The Supreme Court of California has "knocked the local option law higher than a kits," which pleases the wine growers, the barley rancheros, and the hop raisers. The way that ole and lager was put doze, as the news spread, wasn't the way the local optionists wanted it to be put down. I often think that if these folks would just attend to their own sins they would have enough to do, with-out attempting to revolution ze all social and out attempting to revolution ze all social and civil law. Their hands are not cleaner, nor their hearts purer, perhaps, than are those of men who see fit to take drinks. THE OVSTER SEASON .- The cool Fall months are now here, and our old friend, the Oyster, whose open countenance reveals its honest heart, has returned to receive a cordial welcome. As its most popular companions we find in universal demand S. S. Marvin & Co.'s well known Oyster Crackers, and a still crisper variety-the Farina Crackers. There is also a constant call for S. S. But for our own choice, we would give the preference to their FAMILY CRACEERS, which we regard as the very hest of all oyster concomitants.
