It occurred in the early part of the snake season, and that you know was some time ago, but Mr. Albert Boslet, of Carroll township, says that it is none the less true that he killed a blacksnake, which measured one foot seven inches. The same gentleman says that he also killed a blacksnake, which measured one foot seven inches. The same gentleman says that he also killed a blacksnake, which measured one foot seven inches.

The champion baby of Blair county is a three-months old son of Mr. Geo. Leiback, residing near Altoona. The youthful giant weighs twenty pounds, twelve of which he brought into the world with him, and is two feet two inches high. Such an infant can afford to laugh and giggle at anything in the shape of baby boys or girls either that can be trotted out in that vicinity.

J. B. Harnden, a Pa. R. R. police officer at Altoona, yesterday brought to this place and delivered to Sheriff Baumer two young men named David and Jasper Bailey, whom he arrested near Bell's Mills, Blair county. They are charged with having been concerned in robbing the cars at Cresson last fall. They had the pleasure, or the pain, as the case may be, of meeting several of their confederates in their new quarters.

A young man named Wallace Nesbit was struck by lightning and instantly killed on the farm of his uncle, John Irving, near Blairsville, on Friday afternoon last. He was walking through a field at the time with a pitchfork in his shoulder, and the lightning, after first striking the pitchfork, passed down his person, leaving its impress on his clothing and tearing his boots into shreds.

Our friend Gilbert F. Little, Esq., a young Cambrian now practicing law at Columbus, Ind., has in his possession an autograph letter written at Auteil, France, by no less a personage than General Marquis de Lafayette. The letter is directed to "Monsieur McHenry, Hotel de Boston, Paris," and bears date Jan. 7, 1808. A little coaxing, we have little doubt, would induce Mr. Little to send this little souvenir to the centennial.

Henry Hostler of Altoona was arrested after a hearing on Tuesday last before U. S. Commissioner Rutledge, at Johnstown, on a charge of manufacturing leaf tobacco without making the proper returns, etc., was held in $1,000 bail for his appearance before the U. S. District Court at Pittsburgh, in October next, to answer. His establishment, containing about 20,000 cigars and 200 pounds of leaf tobacco, was also seized.

A farmer in this county is credited with a new departure in the way of wheat growing, which he has just harvested with the most satisfactory results. He planted at the proper time a half bushel of wheat in hills about eight inches apart, putting three grains in each hill. From each of these hills an average of fifty-four stalks grew to perfection, the heading on each stalk ranging from five to eight inches, and the entire lot producing a full peck of excellent wheat.

Joseph Stahl, an Altoona lad aged about sixteen years, got on a coal-dump in that city, on Thursday evening last week, for the purpose of riding a short distance up the mountain, but the train had gone but a short distance when the trap used for unloading the car, and upon which he was standing at the time, gave way and he was precipitated to the track, the cars passing over him, severing his head from his body and otherwise mangle him in a horrible manner.

Mr. John Boesher, boss carter in the wooden mill at Woodvale, near Johnstown, had his right arm torn from the socket, on Wednesday forenoon, about half-past 10 o'clock, by having his fingers caught in his arm drawn in between the cylinder of a burr mill and a fan underneath. The unfortunate man lost a good deal of blood and died almost instantly. He was taken to the Allegheny District Court, at its regular session on Tuesday last, granted a writ of habeas corpus, and released.

Marcellus, Jr., were present at the funeral of Mrs. Bartlett, which was held at her late residence on Monday night last, and was attended by a large number of friends.

THE INQUEST INTO THE MANNER OF MR. HENRY'S DEATH.—On Tuesday afternoon last the coroner's inquest, empaneled to inquire into the facts connected with the shooting of Henry, was held at the residence of his labors at the office of Coroner John Brady, in Johnstown. of his death. Although a Republican in politics, Mr. H. was elected to the Legislature in this county three times in succession, viz. in 1871, 1872, and 1873. His death was a heavy blow to the community, and indeed throughout the county, as well as in other localities. His funeral, which took place on Sunday afternoon, brought together an immense concourse of people from all parts of the county, four crowded carloads of passengers coming from the depot, and a large number of people on foot. Taken altogether, it was a most honorable and eloquent tribute to his memory. The Cambria Guards headed the funeral cortege, which formed about 3 o'clock p. m., both the men and women having previously taken a last look at the honored remains, after which Rev. J. N. Magonig, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Johnstown, led the way to the depot, where an affecting prayer to the Throns of Grace. A large number of the Masonic fraternity from Johnstown, Altoona and this place, came to the depot to pay their respects to the deceased. The funeral was a most impressive and touching scene, and it may be said of him that he carried his heart in his hand. He had troops of warm and admiring friends, and it is to be hoped that he is dead will hold his sacred memory ever dear. Peace to his ashes.

COUNTERFEITING IN MISSOURI.—Some eight years ago, Brown Weber and Graham, wholesale druggists in St. Louis, were doing business in the city of St. Louis. Among other goods they sold large quantities of Speer's Port Grape Wine, which is pronounced the purest wine in the market. In consequence of the success of this wine, they conceived the idea of getting up a counterfeit of this wine by making a cheap mixture of flavoring ingredients with whiskey and water, and called it "Speer's Wine." They sold this counterfeit wine in St. Louis, and it was found to be a most successful business. The original Speer's Wine was sold in St. Louis, and it was found to be a most successful business. Letter from the West.

COLEMAN, Ind., Aug. 16, 1875. Mr. Editor:—An exciting race at the Fair Grounds was the big thing in this city on Saturday last. The race, which was the first of the season, was held at the Fair Grounds, and the gate money, to be awarded to the first and second best respectively. About 2000 people were present, and the race was a most interesting one. The winner was a horse named "Lucky," owned by Wm. Knott, taking the inside. The race was a most interesting one, and the gate money, to be awarded to the first and second best respectively. About 2000 people were present, and the race was a most interesting one.
