THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA.,

SENATOR WALLACE is deserving of all honor for his powerful efforts in behalf of peace and good order in the Clearfield coal regions, thereby preventing, beyond doubt the shedding of blood and the interference of the military at the expense of the taxpayers. 4-1-1-1-

THE Radical State Convention, to nominate candidates for Governor and State Treasurer, will meet at Lancaster on Wednesday next. Sam'l Henry is the Senatorial delegate from this district (Cambria and Blair), and C. T. Roberts, of this place, and General Jacob M. Campbell, of Johnstown, are the Representative delegates. They are all booked to vote for the two "ablest and best men in the State," John F. Hartranft and Butler B. Strang. What these two men don't monopolize of the ability and purity of Pennsylvania radicalism, is not worth talking Against all hope, based on the extreme severity of the past winter, the terrible grasshopper plague has again made its appearance west of the Missouri river. On Monday last the Governor of Missouri Issued a proclamation calling on the people of the State to observe Thursday, June 3d. as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer. Information has come to him from all sources that the State is threatened with a grasshopper pestilence, to be followed by the destruction of the crops, great distress and possible famine, and the interposition of Divine Providence is invoked on the part of the people for relief and protection from the threatened scourge. Similar reports of impending danger come from Kansas. A repetition of the grasshopper ravages, after the experience of last summer, is something frightful to contemplate.

WE had the good fortune, while in Greensburg last Saturday attending tyrdom. the Westmoreland Centennial, to look npon Governor John F. Hartranft for curiosity to do so ever since the adoption of the memorable resolution by the Radical committee of this county, so much of human greatness and per- higher than a kite. fection, the Radical county committee | Who is Mr. B.'s favorite candidate fifty or fifty-five degrees above the horizon, The Governor is a pleasant, gentle- employee named Timothy O'Keefe north of north west. It was unusually large terly lost in the presence of one upon pent's tooth" in him, however, to give break up into angles, having the appear-

"Every god did seem to set his scal, To give the world assurance of a man.' Again we wished for the Tioga county statesman, Butler B. Strang, in order that we might look upon the embodied ability and purity of the State at one and the same time, and not by instalments. The Governor delivered an address to the people in front of the Court House. As a speaker he is not a success, but that does not obscure the brightness of the glory which he shares with Strang as one of "the two ablest and purest men in the State."

No Congressional enactment ever fell so still-born upon the country as speeches in its favor were scattered observe. broadcast overtheland. Demagogues like Benjamin F. Butler were voeiferous in their demands for its passage in order that certain unenjoyed rights of the negro, as they styled them, might be assured and their exercise protected by the infliction of severe penaltics for their violation. The radical leaders land, or Henry Clay's district, as it was who have been shaping the legislation of Congress for almost ten years in the interest of the negro, cared more about annoying and aggravating the white people of the Southern States by the passage of highly penal laws, than they did about enforcing imaginary rights of the colored man. This was made perfectly manifest by Butler himself publishing a letter to "a man and brother" in Cincinnati not more than three weeks after the passage of the act, in which he admitted that what were regarded as the most important rights secured by its provisions were already guaranteed and made safe under the common law. If this was true there was no necessity for its passage. The law has been before several of the United States Courts in the Southern States for construction, and in every instance has been pronounced unconstational and void, especially in its criminal provisions. This unanimity of judicial opinion does not proceed from rebel judges, but from men who are Republicans, and who have been appointed to seats on the bench by Grant himself. No sensible negro was away from home visiting friends, acdesired the law, and those who would companied by his wife. They left four like to put money in their pockets by children at home, aged four, six, twelve and instituting suits for its violation find fourteen years. During the absence of the the uselves without a remedy. It affords an instructive commentary on stances indicate that the fire commenced general and the next Presidential elechave about as much relation to each other as Beecher's trial for adultery has to the unsolved question, "Who struck Billy Patterson?" This contribution to the political literature of the day smells strongly of the lamp, its author, in the amount of care he bestowed upon it, having put his best foot forward. It was evidently intended, coming from such a distinguished source, to produce a profound sensation in politleal circles, and it may possibly have that effect if it should be generally published by the radical newspapers throughout the State.

