The nomination of John Reilly as the Democratic camilidate for Congress has produced wide-spread conservation amongst the Republicans of this district, but espacially in Blair county, where both the candidates reside. In view of his acknowledged arrength and popularity at home the Republican committee of that county held a meeting on Saturday last, and, ouraldering the emergency great and the danger imminout, resolved to hold a political word for it he will be triumphantly elected. his own county as compared with Mr. of every honest voter in the district. the nolitical wind blows is exceedingly *ignificant, to say the least.

It is true that John Rellly is connected with the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company, and holds a very important and responsible position under its management, but we never knew until inunfit or disqualified, either politically or morally, to represent this district in Congress. John Scott, one of the United States Senators from this State, is the paid atterney of the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company, and yet no sane man, or insane one, for that matter, objects to him on that account. He is a gentleman of talent and of good reputation, and although a thorough-paced Radical, as all "coreant Democrats invariably has and always will be, he is a gentleman. Robert L.
