THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

Ebensburg, Pa.,
FRIDAY, - - AUG. 11, 1876.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Here, There, and the Other Place.

—Hit as H—ades, and still a hotten.

—New potatoes are down to 50 cents a bushel in this market.

—Ninety-five new citizens were made at last Blair county court.

—Lots of blackberries, large and luscious, this year. Three cents a quart.

—Ebensburg is more hole-y than godly throw. Opening the water trenches, you know.

—A new line of telegraph poles and wires has been completed from Altoona to East Conemaugh.

—Two girls to do general house work can find employment at the Crawford House by applying immediately.

—It is about as much too hot now as it was cold a few days ago. But then we are not satisfied, you know.

—Forty cents per bushel is the price demanded for apples in Johnstown, while 50 cents is the price here.

—Miss Lizzie Hiling will leave Huntingdon for her home, wind and weather permitting, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

—A Johnstown man has brought suit against his wife for assault and battery. She was trying to reconstruct him on woman's rights principles.

—Cakes and mules will be on exhibition at the Centennial during the first two weeks in September. In the language of the Hunkers, "Mules, are you going?"

—A letter from Serg't Singer reached us Monday noon, but our paper was then so crowded that we found it impossible to make room for it in the present issue.

—The Bedford Republican county convention on Tuesday instructed its Congressional conferees for Hon. John Cessna, and its Senatorial conferees for Jos. C. Long, Esq.

—The contract for carrying the mail between this place and Strongstown, a new route, has been awarded to Wm. C. Gallagher, who will find it an up-hill business before the coming winter is over.

—Seven year old son of Mr. Clinton Gooch, of Taylor township, fell a distance of twelve feet in his father's barn, on Monday and was badly cut in the forehead, being stunned quite severely.

—After Tuesday next trout can disport themselves in their native streams without fear of molestation for the next eight months, possibly of course there is no fish in the streams in the meantime.

—Misses Jenkins and Carlan, Pa. R. R. operators unknown to fame in this county, are present sojourning with their families at that delightful and popular summer resort, the Lloyd House, in this place.

—A rare curiosity in the shape of a brown thrasher was killed in this place a few evenings ago. It is a bird by any other name, but a shark of any other color would be just as loud and just as incessantly.

—The Board of Pardons last week recommended the release of Freeman Cupp, of Cambria, convicted in this county and at present serving a term of imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for the crime of arson.

—The Altoona Mirror says there seems no longer to be any doubt that Hon. John Dean will be renominated for Congress in this district. If this is true our Republican friends can go on with their show as soon as they are asked to.

—Messrs. Lindsay & Willoughby, of the Ligonier Local News, say that there are huckleberries on the ridges, near that place, as soon as they get some they will have to give us a taste. If they do we will endeavor to be on hand.

—Mr. Jos. F. Milliken was prostrated by sunstroke while drilling his regiment at Camp Anthony Wayne, Philadelphia, on Saturday afternoon, and for a time he was in a rather precarious condition, but is now recovered from the effect.

—"A thing of beauty and a joy forever" is the rare and elegant array of flowers of many varieties in the front yard of the residence of Mr. Tibbott, and the taste and judgment displayed in their culture reflects infinite credit upon Sheriff Banner and his estimable family.

—Jonathan Stephenson was committed to jail yesterday for breaking into and making himself comfortable for himself at the house of Mr. John Tibbott, near this place, during the absence of the owner and family. The accused seems to be a little off in the head.

—A small piece of steel flew from a hammer, wielded by Car-Inspector Geo. Hoffstot, at East Conemaugh, on Friday last, and the gentleman was engaged in tapping the wheels of a car, and striking the left eye totally destroyed it is the sight of that optic.

—The Bedford Gazette of last week contains a rather editorial urging at considerable length the renomination of Hon. John Cessna to Congress, and calling on the approaching convention in that county to give him the conferees without opposition. So be it, we say, so, all along the line.

