A KNOWING CAT.

THE WONDERFUL TRUE STORY THAT A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER TELLS.

A friend tells us the story of a cat, every word of which can be unquestionably established by an abundance of the most reliable testimony. A part of the story our friend himself can vouch for. In 1872 a family of people named Davanis moved to Columbia from Fort Mills, situated on the Columbia and Charlotte Railroad, 100 miles from Columbia. Previous to and at the time of the removal the family owned an unusually large Maltese cat, which was the pet of each member of the household. The cat not only knew his own name but seemed to know the name of each one of the family, of which he probably considered himself an honored member. When the removal to Columbia was made, of course Tom went along, and seemed to enjoy the ride on the railway train beyond his limited powers of expression. He was first in the lap of mater familias, then on the knees of the head of the family, then he would cross over to the seat occupied by his young master or his young mistress, all the while purring and curling his long tail, as much as to say "Isn't this fine fun, this fast traveling, and we all so snugly seated in a warm car on this cold December day?"—Arrived at Columbia, Tom went along with the rest of the family to the new domicile, following readily when called to leave the car and take his place in the carriage, and when the carriage stopped in front of the new home Tom entered it alongside of the first one who crossed the threshold, still purring and curling his tail in the ecstacy of his delight at the change which was being made, and at the new scenes which it was then his privilege for the first time to behold. And thus Tom seemed contented and happy in his new home for the space of ten days. The only change noticed in his conduct was the fact that he was perhaps a trifle more affectionate in his manners to the rest of the household. But when ten days had passed by Tom was missing. He could nowhere be found. There was a vacant place in the family circle that caused heartfelt sorrow until a telegram was received from Fort Mills, bringing the intelligence that Tom had returned to his old haunts, 100 miles away. He had taken passage on a freight train and was safely back at Fort Mills, mourning the absence of the rest of the family. Only one freight car is switched off at Fort Mills, and in this identical car Tom secreted himself before its departure from Columbia and before it was locked up by the agent, so that, when the car was unlocked on its arrival at Fort Mills, out walked Tom, showing no evidence of his being ashamed at having stolen a ride on the train. But when Tom went to the depot at Columbia to take passage, how did he know precisely which was the car that was to be switched off at Fort Mills? Of course, he must have noticed the directions on the packages of freight and went with the freight that was marked Fort Mills. No other way could he have known it.—Wilmington (N. C.) Journal.

A CURE FOR INEBRIETY AND ALCOHOLISM.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, writing from the Hot Springs of Arkansas of the healing thermal waters there, says: "The benefit to the race is beyond any calculation. In the first place, the confirmed inebriate can be cured. These hot waters destroy his thirst for rum and make it repulsive to him. To the credit of the numerous physicians here, be it said, that they invariably recommend their patients to abstain from alcoholic drinks or malt beverages. One man, and whose infirmity had become such a disease that nothing could prevent his procuring rum, told me this story. Said he: I have lived all my life in Tennessee. In my early life I was gay and festive, caring for nothing but society and all the excitements it produced. Before I was twelve years old I learned to drink wine, and before I was fourteen I had a liking for whisky. By the time I was twenty-one I had been drunk hundreds of times and engaged in scores of rows, some of which resulted so seriously that men were slaughtered by the pistol and the knife. I married early and treated my family badly. All the while my thirst for rum increased, and every sacrifice of property, clothing, precious gifts to my wife and children, and other sacred things, was made to obtain a jug of whisky. Sometimes I got the best, but in later years oftener the very worst kind of whisky. Everything we had in the world was spent for corn juice. Wife and children died from broken hearts and neglect, and I became a miserable outcast through a fondness for rum. Four months ago an old friend sent me here, and now I am cured entirely, and positively despise the rum more than I ever loved it. These waters alone have cured me, and on Saturday I will return to Tennessee and try to live a sober man. The recital of this poor victim's story was touching in the extreme, and I repeat it to you in the hope that others, afflicted in the same way, may learn the remedy for their whisky troubles."

SPEAKING of bed-bug exterminators, the editor of the Germantown Telegraph propounds the following conundrum: "Now, what is so simple as the white of an egg and quicksilver mixed and applied to all cracks and joints or openings in a bedstead?" Give it up; don't got any. He has evidently found it necessary to experiment on the "critters," and asserts, as the result of years of patient toil and study, that the remedy is thoroughly effective. No patent on the above.

