In order to show how rapid the popular tablishment of Mr. John Zweidinger, No. ing in relation to the above department: 136 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, shows a striking example. Starting as far back as 1856, with no capital for a commencement, it is, notwithstanding, to-day, by far the largest, most finely finished, and hest conducted house in the line west of New York City. It has always been a point with this to sell nothing but first-class goods, and at the lowest prices. Inquire for anything in the musical line, from a jew's-harp up to all the instruments necessary to furnishing a brass-band, of to a fine-toned "Jubilee" or a "New England" organ, or a Mathushek Ochestral, or a Grand Piano, you ean be accommodated here with either from the large and magnificent stock in store, embracing every article in the line. The building occupied is a very large and commodious one; four storied, with large and splen-did sales and ware rooms, to properly and fairly exhibit their immense and fine stock of goods. One great advantage to purchasers is that the proprietor and all the principal attaches of the house are practical musicians. and you can thereby have any instrument tried and tested, as to quality, tone, ste., to your outire satisfaction. Musical goods of all descriptions imported in large quantities, for wholesale and retail trade. Attached to and part of the establishment, are work. shops for the repairs of all musical instruments, from a piane to the smallest instrument. The workmen employed in the same are all skilled German mechanics.

NOTICE!

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Owing to the great scare ty of money and the long sontipsed neglect of many of my customers to pay up their indebtedness for the past year or more, I am compelled to adopt of doing business. Very many of my onstomers have allowed their accounts to run for such an unreasonable length of time that a great loss to me, without any benefit to themselves, has been the result. Hence it is that I find it Impossible to Continue the Credit System and at the same time keep up my stock and meet my obligations promptly. I am sineerely thankful for the liberal patronage that has been extended to me. and now earnestly ask one and all who are indebted to me, no matter how large er how small the amount, to call and settle.

ANOTHER SYSTEM

BEFORE THE 4ST DAY OF JANUARY, 1875, as I need and must have money. Believing as I do from past experience (which I have paid well for) that it will be better for me as well as for my customers to adopt the ready-pay system,

I WILL NOT. After the FIRST of JANUARY NEXT. SELL ANY GOODS ON CREDIT.

I am fully convinced that in three cases out of four persons baying goods never find a more convenient time to pay than when they make their purchases, and as an inducement to my customers to buy for cash or in exchange for country produce, I will, after the above date,

KNOCK OFF ONE-HALF the PROFIT heretofore realized in this place on goods heretofore realized in this place on goods of the same class.

Hoping that my old customers will take no offense at the new mode of doing business I am about to adopt, but will continue to favor me with their patronage on a strictly cash basis, which they will be rare to find the very best for all concerned, I pledge myself to mark my goods down to the lowest eash rates.

ONE PRICE TO ALL! AND COMPETITION DEFIED! IN GOODS AS WELL AS PRICES.