—Somebody has taken the trouble to send marked copies of the Johnstown Tribune containing articles reflecting on the "New York Insurance Company," but as we don't propose to take part in the discussion, we hereby decline doing what the sender evidently wishes us to do.

—Father Christy, the fighting chaplain of the Army of the Cumberland, and recently of the Church of the Holy Name, Johnstown, delivered a very interesting lecture, as he well knows how to deliver, in Pittsburg, Pa., a few evenings since, on the "Duties of American Citizens," but we forbear to speak of the discourse as an effort of his masterly production.

—The Democratic sheet, the Altoona Tribune, which was accepted as the official organ of the county newspapers long before it has just entered upon the first year of its existence, and is full of life and spirit as a juvenile grimalkin may be expected to be, will endeavor to celebrate its centennial under present management.

—Mr. Jas. Gallagher, by whom we presume the handsome and gentlemanly passenger agent on the Pa. R. R., will be remembered, no doubt very much to his credit, and no doubt very much regretted, from an item in the last issue of the Johnstown Tribune, that he was injured on Tuesday of last week while attempting to uncouple a torpedo in an oil train.

—Sale on Saturday, Aug. 19th, at 10 o'clock, will offer at public sale, at the residence of his father in Carrolltown, Cambria county, 6 years old, of good pedigree, a mare by a trotting horse, a mate to a mile in 2.40, one sorrel mare, one yearling colt, one two year old buggy, one sulky, one set of harness, saddles, bridles, etc.

—The Johnstown Tribune is our authority for the statement that the largest and finest stock of clothing ever brought to that place is now on exhibition at Jos. J. Murphy's Star Clothing House, Main street. By buying strictly for cash Mr. Murphy secures his stock at the lowest figures, and is thus enabled to offer rare bargains to all who favor him with their custom.

—Peter Bowers shuffled off this mortal coil in more natural than for bowers to do. He resided in Hopewell township, Bedford county, and on Tuesday of last week, by accident, with a leather line in his hand, caused a mental derangement, or hallucination, as it is thought by a violent blow received some years ago, is what caused the inconsiderate act.

—The rope, after which the burning deck, or rather on a coal shed in the rear of his residence, not many days ago, and which he attempted to stop a load of coal that was majestically meandering its way in the vicinity, but just then the equilibrium, and, falling, struck the hind wheels of the wagon, whereby his neck was quite severely bruised about the throat. The name is Milton Bolsinger, son of Peter Bolsinger, of this place, his age about 16 years, and his escape from worse than injuries was due to the prompt-ness of the driver in halting his team, for the horses moved a few feet further he would have been crushed beneath the heavy load.

—Henry Leeky was arrested in Johnstown on Sunday last for brutally beating a man named Jacob Mowrer on the 29th of last month, and on being taken before Esq. Strayer, Monday evening, confessed that he had struck Mowrer with a "slung-shot." This was deemed talk enough, and consequently he was held in $500 bail to appear and answer at the next term of Court.

—Go ask the troubled waves whose ceaseless roar, in fury breaks upon the distant shore, know ye some spot in all your lonely round, where bargains great for ready cash are found?—the answer comes, few words employed, the place is kept by Myers & Lloyd, who sell all kind of goods, the best, at prices lower than all the rest of men in this wide world you'll meet—Ebensburg's the town and High they call the street.

—The Democracy of Centre county, in convention assembled on Tuesday last, presented the name of D. G. Bush, Esq., for Congress, and delared for Hon. P. Gray Meek, editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, for State Senator. We congratulate Bro. Meek on the well merited honor so handsomely bestowed upon him, and have no hesitation in saying that a better selection could not have been made. Hope the other counties will follow suit.

—We should have said last week that our energetic and wide-awake townsman, Mr. Geo. Huntley, joined Dr. Lemmon and Mr. Wm. A. Jones in their sea voyage from Philadelphia to Boston, the trip, as we are assured by Mr. Jones, who has since returned, having been a very delightful one, and neither of the three gentlemen named, if we except Dr. Lemmon, who was slightly affected, suffered from sea-sickness. Mr. Huntley is now visiting his childhood home among the green hills of Vermont.

