DR. SLUDG'S INVENTION. - The Patented

Tooth-Puller. - Max Adeler contributes the following: A Reading paper contains an TOLUME VIII.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1874.

NUMBER 43

HALES VEGETABLE SICILIN

Fory year increases the popularity this valuable Hair Preparation; ish is due to merit alone. We can sere our old patrons that it is kept to me to its high standard; and it only reliable and perfected prepgion for restoring GRAY OR FADED to its youthful color, making it histrons, and silken. The scalp, its use, becomes white and clean. moves all cruptions and dandruff. by its tonic properties, prevents air from falling out, as it stimuand nourishes the later-glands. is use, the hair grows thicker and ger. in be less, it restores the ary glands to their normal vigor, will create a new growth, except streme old age. It is the most amical HAIR DRESSING ever used. requires fewer applications, and s the hair a splendid, glossy ap-ed for excellent quality; and I aler it the BEST PREPARATION is intended purposes." of Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines. Price One Dollar.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., Stain

ver of Massachusetts, says, "The tuents are pure, and carefully

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS.

How Renewer in many cases reo long a time, and too much to restore gray or faded Whish. a have prepared this dye, in or which will quickly and a seconnolish this result. It al, and produces a colet either rub nor wash off all Druggists. Price Fifty mufactured by R. P. HALL & CO., NASHUA, N.H.

ALWAYS ON HAND

SPLENDID

OCH

OF uniture.

Redding, Mattresses.

Feathers. Blankets, Quilts.

THE REAL PROPERTY AND PARTY OF THE PARTY OF HARILDORY & CO.. 123 North Tenth St.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. LETTLE CONFAB

ger Sewing Machine Ind Where to Buy it.

Nican buy the sewing machine people santus-Yes, with pleasure. I Singer Sewing Machine that you the place, and my word for it lessed with your purchase if you have machines. Mosses, BAULET with your purchase it you man the problem of the subscriber, in Clearfield towns on hand all styles the subscriber, in Clearfield townscriber machines, from the ship, Cambria county, about 11, miles north of St. or not. They also keep thread, is other paraphrenalis of a sew are at all times prepared to at ting of machines in a substantial manner, and at very moderate set the place-High street, we masters, Ebensberg [4-64-66]

YEAGER & CO., and Retail Manufacturers of TER AND SHEET-IRON WARE. AND DEALERS IN

4. Parlor and Cooking Stoves, 1402 Eleventh Avonue, Altoona, Pa.

6 and sPOUTING made to order taken perfect in manufacture and **pectfully solicited and promptly in and police attention accorded to they purchase or not.

Ele PLANING MILL. M. SIMON.

ANUFACTURES OF Weather-Boarding, Shutters, ER of EVERY DESCRIPTION, the and POSTS Codar and Locast. TR ROLL MOT AND AND SESON STE.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY and DAILY for 1875. The approach of the Presidential election gives anusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe cem fully, takinfully, and fearlessly.
THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a cirulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its reinters are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeaver to keep it fully up to the ord tandard, but to improve and add to its variety nd power. THEWEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thoragt newspaper. All the news of the day will be sund in it, condensed when unimportant, at full ength when of mement, and always, we trust, reated in a ciear, interesting and instructive man

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate rending a covery sort, but will print nothing to afford the most scrupping and definite taste. It will alway contain the most interesting stories and remains

The number of men independent in politics is crassing, and the Wittik LV SUN is their pa-er especially. It belongs to no party, and one es-alliciation, constabling for practiple and for the action of the best and. It expects the corrupes the country and three ices the preferences regardican instructions. It immerstear knaves are soldened overstrond their supporters, The markers of every almi and the fashions are The price of the WEERLY SUN is one dollars p- ware-equivalent of the first twenty cents will a perper properly for a year.

Tire White he had been build pages, biry six LILLS NEW YOUR CITY.

REGISTER'S NOTICE.-Notice is hereby given that the following A - and Suntassement of Missia B. Miller.

I that are sant of James McMalse, and Pairink Denegat, executors of Corne Donaire, lais of Clearneld township, devil. The are and purils, seesant of John Frie as Township, and Win, R. Tasker, executors of and Springs borough, decreased.

