DECORATION DAY .- The beautiful ceremony of decorating with flowers and ever-greens the graves of those who on the battlefield gave up their lives for their country was appropriately observed in this community on Saturday last. At 2 o'clock, p. m., in accordance with the pre-arranged gramme, the exercises were begun by a formal organization in the Court House, where an appropriate oration was delivered by W. H. Sechler, Esq., who dwelt somewhat at length on the sentiment of patriotism, and especially on that enthusiastic and far-reaching patriotism which is ever the development of the mountain top, and paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the valiant dead whose graves dot the soil from Gettysburg and the Potomoc to the Southwest and even to the City of Mexico. At the conclusion of Mr. Sechler's remarks, the procession was formed in the following order:

Chief Marshal, Capt. S. W. Davis,
National Colors.
Ebensburg Silver Cornet Band.
Boys of Mt. Galitzin Seminary, in gray unitorms, preceded by a beautiful white silk flag appropriately lettered and draped, and marshaled by H. A. McPike.
Sunday School children of the Church of the Band of Hope, with flag and banners, marshaled by Rev. T. R. Jones, pastor of Congregational church, and Thos. L. Jones.

Ebensburg Martial Band.

Members of Dauntless Fire Company.

Surviving Soldiers.

Citizens.

In this order, the procession moved first the Congregational cemetery, then the Catholic cemetery, and lastly, Lloyd cemetery. At the first named cemetery, after a dirge by the cornet band and the decoration of the several graves, Rev. Jones offered up a very impressive prayer; at the Catholic cemetery, after the delivery of a brief but pathetic address, the playing of another dirge by the band, and the depositing of the floral and evergreen offerings on the graves of the fallen beroes there buried, Rev. Father Boyle, paster of the Church of the Holy Name, recited the De Profundis, after which the procession retraced its steps and passed down High street, near the eastern extreme of which all the participants halted except the martial band, firemen, soldiers, etc., who proceeded to Lloyd cemetery, where the decorating ceremonies were performed and a brief enlogy was pronounced by W. H. Sechler. Esq. Returning this portion of the procession was disbanded about 5 o'clock, after having bedecked with flowers and immortelles the earthly mounds under which rest

The procession was nearly a half mile in length, being the largest ever formed here on a similar occasion, and its proportions would have been largely extended had it not been for the drizzling rain-storm which set in shortly after noon. As it was, it was a display of which our town has reason to proud, and serving as it does to keep alive that love of country and veneration for the dead which should actuate every heart, we trust that a like observance of the day shall not in the future be omitted. On this occasion the Silver Cornet Band made their first public appearance topped off with their handsome new silver lace encircled and tri-colored plumed caps, in which they presented a pretty picture, so to speak,

DEDICATION OF ST. beloved pastor, Very Rev. J. Tuigg, V. G. THE DEDICATION. Long before the time announced for the mmencement of the exercises, the street in front of the church was completely filled with people anxious to avail themselves of the first opportunity to secure seats. About halfpast 10 o'clock, Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec, ecompanied by fourteen or fifteen priests of the diocese, among whom were to be seen the venerable Fathers Bradley, of Newry, and Walsh, of Hollidaysburg, Fathers Tracy, Gibbs, McCarthy, Bigham, Galiagher, Mc-Keever, Devlin, Farren, Murphy, Schell Kuntzer, and several others. The outside walls of the church were sprinkled with holy water and prayers and responses were recited, after which the 50th psalm (Miserere) was sung and the procession entered the church, sprinkling the interior walls in like manner. At the conclusion of these ermonies the people filed in, filling the vast building almost to its utmost capacity. Solemn High Mass was then sung, coram pontifice, by Rev. J. Tracy, assisted by Revs. J. Schell and O. P. Gallagher. After the gospel Father Wall, President of St. Michael's eminary, Pittsburgh, ascended the elegant polpit and delivered an eloquent, brilliant and convincing discourse, which of course it would not be possible for us to publish, even if we had the full text of the sermon. but of which we heard a competent judge of such compositions remark that it was the finest effort he had ever listened to. The choir, too, consisting of Mrs. Annie Bradley, organist, Mrs. Kate Gurley and Misses Mag-gie Cochran, Belle Ruoff, Maggie and Ella Garrity and Lizzie Luckett, sopranes, Mr. James Curry, tenor, and Messrs. placed before us. Following the elegant supper came Solemn Vespers, at the close of which the Bishop ascended the pulpit and delivered a beau-tiful discourse, dwelling at some length upon the objects for which churches are erected and maintaining the doctrine of the Real Presence by several new arguments well presented. The music during the evening was very fine, plainly evincing the fact that with a little more culture a majority of those composing the choir would become finished artists. The Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the exercises and ended a

THE PEOPLE WANT PROOF. - There is no medicine prescribed by Physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and soperior virtue as Boschee's GERMAN SYRUP for Severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its wonderful effects before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced into this country from Germany, and its remarkable cures are astonishing every one that uses it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by Lemmon & Murray, Ebensburg, and Woleslagle & Son, Wilmore.