—John Ryan, Esq., Democratic candidate for Sheriff, and H. D. Woodruff, Esq., late senior editor of the Johnstown Democrat, reached our town Wednesday afternoon, en route to the picnic at St. Lawrence yesterday. Mr. Ryan is an affable, genial gentleman, and needs only to be known to be appreciated for his sterling integrity and moral worth. He is the kind of a man, indeed, that the Democracy of Cambria will never go back on, and his triumphant election is therefore a foregone conclusion.

—Abram Goose is the patronymic of a Hontzdale confectioner, but he is only a goose in name, albeit he is of the masculine gander—no, gender—while they are geese in nature who heed not the advice we give them every week to buy all their made-up clothing hats, caps, furnishing goods, etc., from that prince of clothiers and most illeral of gentleman, Mr. Godfrey Wolff, whose immense establishment, we wish our readers at all times to bear in mind, is on Twelfth street, next door to the post-office, Altoona.

—A bar of iron interviewed one of Erastus Bayler's feet at the C. I. Co.'s rolling mill, Johnstown, on Friday night last, and although no bones were broken, the injured man no doubt wishes that that particular foot had not been on that particular spot at that particular moment. Samuel Teese, of Hornerstown, met with a like mishap at the same place on Saturday evening, and fared infinitely worse, his right foot being badly crushed and one of the bones broken by a bar of iron falling diagonally across it.

—Hon. Wm. F. Prosser, a member of Congress some ten years ago, and subsequently postmaster at Nashville, Tenn., near which place he now resides, and Dr. Thos. J. Griffiths, surgeon in charge of the U. S. Marine Hospital at Louisville, Ky., were among the visitors to our town last week. Mr. Prosser was a former citizen of this place, and not a few of our citizens remember very plainly if not very painfully when he used to wield the birch in this locality while engaged some twenty odd years ago in teaching the young idea how to shoot.

—A mischievous quack in Altoona advised a young man with more hair than brain to use molasses water, the theory being that after the water evaporated the rebellious locks would coalesce and keep in place. He made his toilet of a Sunday morning, and, taking a prominent pew, concentrated the attention of all the flies in the church, much to the relief and edification of the congregation. After striking wildly about and damaging a palm-leaf in undue vehemence, he made a break for the door with the flies swarming about his well-seasoned poll.

—We are glad to notice that Capt. James H. Gageby, of the 3d Infantry, U. S. A., a brave soldier, a thorough gentleman, and an earnest friend of the FREEMAN, is at present on a visit to his old home in Johnstown, and that he is in the enjoyment of good health and no doubt the possessor of as easy a conscience as a soldier on duty in the South could expect to enjoy. Mr. James Flanagan, eldest son of Judge Flanagan, has also been taking a peep at old and familiar scenes in and about Johnstown, and is now doing the Centennial previous to returning to his home in Chicago.

—No danger of business at the Ebensburg hardware and house-furnishing establishment going to the demnition bow wows during the absence of the proprietor, so long as that mammoth concern is under the prudent management of so proficient and accommodating a gentleman as Mr. Will. Connell, who has no superior as a salesman and few equals in all that pertains to a thorough knowledge of the hardware trade in all its branches. Buyers can do no better with Mr. Huntley, or any other man, than they can with his efficient and attentive clerk, Mr. Connell.

—At 12 o'clock on Sunday night, just as the town time-piece was pealing the hour of midnight, a brick was thrown through a large pane of glass in the show window of Dibert & Son's hardware store, Johnstown, and ere long still another crash was heard, after which all remained quiet and nothing further was known in regard to the matter until the following morning, when it was discovered that several pistols, knives, etc., had been stolen from one of the show cases, and that the broken window had been used for the ingress and egress of the burglars. No clue to the perpetrators.

