

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Here, There, and the Other Place.

Terribly cold last night, wasn't it?

For the best flour in town go to M. L. Oatman's.

Buy the Eastern Star Flour if you want the best.

A deaf mute in Johnston named Smith wears the champion belt on chess playing.

For chicken to eat, lower than ever, buy from G. B. Oatman.

Buy all your goods at Oatman's cash store and save 15 to 20 per cent. on every dollar.

You will find prices on all kinds of goods lower at Oatman's than elsewhere in Ebensburg.

Slighting continues excellent, but there is a possibility of freezing to death trying to enjoy it.

Turnpike sailors are almost as numerous this winter as potato-bugs were last summer.

The thermometer down to zero and gold up to $1.13 1/2. No wonder people are freezing and starving.

The growing hog is playing H—all Columbia with the weather. Fearfully cold and stormy was yesterday.

David Farmer is in jail again, charged with the murder of Benston & Tittie's hardware store, Johnston.

Henry Smith, an Altoona boy, had his collar-bone broken and left thigh terribly lacerated while playing football.

Joe Gutwald's meat market was broken into on Friday night last by a party of boys, but we believe nothing was carried away.

Morris Henderson, a Johnston man, had one of his hands badly demoralized while coupling cars at Kittanning Point on Tuesday last.

F. J. Ronch, a car builder in the Altoona shops, was seriously injured the other day by falling from a car on which he was at work.

Eighty-eight members were added to the communion of the Second Presbyterian church, Altoona, on Sunday week—the result of a week's revival.

Mrs. Edie M. Jones, widow of Rev. J. W. Edie, deceased, has been paid the insurance money on her husband's life, amounting to $1,000.

Edward McGough proposed to put in Trout run, Clearfield county, this winter, if it should take all next summer to do it.

Notary Public for this place, where Providence permitting, the Senate having just confirmed his re-appointment.

Courtesy Supton, who employed as a male driver in an order-drift car in Johnston, had one of his feet badly crushed a few days ago by a portion of the axle falling on him.

Conn. slipper, a Johnston man, was injured morning, and received painful injuries. We say Conn. found the icy pavements anyhow.

Conn. enough borough has a soap factory which turns out a fine soap every day, and yet a great deal of dirt appears upon the faces of even the newsmen down that way.

A young man named Zaner was instantly killed at Marchand, Indiana county, on Saturday week, in consequence of his sled coming in contact with an obstruction while coasting.

The extra amount of type-setting which developed upon ourself this week has rendered the issuing of the FREEMAN on time an impossible feat, and the pity, but then 'tis better late than never.

A young man employed with others in the building of a bridge over the Juniata river in Levestown, fell from that structure on Monday last, and striking on the ice beneath, was killed instantly.

A loss of $100 occurred a few days ago on the farm of Mr. James Coleman of Blacklick township, Indiana county, when a cow brought forth four calves, two males and two females, all living.

The common law of the eye, known as "Veritas" and "Rover" in type, but owing to the pressure upon our local department, we are compelled to withhold their publication until next week.

The Johnston soup house has just got rid of one of its regular customers by sending Prof. Rosenfeld, the champion carpet-bagger, well known in this county, on his way to the penitentiary.

A little two-year old son of J. F. Sprankle of Davidson, Indiana county, was burned to death one day last week in consequence of his falling into a fire during the temporary absence of his mother from the house.

Wonder if the editor of the Carnewsville Times isn't trying to get a little fearful that the "End of the World" will overtake him before he gets through with the publication of the long continued story bearing that title.

Peter Campbell started for Germany on Tuesday night last, to hear what the powers that be over there have to say about his little car company. We presume they know in "Faidland" that the Campbell is coming—ch! ho!

We are twenty-four hours behind time this week, but nevertheless we deem it not too late to still continue to do it. E. J. Mills, who still continues to do it, has a great deal of baggage in the very best of goods at his store in Main street.

Miss Rose Stetson, wife of Mr. J. E. Storms, of Summitville, this county, has recently completed an elegant silk quilt containing 5,500 blocks, the entire work being the most beautiful ever designed. Miss Rose is evidently a Storm work-raiser.

Hon. John Kelly and lady, in obedience to the advice of the eminent Greeley, started west in a special car on the Pennsylvania road shortly after their wedding, and expect to visit many of the cities and other places of interest in that region before their return.

At least eight men in this place and about twenty thousand elsewhere in the United States will be glad to learn that the House committee on education has reported in favor of granting eight dollars per month to each of the veterans of the Mexican war.

As we anticipated, the indictment against R. A. O. Kerr, Esq., of Altoona, for alleged embezzlement, was ignored by the county Grand Jury and the prosecutor ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings.

The man who until recently manipulated the putty in Cambria borough, collector, "stepped down and out" a few days ago, leaving his bondsmen to figure out for themselves how much they have lost by the operation.

Last Tuesday evening two young men named Winn and Fusselman, of Juniata county, having U. S. mail keys in their possession, in violation of law, for which they are to be tried before the U. S. District Court were heavily ironed.

It is perhaps never in order to come and stir your love lines dreaming, but it is always a good thing to go where the best kind of clothing can be bought, and we have a lot of good treatment thrown into the bargain. Of course we mean to the famous Mack Street, Johnsburg, Pa., 241 and 243.

In the United States District Court, Pittsburg, on Tuesday, in the matter of F. E. Berk, of Loretto, this county, bankrupt, the petition of William F. Pittinger, for the liquidation and liquidation of certain alleged liens, was presented and referred to a committee of three.

Brotherhood. Also, petition of so-called "Lent" will commence next Wednesday, and in view of that fact it will be well to forget to bear in mind and keep in remembrance that Myers & Lloyd have already stated by the most of fish of various kinds that has ever been opened in this market. Sample with listening to.

A lad named Gleigham was caught in the gearing of a revolving shaft in Nutter, Cambria county, on Saturday evening, and had one of his legs drawn around a pinion and so horribly mangled that it is thought he cannot survive.

Frank W. Hay, is one of the liveliest men and most energetic citizens of Johnston, and has just associated with him his son Harry in the stove and tinware business, which will hereafter, as in the past, be carried on on the most extensive scale. The son has his own best wishes for the abundant success, which none in the county or out of it deserve to a greater extent.

The village of Hays, Charles Ranch, of Hollidaysburg, will have to pine ninety days in jail and pay a fine of $200 and costs of prosecution. For a like offense James Martin and two other fellows named James up for twenty days and have to plank down $120 and costs. James says he will work it out behind the bars, money and all as a "kinder word" to being behind "bars" anyhow.

Mr. Miller, the Johnston sewing machine man, who was charged on the oath of a Westchester juror with the crime of adultery, has been fully vindicated by having the indictment ignored by the Grand Jury of that county.

A Greenburg physician named Dr. A. L. Wagoner, left quietly for parts unknown one day last week. The Democrat says that in two letters, one to his wife and the other to a friend, left in the post office, he gave the reasons of course for his departure and a bidding farewell. His liabilities exceed three thousand dollars, while his assets do not amount to three hundred dollars.

We are sorry to note the fact that two of our friends and patrons, Messrs. John Lloyd of this place and William Larimer of Altoona, who were in the West, we hope not dangerously ill at their respective homes. We also regret to learn that the death of Mr. Peter L. Linton, of the West, only last week, who has been ill for several months past, is looked for at any moment, his condition being such as to render his recovery utterly impossible.
