-A more constant down-pour of rain, accompanied by all its attendant discomforts, has probably never occurred in this region since the days of the great deinge. For the last three weeks or more we have had only one or two fine days, and as we write this (Wednesday) forenoon there is but litund fell in spots to a considerable depth the prospect of a cessation of hostilities on part of the elements. The moon changes on Tuesday next, and let us hope that the weather will change with it. P. S. The weather has discounted the moon somewhat.

-A pocket-book containing between thiry-one and thirty-two dollars (two $10's, one $5, three $1's, and the balance in change), a teacher's certificate for 1873, and a plain gold ring, was lost in this place, most probably at the railroad station, on Monday last. The owner of the pocket-book is a lady poor enough to feel the loss very much-indeed parade in the afternoon. No it was all the money she had -- and we therefore hope and trust the finder will be honest enough to bring the missing property to this office, for which act of simple justice we are authorized to pay the sum of ten dollars.

-John Henry Roberts, a colored youth not unknown to-well, not to fame- in this comm unity, was arrested in Johnstown last Thursday on suspicton of having stolen a gold watch and much other valuable property from Miss Annie W. Stealing is evidently not John Henry's best hood, but there are some folks uncharitable enough to wish it was, -A correspondent at Cherrytree, Indiana

Some ten or twelve years sluce a well was bored for oil, and ever since water and gas, which they struck at about two hundred and sixty feet, have been boiling out in considerable quantities. The water has never been analyzed, is a mild cathartic, cleanses thoroughly, softens the skin, and is cold and very clear, but when stirred up in the tub within which it beils up it becomes white as if mixed with milk. The gas can be burned by inverting a keg or box over the water as bottom, and it burns two colors a twiting hottom, and it burns two colors, a twirling blue blaze shooting out small tongues of -A lad named Oliver Wilson, son of Mr. James Wilson, of East Conemaugh, was acdentally shot in the right thigh, on Monday afternoon last, by a young companion, named Samuel Yeager, with whom he was on a hunting expedition in the neighborhood of the old Portage tunnel. After the accident young Yeager, who was of course ladly frightened, ran all the way home and went to bed without saying a word to any one whom the sad occurrence. Meantime young Wilson, who had received the full charge of shot in his leg, managed to make his way to the house of Adam Ream, not far distant, where he remained until the next day, when he was taken home and is now under the medical treatment of Dr. Wilson, who hopes to save his life, but has some fears on that score.

Both were bound to the Centennial Exposition and they concluded to let bygones be bygones and interview the show together. All which was worthy of commerdation, but we hope the reconciled bushand had the good sense to call on Godfrey Wolff and treat himself to a bran splinter new suit of clothing before taking his departure from Altoona. -On the night of the 13th of February last, as our renders will probably remember, Mr. Henry Anderson, watchman at Hawes' cement mill, Johnstown, shot and killed a young man named Kirby, whom he alscovered on the roof of the mill and whom he evidently mistook for some interloper who meant mischief. Be this as it may, Andersou was subsequently tried and acquitted in our county court, but notwithstanding that fact, Daniel Kirby, a brother of the deceased, is still impressed with the idea that Auder son murdered his kinsman and that it de volves upon him to revenge his death. Acting upon this suggestion of the evil one, young Kirby has twice essayed to take Anderson's life, the la est of which attempts was made about 6 o'clock on Friday morning last, at which time Anderson, in company with two other men, was walking near the Cambria siding, when young Kirby suddenly appeared from under a truck and commenced shooting at Anderson, who fortunately struck Kirly's arm in the niche of time to prevent the hall from doing more than grazing his own arm. Three more shots were fired by Kirby in quick succession, but neither of them taking effect, he essyed to huri a stone at Anderson, but the latter produced his revolver and young Kirby, deeming discretion the better part of valor, suddenly made himself scarce and is still at large. That he ought to be arrested and if possible sent to the penitentiary, as well for his own sake as for the sake of his intended victim, is a self-evident fact, and nothing should therefore he left audone to secure his apprehension at as early a day as possible.

