. Small, in

"Out of what?" grambled the fellow. "Out of that coffin," said S-though it was but one of those large coffin-shaped cases in which coffins are shiped.

"Who's in a coffin," said the fellow, rubbing his eyes.

"Why you are," said S. "If I am I don't know it."

"Weil, I know it, and if you don't get out of that it will be the end of you. Don't you know that if the undertakers get up in the morning and find you snoozing in here they'll clap a lid on the coffin, nail you up and bury you, and then send in a bill and make the county pay your funeral expen-

Crawling out of his narrow quarters, the fellow stood and gazed apon the coffin case for a time, then said

"What sort of undertakers have you got up here in this country, that go and set co. fins 'longside the sidewalks to ketch men?' and without waiting for an answer he shuffled away to find safer quarters.

Chunks of Wisdom.

We don't know who is the philosopher speaking, but deem his suggestions so suggestive that we say cut this out and read it often :

Better to wear a calico dress without trimming, if it be paid for, than to owe the shop-keeper for the most elegant silk, cut and trimmed in the most bewitching manner.

Better to live in a log-cabin all your own, than a brown-stone mansion belonging to somebody else.

Better walk forever than run into debt for a horse and carriage.

Better to sit by the pine table, for which you paid three dollars ten years ago, than send home a new extension, black walnut top, and promise to pay for it next week. Better to use the old cane-seated chairs, and fadeda two-ply carpet, than tremble at the bills sent home from the upholsterer's for the most elegant purlor set ever made. Better to meet your business acquaintances with a free "don't owe you a cent"

Better to pay the street organ-grinder two it ?

was pained to see those horses on a gallop, yard, if he is likely to die.

and he asked me if I wasn't ashamed of can cure the fever and ague." On asking myself, turning into a pillar of salt in that how, he produced a small piece of parchmanner.

me. He had evidently dropped in casually bound on the wrist, and the disease will not knowing what was going on. Said he: disappear or go away. He did not tell me "What is the occasion of this meeting ?" how or when he had obtained the wonder-I handed him a circular. He took out a ful charm. Nor was I at that time aware sorrowful pair of spectacles, and adjusting of the trial before referred to, and sure I them to his grief-stricken nose, read, "A | am that he could have had no knowledge pleasant home for one dollar a week."

yet I haven't a pleasant home." "Why not ?" I queried.

cried, in anguish, and buried his emotions emigrating to America, and that it may in the advertisement.

I suggested that he could buy a lot and send his mother-in-law out there to improve feeting cures by and through the imaginait, and this seemed to set him thinking, tion. It has been said that sometimes vio-But, good heavens ! suppose other men | lent exercise and sometimes strong impresshould follow his example, and I should sions on the mind will ward off attacks of find my lot among a whole lot of mothers- what are called fits of ague .- Harper's in-law! When I pay a dollar a week for a Magazine for October. home I don't want to surround myself with

The meeting was entirely harmonious. I paid my dollar, and intend to go up in a lot already paid for. I like to feel that I

She had followed in his own footsteps, I sat down to observe the proceedings and had been using the charm for the banfor a little while. One of the officers of the efit of her neighbors and friends. The association suspended a handsome map of Chief Justice called her up, and as she unthe property on the wall. It was laid out folded some old greasy rags, she presented beautifully in streets running at right an- to him the well-worn parchment with the gles, and every lot was numbered. You cabalistic word in his own handwriting never saw anything so level as that property written upon it. It is needless to add that was unless it was the speculator's head who the woman was at once discharged. If put it in the market. There was a wide the great Chief Justice had previously enavenue running along one side of it, with tertained any doubts on the subject of a street car and horses on full gallop. I witchcraft, they were removed.

There is a curious sequel to the incident and thought of calling Bergh's attention to above related. Some twenty-five years age it, until I learned that the street railroad i the writer of this article was sitting in the isn't built yet-only projected. I shan't private office in Wall street of the late Mr. buy a package of tickets immediately. The S-, then a wealthy retired merchant, president expatiated on the advantages of and acting president of one of the principal the location; showed how convenient it was | Wal! street banks. He was a quaint, cuto some toll-gate, and made a neat allusion | rious man, fond of the marvelous, and disto a graveyard in the vicinity. I suppose posed to believe in spiritualism, then first a man can swap his lot for a lot in the grave- coming into prominent notice. Our conversation had been continued for some I inquired of the president who paid for time, discussing Scottish second sight, sugrading the streets. He said that was pernatural appearances, and especially charged to the lots. Asked him if Lot's Kidd's buried treasures, when he suddenly wife would have to pay for it in case of death changed the subject, saying, abruptly, "I ment with a cabalistic word written on it A melancholy man came and sat beside | in the Greek characters, saying it must be of it. A hundred and fifty years had come Then he crumpled the paper in his fin- and gone since the fallacy had been exposed gers, and whispered hoarsely in my ear, by Lord Chief Justice Holt. It is probable "Costs me a hundred dollars a week to live, that at some time during the forty years preceding that trial the woman possessing the pretended charm had communicated "My mother-in-law lives with me !" he the secret, and given a copy to some friend have been handed down through successive generations, and perhaps in some cases of-ble garden." FORGOT HER BABY. - A curious incident a menagerie. ture, vehicles, etc., made as good as new in this particular, and perfect satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. Charges moderate and work at-tended to promptly. FELIX WEBER. Ebensburg, July 31, 1874.-3m.* "He did, hey ?" COUNT NOTICE .- Notice is Babcock stole round to Miss Letitia's, and recently occurred on a western train. As "You can fancy the riot they made. meekly asked leave to look at the animals the cars were moving away from the Terre declare, Isaac was almost ready to use pro smile, than to dodge around the corner to which had committed the trespass. He day or two and stake off the fraction of a Haute depot a pretty young woman came fane language. I'm not sure that he didn't escape a dan. would have done it without asking leave from the ladies' car, and, rushing into the E. H. PLANK, M. D., respectfully offers his professional services to the oitizens of Ebensburg and vicinity. Office ad-jeining residence and immediately in the rear of Hon. K. J. Llogd's drug store. Night calls can be made at the residence of Mrs. Bunn, on Craw-ford street, Ebensburg. [4-24,-tf.] say 'deuce,' and I'm certain he did say possess real estate, and I want to see it grow smoking car, frantically appealed to everyonly that thrifty Miss Letitia always shut ' darn ;' and, after all, I couldn't feel to recents for music, if you must have it, than J. K. HITP, Prothonotary. week by week. When I have enough body to stop the train. Catching sight of her barn doors at night. proach him very severely, for the pains he owe for a grand plano.