Mr. Barker is particularly sweet on the third term muddle, and talks about it as though he was the chosen keeper of Presidential secrets. He is absolutely certain that Grant "has never said a word about it." This involves a question of veracity between Mr. B. and Aaron A. Sargent, one of the Senators from California, who recently leclared, in a speech delivered in that State, that Grant told him he had no aspirations for a third term. On the otler hand, Vice President Wilson says that Grant is after a third term. and so does nearly every prominent Reublican paper in the country. Mr. B. ests his assertion of Grant's silence in egard to the matter on the heretofore nknown fact, that there is nothing in the constitution requiring the Presient to announce in advance whether ie wants even a second or a third term." As Grant never did and never will understand what the constitution loes or does not contain, this conclusion is a non sequitur. According to Mr. Barker's theory, it is quite evident that he and Mr. Grant have not studied the same constitution, since the edition with which Mr. B. is so familiar, has lured him in the pursuit of a secand term with an untiring energy and devotion that have encircled his manly brow with the wreath of political mar-

Just here we have a suggestion to make to Samuel Henry, who is well the first time. We had an intense known to be the "friend, counsellor and guide" of Mr. Barker in all things political. When he goes as a delegate to the Lancaster convention next declaring that Hartranft and his shad- Wednesday, let him take a copy of the ow, Butler B. Strang, are "the ablest Herald with him and get the clerk to and purest men in the State." Strang read to the convention Mr. B.'s mani was not there, much to our regret, so festo with all the gravity possible unthat we were only enabled to contem- | der such a pressure, and if any delegate plate a section, or the one-half of the who is not an office-holder under concentrated ability and purity of the Grant should offer an an anti-third commonwealth. It is not often that term resolution, it will be knocked being the judge, is visible to the naked for the Presidency? That is the ques- in the northwest, or a little west of northeye; and it was an occasion, therefore, tion of the day. When the old Porwhich we are not likely soon to forget. tage Rail Road was in operation, an manly looking person, but would not (honored be his memory), who always, and trilliant, exceeding in size and bright have attracted our special attention in | wished to stand well with the chief ness the appearance of any of the planets a crowd, had it not been for the re- officer of the road, when asked what at their brightest. It moved slowly, and markable announcement of so compe- applicant for Superintendent he pretent a tribunal as the radical commit | ferred, would shrewdly answer, "I am | tee of Cambria county We thought in favor of any dacent man." Just so isked, its track or course suddenly sprang of Franklin, and Mifflin, and McKean, with Mr. B .- he is in favor of any one into view, as a line of clear, white light, and other familiar names of the past, of the "ducent" gentleman he has but our admiration for them was ut- named. It was "sharper than a sershoulder, and when her "favorite son," James G. Blaine, reads the Herald, he may well exclaim, in the agony of his grief, "A braham! A braham! why per-

> Mr. B. strangely omitted to say a good word for George Francis Train, of Omaha, who is a standing candidate for at least one term of the Presidency, and longer if he can get it. How a politician of Mr. Barker's admitted sagacity could pass by the irrepressible Train and get down to the blatant John A. Logan, whom he impales by calling him "a statesman," is most strange and unaccountable.

The theme is rich and inexhaustible. the Civil Rights bill. In point of but we are reluctantly forced to leave fact it may be said to be inoperative. it, which we do with the remark that During the last and the preceding ses- the communication as a whole is a sions of Congress a vast deal of time | masterpiece of keen and polished "sar-

GEN. JOHN C. BRECKENRIDGE died at his residence in Lexington, Ky., on Monday last, in the 55th year of his age. He was a major in the Mexican war-was elected to Congres in 1850 called, defeating two of the most distinguished and popular Whigs in the President-in 1860 was the candidate of the Southern wing of the Democratic party for President, and in 1861 succeeded John J. Crittenden in the United States Senate. After the outbreak of the rebellion he took part with the South and served as a Major General during the war. An article on his death in the Philadelphia Times concludes as follows: "Like most of the soldiers of the South, when he surrendered his cause he gave a manly obedience to the new duties he accepted and was faithful to the government that triumphed over him in the field. While his death will be widely regretment for the brilliant, chivalrous and soldier of the Confederacy."

-On Sunday night, Mr. McPherson, living eight miles east of Columbus, Nebraska. children were burned to death. Circumthe inefficiency of radical legislation. outside, so it was the work of an incendiary. hatched twin blids from a single egg.