The last and heal aschurt of John Hoffman, boinistrator of the estate of Daniel Ream, late minimistrator of the estate of Uniter Ream, late of Richina's township, deceased.

9. The flast and final account of Theresa A. Wells, and Thomas Roover, administration of Andrew Workel, fare of Cambria township, deceased.

10. The flast and final second of Silas H. and Alical P., respective, administrators of Patrick Donough, late at Allegberty township deceased.

11. The fluid account of Peter Cick, guardian of more chieven of Join Elebenschr, late of Consmany because the partial account of Thomas Pomphys.

whose administrator of Mary Donahoe, late of Washington roweship, deceased,

13. The account of James Chardon, administratin of John Chardon, late of Chardell township, decreased.

14. The first wall from second of David G. Grid, the executor of from the J. Gridhales, late of Catalogic for neith, the reserve.

13. The first and final account of Florinda Herr, administrator of George Herr, late of Summerced. terminish proceedings of the process of the first new and partial account of W. B. Ban-nek P. truscon approximation and the real empte of Daniel Goog on an hard Travourtownship, dee of JAMES M. SINGER, Register. Register's Office, Ebensburg, Nov. 9, 1874.

WIDOWS APPRAISEMENTS. - Notice is hereby given that the folt threatory and appreciation of personal pro-cty appreciated and set apars for Mary Young down Andrew Young Labout Washington town Inventory and appraisement of personal proty appraised and set apart for Mary Fatron, but of January Fatron, late of Washington towns, the distribution of personal protest presented and set apart for Sail & Sennand, low of Henry Schmabel, late of Johnstown but-witten of Henry S timbel, late of Jonnstown forongs, dec'd-4805,00.

4. Inventory and appraisement of personal property appraised and set apart for Josephine M.
Edie, witten of Rev. James W. Edie, tale of Ebousburg borough, dec'd 8227,00.

5. Inventory and appraisement of personal property appraised and set apart for Eliza Parrish, widow of Silns Parrish, late of Cambria township, dec'd-820,15.

JAMES M. SINGER, Register
Property Chine Libersburg, Nov. 8, 1874.

PUBLIC SALE!

Saturday, Nov. 28th. inst., the following described personal property, to wit: I Mare 7 years old, I Horse 5 years old, 3 head Young Cattle, 9 head Sheep, 1 four-horse power Threshing Machins, 1 two-horse Wagon, 1 two-horse patent Plough, 1 one-horse Plough, 1 Shovel Plough, 1 Cultivator, 1 Harrow, 1 Wind Mill, 1 Cutting Rox, a lot of Log Chains, Horse Gears, Sadilles, Eridles, Coonskin Robe, &c., to gether with Hay by the ten, Straw by the lond, and many other articles not necessary to mention.

22 Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, a. m., of said day, when terms will be made known and a reasonable credit will be given.

Clearfield Twp., Nov. 6, Br4. 4t.

Area at the same time and place, will be effer-

Clearfield Twp., Nov. 6, 1874.-41.

Ar an at the same time and place, will be efferd for sale, MY FARM containing 60 ACRES.

Bore or less, about 47 acres of which are cleared, self fenced, and in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a two story PLANK MOUSE, a LOG BARN, and all needful OUT-BUILDINGS. Good water in abundance.

OFFICE OF POOR HOUSE DIRECTORS, CAMBRIA COUNTY, -And now. November 280, 1874, the Board of Directors met. Present-John Bloch, Anselm Weaklen, and A. Durbin. This being the time fixed for ng year.

Resolved. That Dr. J. J. Oatman be continued old flint marched me off into a ten-acre field as House Physician for the coming year, on same conditions as last year.

Resolved, That no appointment be made for forty-five John Smiths all under arrest by Counsel for the Directors.

Reserved. That the meetings of the Board of Directors be held hereafter on the first Tuesday of we were all guilty the Smith family must Coursel for the Directors.

The raist crept over the valley Heavy and chill and gray; The mist crept into the chamber Where she sitteth name alway,

THE MIST.

