

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., Friday Morning, - - Dec. 3, 1875.

We neglected to notice last week that the Harrisburg Patriot had formed a new dress and changed its form from a quarto to an eight page folio.

During the trial of W. O. Avery for complicity in the St. Louis whisky frauds, one of the witnesses, Alfred Bevis, testified that Secretary Bristow was a partner in a whisky firm that was in the ring, whereupon General Henderson declared his intention to have Bristow indicted if such was the case.

On Saturday last Governor Ingersoll, of Connecticut, appointed ex-Governor Jas. E. English to be United States Senator in place of Hon. O. S. Ferry, lately deceased.

Score another for the third term. The Beaver Times, until recently unwilling to entertain the third-term project, last week flopped over in the following grandiloquent style: "We rather guess we are for Grant."

Most horrible crime.—A most horrible story comes from Delaware county, Pa. A young unmarried woman became the mother of an infant child, a boy and a girl. She had gone into the woods to her maternal offspring.

We direct the attention of our readers to the prospectus for 1876 of the weekly and daily New York Sun, which will be found in another column of our paper.

The Voice-Echo and Democrat (a queer mixture) favor Randall for the Speakership—so does our member of Congress—Hon. John Roll.

Of course the above lying paragraph, so far as it refers to the FREEMAN, could only have been written by the editor of the Johnstown Tribune.

We regret to announce the death of Hon. William H. Witte, which occurred at his residence in Montgomery county, a few miles from Philadelphia, on last Friday.

As he was an ardent and pronounced Democrat, he soon attracted the notice of the leaders of the party, and in 1852 was elected to Congress, in which body he served one term.

The nearest approach to a union of Church and State has been made by Grant, in calling to his assistance the Methodist Church in running the Indian business, although the latest effort was not more successful in getting a good man than if he had been recommended by Babcock and McDonald.

A few days ago the Methodist Episcopal Church recommended the appointment of a member of the Church living in Illinois, vouching for in the highest terms, as an Indian agent at Fort Peck.

Let me remind you that in all the churches of this diocese the collections of this day are for the benefit of the "wrecker."

A SHAWL PIN IN THE LUNGS.—A year ago Annie Merkel, aged 14 years, daughter of John Merkel, residing at Leesport, Pa., was found with a shawl pin in her mouth.

Few tragedies better deserve the name of "horror" than that which transpired but a few days ago at the railroad near Gopitz, Austria.

A SINGULAR AFFAIR.—We learn that within the last two weeks a singular discovery has been made at the house of Jesse Garth, for many years deceased.

The Cardinal's Greeting.

AMERICA'S REPRESENTATIVE OF THE SUPREMACY OF THE HOLY SEE.

A carved door in the reredos of the Cathedral behind the Virgin's altar swung inward at half past 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the head of religious procession—acolytes bearing a crucifix, a smoking censer, incense, and lighted tapers—appeared.

All knelt for a moment. Then the Cardinal ascended a throne of gilded and fretted walnut, with panels of crimson silk. Fathers Quinn and Valois took lower seats just behind the canopy, the acolytes and the choir in front of it.

My dearly-loved brethren: You do not, I trust, expect a sermon. I have hardly recovered from the fatigue and the tedious voyage across the Atlantic, and cannot deliver a set oration.

THE SENTENCED MURDERERS.—Meyers one of the murderers who is to be hung on the 6th of January, has been giving an account of his life.

THE WARREN LEDGER.—The Warren Ledger says that there will be few sheriff's sales in that county this winter.

A Fatal Whirlwind.

A HOUSE DESTROYED—FATE OF THE INHABITANTS.

The Newburn (N. C.) Times has a letter from Beaufort dated 17th inst., giving the following particulars of the ravages of a fearful whirlwind in that vicinity:

A BAND OF THIEVES.—An organized band of robbers has been discovered and broken up, out in Washington county. The Monongahela Republican publishes a long account of the depredations who called themselves the "Hundred and One."

A woman in Virginia City, Nevada, who had been bedridden for months, had to be carried out of the house during the late fire, and within half an hour from that her great fright had effected a complete cure of her ailment.

News of the Week.

The Pope has conferred on Lieutenant-Governor Caron, of Quebec, the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Gregory the Great.

A bear killed in Douglas county, Oregon, a few days ago, weighed six hundred pounds, and furnished seventy-five pounds of clear oil.

A woman named Kressly has been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Joseph Schneck, of Lehigh county, which occurred about ten days ago.