Some of the Grant organs affect to be shout the next Presidential election terribly alarmed because so many Confedterit worth finding out. This conclusion has been forced upon us from reading a largely and the state of the contrary, as an excellent sign; for as a contrary, as an excellent sign; for a contrary contrary contrary contrary. discusses freedom and humanity in sentatives of the intelligence of their party the most influential and intelligent classes tion in particular-two subjects that in those States desire nothing so much as a thorough reconstruction of the Union in fact as well as in name. They feel that the worst enemies of both racce in the South are those who try to keep alive the animosities engendered during the rebellion and arising from the former existence of slavery; and they are fully aware that their own prosperity, as well as that of the North, depends upon the complete restoration of harmonious relations between the two great sections of the country which were lately arrayed against each other in all the bitterness of civil war. Nothing but the mean devices of politicians has prevented a complete reconciliation. Gen. W. F. Bartlett, a Union soldier, new living in Virginia, spoke words of truth at the centennial celebration at Lexington when he said that between the soldiers of the two sections fraternal relations were established long ago. It was only the other day in Little Rock, Arkansas-in the State which Grant wished to lawlessly subjugate anew because the people would not elect notorious robbers to administer their affairsthat the Confederate General, John P. Bull. united with a Union officer to invite their comrades of the blue and gray to join in a common decoration of the graves of sol-diers who had belonged to the two armies. At Richmond, Va., when Gen. Bartlett was tendered a serenade by a large number of distinguished ex-Confederates in recognition of his patriotic speech at Lexington, it was Gen. Bradley T. Johnson who was selected to return him thanks for his many utterances. Only a few days after Gen. Cartlett's speech was delivered, the laying a corner stone of a monument to the Confederate dead in Augusta, Ga., was Union General at Lexington. Gen. Evan-

"Let us do nothing to keep alive the passions of war. To study its lesson is prudence, to profit by its teachings is wisdom but to stir up the old animosities is madness. The voice of this monument will not be for war, but for peace; it will say to us, the Confederacy has expired. Its great life went out on the purple tide of blood that flowed from the hearts of its sons. We have buried it: we do not intend to exhume its remains. I respond with the truest feeling to-day to the fraternal words of Gen. Bartlett spoken at the centennial celebration of the first bat-

Equally carnest expressions of a patriotic desire for a complete obliteration of sectionel hatred are to be found in a letter from Fitzhugh Lee, another Confederate General, which has just been published; and these are the sentiments generally prevailing among those who were leaders on the Southern side during the late war. If the seat of every carpet-bagger who disgraced chasm, while coughing, lost a set of teeth, the last Congress could be filled with a and on Sunday morning, after several per-Confederate General in the next, the moral sons had discussed the possibility of getting and the political atmosphere in the Capi-tol would be improved beyond all measure. securing a rope to the building lowered REMARKABLE METEOR. - The Rochester Express, thus describes a meteor seen in that city Saturday evening, 5th instant, about fifteen minutes before eight o'clock The meteor first appeared at a point about west, took a northerly direction, describing the arc of a circle, and vanished at a point was in sight from three to five full seconds, when it totally disappeared. About two seconds after the meteor had entirely vanslightly curved. It was very distinct, and remained as an unbroken line for perhaps thirty seconds, when it commenced to Maine, his native State, the cold ance of zig zag lightning, though much fainter than that. Then it began to wave in serpentine curves as though blown by a wind, and finally assumed the appearance of small patches of light gradually fading away nutil it wholly disappeared This visible track of the meteor remained in view, we should think, from three to four minutes. There were thunder clouds in the apparent vicinity of the meteor, but none, if our observation was correct, immediately contiguous. In a conversation this morning with Prof. Swift about this phenomenon, that gentleman suggested that the luminous line described was possibly the light of the moon shining upon the smoky track left by the falling star. The atmosphere was hazy and surcharged with electricity, as the subsequent thundershowers demonstrated."

CATHOLIC BRIDES .- A New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commerical Adveriser writes: The number of Protestant young ladies of elevated social position who have voluntarily embraced the Roman was devoted to its discussion, and kesm," s Artemus Ward was wont to Catholic religion of late in marrying has left in the direction of Clinton. All were created considerable comment and given life to a sort of genteel slang, expressed in two words-"Catholic brides." have been many stories told of determined daughters and heart-broken mothers and fathers, and the stories were not without their effect. Since Easter four New York ladies have become Catholies in order to become wives; and Colonel Smith, who and re-elected in 1852 from the Ash- married a daughter of the late Horace Greeley, became a member of the Church of Rome, at the solicitation of his finances. Then a niece of W. B. Astor married a dispatch says its not likely there will be. Catholie; so did Miss Appleton, daughter State, Charles S. Morehead and Leslie of the publisher; Miss Niles, who married Coombs. In 1856 he was elected Vice Consul General Badeau last week; and Miss Morgan, who married a Spaniard. Love, they say, is blind, and Capid knows no religion; nevertheless, these convert marriages have caused the corner-stone of society to shake perceptibly, and the rejoicing among archbishops and priests is only surpassed by the chagrin of ministers and rectors.

