OBITUARY.

PARRISH .- Died at his residence in Munster township, this county, on Sunday morning last, after a long and painful illness, Mr. Sillas Par-RISH, aged 51 years and 2 months. Mr. Parrish was for the past thirty-three years a railroad em-ploye, first on the Allegheny Poratge R. R., and more recently on the Pa. R. R. He was for twenty six years an engineer, one of the oldest if not the senior engineer on the last named road, du-ring which time he enjoyed the respect and confi lence of his employers as well as the friendship of this fellow workmen. As a Christian he was a faithful member of the Catholic (hurch, and in his last illness he had the consolation of its ministra-tions-dying as he had lived, a zealons and devo-ted son of the faith of his fathers. As a neighbor, Mr. P. enjoyed the affections of all with whom he came in contact, and it is not too much to say that he died without an atomy in the world. came in contact, and it is not too much to say that he died without an enemy in the world. His re-mains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at the Summit, on Tuesday morning last, in pres-ence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives, who proved by their demeanor the respect they bore for the deceased. While we heartily sympa-thize with the bereaved family in their sad afflic-tion, we are rejoiced that one who served his Di-vine Master so faitfully on earth is now, as we may confidently hope, enjoying the reward of the "good and faithful servant" in the mansions of sternal rest. Esq., of this place, was warmly congratulated by more than one rural member of the radical party on his nomination for Prothonotary. It is quite unnessary for us to say that a gentleman like Mr. Kinkead, so well and widely known in this county as a firm and consistent Democrat, could neither receive nor could he accept a nomination for that or any other office from the hands of a Republican county convention. It was his son, D. H. Kinkend, who does not walk in the political footsteps of his father, who received the nomination in question. He is a very respectable young gautleman, but stands a much better chance of being struck by lightning than of being elected to the office of Prothonotary of Cambria county. -Under the proper heading we chronicle the death of an interesting little daughter of our worthy friend John Itel, of Washington township, which sad bereavement was the result of fatal injuries received on Saturday evening last, in a runaway accident near Munster. The facts as we have learned them are, that Mr. Itel and his wife, a little daughter and an intant child were riding in a spring wagon, at the point indicated, when the horse suddenly took fright and started off at a fearful rate, not only throwing out the occupants of the wagon, but kicking the little girl in the face, thereby knocking one of her eyes completely out and otherwise mutilating and injuring her so terribly about the head that she died on Wednesday morning following, as announced. Mr. Ital was also kicked on the left leg, between the knee and ankle, receiving a very severe and painfal injury, which will probably confine him to the house for, many days to come. Mrs. Itel and the infant, strange as it may seem, escaped without injury, a fact which leads us to suppose that they at least were not thrown from the wagon, while it is possible that Mr. Itel and his little daughter also remained in the wagon, our information to the contrary notwithstanding, and that the injuries were inflicted while in that position. Be that as it may, Mr. Itel and his estimable lady, who are highly esteemed by all who know them, have the earnest sympathies of the entire community in their great bereavement.

Dyspersia is characterized by a great variety of symptoms, the most prominent of which are pain after eating, belching, heartbarn, waterbrash, fullness of stomach, with tenderness, load or weight in that region, debility, loss of fiesh, despondency, head-ache, bad or capricious appetite, palpitation, cough, nervourness, restlessness, etc., etc. When the disorder is of long continuence other organs of the body soon become affected and the lungs, liver, brain or kidneys frequently suffer. In fact, dyspepsia is the forerunner of chronic diseases, such as consumption, scrofula, hemorrhoids, uterine difficulties, colic pains, paralysis, neuralgia, female derangements, nervous spells, weak-