The mist crept over the mountain Which loomed through its slandows dark, And kissed with its cold embraces

The old oak's guarled burk, She cowered close to the fire, The flames shot clear and isir; They flashed on her pullid features,

And they saw that the mist was there

A mist that is born of sorrow, A cloud that is formed of dread, Like the faint gray shade that gathers Over the face of the dead.

On them 'tis the sign that showeth

Life's conqueror bath descended;

On her the mark ting tellern The light of life is enried. The mist will pass off from the valley When spring's first pulses stir; But the mist that rests on her spirit

JOHN SMITH.

Will never pass off from her.

Last Taesday an ema-inted and care-worn adividual who appeared to be laboring under some great grief, appeared at the Oshkosh International Hotel and in a tremalous hand, registered himself as "John

Attracted by the necoliar name and thinking he might be a French Count we luterviewel bing-

We were not prepared for the horrible narrative he gave us. Sinking back in his chair with an expression of acute suffering, he began : "I am John Smith. Millions of other homan beings are in the same Ex. Some of the Smith family have been hung, some are in the profitentiary, and the ha ance are

"I hope Heaven and Earth will forgive times, The first and furtherment of Moses B. Miller. the shut I am John Smith. That is, I am | "Then I went up stairs and rubbed my > ard was anything bar a saint. Dick Turoin broke the Ten Contemplaces and signed for an eleventic but lif-tory most add an extenanting touch to their characters when they are compared to the doman who delibs ecately and of his mulicenfores longist maned himself John Smith and handed down the terture to future ages.

"The doctrine of total depenvity was once involved in some doubt. But when a creature wearing his Maker's image, with a conscience and an immortal soul, and capable of distinguishing between right and wrong, came along and called himself John Smith -that settled the question! The doctrine of total depravity is correct, and any man who now disputes it paght to be not in the stocks or bundeaffed and summarily married to Mary Walker or Sasan B. But if he is named Smith, we forgive him; and if he is John Smith be may also cut his mother-inlaw's throat if he desizes to and it is agreenble to the old lady-and we will acquit him

"If a man commits murder or arson, the jury should (if there are no mitigating circomstances) find him guilty of being John Smith, and they have done their whole duty, and let the Judge publicly b and him "John Smith," and he goes from the court-room a

"H, however, the proof shows anything in extenuation of the offense, he should merely be hung. For, unless it is a clear case, the law doesn't provide for a more severe punishment than death, and no law framan or divine ought to allow a man to be called John Smith for posit larceny.

"My name has caused me more trouble than Don Quixote's chivalry ever did him. I will detail a few instances. The balance I leave to your imperination :

"A friend sent me some cash by express I went for it, and the clerk blandly informed me that Mr. Smith had already got the money. I carsed him, and threatened to tear him asunder, but he only laughed.

"Thus I was a victim to my own name. "The little duck of an angel, who I intended to marry, and who owned a splendid hillside farm, wrote me letters brimful of love and poetry, but another John Smith received them, answered them, and married her, and even had the impudence to ask me to congratulate him. I did so-with my

"And so I am a bachelor. "But it is consoling to know that no children will inherit my carse. "Another man publicly chastised me for insulting his wife, although I didn't know he had a wife. Sie had told him John Smith insulted her, and as I was the first John he came to, he commenced to thrash

"I went on business to a distant town While I was registering my name at the hotel a policeman arrested me. I demanded his authority, and he handed me a telegram: 'Arrest John Smith on a charge of murder. I told him I had never killed anything in my life except snakes and fleas, and that I was a colporteur and a member of the Methodist church, but I might as well have told Resolved. That I. Lilly be appointed and continued as Steward of the Poor House for the ensueach month.

Result d. That the foregoing Resolutions be published in the Ebensburg FREENAN and the Johnstry. But all day they kept marching John

"Oh! it was a sad day for us Smiths when the telegraph was invented. We have desecrated old Mor-e's grave without a particle of re-Morse. One telegram had brought a ten-acre field of Smiths to grief

"Just at dark, an ther telegram came, it read: Release him. The right one is in irons at Liverpool.'