—We publish on our first page a patriotic song written by Maj. G. Nelson Smith, a gentleman who needs no introduction to the people of this county, and set to music by A. H. Rosewig. This song has been sung with great eclat by the Grand Centennial Choir and in all the Army Posts of the country, and is no doubt as thrilling in the music, of which we are no judge, as it is soul-stirring and patriotic in its sentiment. It is sold at the usual price of sheet music and can be had by any of the friends of the author or the readers of the FREEMAN by addressing Mr. J. H. R. Storey, 211 South Sixth street, Philadelphia.

—Peter Paul Gallisath, son of Captain B. Gallisath, a former citizen of Cambria borough, this county, but for several years past a resident of Pittsburgh, was drowned in the Loyalhanna, near Latrobe, on Saturday last. The unfortunate lad was on a visit with his parents to the latter place, and a few hours previous to the time set for the family to return home he went out to fish in a dam not far distant, when, by some sad mishap, he fell into the water and was drowned before assistance could reach him, although several persons who witnessed the accident hastened to the spot as soon as possible after the occurrence.

—The work of opening the trenches and making the pipes water tight at the joints is now almost if not quite finished, and with it comes the entire completion of the water works, which are now, or will be when this work is done, perfect and satisfactory in every particular. The well is equal to every demand that can be made upon it, the reservoir is an excellent job, reflecting much credit upon the contractor, Mr. Samuel Hanford, who has done his work in a masterly manner, and the leaks in the pipes being now fully repaired, there is nothing left to complain of except the high taxes necessary to pay the cost of this too long delayed improvement.

—We are in receipt of a copy of the Merced (Cal.) Express of July 29th, which contains a good old Democratic song written by our venerable friend and correspondent, S. B. McCormick, Esq., who, by the way, is a Justice of the Peace by right of election in Township No. 3, in the county of Merced. The song is entitled. "When Shoddy Comes Marching Home," and is set to the music of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." It is such a rattling ditty as might be expected from the pen of our gifted friend, and if the author will suggest another line for the one quoted from the song of which it is in style a counterpart, we will take pleasure in reproducing it in these columns.

—Taking our cue from the Johnstown Tribune, we last week published an item in regard to the arrest at East Conemaugh and the imposing of a fine on an engineer named Davis, for indecently exposing his person; but having since learned that it was a mistake, so far at least as the gentleman named is concerned, we hasten to say that the man in question is not an engineer, but a fireman, on the Mountain division of the Pa. R. R. There is but one engineer on said division by the name of Davis—Mr. T. R. Davis—and he is too much of a gentleman to be guilty of an act of the kind mentioned. We are sorry that we were led into the error of imputing to him the commission of an offence which his whole moral nature revolts against.

—A perambulating possessor of a peep show of some description took a fit of frenzy, or some other kind of a fit, at Blair's barber shop, on Wednesday evening about 9 o'clock, caused we believe by some mischievous person throwing dirt in his face, and rushing into the street, he commenced yelling "Squire! Squire!" at the top of his voice, which ejaculation, being mistaken for "fire! fire!" was taken up by other lips, and in a very short time the alarm bell at the engine house was sounded and the streets soon swarmed with people running hither and thither in quest of the conflagration. The alarm being a false one, however, the tumult was of brief duration, and the excited populace wended their respective ways homeward in much better humor than if half the town had been burned down.

—Mr. John Scott, a former resident of this place, where in the year 1838 he published the Democratic Journal, was arrested in Brookville, Pa., of which place he has been a citizen for many years, being for a long time one of the editors and proprietors of the Brookville Republican, and occupying the position of postmaster under the present administration. The charge against him is robbing the post-office in that place, and the information was made by Special Agent Barrett. The evidence in the case is of a purely circumstantial character and involves so far as yet known the paltry sum of $27, although it is thought that the amount stolen will far exceed that sum, as the depredations have been going on for several months. The accused was taken before U. S. Commissioner M'Candless in Pittsburgh, on Saturday last, and held in $4,000 bail to appear at the October term of the U. S. District Court, in that city, for trial. Mr. Scott is 65 years of age and has always borne an excellent character.