A CONTRAST .- Mr. Charles Parrish, the president of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre coal and iron company, is perhaps as much interested in the present strike as any man in the State, and his men are all out, but he has adopted a wise plan of sending provisions to his men to enable them to hold ont against himself and the other coal operators, until the great question is decided as to who shall win. This humane policy ted throughout the South, in the great | will prove a better safeguard to his coal North there will be a generous judg. property than thousands of dollars spent in employing watchmen and police guards, and will promote his interests in every fallen Vice President of the Union and other way among the workingmen, who will contrast his actions with those of Mr.
Gowen, who has doubled his force of watchmen at the breakers, and employs hundreds men at the breakers, and employs hundreds mitted suicide. The father will survive.

It is thought the son had committed forgery, and resorted to this means of covering it up.

Corner Craig street and Allegher of the below Suspension Bridge, Allegher of the below Suspension Bridge of the below Suspension Br men at the breakers, and employs hundreds of men in this county to do guard duty. trip to the fatherland with the little ones, ing it up.

Beecher on Cardinal M Closkey.

reading a lengthy communication in rale those men who ranked highest in the nor as bishop than when he was a simply Friday Morning, - - May 21, 1875. the Herald of last week, in which he Confederate service were the best repre- priest. These offices in this great and venof plaguing Americans and Protestants. -They have been for ages a part of the machinery of Church organization. The Roman Catholic Church is to receive Christian courtesy and toleration, not because it has not yet developed all its polity among us, but on the broad ground of the liberty of men to worship God after their own reason and conscience. This Church is no more aggressive with an American Cardinal at at its head than it was before. It is a matter with which Christians of other sects Lamb. have nothing to do. It is the domestic business of this great mother sect, with which sister sects have no right to meddle.

In one respect, certainly, all generous Christians should be thankful, that for the first Cardinal in America there should have been selected a Christian gentleman of great personal worth, of simplicity of life, unostentations fidelity, and most devout Christian disposition. If any man could win the sympathy and confidence of Christians of other sects, the first Cardinal will. That the Roman Catholic Church of America has developed one stage further in its organic form is a matter chiefly concerning its own members; but that the man selected to represent this great Church should be a man of universal sympathies, of a gentle heart, a good citizen, a friendly neighbor, in short, a good man, is a benefit to our common Christianity.

undue predominance of the Roman Church in America. If its clergy and members, in a fair field, can gain an ascendency over Protestant sects, by better preaching, greater industry, a holier zeal, more wisdom and perseverance, it is their right and duty to do so. They who live the best lives, and do the best work, have a right to possess the land. Meanwhile should another made the occasion for a public declaration | Cardinal or two be needed, we shall not be by Gen. Evans, another Confederate, which alarmed or troubled. It is not for the Pope was as patriotic in its tone as that of the to consult a poor Protestant minister, but we suggest our former schoolmate, the Archbishop of Baltimore, as one well built for the robe and bat, and acceptable to liberal Protestants. We used to roll him over on the foot-ball green, and should not fear a Christian hug with him on the fairer field of Christian enterprise. May the blessing of God rest on all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and truth !-Christian Union.

For ourselves, we have no fears of the

A Boy's TERRIBLE LEAP. -In the rear of Arthur Duboit's hotel in Marlborough, Ulster county, N. Y., is a gorge 200 feet deep. Immediately behind the hotel the bank slopes down about 125 feet to a ledge of rocks, and from there to the bottom of the gorge the bank is almost perpendicular and is covered with moss and a slimy substance, with water oozing from the crevices of the rocks. A few days ago Mr. Egbert Hall, while standing on the piazza in the rear of the hotel, which overlooks the themselves to the ledge, but without any success in finding the teeth,

On returning they spoke of the impossibility of getting to the bottom of the gorge on account of the abruptness of the bank from the ledge down, when a boy about fifteen years of age, David Ward, volunteered to go to the bottom if any one would give him fifty cents. A by stander offered to give him five dollars if he reached the oftom, and he immediately began to descend, reaching the rocky ledge with little trouble, when, to the horror of those who were watching him, he deliberately amped from its brick and disappeared from sight. Everybody supposed that he was justantly killed, but in a moment they saw him appear in sight at the bottom of the gorge waving his hat and shouting in triumph. When he struck among the stones and gravel at the bottom he landed on his feet, but the momentum caused him to turn a complete somersault, and he escaned with only a slight sprain of one hand. The distance down is about seventy-five feet, and the leap is one of the most remarkable on record, certainly so where so little injury was sustained.