"We hope he'll be hung. He had no right to murder anybody auless he explained that we were innocent.

"The policeman said he was sorry, and I told him I was too. I gave him a Bible and told him I hoped he would repent before it was too late.

"Oh! those other John Smiths. I pay their bills and take all the consequences of their acts. The man who wears No. 10 boots and treads on my corns, has no place in my prayers, and if I write his obituary it will be full of profanity, but I save my best oaths for John Smith. If I could gather them all up and pitch them into Lake Erie I could sleep six nights and make my will and, remarking that I was 'the head of the and take it, and vermifuge also.

"My father named me John Smith at a time when I was unable to protect myself. He died of remorse and I forguve him. He repented in his old age and was perhaps forgiven by a higher power. 'Peace to his

"When about eight years of age I asked my mother who I was named after. Her answer was enough to give me the delivium tremens-said she, You are named after a celebrated farmer, orator, blacksmith, statesman, lawyer, horsethief, etc., etc., who lives in Asia, Africa, Halifax, Maine, Vermont, Chicago and other places, who died named John So they are unfortunate all of the whooping cough at Lundy's lane and other places, and in divers ways at different one of them-a small wave in the ocean of | forehead and tried to solve the mystery, and "Relar pierre was a bed man. Juck Step- ribs and still didn't know who I was named following morning I commenced calling

"But I know now,

"I have tried to bribe legislatures to say that the 'sins of the father shall be vis-Leonidas, and Joan of Arc. and that old George Washington, and Andrew Jack be stigmatized.

"They are all right in a moderate way and the world owes them something, but suppose some daring fellow had stuck a bowie knife in the bowels of the original John Smith be would be the Patron Saint of the Smith family for all time, and the Smiths hold the balance of power just now. The Smiths would make his grave their Mecca and crawl there (if they could find it), hold a jubilee and plant timson-weed on him and perhaps have him in Frank Leslie's paper as a self-made

"John Smith, of Virginia, is the first that infested this continent. It old Powhartan had smashed John Smith's skull, burned his body and wheelbarrowed the ashes into man as Nero or myself.

man.' No maiden with any principle would have saved John's life. "But it is all right. You can't obliterate plague or sword can do it. He bears a charmed life. He is immortal this side of the grave. We hope he won't exist hereafter unless his named is changed.

"If a John Smith accidentally departs this life, five hundred Smiths attend the funeral and blubber over him and then go straight home and name the whole family John.

"Thousands of John-Smith widows draw pensions. Of course John was cut into mince-meat by cannon balls and yet you can't turn a street corner without meeting John, who is still in good health! Reconeile it if you can."

Then he grouned and looked helplessly at the floor. Shocked by the ghastly revelation. I arose and left him alone in his sorrow. That night he cut his throat and asked that "E Plaribus Unam" be put on his

Some amusing incidents occur among over an Eastern railroad to Boston, when a San Francisco Golden Era. lady entered at one of the stations with a child under one arm and a dog under the other. The car being well filled, she made for the seat where the gentleman was sitting alone, and was proceeding to stow herself,

USEFUL FISH-LINES.

THE EXTRAORDINARY STORY TOLD BY A MONTANA MINER. . While my friend Clyde and myself were out in the hills back of the Golden Gate Park last week, a jack rabbit came along, spont near Langley, Ga. : and stopped to look at us.

breakfast to-morrow," I remarked. "Not with my consent," he replied. "What reason can you give for not consenting ?"

killed one since, and will never kill one again."

"How did he manage to save your life ?" "Three years ago I was living in Montana. A smelter had just been built, and created a demand for silver rock. I owned an interest in a lead that had been sunk thirty feet. Thinking the time had come to make it available, I concluded to go army,' or something of the kind, go hence there and get some ore and have it tested. I did so; and reached the place just in "A Smith baby has no protection. They time to take shelter in the mine from a call him John, and he has to lay in his cradle terrible hallstorm. I lighted my candle, went to the bottom and went to work.