—A letter from Sergeant Singer, written at Camp Anthony Wayne, in Fairmont Park, about one and a half miles from the Centennial Buildings, reports the Cambria Guard in fine spirits and enjoying themselves hugely, albeit they were in common with other troops exposed to a drenching rain for a day or two after reaching camp, with no protection except what the canvas tents afforded them. They had done no military duty up to the time of writing, but were on that day and all succeeding days to be put through a course of sprouts in shape of five and a half hours' drill each day. He reports fully ten thousand troops in camp and more arriving every day, and says that the grand parade on the 10th (yesterday) gave promise of being the biggest thing of the kind ever witnessed in that city. In the matter of "grub" he states that there is an abundance and to spare, and that all are living an top of the heap. As to the time they will return home he knows nothing definite, but thinks they will break camp the latter part of this week or the beginning of next.

—PITTSBURG'S GREAT SHOW.—In less than two weeks our great Exposition opens, and there is every reason to believe that it will be one of the most successful events in the history of the city. With the experience of last year to warn of mistakes and show wherein improvements can be made, everything this season has worked smoothly and expeditiously, and everything this year tends to show that the Exposition will in every way be superior to that of last. We learn that arrangements have been made with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company by which their travel from the west to the Centennial will have an opportunity to remain over from morning until evening, thus giving them an opportunity, of which they will certainly avail themselves, to see our home Exposition, and this will also enable our exhibitors to place their goods before the people of the South and West who will be passing through the city—an opportunity which, but for the Centennial, they would not enjoy. The fear that has frequently been expressed that the Centennial would attract our people away, to the detriment of our own Exposition, is certainly a foolish one. The class who are visiting and who will visit Philadelphia is to a very great extent made up of those who, even were there no national Exposition, would leave the city at this season for the summer resorts, and no fears are entertained by the management that this will operate against them. Great improvement will be made in many of the special departments this year. Especially will this be the case in the Art and Florists' departments. Mr. Clarence Johns, the well known Pittsburgh artist, will start this week for Philadelphia, for the purpose of making arrangements for the loan of quite a number of very excellent paintings by artists of repute from the private collections of Philadelphia, and in this connection we learn that Governor Hartranft has kindly promised to loan the managers either Rothermel's "Battle of Gettysburg," or the one of the same subject by Wendroth. The latter, though not so large, has been more favorably noticed by connoisseurs. In conclusion, we would say to those who want space, that they should lose no time in filing their applications, as it is already a matter of competition and is daily growing more so.—Pittsburg Dispatch, 3d.

—SHOCKING DEATH OF A WORTHY MAN.—Messrs. Edgar Collins and John Reese went into Furnace No. 1 of the Cambria Iron Co., in Millville borough, on Monday morning last, for the purpose of partially filling it with wood preparatory to the introduction of the coke, ore, etc., with which it was designed to put the furnace in blast, and while so engaged a couple of sticks from a bundle of cordwood which was being left down to them by the aid of a rope and windlass, suddenly slipped out, and falling a distance of fully thirty feet, one of the sticks struck Mr. Collins on the right temple, crushing in his skull and rendering him totally insensible. With a heroism and forethought which does him infinite credit, Mr. Reese at once wrapped a rope which had been left down to him around one of his arms, and with the other arm clasped tightly about Mr. Collins, himself and the unfortunate man were soon drawn to the surface, a distance of over fifty feet, from whence the injured man was immediately conveyed to his home in Johnstown, and Dr. John Lowman was called in, but all efforts to save his life proved unavailing, as he remained in an unconscious condition from the time of the accident, about 11 o'clock, a. m., until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when death put an end to his sufferings. Mr. Collins, who was a nephew of Mr. Thos. Collins, Sup't of the Millville furnaces, was in the 31st year of his age, and leaves a wife (the niece of Mr. John Clark, of the Callan House, Cresson,) and one child to mourn his sad and shocking fate. He was a worthy young man and was greatly esteemed by all who knew him. Peace to his ashes.

