- Friday afternoon, W. S. Robinson, and L. A. Brady, of Brookville, Pa., were out hunting near Gear's school house, about three miles from that place, and had laid their guns against a log, while gathering chestauts. When Mr. Robinson went to take up his gun, the trigger caught on the log and went off, the shot taking affect in his forehead. He lived but a few minutes. He was a very estimable and worthy young man, and his death has east a gloom over

-It is estimated that the people who full particulars and free on reque have fallen victims to the famine in Asia MASON & HARLING ROAD Minor number over 150,000. As an instance of the terrible devastation among the cattle and flocks, it is stated that in one village, out of more than 1600 sheep and goats, just one sheep and one goat another, from a flock of 1200 sheep and goats, 8 are reported; and from another lock in the same village, numbering 800, of which 700 are mobilir goats, the same number, 8, is reported. -Dispatches received in London from

Tiffis, the capital city of Georgia, in Asiatic Russia, report an alarming conflagration. The fire was first discovered in the principal theatre of the city, and, owing to the scarcity of water, the flames spread rapidly, and soon enveloped almost the entire upper or Russian quarter of the city. Over one hundred and tifty houses had been destroyed, and the fire was still raging furiously. The theatre was entirely destroyed, together with many fine buildings. shabitants were wild with excitement and fear, and everything was in confusion and disorder. It is stated that several lives have been jost

-The editor of the Lewistown Democrat was shown on Saturday last, by Esquire John Swartzell, two singular looking fowls, comething larger than a pigeon in size, and nearly black in color, with long necks and half webbed feet. The one was exught alive in the creek at Look's Mills by Geo. Pecht's boys, and the other was found dead in the public road leading to Milroy, by Mrs. Chas. M. Bell. They were strangers in that latitude; but where they came from, where they are indigenous, and what is their proper name, are questions which $5 2 $20 perday at home. Terms from has not yet been sulved. The binds were has not yet been selved. The birds were placed in charge of Constable Hughes, for taxidermical manipulation. It is believed that they are a Delaware bay bird.

-A distressing accident occurred in Ponela county, Mississippi, last Wednesday, which cast a gloom over the entire county. A party of four young men were hunting door in Tallahachie bottom, and became separated. One of them, Ben, Mitchell, while pursuing a path through the cane-break, observed the cane shaking ahead of him, and thinking it was caused by deer, fired the contents of a double-barreled shot gun, loaded with buck shot, and hearing screams, rushed to the spot, and found Thomas L. Mosely, one of his companion lying dead, shot through the head, David White, another, shot in the head and mor tally wounded, and the third one, S. W. Johnson, severely wounded. All the parties were very respectably connected, and the deplorable accident has brought mourning and sorrow to many homes, -The Mobile Register gives a curious example of the means resorted to by the agents of Landaulet Williams to swell the roll of prisoners arrested for oppressing and intimidating the blacks. The wife of a well-known citizen of Sumter county, a few days ago, sent her two washermen to a creek some distance from the house to wash, as the well had become dry. About noon she sent them dinner by a white man, who was employed on the place, and a negro who saw this man on his way to the creek hastened on and reported that he was feeding Ku Klax in the woods. Of course the man was arrested and put in jail, where he will probably be confined until after election. Many of the arrests in Alabama have been made on even less provocation than this, and with no other object than to intimidate white voters.

ton ring were permitted to flich the hard carrying their friends with them, and at the last election were to be seen marching up The people are becoming quite ly all parts of the reconstructed states persistently for the robber governments.