Life, GROWTH, Beauty.

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky; cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen off or become thin.

Can be applied by the hand, as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a Hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened, and the natural color restored without the application of mineral substances.

Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely, without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health, softness, lustre and beauty, and produce hair on bald heads of its original growth and color.

HERE IS THE PROOF
—OF ITS—
Superior EXCELLENCE

Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward B. Garrigues, one of the most competent Druggists and Chemists of Philadelphia—a man whose veracity none can doubt:

I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of the "London Hair Color Restorer," which restored my hair to its original color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that this preparation is nothing like a dye, but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful hair dressing and promotes the growth. I purchased the first bottle from Edward B. Garrigues, druggist, Tenth and Coates streets, who can also testify my hair was quite gray when I commenced its use.

DR. SWAYNE & SON.—Respected Friends: I have the honor to inform you that a lady of my acquaintance, Mrs. Miller, is delighted with the success of your "London Hair Color Restorer." Her hair was falling rapidly, and quite gray. The color has been restored, the falling off entirely stopped, and a new growth of hair is the result. E. B. GARRIGUES.

BOSTON TESTIMONY.

JULY 22D, 1871.—DR. SWAYNE & SON: Last winter, while in Trenton, N. J., I procured six bottles of "LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER," which I like very much, in fact better than anything I have used in the last nine years. If you please, send me one dozen bottles C. O. D., care of W. S. Fogler & Son, Druggists, 725 Tremont street, Boston.

Respectfully yours, ADA BAKER.
No. 50 Rutland Square.

DR. DALTON, of Philadelphia, says of it: The "LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER" is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself. I therefore speak from experience.

75 Cents per Bottle—6 Bottles, $4.

If your druggist or storekeeper does not have it, we will forward to any address on receipt of price. Address orders to DR. SWAYNE & SON, 330 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa., Sole Proprietors.

THE LUNGS.
CONSUMPTION

This distressing and dangerous complaint and its premonitory symptoms—neglected coughs, night-sweats, hoarseness, wasting flesh—are permanently cured by "Doctor Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry."

BRONCHITIS—a premonitor of Pulmonary Consumption—is characterized by catarrh or inflammation of the mucus membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness and pains in the chest. For all bronchial affections, sore throat, loss of voice, coughs,

Dr. Swayne's
COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY
IS A SOVEREIGN REMEDY.

HEMORRHAGE, or SPITTING OF BLOOD, may proceed from the larynx, trachia, bronchia or lungs, and arises from various causes, as undue exertion, plethora, or fullness of the vessels, weak lungs, overstraining of the voice, suppressed evacuation, obstruction of the spleen or liver, etc.

Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry

strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

The only standard remedy for hemorrhage, bronchial and pulmonary complaints. Consumptives, or those predisposed to weak lungs, should not fail to use this great vegetable remedy.

It has a marvelous power, not only over consumption, but over every chronic disease where gradual alterative action is needed. Under its influence the cough is loosened, the night sweats diminished, the pain subsides, the pulse returns to its natural standard, the stomach is improved in its power to digest and assimilate the food, and every organ has a purer and better quality of blood supplied to it, out of which new, recreative and plastic material is made.

PRICE, $1—6 BOTTLES, $5.

If your druggist or storekeeper does not have it, we will forward a half dozen to any address, freight paid, on receipt of price.

ITCHING PILES!
PILES, PILES, ITCHING PILES,

POSITIVELY CURED BY THE USE OF

SWAYNE'S OINTMENT.
Home Testimony.

I was sorely afflicted with one of the most distressing of all diseases, Pruritus or Prurigo, or more commonly known as Itching Piles. The itching at times was almost intolerable, increased by scratching, and not unfrequently became quite sore. I bought a box of Swayne's Ointment; its use gave quick relief, and in a short time made a perfect cure. I can now sleep undisturbed, and I would advise all who are suffering with this distressing complaint to procure Swayne's Ointment at once. I had tried prescriptions almost innumerable, without finding any permanent relief.

CAMPAIGN SONGS.

TILDEN and TRUTH!
HENDRICKS and HONESTY!

OUR NEW "UNCLE SAM."