THE MOST AUDICIOUS ROBBERY OF THE SEASON.-The St. Louis Democrat has a special from Clinton, Henry county, Misuri, giving an account of a daring robbery committed in that county last Thursday. D. B. Lambert keeps a country store twelve miles north of Clinton. It stands alone on a prairie, has a croquet ground in three weeks ago, with two complete faces the rear of the building, and is the resort of young people of the neighborhood. -one in the natural position and the other at the back of the head. The faces are Thursday morning about 11 o'clock two strangers rode up, entered the store and were shortly followed by two-other strangers. As soon as the latter entered the store the first two drew revolvers, and commanded Lambert to stand. The other two men went to the croquet ground where eight gentlemen and ladies were playing, stables. Loss, $75,000; mostly insured. ordered them into the store, where they were guarded by three of the strangers while the fourth robbed the store of $200 cash, a fine watch, a shot-gun, two revolvers and a quantity of goods. They then well dressed, genteel looking men, well armed and mounted on splendid horses. The robbery was done so quietly and quickly that a blacksmith working one hundred yards distant knew nothing of Mr. Marshall resides in the city of Alexthe matter until the affair was over. A gentleman living near Clinton says he saw and conversed with two of the Younger his father. brothers last Tuesday, and from this fact the robbery is attributed to the Younger and James brothers. No effort has yet been made to arrest the robbers, and the

THE ILL-FATED "SCHILLER."-There were many sad scenes at the office of the agents of the ill fated Schiller, in New York, Saturday, when persons having friends on board applied for information. Mr. Chas. Schuler, a barber, had sent his wife and only child abroad. He grasped the meagre list of saved, ran his eye down garet Alacoque. it, and persisted in asking for his daugliter. "But, Bertha, my Bertha, is she too lost? My God, my own, own little Bertha gone!" and he pressed his forehead as if to keep his head from bursting. An elderly gentleman came in in great excitement, at an early stage of the affair, read the slip with the first information that but four had been saved, staggered for a moment and Fry, the President of the Darby horse railfell, sobbing loudly and deeply on a settee near by. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Kornblum, who, with his wife and three children, had been passengers on the steamer. In the afternoon two German working-men called in, asking eagerly for simply that 200 had been lost and about 40

News and Political Items.

-Gold in New York yesterday, 1164. -A New York man, aged 93, is living in matrimonial felicity with his sixth wife. -The German Government has released the Catholic priests imprisoned at Posen. -The jury in Father Gerdeman's case in Philadelphia could not agree, and were discharged. -Two members of the Balaklava Light Brigade-the famous six hundred-now resides in Augusta, Ga. -A queer kind of thatching. A man with hair on the roof of his mouth has been discovered at Savannah, Georgia. -An odd illustration of what's in a name.

An English curate just appointed to a London church, is gazetted as the Rev. Paschal -Capt. Paul Boyton will make a second attempt to cross the English channel in his life-saving dress on the 28th of the present month. -The tornado of Saturday week last killed seventeen and wounden thirty-five persons in Harris and Talbot counties, Georgia. -At Rockland, Me., on Friday night,

Alfred Spear, while drunk, shot his wife twice and then killed himself. His wife may recover. -The rules of the Amana Communists -a curious society located in Iowa -allow the sisters only from $25 to $40 each for clothing for a year. -Jesse D. Bright, ex-United States Senator from Indiana, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in Baltimore, with theumatism of the beart. -Mrs. Strockmeyer, of Jersey City, gave birth to four infants on the 8th inst. Three were girls and one a boy, and all are reported to be doing well.

-Duluth is fifteen years old and never had but one breach-of-promise suit, and that was settled by giving the plaintiff's father a pair of cowhide boots with red

Joseph Porcy, aged 102 years, died in Crawford county the other day. He was a Frenchman, had been married twice and had enjoyed eighty-five years of connubial

-Pope Pius is to receive a grand Mass. bound in morocco at a cost of $300, and forwarded by its composer, John M. Loretz, jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y., as a present to his