"I had ot been there more than five min ates when I heard a noise that sounded like a cannon. The rock over my head shook, and in a moment the shaft behind me caved. You can imagine my feelings better than I can describe them, when I found myself buried alive. I tremble even at this distant day when I think of that moment. The roof of the shaft was rocks, and when they came down they did not pack so tight but what the air came through. There was nothing that I could do to release myself. I knew that if relief did not come from the outside I must perish. No one knew I had gone there. A road can past the mouth of the shaft; but again; and all day, whenever I thought I heard a sound, I shouted.

When night came again all hopes of change it to Theophilus Senrecrow but they being released had abandoned me. One thing added great bitterness to my suffer ited, etc.' About the only instance of legistings. I owed quite a large amount of lators endorsing the Bible. Talk of your money, and, should my fate remain unknown, my creditors would think I had fool Winkelried, and Charlotte Corday, and fled to defraud them, and my name would

"I will not dwell on the agonies L endured : I am sorry I cannot forget them. "The morning of the fourth day of my imprisonment, I heard something crawl into my grave. I lighted my candle and saw a rabbit. There was only one aperture large enough to admit him : I closed it to prevent his escape: I saw in him food o appease my hunger, and my hand was raised to kill him, when a thought occurred to me that prevented the blow from descending. I had two fish lines; their united length would reach to the road. took off my shirt, tore it into strings, tied them together, and on to the fish line. I wore a long gold watch, chain; I tied it on to the part of the line that would cross the James River, he would have been a benefac- road. I then cut several leaves from my tor and John Howard's tombstone would diary, which I wrote on and Hed to that a art grow furious with jealousy at the mention of the line that would be outside. I then of his name. But he let the golden opportied the end made out of my shirt around tunity slip and to-day he isn't as great a Jack's neck and let him out. He soon reached the end of the line, and I knew "Pocahontas (if she did have black eyes by the way he was pulling that he was and wear a bustle) was the wickedest wo- making desperate attempts to escape. Soon the tugging-stopped, and knowing gnawing to be Jack's chief accomplishment. I thought he had cut himself loose. John Smith. Neither fire, famine, the About three hours afterward I felt the line pulled, and some one called; I tried to answer but the hoarse noise I made died in the cavern. I then pulled the line to show that I was not dead.

"All grew still again, and I knew the man had gone for assistance. Then came the sound of voices; I pulled in the line. and it brought me food. It took all the men who worked in the shaft nine hours

"A very large pine tree that stood near the shaft had been the cause of my misfortune. It had been dead a number of years, and the storm had blown it over. The tercible blow it struck the ground had caused the cave. "Jack had wound the line around a bash, and tied himself so short that he tombstone and to say nothing about John was imprisoned outside as securely as I had been inside. He was taken to town, If this comes to the notice of any of his put in a large cage, and supplied with all relatives, they can write me for more par- the rabbit delicacies the market afforded. ticulars, which I will cheerfully furnish at He, however, did not thrive, and the boys the very low rate of twenty-five cents per believing that he 'pined in thought,' voted to set him free. He was taken back to his old girding grounds and liberated.

"He not only saved my life, but became travelers by rail, and the following we can the benefactor of all the rabbits in the vouch for: On day last week a venerable neighborhood-the miners refraining from gentleman of Concord, N. H., was riding shooting any, fearing it might be him."-

An exchange says: An erring husband. who had exhausted all explanations for late hours, and had no apology ready, recently slipped into the house about one o'clock child and dog into the vacant seat, when the very softly, denuded himself gently, and gentleman, who has a great aversion to dogs, began rocking the cradle by the bedside, blandly remarked to the lady: "Madame! as if he had been awakened out of a sound body. The quantity of poison administerbe very bad and going to the devil in a hurry. But all day they kept marching John I have no objection to one baby in this seat, the last deviled while the seat of the most deviled while the seat of the seat ry. But all day they kept marening John but I have the most decided objection to away for five minutes, when Mary Jane, it are again a lifted eleven children out of the last of the property of the last of the l

Wonderful Phenomenon.

A WATERSPOUT SUCKS UP AND CARRIES AWAY THE WATERS OF A SMALL LAKE.

