Republican machine in this county will increase Pershing's majority at least two hundred. For the success of the Democratic party in Cambria county, Swank is beyond question the right man in the right place. -For the first time perhaps in the history of this community, the deepest depth of infamy has been reached. An editor has been robbed - yea, verily, robbed of a pair of half-worn pants, three pairs of woolen socks and a couple of nether garments which no editor or "any other man" would ever have the temerity to put himself inside of - all stolen from a poor editor's clothes-line at one fell swoop. Gone to meet Barnum's big found on the railroad track, two miles east of Altoona, on Sunday morning last, with such marks upon his person as might have been the result of accident, but which were sufficiently suggestive of foul play to induce

-The MEEK, but not lowly, editor of the Bellefonte Watchman moralizes thusly in his last issue : We are sorry to see, by the proceedings of the Democratic county convention of Cambria county, that our friend Mc-Pike, of the Freeman, was among the unsuccessful aspirants for County Treasurer. For that position the Democracy of Cambria have no one better fitted, and certainly no one more deserving, than McPike. But The most deserving are those "sich is life." who get the least.

-It is now maintained that the fly does not walk on the ceiling by means of atmos-pheric pressure, ss popularly taught, but that the bairs of the feet, clothed as they are with a glutinous substance poured out in minute quantities, are what makes Mr. Fly stick as tightly to his perilous perchas cash-most at his establishment.

-Mr. Christ. Nicholls, a butcher residing headway, and received two ugly gashes on the forehead, as well as internal injuries of nature. He struck right side up on the platform, bat the force of the concussion nose and ears. He had boarded the train at Gallitzin under the impression that it would stop at Cresson, but as it failed to do that he thought he would do a little stopping on his book-which he did with the result own stated. -A very ingenious device has been invented by Dr. J. M. Toner, of Washington City, formerly a practising physician in Johnstown, well known to many of our readers, for the better finding of small places upon the map. Every one knows how bewildering it is to one unacquainted with the topography of a great State, like Pennsylvania say, who undertakes to find a certain county. Dr. Toner has met this difficulty by the invention of a system of points perfectly intelligible at a glance, and capable of being applied to any list of town or county names. The system has been introduced into the United States Official Postal Guide, published by Hurd & Houghton, and appears in the October number, adding to the excellencies of a work already well known for its accuracy and fallness of information. -There may be better shows in the world than the one which exhibited in this place on Tuesday last, but we give it as our honest conviction that there is no better press agent in the land than Col. Dan, B. Hopkins, the corpulent and good-looking gentleman who fills that position in connection with the Great Traveling World's Fair of the irrepressible P. T. Barnum. Like the advance agent and editor, Charley Stow, Mr. Hopkins is from the ranks typograppical, having went to the printing business at the early age of eleven years, and only retirring from it about five years ago, when he was called to "go up higher" by the world-renowned P. T. Barnum. The great showman has had his own share of good luck during a long and eventful life-aye, and a great deal of bad inck, too-but we venture to say that he never struck a bigger bonanza in the way -that is, the convention of the smallest party in this county-led to the gathering of secured the services of two such worthy sectired the services of two such worthy gentlemen as Charley Stow and Dan. Hopkins. Long lives and jolly ones to both of

> -It would be base flattery indeed to say that the "true inwardness" of the flaming posters which announced the coming of P. T. Barnum's Great World's Fair had been fully demonstrated in the excelience of the show itself, as several features advertised were not presented at the exhibitions, but it is not flattery, base or otherwise, to declare that in many respects it is unsurpassed and in some unequalled by any other like entertainment that has ever pitched its tents in this place. The menagerie and museum in all their details were certainly very creditable, and the feats performed by Martinho Lowande, the wild rider of Brazil, and the wonderful six-year old Centaur child Tony, were certainly the most thrilling, not to say reckless, that we have ever witnessed. Especially is this true of Lowande's daring leap through a hoop studded with sharp steel points, his bare-back steed, from which the thrilling leap was made, meanwhile coursing around the ring at a rapid pace, and equally true is it of the no less exciting acts in which himself and little Tony acquit paying purchasers do to E. J. Mills after | themselves with a fearlessness of spirit and they have found out, as they invariably to a gracefulness of movement which almost at the first visit, that they cannot save mon. surpasses belief.