-A dispatch from London says one hundred and fifty bodies of the victims of the Schiller disaster have been recovered. This leaves about one hundred and thirty still missing. -New South Wales has been heard from. The parliament of this distant English colony has appropriated £5,000 for the expenses of proper representation at Philadelphia in 1876. -A mastodon skeleton weighing 1,600 pounds, the largest ever found, has been sent to Yale College from Ottsville, in Orange county, N. Y., where it was dug up two years ago. -Twenty three car-loads of oysters arrived in San Francisco, the other day, from the East. The bivalves are to be planted in San Francisco Bay, to supply the citizens with the luxury. -The Fanfulla, a ministerial organ, published in Rome, authoritatively states that the Pope has resolved to convoke the atican Conneil again at an early date, to discuss ecclesiastical reforms. -Jefferson Davis in an address to the treats them to be as loyal now to the stars -Secretary Delane has gone to Ohio to enjoy the fresh May breezes. He probably left Washington at this particular juncture for fear that Red Cloud would investigate as to the number of his pockets. -At Shamokin Sunday night a strange man entering the house of Eli Hoas in a mistake, Hoas discharged two shots at him, the last taking effect near the heart. The man is in a critical condition and cannot -The Louisville Courier-Journal, in reply to the pathetic question of a woman. How shall I keep my husband at home in the evening?" says it can be done easily enough by opening a first class beer garden in the back yard. -No more centennials for President Grant. He wouldn't go to Greensburg. thank you; and has recalled his Bunker Hill engagement. The abolition of the dead head business should have been postponed till after 1876.

-The Sionx delegation are in Washington to sell the Black Hills and find out "where the lying begins." The first will no doubt be of easy accomplishment, but we fear the last will be too much for the poor untutored savages. -A child was born in Michigan, about complete in all particulars-two eyes, a mouth and a nose on each face. -Early Tuesday morning a fire broke out on Centre street, the principal business portion of Mahoney city, destroying six business houses, composed of shops and stores, seven dwellings, and a number of -The superstitious people of Shelby county, Ky., believe that John Cotton has been stricken dumb for blasphemy. He cursed God because a frost had ruined his crops, and on the same day was attacked by paralysis, which bereft him of the power of speech.

-Edward C. Marshall, son of Chief Justice Marshall, seventy years of age, is a clerk in the pension office at $1,200 salary. andria, lost all his property during the war, is delicate in health, and resembles

-The striking mivers in the north of Wales are suffering for food and clothing, yet they refuse all offers of settlement of —The Postmaster General has issued an their employers, by which they could re-sume work and support themselves and striking out that part providing that no families. With them half a loaf is worse than no bread.

telegram, the Pope, in answer to a petition from millions of Catholies, lay and clerical, decrees a universal prayer for the 16th of June, the two hundreth anniversary of the three months. Heretofore subscribers for apparition of the Sacred Heart to St. Mar--The ill-fated 'Schiller" has quite gone to pieces, -the lower deck now resting on the rocks, and specie and cargo being washed away. The work of recovering bodies seems to have been abandoned, and but little more can be done to save anything from the wreck. -The frauds committed by Mr. S. Gross way company, do not improve upon more the money of its depositors has been pars [5-7.] intimate acquaintance. The further they are examined the worse they have thus far proved to be. They are much larger in amount than at first supposed.

test the truth of the discovery.

-A dispatch from Home states that the Pope's birthday annivermry was celebrated with extraordinary rejoicings. Deputations, letters and congratulations were arriving throughout the day. Twelve preeighty-four. Pio Nino alone surpasses the years of Saint Peter in the chair.

-When a Halifax, England, bridegroom came to the house to lead his bride-elect to the church, he found that she had eloped with her sister's betrothed and his "best But he came to be married, one way or the other, and as the sister then and there dismissed her old sweetheart, they concluded to make a match of it.

-James Robinson, the champion bareback rider, is to ride in San Francisco against Chas. Fish, a European celebrity, for $10,000 a side and the gold and diamond studded belt of the world. The San Francisco brokers are said to hold Robinson as the favorite, and to have staked over half a million dollars on the result.

-The recent death of ex-Chief Justice Woodward, of the supreme bench of this state, adds one more to a very striking list of deaths. Out of five ex-chief justices living a couple of years ago, only one, Chief Justice Lowrie, remains. The other four, Lewis, Read, Thompson and Woodward, have all died within less than two

-About eight o'clock Sunday night Alonzo Jackson, his wife and two children, and a man by the name of Smith and his wife, went over a dam at Zanesville, O., in a skiff, drowning Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Smith, one child of Jackson's, and one child of Smith's. It is said the men were under the influence of liquor and could not manage the boat.