-It never pays to fret and growl when fortune seems our foe; the better bred will push ahead and strike the braver blow, especially it they are anxious to get full value for their money, which can always be done at the cheap cash store of Myers & Lloyd, who have lots of nice goods for the Spring trade and a very commendable desire to sell everything at the lowest possible figures. emnized amid more pomp and parade than characterized that of our young friends, but we are fully convinced that none was ever consummated under more happy auspices or with more promising assurances of a long life of unalloyed felicity and sincere devotion to each other amid all the enjoyments ideasures, trials other amid all the enjoyments, pleasures, trials and cares incident to the wedded state. Loying and lovable in an eminent degree, the pride of the family circle and the idol around whom centres the affections of many devoted associ ates and ardent admirers, our aminble young friend Kutic has well deserved the honor and happiness of being made the wife, as we are sure she has been, of one who will never falter in the fulfilment of the obligations he has assamed in pledging his sacred froth to her who we are confident will ever adorn the high post-tion to which she has been called, and the duties of which she is so well fitted by nature and by a good mother's care and guidance to perform in a cheerful and cheering manner. Therefore it is that we join with the many friends of the fair and bandsome young bride and the generous and exemplary young bride. groom in wishing to them both an abundan of God's blessings in this world and the enjoy-ment of a peaceful eternity in the world to come.

Consumption, with its slow but unerring and fatal encroachments, had for some time marked her as its victim, and yet when death at last came the grief it occasioned seemed to indicate that the stroke was all but unexpected to friends and kindred, but to the the harbinger of welcome to the glories and rewards of a blisful and happy future. As calmiy as the coming shades of a beautiful Mar eye she passed away from earth in the presence of those whom she loved upon earth—husband, children, kindred and friends. Her youngest child on the very day and hour of her death had empleted its seventh year. The remains of this true wife, loving mother and kind neigh-hor were on Corpus Christi Libi to rest to the Cathodic cemeters at Loretto, mid the mounting of the stricken husband and their orphan children, and accompanied by the prayers of many who knew her but to love her, who named her but to praise. A singular and strik-ing coincidence in connection with her death and burial was the death of a brother a few years ago on the same day on which she died and the burial of another brother many years ago on the very same festival which witnessed the consignment of her own mortal remains to their last cartilly tenament. The sympathy of the community is extended to the sorrowing husband and bereaved children, to whom comes the consolation that at though comparatively young in life the measure of her virtues was full, for truly "the good die first, while us whose hearts are dry as summer's dust burn to the socked." Peace to her immortal spirit. BARKLEY .- Died, in this place, on Tuesday evening, June 1st. 1875, Atmear James, child of John D. and Mary Barkley, aged I year, 11 months and 24 days.

The death of this promising and interesting little child was attended with circumstances of a most distressing character, well calculated not only to bring grief to the hearts of the fond parents themselves, but to excite in every breast a feeling of sincere sympathy for the breasy a reeing of specere sympathy for the bereaved ones who have brea thus so unexpect-elly called upon to mourn the loss of their only living offspring. Taken by his mother to the Mountain House on Saturday afternoon last for the purpose of viewing the decoration remonies then about to be inaugurated, the little fellow was suddenly seized with somsms and a severe attack of throat disease, and from that time until the moment of his death his suffered, with scarcely any intermission, the most excruciating tortures, leaving little to be hoped from the very first except that God in His mercy would take him to Himself without lelay. The funeral took place at yesterday afternoon, the remains being interred, by right of baptism, in the Cathelic ceme-tery attached to the Church of the Holy Name,

Davis, your agents in this place, during the year 1872, one of your NEW IRON MOWERS, which I have open ated during the past three seasons with entire so cess. I have used it in cutting fully 200 acres of grass, and have not expended one cent on it for repairs. Like all other machines, it is not perfect, of course, but the only fault I find with it is that it is not arranged with shufts for one borse instead of two, as one horse can very easily operate it he anything like four ground.
