The deceased left home ostensibly for the purpose of going to the store, but getting on a train she rode to George's station, from whence she walked to the water's edge and plunged in, with the result stated. She was subject to slight fits of insanity.

-At Utabville, in Clearfield county, not far from the Cambria county line, on Friday last, two young men named Winslow and McFarland interviewed a loaded gun, and while so employed the latter attempted to discharge the weapon by placing the phosphorus taken from a match on the pivot and then pulling the trigger, but as this experiment proved a failure he next essayed the extraction of the phosphorus from the pivot with the aid of a pin, which, sad to relate, caused the gan to go off, the ball from which passed through the heart of young Winslow and killed him on the spot. -A young man named Henry Minnyer laid down on the south track of the Pa, R. why he escaped with his life. -All of our readers are aware that Mr. August Lambert, a well known Johnstown brewer, was lost in the woods near Wilmore one day last week, while on a fishing excursion, but to only a portion of them did our last issue convey the intelligence that hall not be permitted to pass by in the lost had on Thursday forenoon been found, after wandering about for nearly two her hoyle has secured the fine grove days, at a point about two miles from Sherthe fown and will at once set about get-bine's mill, with nearly all the clothing torn from his person and very much prostrated in mind and body. -A twenty year old youth named Jesse J. Hanson was brought to jail on Tuesday morning last, charged with the heinons crime of rape, which offence is alleged to have been committed on the person of Miss Sarah Blanton, a domestic in the employ of Mrs. Sarah Gould, who resides in the Second Ward of Johnstown borough, and at whose house Hanson was at that time boarding. The information charges that the deed was committed on the 24th day of last month, and that the prosecutrix was engaged in making the beds in one of the up-stairs rooms when Hanson appeared upon the scene and accomplished her ruin. All which may be true, out the question naturally suggests itself, "Why the dence didn't she 'holler'?" or, it she did "holler," why wasn't she heard? -At an early hour on Saturday morning last the residence Mr. Charles Unverzagt, in Johnstown, was entered through a rear door by two burglars, who were fortunately, however, disturbed in their operations be fore they had time to gobble up any other property than two finger rings belonging to a daughter of that gentleman. On Sunday night the dwelling house of Mr. Jacob Walters, in the same place, was invaded through a rear window, the thief this time securing for his trouble a full suit of clothes-pants, coat and vest. On Monday morning about one o'clock a similar visit was paid to the premises of Hon, D. J. Morrell and an atempt made to enter his elegant mansion by the aid of a ladder, but the noise of the movement awakened some of the inmates, who gave the alarm and succeeded in frighthasty retreat.

-David McDevitt, who in April, 1875, was sentenced by the District Court of this county to eighteen months' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for bigamy, the charge having been preferred against him by his wife, was, by reason of good behavior, discharged from that institution one day last week, and returned to his old home only to find that the partner of his bosom had in the meantime married a man named Wm. Parks, of Conemaugh township, with whom she has since then been cohabiting. This fact affording an opportunity for McDevitt to get even with his faithless spouse, he on aturday last made information before Justice Fisher, of Johnstown, charging Rebecca Elizabeth McDevitt, alias McDade, alias Parks, with adultery, and she will now in all probability have to appear at the next term of our county court to answer for this evil deed done in the flesh.

-Our Republican friends in this county are not altegether happy. They imagine, poor fellows, that it is possible to defeat the Democratic ticket, but like hungry politicians as they are they cannot agree among themselves as to who shall partake of the official loaves and fishes which they in their minds' eyes see so temptingly sprend before them. The upshot of all which is that there is no lack of Republican aspirants for the county offices, the nomination for Sheriff being the principal objective point, with four prominent contestants, Messrs. Thomas Davis, (Jackson,) Jacob Trefts, John C. Gates and Elijah Baker, already in the field, and several townships still to be heard from. All or nearly all these gentlemen have been very bitsy this week button-holing their Republican constituents from various parts of the county, and judging from the earnestness with which each of the aspirants and his respective friends are urging his claims, the next Republican county convention will be the scene of as lively a fight as has been witnessed in this neck of timber for many a day.

-On Saturday night last, James Walling, from the Fast Line east at Sheridan station, just below Johnstown, while the train was trival character, all things considered. The him were without avail. The detective, however, stopped off at Johnstown and procured the services of Chief-of-Police Harris, who soon after succeeded with the aid of Mr. Wils. Stoan in capturing the fearless forger, whom they found sitting on a fence far from Sheridan station, and with whom they returned to Johnstown about 9 'clock next morning, from whence he was taken on to Baltimore the same day.

KILLED INSTANTLY .- On Thursday last five men from near Shelocta, Indiana connv. were sent to the vicinity of Frogtown, Adams township, this county, for the purpose of peeling bemlock bark. Among the number was Phineas Gray, an unmarried man, aged about twenty-one years, whose parents reside in the first named village. By some mischance he cut one of his feet pretty badly yesterday afternoon, and while Clawson and Albert Hefflinger were this morning engaged in chopping down a hemlock tree, he sat near the trunk of another for the purpose of examining the injury that had been accidentally inflicted the day previous.?