-An outrage and murder was committed near Trappe, a small village five miles from Phonixville, Pa., on Toesday afternoon. A young girl named Whilby was the victim. Her body was found under a table, her cars torn off and her head terribly beaten. A tramp was seen in the vicinity, and it is supposed the crime was committed by him. The excitement is intense. -A wandering clock repairer has been arrested in the township of Burke, near Ogdensburg, N. Y., having with him a boy answering the description of Charlie Ross. Mr. Ross and the detectives have been after this man some time. The Mayor of Philadelphia has been telegraphed to, and the man, who goes by the name of Lathrop, will be beld until the arrival of Mr. Ross.

-There is no danger of a European war. At the Countess of Hatzfeld's ball, in Berlin, recently, the Emperor William whispered in the ear of the Viscount de Gontant-Biron, French Embassador: "Monsier, an attempt has been made to sow discord between us; it is all over now, and I was anxious to tell you so," After saying this, William looked around to see if Bismarck was anywhere near.

-A family at Mishawaka, Ind., received from some unknown source several complimentary tickets to a circus which was to exhibit on a recent evening. All the inmates of the household went, and when they returned found that their dwelling had been broken into and rifled of everything valuable. It is supposed that the burglars sent the tickets in order to get their victims safely out of the way.

-- Sarah Thomas, daughter of a clergyran away with John Farris, a married Pine street road. The mone man of Ithica, who robbed her of her the stock was used, it is said, watch, chain and some money. She left the Emmans Iron Company Texan veterans of the Mexican war en- him, had him arrested, and he was to have was the expectation of Mr. I gone to prison on Friday for six months. a revival of the iron trade l and stripes as they were zealous and brave Her disgrace preyed upon her so, that on enabled to return the moneys Friday night she ended her life by throw- the stock of that company, a ing herself in front of a freight car.

-A private letter from Prospect, Oneida pothecation he realized ten county, N. Y., gives a clever account of a share on the Darby stock, and Welsh spelling match in that town. The dollars per share on the Spruc words were given out by Mr. Owen Jones, the editor of Y Drych, and there were fifteen contestants, the last of whom was ly affect, is a man who has vanquished on the word Wuddyi, which was perfectly excusable, even for a Welshman. Such morsels as Lluvtod and Grwdyl were not regarded even with timidity.

-York county, N. B., has a curiosity in the shape of one James O'Hern, who, though twenty-nine years old, has never vet talked or walked a step. He has never stood erect, or been moved from one room since his infancy. He is four feet in height and weighs about sixty pounds. His arms and legs are very small, and he appears to have power to move them in any direction he chooses, independently of either joint or muscle. -One of the crew of the ill-fated Schiller was arrested in Hoboken for being drunk, a few days before the vessel sailed, and sent to jail for five days. His time expired the day after the Schiller sailed, and he escaped the fate of most of his comparions. This statement is made as a matter of news, and not to encourage bibulous persons in the habit of getting drank in the hope of thereby escaping marine disasters.

-The Milwaukee Catholic Associations will be out in full force on the occasion of the investiture of Archbishop Henni, A torchlight procession, consisting of four thousand torches, will take place, and the societies of other cities will participate. Six bands of music are engaged to lead the singing, all the Catholic houses will be illuminated, bells will be rung and the artillery fired. The Papal Envoys are expected there this week.

-The life-saving dress with which Paul Boyton has been making so much of a stir in Europe was recently exhibited in Boston by W. H. Preston, engineer of the quaran-tine steamer Samuel Little. He proposes, in the course of a week, to start from Commercial wharf, Boston, for Neponset, distant 10 miles, with paddle, sail, American flag, eigars, and lunch, and, after that trip, to be taken outside Minot's ledge light, 20 miles from the city, and be drop-

-The Postmaster General has issued an subscription to newspapers for less than three months should be considered regular -According to a London Daily News subscription in the meaning of the law. The effect of this order is to allow newspaper offices to send papers to subscribers at regular rates, whether for one week or less than three mouths have had to pay transient rates.

-The Carlisle Volunteer says: "The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Shippensburg having appointed assignces, all hopes of its again starting in business are at an end. It is hopelessly insolvent, and scores of men, women, and orphan children, who confided in it, are utterly ruined. For a bank of its capital ($65,000) it is the worst failure we ever heard of. For years No. 63 Wood St celed out to favorites. One man drew out of the bank $10,000 more than the whole capital stock."