FATAL AFFRAY AT LILLY'S STATION. -A sad affeir, resulting in the death on Saturday evening last of a man named Jacob Boast, occurred at the public house of Mr. Peter Brown, at Lilly's Station, on Thursday evening of last week. The circumstances as we have learned them are that Boast, who was intoxicated at the time, and who was a great aunoyance to everybody with whom he came in contact while in that condition, although a quiet and peaceable citizen under other circumstances, charged another man named James Callahan with having influenced the vote of a third party on a certain occasion by furnishing him with a pint of whiskey. This charge, made in the presence of several persons, had the effect of moving Callahan to anger, and the result was that he struck at Bozet, knocking off his hat, and then kicked him in the side, producing injuries which culminated in his death, as is supposed, at the time indicated. In his connection it is proper to state, however, that the deceased had been ruptured for several years, and al-though in the habit of wearing a truss, he had left home that morning, baving been on a spree the day previous, without putting on this very necessary appendage, the absence taburgh Freight at Summerhill, this for his unfortunate death, as it does not appear that more than one kick was administered to him and under ordinary circumstances this would seem to be rather a trivial stances this would seem to be taked convened cause for death. An inquest was convened by a justice of the peace on Monday afternoon, but owing to the fact that the testimony of several relatives of the deceased could not be obtained at that time, the inquest was adjourned until the following day, but with what result we have not learned up to present writing. Boast was a man of family, as is also Callahan, the latter being their store than at any other store, the father of several small children, and courteous treatment ever since we have had the pleasure of forming his acquaintance— was preparing a speech or two for the cam-paign, with the intention of appearing 'in public on the stage" to say his say on behalf of Hayes and Wheeler in particular and of the Republican candidates, district and coun-ty, in general. Mr. Pitcairn devied at the time that he was making any such preparaappear before the Hayes and Wheeler Club of Altoona on Friday evening last and unbosomed himself in a speech of some length, a verbatim report of which we find published in Saturday's issue of the Evening Mirror. That the speech itself is a masterly production we shall neither deny or affirm, but that it contains anything calculated to convince the poor workingmen of that city that they ought to vote the Republican ticket, we beg leave, with all due deference for the talents and sincerity of the orator, to express our houest doubts. Some of Mr. Pitcairn's expressions are certainly very unique, and his glorification over the fact that he is a Repubican because it places him with the respectable people of that community is extremely logical, to say the least, especially when it leads one to infer, as it certainly does, that the Democrats over there, as well as elsewhere, for he goes on to say that wherever he has been he has always joined himself with the best class of citizens, i. c., the Republican party, are little better than scalawags and ommon bummers, which of course Mr. Pitcairn does not believe nor would be have any one think him capable of uttering. But that is not all. Mr. Pitcairn gobbles down stomach, and even goes so far as to say that it is one of the best governments that has ever fallen to the lot of man. After that no one need be surprised to learn that the speaker charges Gov. Tilden with having been the ringleader of the greatest thieves that ever disgraced any city of the United States, or that he himself is strongly impressed with the belief that Hayes is the only man to give us a little more of that "best government," etc., so generously be-stowed upon us by Grant. The rest of the speech is made up in a great measure of the usual "bloody shirt" arguments, which are well calculated of course to convince people that the only way to express good will towards the South and to redeem the country from the deplorable condition in which it has been placed through the unquestioned northern Cambria during the past week, the most important and most enthusiastic of which was the mass meeting and pole raising at Carrolltown on last Saturday afternoon, of which we trust our correspondent, More Anon," will furnish us a full account although seemingly remiss at present writ-of this place. The meeting was followed by a social cetillion party, which we believe was well patronized. On Friday evening a very fine meeting was held in the Court House, in this place, and although in a great measure imprompts and having the further disadvantage of bad weather to contend with, it was quite largely attended and proved in all other respects a decided sucwelcome and hear a speech from Lieut. Gov. John Latta, who it was known had accented an invitation from the Carrolltown Club to no special effort was made to get up a crowd, the weather rendering it impossible for people from the country to attend with any de-gree of comfort. The meeting was organ-ized by calling A. Walters, Esq., of Carroll-town, to the chair, and selecting as Vice Presidents Messra, Martin Kutruff, Joseph Wertner, John L. Stough and James Myers, and as Secretaries Francis Cramer, E. B. Kittell and H. A. McPike. R. L. Johnston, Eeq., thereupon introduced the first speaker, Hon, John Latta, who in a sound and sensible argument, replete with facts and figures, engaged the attention of the meeting for fully an hour or more. He was followed by F. A. Shoemaker, Esq., Cambria's choice for State Senator, in his usual teese style, after which several other gentlemen were called on, only one of whom, John S. Rhey, E-q., responded with a speech, and no one need be told that that speech amused as well as exifted all who heard it. After each speech the audience cheered heartily and the band played delightfully; and when the meeting adjourned, which it did about 10 o'clock, everybody felt that it was good to have been there. CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.-In accordance with previous notice the Democratic Congression al Conference of the Seventeenth District met at the Bedford House, Bedford borough, on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 19. The following gentlemen took their

Mr. Morgart then nominated Hon. John Rellly. Mr. Wehn nominated Hon. W. J. Baer, of Somerset, and Mr. Jackson nominated Major Jesse R. Crawford, of Biair. The first and second ballots resulted as follows: Rellly 6. Baer S. Crawford 4. Third ballot, Rellly, 5. Baer 2. Crawford 5; fourth ballot, Rellly, 6. Baer 1. Crawford 5. On the fifth ballot the name of Baer was withdrawn, and that and the two succeeding ones resulted in 6 for Reilly and 8 for Crawford. On motion Maj. Crawford was introduced to the conference. He came in and was introduced to the conference and said that he had no desire to prolong the session of the conference or stand in the way of the harmony of the party—that, of all times, this is the one when he had nodesire to prelong the session of the conference or stand in the way of the barrhony of the party—that, of all times, this is the oar when entire union should prevail among us. Presuming that all who read the "Freeman" are well acquainted with the geographical position of this pleasant little town. I need enter into no lengthened description of its location, but need only give you a few of the main points of interest in and about the place for the benefit of those who have never been here.