The tree which his companions were chopping toppled over, and the branches caught for a moment or two in those of the one underneath which he was sitting, but before the unfortunate young man could get out of the way it came down, and one of the imbs struck him on the back of the head, reaking his neck, and, of course, producing instant death. His right arm was also broken, and his right leg was fractured between was standing near him at the time, also suffered severe concussion from a stroke of one of the limbs, and his right arm was pretty hadly mangled, although no bones were

The corpse of Gray was brought in this afternoon, and deposited at the residence of Mr. John Sharp, whose wife is a cousin of deceased, at which place it was properly laid out, and on the Way Passenger this evening the mournful burden was taken back to the home which he left less than a week ago in the best of health and spirits. One of the companions of deceased states that Grav was a young man of exceptionally good character, and that he was very highly esteemed in the community where he resided. -Johnstown Tribune, 6th.

ANOTHER BURGLARY .- Our worthy postmaster, Major John Thompson, rose from his bed yesterday morning and failing to find his clothes where he had left them the night previous, very naturally extended his researches to the hall adjacent, where he discovered the garments lying around loose, but soon found, to his chagrie, that they were minus two or three very important adjuncts, to wit: a fine silver watch and chain and a pocket-book containing between one and two dollars in money. Further investigation revealed the fact that his son James M, was in about the same fix, only a little more so, his clothes having been rifled of another silver watch and a pocket-book containing between thirteen and fourteen dollars in money. The next thing was to find out how all this came about, and it didn't take long to unravel the mystery, the fact thieves had during the night entered the house through one of the cellar windows, and proceeding to the respective rooms of the gentlemen named, had gobbled up the valuables, as already stated, after which they froze fast, if such an expression is permissable at this season of the year, to a large roll of butter and a crock of milk, which show how deliberately the thieves went about their work, we may say that they left lying upon the kitchen table several papers not less than sixty-five dollars, and it does and invest in a spring ontfit that will pleas

C. Dysart, trading as Dysart & Son. This was a case of assumpsil brought by pinintiff to reof a steam saw mill in Cicarfield township owned by defendants. The principal matter in dispute was in reterence to the wages agreed upon, the plaintiff claiming $50 per month and board during the greater part of the time, and defendants being willing to allow him only $22 per month and board. There were also $186 in orders element by pictoriff to have been putd by him that defendants would not allow. Jury found for plaintiff $2.3.78. Com'th vs. Matthow Dignam—selling liquor

ARRESTED FOR MURDER. -On Wednes. lay evening a young man aged about 19 or 20 years, named George Hollingshend, was arrested in this place, by Delective W. H. Hulligan, of Cleveland, for the merder of a young man named Charles Waters at Napoleon, Henry county, Ohio. The murder occurred about two years ago, the two men being engaged in a quarrel, when Hollings-head struck Waters with a butcher's cleaver killing him instantly. Hollingshead fled and until about three months ago no trace of him could be obtained by the authorities. It appears that for the past eighteen months hood, and in consequence of some difficulty with another man there, to whom it is said he acknowledged his crime, information was odged before a justice, who communicated with the authorities at Napoleon, by whom he has finally been traced up and secured. He came to this place about two weeks since and has been in the employ of Mr. D.A. Smith, a butcher, to whom he gave his name as Charles Osgood. Detective Hulligan has been in this section for a week past looking him. He was taken west on the Fast Line at nine o'clock Wednesday evening by the Detective, and doubtless by this time is safely ledged in jail at Napoleon, the county seat of Henry county. He stands a first-class chance of stretching hemp.—Tyrone

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENTS .-Exercise your Judgment. - A Newer and Better Philosophy.—To pull down all absurd and antiquated notions of disease and its cures, and to establish a rational system on the and to establish a rational system on the ruins, has been the chief endeavor of Dr. Holloway through life, hence the origin of his celebrated Pills and Ointment-remedies in keeping with common sense, because subservient to nature, rather than at variance with her laws like those in general use. To the stomach we trace dyspepsia, headache and general debility, to the liver, bile, jamulice and yellow fever; to the bowels, diarrhea, dysentery, constipation, piles, and fistula; to the lungs, consumption, &c.; to the blood, scrofula, scurvy, and all cutaneous eruptions. By keeping these organs and the vital fluid pure and healthy we may safely defy the attacks of disease, and no medicine yet prepared for this purpose can equal the action of these Pills and Ointment, as they dive to the sent of the disorder, and by extirpating its cause, destroy its effect. 190

RENEW THE BLOOD.—You can renew the blood in the burnan system thoroughly, by using from a balf dozen to a dozen bottles of the cathet Ministers, their Justices, President Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. It does so without prostrating or weakening the body in any way. It cures not only the lungs and liver, but every organ dependent upon a wasted or impoverahed state of the blood.

If you examine the sabject, you will find that nine out of ten cases of chronic disease is the result of a want of that plastic character which the blood has lost. Bad blood makes bad tissues, and fails to repair the wasted organism; hence cough, emaciation, debility and dropsy ensue; and the constitution is a wreck for want of that nutriment which the blood alone can supply.

Price of Lung Cure $1.50 per bottle or $7.50 per half dezen. To be had at Dr. Keyser's Labbratory, 240 Penn avenue, Pittsburgh. His private consulting office is No. 120 Penn