-A Kentucky man discovered and eu--The Inter-Ocean's special from Me- tered in the backwoods of Meade county a the very latest news. It was shown them, Gregor, Iowa, says Albert Young, son of cave about ten feet square, which was Senator Young, of Wisconsin, shot his dimly lighted by the sunlight without. saved, and no names as yet. The chances father, at noon on Friday, and then com- He discovered two carthen vessels almost Mr. Parrish also knows that in proportion as he grows strong his opponents will become weakened in this contest, and leaving the question of humanity entirely out, his plan must be pronounced truly wise.

—At Marietta, Ohio, recently, a canary dumbfounded.

while the head of the family stayed at home attending to business demands. The home attending to business demands. The wife of one, Mrs. Fannie Evans, was accompanied by her only child, while the other had but little to say. They were utterly dumbfounded.

—Some excitement has been created in home attending to business demands. The high country, by the discovery of what is thought to be a silver mine. The place where the deposit of the precious metal is supposed to exist is on their bones. It would be useless to say that he 'left' in a hurry. He is now ordered the property to a party with the view to ganizing an expedition to capture these the property to a party with the view to ganizing an expedition to capture these treasures.

-A vein of solid gold three an inch in thickness has inst -An old woman bade her? bye in the Rochester depot.

isn't likely I will ever see you getting so old." She was star home if Chicago, and as the she put her head out of the carcatch a final glimpse of her rel daughter was standing on track, waving her handkere motive dashed in and over last that the mother saw moved out of the depot, was a corpse of her daughter. The poor old woman was frantiesh At the first station she got our ed to Rochester.

-A remarkable paleontologie ery was made on Wednesda lin, Tennessee, by a party of nected with the Smithsonian in digging among some mounds earthed, sixteen feet below the number of chalk bends, one several copper bobbins wit flaxen thread around them, an sentation of an idol indented plate metal, much corneded undoubtedly the work of Art of civilized people. What was of pre-historic life, growth, pair development and decay, lithese mysterious ancient could but read their import.

-Two singular moust ported in Holyoke, Mass, born last Wednesday, has a for its back like a bag, which is water fluid. The spine at the a ring, through which the c sac are passed. After the child the sac continued to the quid, until it was found name t off, and the operation is daily. In all other respects perfectly natural and healthy ond curiosity is a two-week which weighed, when born, in and a half. Its head is disabout the size of an orange, about the volume of a roung? It has a thick growth of day says : "At St. Alph Sunday morning, as Father celebrant of the mass, was in: ing from his knees, while the was being chanted, and Father was ascending the pulpit to pre shot entered from the scho on Constance street, and passe the corresponding window or side, almost grazing the head Gleason in its passage. This violent disturbance of the sol that held the congregation only before was followed by intense exbut in a second, Father Girade that the shot had failed to effects ous damage, quieted the congress had risen instinctively to the his suggestion the congregation in an act of thanksgiving for tion of Father Gleason's life.

-The New Orleans P.

-The Phila. Erening Tel is alleged by reliable parties Fry. President of the Phili Darby and Spruce and Pine st. Companies, has made an Darby stock of from 19,000 to and of about 600 shares of retire or withdraw the stock. Street Company's stock. Mr. these allegations of wrong-doi vorably known in Philadelph of the late Hon. Jacob Fry, many years a member of Con-Anditor General of this State for

NEW ADVERTISEMEN BA

ores Neuralgia, Face Ache, Rheumali Frosted Feet, Chilbiains, Sore Throat. valuable remedies ever discove Ammonic, with marked and de ROBERT S. NEWTON, M. D. For sale by J. P. THOMPSON, Ele and by all Druggists. Depot 451

FREE! FREE!! FRI

A namisome manufacture information for everybody. Tell-It contains the New Homestran this paper.

SEND FOR IT AT It will only cost you a POSTAL ser for April just out, Address O. F. Land Commissioner !

MARRIED ment on one universal

A WEEK guarantee wen look made Agents, in their even look NOTHING to try it. Party P. O. VICKERY & CO., Am. A WEEK guaranteed to A DVERTISERS send 25 ets. to A BLL & Co., 41 Park Row, N. Y. I page Pumphlet, showing cost of ad-

ARE YOU GOING TO PAR Averill Chemical Pa

PUT up in cans of all sizes and countries and countries and use. Arr own painter or make a business b the cheapest and best. Try a sail

ONIONS, BALDWIN & PITTSBURGH, P.L.

FOR SALE PLATFORM SPRING WA Heavy and Light Wagens, all Wheelbarrows, manufactured a

DUQUESNE WAGON

NAVY TOBACCO St. Not the Cheapest but the BL. ALWAYS INTOES

INT. | ALWAYS UNIFORM