To any one approaching Indiana from any direction whatever, the inagnificent building of the State Normal School, situated as it is on a slightly elevated piece of ground at the southwestern edge of town, will first attract his attention. The building is a brick edifice, 210 feet long, with three wings extending back 130 feet in length and 50 feet in width. From seastward, is five stories high, contelns 250 rooms, and is bested with steam. The water used in the building is pumped from a well 164 feet deep and is excellent in quality. Every convenience of modern times has been concentrated in this structure, and the health and comfort of the students considered in all its arrangements, so that we can safely assert that there is no better, healther. or more convenient Normal School. that we can safely assert that there is no better, healthier, or more convenient Normal School building in the United States than Indiana county can boast of.

Situated on the northeast corner of Philadelphia and 6th streets the Court House is seen towering high above all the surrounding buildings, and aithough the cause of "a little irregularity" at the time of its erection, is an object of pride to every citizen in the county. In point of architecture and convenience I do not think it as a processed by any Court House in the think it is surpassed by any Court House in the

in this place.

First and foremost, political matters claim the sitention of the male portion of the community. About two weeks ago the Republicans organized a Hayes and Wheeler Ciob, which at the present time numbers about two hundred members. They made their first appearance in public one day last week with seventy-five men in ranks. Their uniforms consist of white caps, white capes, and white leggings, the color adopted being no doubt in honor of their chief. Harry White, although the contrast between the uniform and some of the members of the Ciub is very great. The formation of this Club and its first public appearance were the signals for a thorough and earnest awakening in the Democratic ranks. A meeting was called for last Saturday evening at the Court House, at which time and place a large and enthysissite general was present. A "Tilden and Hendricks Marching Club" was organized and two days after the names of one hundred and fifty Democratic voters were carolled.

The Democratic element of this county is First and foremost, political matters claim the Democratic refers were enrolled. The Democratic element of this county is thoroughly aroused and determined to send that tried and true Democrat. Hon. Geo. A. Shall we not hear as good an account from Cambria's "frosty sons of thunder" this fail. Of the progress of the campaign in this "neck of woods" you shall bear more hereafter.

Last Monday, although a wet, disagreeable day, was an exciting one with us. Two excursion trains left this place for the Centennial, one hope that he will repeat that speech, like some of his political faith in Philadelphia and elsewhere do their voting, early and often. The Democrats can certainly stand it if he and his party friends can. For the sake of the latter, however, we are almost tempted, in the language of the lamented Greeley, to say to Mr. Pitcairn, "Go west, young mango west!"

THE MEETING AND POLE RAISING was conducted under the auspices of the Dem was conducted under the auspices of the Democratic Clubs of Carrolltown, Susquebiann and Barr townships. It was a grand old tashioned Democratic raily. The pole was spiled to-gether near the residence of A. Strittmatter, Esq., one mile from town, and thence conveyed to our borough in four wagons, drawn by eight grey houses, caprisoned and decerated with flags, preceded by the martial band, and followed by an immense concourse of people. When the procession reached town the cornet band escorted it to the diamond, where the pole was raised amid the resounding cheers of the assembied multitude.

LIEUT. GOV. It was truly astonishing to see the immense crowd of people who stood out in the pittless rain listening eagerly to every word that fell from the speakers' lips, for the inchemency of the atternoon was such that even dumb brutes sought shelter.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT NICKTOWN. On Wednesday last there was a large and enthus astic meeting of the Democracy of Bart township. Speeches were derivered by J. J. Thomas, Esq., J. C. How MANY SUFFER constantly, in some form, the maladies that result from the errors of youth, and would give all they possess to be restored to sound and vigorous health so necessary to physical and mental enjoyment. Let such consult, in our columns, the advertisement of the "Peabody Medical Institute," setting forth the character of the medical works published by it. "The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation" will guide those who are afflicted with the consequences of youthful indiscretions to paths of pleasantness and physical vigor. "Sexual Physicology of Woman and Her Diseases" will guard and guide the female sex by its admi-rable teachings. "Diseases of the Nerves and Nervous Maladies" is a foilutain of knowledge to all suffering from nervous debillry. A Gold Medal, of great beauty and value, has recently been presented to the author of the above works by the National Medical Association.

SCARCITY OF MONEY .- There is no doubt but the present situation of all Rinds of busi-ness and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses.