—RHEY BOYD, ESQ.—The Mayfield (Ky.) Monitor of a recent date pays the following high but no doubt well deserved compliment to a much esteemed Ebensburg boy Rhey Boyd, Esq., whose mother, a lady of great culture and strength of character, is at present on a visit to her old home and the home of her venerable mother in this place. The Monitor says:

> Tice was followed by Mr. Rhey Boyd, the assistant Democratic elector for this District, whose appearance on the stand was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause. Although a very young man, and somewhat of a novice in the art of political oratory, he made an eloquent and a telling speech—clearly demonstrating that he is the "son of his father," (and of his mother, too, might have been added.—ED. FREEMAN.) As the canvass waxes warmer, Mr. Boyd will improve greatly, and whoever has the misfortune to meet him in debate during the coming campaign will find to his sorrow that it will be no child's play. In Rhey Boyd she best of them will find "a foeman worthy o, his steel." His speech stirred up the enthusiasm of the audience, and was frequently interrupted with applause.

Letter from California.

CRESSEY STATION, Merced Co., Cal., }
Aug. 1, 1876. }

DEAR FREEMAN—We have just got through reaping and stacking our wheat. We cut 30 acres a day for 35 days. The header team traveled 800 miles, making, in all, 2,000 miles traveled. This would be equal to three times along the state of Pennsylvania and back. The average travel of the header was 20 miles per day, but sometimes as much as 25 miles were traversed. There are ten stacks of wheat, two of rye, and one of barley, making in all thirteen stacks, which will "shell out" about 10,400 bushels in all. Each stack is the product of about 80 acres, nearly all heads of grain, and but little straw. The steamer will be here in a week or two to thresh the grain. We had six hands employed, one of whom is Charles Trefts, of Johnstown, son of Mr. Jacob Trefts, of that place.

You were mistaken in saying that Harry McCormick is a nephew of mine. He is a full cousin, his father and my father being brothers. He is a good, honest man, and of a good family, if he is a Republican, but ten to one President Grant will dismiss him from duty, as he did Ad't Dyer, for being too honest. I am rejoiced that he made the development, as it adds another black mark to the already large list of unpondemned criminals who have been feeding for the last fifteen years off the taxes of the hard-working people. There are many honest Republicans who are getting their eyes opened in regard to the frauds of the present administration. I believe the mass of the Republican party are yet honest, but the officials and office-seekers are as corrupt as a gangrened sore. I wish Harry McCormick much prosperity in his new vocation, and trust that he may probe the rottenness of the administration to the very core.

I have sent you a "Merced Express," our county paper, and hope it will reach you. It is a sound Democratic journal.

A. D. H. is some on poetry. Hope he may spread his wings and soar aloft and soar away. Hoping that the entire Democratic ticket may be elected, I remain, Yours, truly, ROB ROY.

THE VERY WORST CHRONIC DISEASES CURED.—There is no disease, however long standing, which may not be cured by proper treatment. Dr. Keyser has given chronic diseases of the lungs, heart, throat, and adjacent organs, his serious attention for nearly forty years, and any of them that he cannot cure may be set down as hopeless. Dr. Keyser is the discoverer of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a medicine that bids fair to revolutionize the whole treatment of pulmonary affections. Thousands have been cured by it who never consulted the Doctor at all, but it were always better to see the Doctor that discovered the medicine, than to take it without; when this is not convenient, try the Lung Cure; it is a wonder-working agent, and will animate the whole constitution with new life.

Price of Lung Cure $1.50 per bottle or $7.50 per half dozen. To be had at Dr. Keyser's Laboratory, 240 Penn avenue, Pittsburgh. His private consulting office is No. 120 Penn avenue.

THOSE who would know for themselves the best treatment of diseases relative to the generative faculty in man and woman, should procure the valuable medical works published by the "Peabody Medical Institute," Boston, Mass., now become famous the world over. In "The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation," the causes and cure of nervous debility, impotence, sterility, &c., are discussed in a masterly manner, and the volume should be read by everybody.—Another exceedingly valuable work published by the Institute is "Sexual Physiology of Woman and Her Diseases," which should be in the hands of every young woman and matron. "Diseases of the Nerves and Nervous Maladies" is the title of another work published by the Institute—an exhaustive treatise on these subjects. A Gold Medal has recently been presented to the author of these popular medical works by the National Medical Association. Read the advertisement.

