 JOHN D. THOMAB,

A Life Drama.

Scene, Corner of Sixth & Market Streets,
Time, One O'clock.
STranger- What's the price of that coat?
OAK Hail Doorkerr-The price is on the ticket, sir, $$ 10.50$, in plain figures; same Stranoer-Oh, pshaw; that's what they all say. You'll take off that 50. Oak Hall Doorkeeper- No, sir; under no circuistances. If that 50 could be scratched the price would have been marked so at first. There is no second price. The figures are down to bottom rock. Should you buy $$ 1,000$ of us, nothing could be taken off We have ONE PRICE to everybody and all are treated alike, whether they buy a single pair of working P Stranger-Isn't that pretty stiff?
Stranger-lsnt that pretty sthing stiff intended. Try us. See if we are not patient and Oak Hall Doorkeeper-Nothing stiff intended. Try us. See if we are not patient and obliging. Only we think it fairest for both parties to name at once the lowest price and stick to it. Small buyers, on our rule, have as good a chance as large ones. Stranger-Weil, suppose I purchase a gat and fit ? Oak Hall Doorkeeper-Bring it back.
Stranger-Yes, and perhaps get a worse one in exchange.
Oak Hall Doorkeeper-No, sir; get no worse Stranger-Expiain that. You mean, of course, if you cant fit me.
Oak Hall Doorkeeper-No, sir; we mean that if, within ten days, you bring back the garment unworn and uninjurcd, your moncy, cent for cent will be returned to you.
Stranger- You mean simply, if I don't like the monds Oak Hall Doorkfeper-I mean if you dion't the it, or your wife don't like it, or the weather changes, or you find goods somewiere cise you likebetter, or you imagie you have been in any way misinformed, bring back the purchase and take back the purchase money. We give a signed guarantce to that effect.
STRANGER-Why, that's a new thing. What is it hike?

 WANAMAKER & BROWN. ak Hall Doorkeeper-It means that the ACTUAL NAME and grade of the goods are printed on the price label attached to every garment in Oak Hall, and that no Stranger-Ah, this looks lovely, to be sure, if you only mean to stand up to it Oak Hall Doorkeerer- We do, and shall stand firmly by these principles as our onty rules of business. The people who don't believe it can prove us very easily if they Stranger-Well, I'll try you once at any' rate.
We think this was a sensible conclusion. Let the people inform themselves of what we are doing at OAK HALL to make excelhent Clothing and Cheapen the Prices under our New order of Business.
Our store is fuller than eve. Min's and Boys' Best Made Handsome Clothing, which, under our Ready-Money paid down One-Price Guarantee System, fixes our prices