An Augusta paper gives the following particulars of a most remarkable water-

"If I had thought to bring my revolver a small lake or pond, being upgarently a along we would have jack on toast for considerable di-tance up. Nothing partie ular was thought of it until presently a startling circumstances occurred. The cloud halted over the pond and established connection with the latter. A the engine of a planing-mill next door, "A rabbit saved my life, and I have not genuine waterspout had, in fact, been The doctor experimented with it several volved, and an immense quantity of mater | times on nails firmly inserted in a board, was rushing skyward through the liquid | and it worked splendidly. The first paconductor. When first seen the waterspout tient he tried it on was Judge Mochy, who was near the dam, and traveled slowly called into have an aching molar removed. across the pond until it reached the railroad | When the forceps had been clasped upr 1 trestle-work, a mile and a quarter from its the judge's tooth, Dr. Slugg geared the starting point, when it disappeared, and machine and opened the valve. We believe the cloud moved majestically off, carrying it was never known with any degree of exwith it thousands of gallons of water which | actness whether the doctor pulled the valve had been drawn from the pond.

dred acres, was, in fact, lowered fully two ordinary pressure. But in the twinkling inches. The huge column which joined the of an eye Judge Mosby was twisted out of resembled a cone in form, and totated hor to execute the most surprising manusures izontally with great rapidity. The marvel, around the room. It would jerk Judgeous speed with which the column turned Mesby high into the air and souse him impressed the beholder with the idea that down in an appalling manner, with one less it was connected with a whirlwind. This among Slugg's gouges and other instruwas most probably the case, as a tremen- ments of torture, and with the other in ous wind passed over Augusta, from the di- the spittoon. Then it would rear bim up face of the cloud.

the distance between the cloud and the ordinately glad that the tooth was out; and pond, the bulge on the surface of the latter Dr. Slugg never sent to collect his bill. waves in the water leaped and tended to-wards the spont, and the spout itself con have an impression that Slugg's patent can tinued the rotary motions referred to abov . be bought at a sacribbe.

The outside of the watery funnel was no doubt out that the immenso quantity of protesse who came to nothing by drinking. water which was transferred from the nond | Losing all his elients he went to mining. drawn bodily up into the cloud, while the appeared in town with a black eye, a swel-

rence or afterward. The formation and it. subsequent motions of the spoot are de- "Welt you see," said he, "Billy and I scribed as having made up a speciacle grand | were partners, and | like Billy, for he's a in the extreme. Nothing of the kind was well meaning man for an uneducated cuss. ever before seen in that section. The But Billy and I dissolved partnership, we stangest part of the phenomenon was the settled and struck-leastwise we struck fact that the cloud, so burdened with water each other, and Billy settled. Our first moved off without dispensing any of it in difference was of an astronomical characthe form of rain in the nei, hoorhood. ter, We divided the day different. Billy

Collins -so we will call hau - a well-known for astronomical difference, said I was a highly respected Knickerbocker, on the lazy dog. But I didn't mind that, for shady side of fliry, wid wer, with five chil- littly was my partner, and had a right to dren, fell of fun and frolic, ever ready with his views. Then we differed on ablation. a joke to give or take-was bentered the Billy ablated before breakfast, and said I other evening by a miss of five and twenty | was a dirty dog, for, you see, I always for not taking another wife. She urged ablated after breakfast. But I didn't that he was hale and hearty and deserved mind that, for people will differ, and so a mat imposial messmate. The Judge ac long as the difference don't affect business knowledged the fact; admitted that he what is the odds. But the third difference was convicted by the eloquence of his fair was just a lattle too much for me. We friend that he had thus far, been very re- were sitting down to beans and slapjacks, miss, and expressed contrition for the faul- and Ellis blowing about my being a groody confessed, ending with offering himself to dog, when subjectly the fellow said to me: the lady, telling her she could not certainly "I'd thank you for those molasses." This eject Lim : fer pointing out to him his was too mathe-no man can say those helpeus offence. The lady replied that | molasses' to me and live, and I just took she would be most happy to take the situ- bim in the countenance with a right handation so uniquely advertised and become ser that settled him and his implifier had line of his bone and flesh of his flesh, init grammar together. That's the way we there was one, to her, most serious obsta- dissolved. I'm in town, and I guess Bill cle "Well." says the Jodge, "name it. will be here in a couple of weeks." My profession is to surmount such impediments." "Ah, Judg, this is beyond your. The Whiteriaks There. - Did ever you powers. I have vowed if ever I marry a hear of such a tree? I have, for the birds widower he must have ten children, ' "fen tell me everything. The whistling-tree is children ! Oh, that's nothing," says the found in Africa. It is strange-looking ob-Judge; "I'll give you five now and my licer, with branches white as chaik. It has notes on demand in installments for the long thoms, the inside of which is the remainder."-Newark Union.