WHO CAN HE BE?—Who can the Cambria county man be that is referred to in the following letter written to the Altoona Mirror by an Allegheny City correspondent? He says:

> Some two years ago a young woman apparently about twenty-three years of age, came to this city from Altoona. On the third of May, 1876, she made application before court No. 1 for divorce from her husband, who is here confined in Castle Wright. The hearing has not yet taken place, for some reason, and it is now said that the Judges have received information to the effect that the young woman has another husband in Cambria county, and that she was divorced from him, but now has proceedings instituted in the Cambria courts to be released from her obligations as wife to him. Her second husband, who is now in jail here, she married at Gallitzin some three years ago. It is supposed that she has 'intentions' on some other unfortunate wretch, hence her application for divorce. It is presumed that the Judges will grant her petition, after having been informed of the facts in the case."

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.—No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggists, Lemmon & Murray, Ebensburg, or P. M. Woleslagle & Son, Wilmore, and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York. [4-21.-6m.]

OBITUARY

KRISE.—Died, in Altoona, July 31st, 1876, SUE A., wife of Dr. J. J. Krise, aged 35 years.

The deceased, second daughter of C. B. and M. Kennedy, was born at Trout Run, Lycoming county, in August, 1841, but her parents soon afterwards removed to this county, her early life was spent at Hemlock. When quite young she commenced the profession of teaching, and was esteemed a competent and successful educator in various parts of the county in which she taught, and many of her former pupils will read of her early death with sincere regret. After her marriage, some eight years ago, she resided at St. Augustine until within two years past, when her husband removed with his family to Altoona. Here consumption manifested itself, and despite all that medical skill and the anxious attentions of her friends could do, she finally succumbed to the dread destroyer. The life of Sue A. Krise was that of a true Christian. As child, sister, playmate, teacher, wife, mother and neighbor, her relations to her family and society were at all times influenced by the maxims of the Gospel.—The close of her life's labors was always faithfully performed, and in the service of God she was ever faithful, in season and out of season. Religious, she was anything but ostentatious; benevolent, her charities she never pharisaically published; naturally reticent, her tongue was not employed in the detraction of her neighbor, and she never lent her ears to the senseless gossip which is but too common in the world. In a word, her life was a continuous effort to imitate the life of her Savior, and her death was as edifying as her life had been exemplary. In her last, long and painful illness she had the happiness of receiving all the consolations of her religion. The priest of God administered to her the sacraments of the Church, which she received with the most touching devotion. The good Sisters of Charity daily visited her, prayed with and encouraged her to final perseverance, and when the last moment came she calmly took leave of her afflicted husband, children and friends without a murmur and without a struggle, and passed away full of hope for a glorious resurrection, and a re-union in heaven with the loved ones she was parting from on earth.

On Thursday morning her remains were conveyed to the Summit, followed by a large concourse of mourning relatives and friends, and in the church where she had often come in youth to learn the christian doctrine, to hear Mass and receive the sacrements, the Rev. Father Hackett celebrated the Requiem Mass, and was answered by the choir, the members of which had been the companions of the deceased in her youthful days. After Mass, Father H. delivered a discourse which was at once a high tribute to the virtues of the deceased and an earnest and eloquent appeal to all to imitate her virtues; after which all that was mortal of Sue A. Krise was consigned to its last resting place in the family burial ground in St. Aloysius' cemetery, amid the sympathies of the assembled multitude for her bereaved husband and friends. Req. in pace. Amen. M.

GITTINGS.—Died, in this place, on Saturday night, Aug. 6, 1876, AMY, youngest daughter of John and Anna Gittings, aged 4 years, 2 months and 18 days.

Ayer's
Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