"Reform" is the cry sounding loud through the nation,
From Maine to the verge of the West—
From centres of glory and scenes of starvation
The word is no longer a jest.
Our country has suffered long pillage and plunder,
While trusting each wolf hearted lamb;
But the chains we are wearing we'll soon tear asunder,
When led by our new Uncle Sam.

Let Grant pack his baggage and Babcock attend him;
Let Belknap go join Billy Tweed,
Let Blaine get his champions to cheer and defend him,
And send us some letters to read.
The tide of destruction that runs thro' our land
With Truth and Reform we will dam,
And on to the White House with Liberty's band
We'll march with our new Uncle Sam!

His record is proud, and his banner waving
Beside the bright flag we adore;
The bald eagle guides us and echoes our craving
For men like our leaders of yore.
The Empire State sends out her champion so true,
As strong as a war-raging ram;
He needs but your trust and he'll dare and he'll do,
So cling to our new Uncle Sam.

Let rigmarole spouters and swindling shouters
Slink off with their business undone;
Remember your duty and look not for booty,
With Tilden our fight will be won.
Where wrong deeds are rampart he'll soon raise a storm,
And of Justice he'll ne'er make a sham;
He knows but one maxim, and that is—Reform!
So a cheer for our new Uncle Sam!

—JOSEPH P. SKELLY.

REFORMATION.

Let reformation be the watchword amid the mighty host
From New York's rock-bound shores to California's coast.
Shout it on the hill-tops, and make the welkin ring;
Catch it up, ye valleys, and let the cities sing.

With Tilden as a leader we'll rout the plundering band,
And scout them from the high places throughout the entire land,
While Hendricks, with the old guard of vet'rans tried and true,
Is marching in solid columns 'neath the red, the white and blue.

Too long we've borne the galling yoke, too long we've bowed the knee
To men of very bad repute, for peace and harmony;
But now we'll cast it off, and rise to do and dare,
And rally round our standard; let corruption now beware.

The minions who have stolen the crust of honest toil
See the outraged millions, like the anacondas coil,
Tightening around their bloated band, from Maine to Florida,
Whilst the handwriting on the wall proclaims a brighter day.

Labor's now arrayed itself on reformation's side,
And marching by the millions, or like the ocean's tide,
With ballots in our hands more potent than the sword,
We'll bear them down in November, and cast them overboard.

WHEN SAMMY COMES IN.

By yon public hall, at the close of the day,
There stood a white man and his head it was gray,
And thus he rebuked the Republican din—
"There'll never be peace till Sammy comes in."

"Our country's half ruined with sectional jars;
Though the war is long over, its debts are deep scars—
Nay, wounds opened fresh by the vampires of sin—
And they'll never stop bleeding till Sammy comes in."

"The people are victims of thieves in high place,
Whose deeds are exposed to eternal disgrace;
Still with Hayes they are hoping, dull cattle, to win,
But their mow will be musty when Sammy comes in."

"Our fathers, by tyrants and tories of yore,
Were stung to the courage that all men adore,
If the sons are as free as the sires that have been,
They'll rise in their might and make Sammy come in."

"All hail to the new Revolution, whose chief,
As honest as Washington, brings us relief;
The shark of Long Branch, with his friends and his kin,
Are soon going out, and then Sammy comes in!"

REFORM CAMPAIGN SONG.

Sam Tilden is a gentleman,
A true and honest man, sir,
And when we call for honest work,
He's just the chap to answer,
He represents the very truths
That we have all been drilled in,
And we couldn't have to lead us on,
A better man than Tilden.

The thieves and rogues have ruled the land,
And all the people swindled;
Expenses every year increase,
While revenues have dwindled.
'Tis time to drive the rats and mice
From out the Treasury buildin';
There's only one can do the job,
And him we call Sam Tilden.

The Empire State, so proud and great,
Was on the verge of ruin;
With Tilden for its Governor
'Twas saved from such undoin',
Because the task of smashing rings
Needs work that he is skilled in,
The man we want for President
Is honest old Sam Tilden.

He drove out all official thieves,
And stopped their shameful plunder,
And the way he brought the taxes down
Made people shout and wonder;
So now we want the offices
With honest fellows filled in,
And at their head are proud to place
That honest man, Sam Tilden.

