A LADY DIES IN CHURCH .- Our Washington township correspondent, "Quincy," furnishes us with the following particulars of the sudden death of the estimable wife our greatly esteemed friend and patron, Mr. John Itel, of that township, which sad event occurred in St. Bartholomew's church, Wilmore, on Sunday morning last. It will be remembered that a little daughter of Mr. Itel was killed some months ago in a runaway accident near Munster, and now comes a second and greater bereavement in the sudden death of his devoted and much beloved wife. Speaking of this last sad occurrence, our correspondent, writing under date of Aug. 18th, says:

The entire community was greatly shocked on Sonday morning last by the announcement of the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Lucinda M. Itel, wife of Mr. John Itel, of Washington township, which occurred in the Catholic church Wilmore on Sanday morning last. Mr. and Mrs. Itel came to church to gether, and asusual wout into the sacred edifice to recite a tew prayers before divine service commenced. At the conclusion of her devo-tions, Mrs. Itel waiked outside of the church, but remained there only a few moments when she again entered the building, and was in the act of passing into her pew when she was suddenty prostrated to the floor. A number of persons who saw her failing immediately ran to her assistance and carried her into the open air and from thence to the pastoral residence. Medical aid was at once summowed, but it proved of no avail, as she expired in less than five minutes after she had been prostrated. some maintain that she died instantly, while others say that she breathed a few times after being removed from the church. The decease was about 35 years of age and leaves a busband and five children to mourn her untimely loss. She was an exemplary and devout member of the Catholic church and was esteemed and rethe Catholic church and was esteemed and respected by all who knew her, as was abundantly manifested at her funeral, which took place yesterdoy at the Catholic cemetery, Wilmore, whither her remains were followed by a large concourse of weeping relatives and sorrowing friends. A very impressive funeral discourse was delivered by itev. H. McHugh, pastor of the church, in which he warned his hearers of the certainty of death and of its frequent occurrence when least expected, and also frieferred. currence when least expected, and also referred in feeling terms to the plous and exemplary life, now brought to a sudded close, of her who was about to be consigned to ber last earthly resting place. The attending physician gave it as his opinion that heart disease, to which she had been subjected for some time past, was the cause of her untimely death.