opinm. Be ug at the point of death, as a matives call it the whistling tree. last resort two-tl irdsof a drachm of mux The state of the s account of a machine for plugging teeths which reminds us of the invention patented many years ago by our friend Dr. Slugg. it was a tooth-puller. Slugg had an ener-A dense cloud was first seen approaching thous business, and be concluded to come mize his strength by pulling teeth by machinery. He constructed a series of cranks and levers, fixed to a movable stand, and operating a pair of forceps, by means of a leather belt which was connected with too far open, or whether the planing-mill The latter, covering an area of six hun- was working at that moment under extraapper region to the expanse of water below that chair, and the movable stand began rection of Langley, some hours afterwards | against the chandelier three or four times. The heavens were brilliant with incessant and shy across and drive the indee's head flashes of lightning after the spout describ- through the oil portrait of Slueg's father ed above had disappeared. There was no over the manted-piece. After bumping bits tushing noise connected with it, as is the against Slugg's ancestor, it would swirl the ease in some instances. The water under- judge around among the crockery on the neath the clouds just before the spout formed | washstand and dance him up and down in was in a state of great agitation. Waves an exciting manner over the stove, until rolled an grily, and a perceptible bulge was finally the defective molar "gave," and as it was not traveled much, and I was not seen. As the cloud halled a sort of tennel the judge landed with his foot through the likely to attract attention by cailing; never- protruded from it and dropped slowly down placeglass and his elbow on a pink poodle theless, I shouted at intervals all day. The becoming larger as it lengthened, the worked in a green rug the machine dashed broader portion, or base, being at the sur- vielently against Dr. Slugg, and tried to scize his leg with the forceps. When they When it reached a point about one-fourth | carried the Judge home he didn't seem inrose to meet it, and the two at length join. They enlied it square, we believe; and ed, when the water of the pand commenced while the Most ye handed up a new dentist, ascending into the cloud, which moved flings cancelled his contract with the man slowly off toward the tre-tle-work. The who owned the planing-mill, and began to > dark and not well defined, While the centre | Tany Diviners on a Secut. - Senator was much lighter, being rather of a bluish | Jones, of Nevada, tells the following Incieast. This would seem to indicate that the | dent in the career of a queer character of solumn was partly bellow, the dark per- the name of Pokeberry, who some time tions cencesonting the sides. There can be back dwelt in Nevada-a lawyer of some to the cloud was literally sucked up. The and joined a rough miner by the name of spont finally disappeared as if it had been Spokes. At the end of a week Pokeberry lafter quietly moved off to parts unknown. Ion most, and interated garments. Of Not a drop of rain fell during the course occurs we were anxious to know all about divided the say on fin, m., and I divided Marine Ur for a Dericul cy, -Judge on 10 a. m., and Billy, instead of allowing favorite home of some thry insect. When this creature crawls out to see the world. A New Cure.-A while ago it was an | be of course leaves the door open behind counced that poison of vipers was a cure him-that is to say, a small hole, through for hydrophobia, and a case was cited to which be crawful. Now the wind blowprove the statement. That one poison may ling through the tree when the leaves are counteract another in the human system | off, makes musical notes in these hollow is illustrated by a would be suicide in In- thorns, so that it sometimes sounds like diana who swallowed nearly fifty g aims of thou ands of flutes playing at once. The vomica, dissolved in water, was injected THE Poughkeepsie Engle says : "Teenunder the skin over various parts of the ty years ago a Greene county father re-