He was only prevented from continning his play by the game coming to a close at the 287th shot, when his frantic admirers seized him and bore him away from the room. He made three hundred caroms in five innings, thus making the astonishing average of 60.

-The San Francisco Bulletin says : The mammoth roses raised this spring in the Western Addition are eclipsed by a foreign production. On good authority it is stated that a rose was recently plucked from a bush at the Royal Horticultural Gardens, in Honolulu, which measured 284 inches in circumference. This rose bush blooms only once a year, and the blossoms are nearly all of an equal size. The bush was brought from England in early days, and from it a greater portion of the bushes in the island have been raised."

theatre, New York, who has the excursion in charge, has given consideration to every suggestion leading to the safety of the passengers, and to this end all the telegraph stations are being kept open, and pilot engines sent in advance of the approaching special locomotive. The train consists of one combination baggage and mail car, one superb day coach, built by the Pennsylvania railroad company expressly for the trip, and one magnificent Pullman Palace hotel car, the mate of which is now on exhibition at the Centennial fair. But twenty passengers will be carried, and of these four are invited guests.

-Mrs. Ratigan, of Jersey City, who was driven from her home by fire on Friday last, says the N. Y. Herald, had a child sick with the smallpox, and fled from the burning into the street with the little sufferer in ber arms. Seeking a temporary shelter from door to door, she was met by a refusal in every instance, and was at last compelled to lay her sick child in an old wagon that stood in the open street, and, wrapping it in a threadbare quilt-all the covering she could procure-she clasped the poor little creature in her arms and there passed the long, dreary night.