The Dome of the Capitol

The altitude of the Capitol makes [illegible] est in America, it is [illegible] the floor of the [illegible] crest of the statue [illegible] four edifices in the [illegible] tower higher [illegible] Peter's, at Rome, [illegible] from the pavement to the cross outside; St. Paul's, which is 404 feet; St. Isaac, at St. Petersburg, 363 feet, and the Dome of Paris, in which is the tomb of great Napoleon, which is [illegible]

In the United States [illegible] Trinity Church, New York, [illegible] height to the dome [illegible] ument second, and the [illegible] Monument in Baltimore.

The flute [illegible] number, which appears [illegible] ustrade in the dome, [illegible] feet high, and weigh six [illegible] Above this balustrade [illegible] formedly of [illegible] panels, which gradually [illegible] size to the apex, which [illegible] by a lantern fifty [illegible] a reflecting lamp [illegible] but only illuminated [illegible] night session either of the Senate, or both. This [illegible] has been often seen of [illegible] looked upon it have [illegible] weary Congressmen [illegible] mand their presence [illegible] atmosphere of the [illegible] decked still more [illegible] summer.

But perhaps the [illegible] the dome is the [illegible] It is as near perfect [illegible] Paul's, for on the [illegible] neath the painting one [illegible] in an ordinary [illegible] friend who [illegible] seventy feet away [illegible] to follow the [illegible] picture, and is [illegible] persons not aware [illegible] placed by the [illegible] dizzy altitude.

AN EXTRAORDINARY [illegible] gion about Oyster [illegible] county, N. Y., [illegible] of milk and [illegible] is generally [illegible] show the [illegible] longing to Sweet [illegible] that section, [illegible] thirty-five [illegible] Western dairies [illegible] the "Dog Holes" [illegible] 6, 1875, and [illegible] weight of her [illegible] tons, 582 [illegible] months she was [illegible] equaled when [illegible] meal each [illegible] brewers' grains [illegible] each evening and [illegible] cut, and when [illegible] quarts of [illegible] dried grain [illegible] the ball August [illegible] calve about May [illegible] luck befall her [illegible] This statement [illegible] taken from Mr. [illegible] can be verified by [illegible] old fogy doubt it—[illegible] and Farm.

DON'T OMIT THE TURNIP.—[illegible] are a profitable crop [illegible] land. Five hundred [illegible] acre are often grown [illegible] $15, including [illegible] them in a cellar, [illegible] ing them, making [illegible] cents a bushel. [illegible] be sown in July, [illegible] ticularly, which is [illegible] among corn, [illegible] hoeing. Care should [illegible] sow the seed too thick; [illegible] is not generally practiced [illegible] in this way; nor is any [illegible] This is decidedly the cheapest [illegible] a crop of turnips can be grown [illegible] the seed by a brush [illegible] twen the rows with [illegible] object to growing turnips [illegible] cows, on account of [illegible] an unpleasant flavor [illegible] ted by feeding the cows [illegible] milking in the morning [illegible] after milking, and no bad [illegible] imparted to the evening's milk.

THE FIFTEEN PUZZLE.—The London Mathematical Society lately occupied itself with discussion of the fifteen puzzle. [illegible] a school of fifteen children [illegible] laid down that they [illegible] every day in rows of [illegible] the same two girls [illegible] out together in [illegible] The rule is supposed [illegible] fried out correctly [illegible] working days of the [illegible] Sunday comes the [illegible] send the girls to church [illegible] ing the rule. This [illegible] nounced more than [illegible] century ago, and [illegible] tention of mathematicians, [illegible] for the reason that [illegible] involves the use of [illegible] thesis. Prof. Story [illegible] which the subject was [illegible] on the fifteen years [illegible] and a general method [illegible] pure syntax."—Boston Post.

HOW TO CATCH HARMFUL INSECTS.—[illegible] season approaches [illegible] most destructive to young [illegible] method of catching [illegible] marauders will be [illegible] well known fact that [illegible] ways light on some [illegible] close to the ground [illegible] to sweep down on the [illegible] advantage of this [illegible] flat surface at the top [illegible] to hold a steel trap, [illegible] by a chain to a stake [illegible] await results. No bait will be [illegible] for the hawk will [illegible] light on the trap and be caught.
