

At an adjourned Court held in Huntingtown on Tuesday last, Wm. Stutzman, recently convicted of manslaughter for killing a man named Stephen Madagan, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution, and to serve a term of two years in the Western Penitentiary.

Mr. Wm. Boyle, aged about 74 years, a resident of Lilly's Creek, got on a coal train forenoon, and fell from it, jumping off the cars while still in motion, he received great force, fracturing four of his ribs, cutting a fearful gash in his head, and sustaining other serious injuries. It is feared that he cannot survive.

A brakeman named James Matthews, a resident of New Derry, Westmoreland county, lay on his feet coughed and fearfully gasped for breath, moving toward the end of the depot platform in that place at an early hour on Sunday morning last. It was as he thought that the injured member would have to be saved, but it seems likely now that it can be saved.

There are two ways of counting money. One way is to go to J. S. Murphy's Clothing Store, where you will find a man wearing apparel for about thirty dollars. Men's clothing and boys' clothing at 109 Clinton street, Johnstown. A large and useful stock of reasonable clothing just received. Call immediately. Board acted on the 21st of the month, and the following resolutions were adopted: Don't forget Murphy's Clothing Store.

Messrs. Thomas Davis and J. Alex. Moore, two of the Republican members, were relieved from duty on the floor of the Republican Senatorial conference, the former on account of ill health and the latter for some other reason. Mutual consent, however, and Hon. J. M. McKim, of Evans, Pa., were chosen to fill the vacancies, the third conferee being the irascible H. A. Boggs, of Johnstown.

The Johnstown Democrat informs our friend of the Herald that a quarter of a century ago in the old Echo office, but who for many years past has been the leading spirit in the city. He is a wholesale and retail cigar dealer, and is well known in the city. He will not be longer in the land of the living, but will be remembered in the city of Johnstown before his return to the Smoky City.

We are in receipt of the Congressional Record containing a speech delivered by Hon. J. M. McKim, of the House of Representatives, Aug. 15th, 1876, on the subject of economy, retrenchment and reform. It is replete with facts and figures, and treats of the subject in a most able and instructive manner. The speech is well worth reading, and is a valuable contribution to the literature of the day.

The Johnstown correspondent of the N. Y. Sun—who furnished among other things an apocryphal account of the recent murder of a young man named Bonst—has been knocked down and kicked about the town, and is now in the hospital. He is now in the hospital, and is now in the hospital. He is now in the hospital, and is now in the hospital.

A Columbus (O.) paper says that a young man named Nightengale, who is one of two individuals believed to have been guilty of outraging the person of a young girl at Morrisburg, Pa., was arrested in this city one day last week, but upon word being sent to Johnstown, the answer was returned that the young man was at liberty. The terrible crime with which he is charged therefore remains unavenged, and the Tribune would like to know where he is.

Mr. A. T. Platteau, who has been several years in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been appointed to the position of Chief Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He is a man of high standing in the community, and is well known for his ability and integrity.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

NOT THE ONLY ATTRACTION.—The great Centennial Exposition, now within little more than one month of its close, is unquestionably the biggest thing of the kind the world has ever witnessed. It is by no means the only thing in Philadelphia worth seeing, as noted the following from a late issue of the Evening Star, a paper published in that city:

AN EXPOSITION WORTH SEEING.—Outside of the Centennial Exhibition there are few places in the Westmoreland county more interesting than the Westmoreland County Agricultural Conference, of this district (Cambria and Blair) have been in session, off and on, since the present week (Thursday morning) nothing has been accomplished of the few ballots taken invariably standing three for Lemon and three for Roberts, with an apparent disposition on either side to give up the contest.

In 1861 Mr. Wanamaker opened a small store at Sixth and Market, of which the Grand Depot is now the successor. It was the first of its kind in the city, and it was the first of its kind in the city. It was the first of its kind in the city, and it was the first of its kind in the city.

Miss Belle Harmon, of Altoona, left town Monday evening for the purpose of attending services at the Christian church, M. E. church, but being a little too early she concluded after reaching her destination to call on her friends at the residence of Mr. Scott, but she did not reach the residence of Mr. Scott until she had reached the residence of Mr. Scott.

Our friend and brother type of other days, E. H. Harzick, with whom we stood at close more than a quarter of a century ago in the old Echo office, but who for many years past has been the leading spirit in the city. He is a wholesale and retail cigar dealer, and is well known in the city.

We are in receipt of the Congressional Record containing a speech delivered by Hon. J. M. McKim, of the House of Representatives, Aug. 15th, 1876, on the subject of economy, retrenchment and reform. It is replete with facts and figures, and treats of the subject in a most able and instructive manner.

The Johnstown correspondent of the N. Y. Sun—who furnished among other things an apocryphal account of the recent murder of a young man named Bonst—has been knocked down and kicked about the town, and is now in the hospital. He is now in the hospital, and is now in the hospital.

A Columbus (O.) paper says that a young man named Nightengale, who is one of two individuals believed to have been guilty of outraging the person of a young girl at Morrisburg, Pa., was arrested in this city one day last week, but upon word being sent to Johnstown, the answer was returned that the young man was at liberty.

Mr. A. T. Platteau, who has been several years in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been appointed to the position of Chief Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He is a man of high standing in the community, and is well known for his ability and integrity.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Mr. Cyrus Miller, a resident of Kyrville (Pa.), was killed on Sunday last, while engaged in the work of a coal train. He was struck by a falling log, and was killed instantly. His death is a great loss to the community.

The lifeless and horribly mutilated remains of Charles McCull were found a few mornings ago, in the Clearfield county, near the town of Clearfield. The body was found in a field, and was in a state of decomposition. The cause of the death is not yet known.

Local Correspondence.

AN OLD LITTLE LOVE STORY. DEAR FREEMAN—Many years ago, when Cambria was a small town, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

ABOUT THAT TIME that resided in the northern part of the county, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

IN COURSE of time they were engaged and were to be married. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

Local Correspondence.

AN OLD LITTLE LOVE STORY. DEAR FREEMAN—Many years ago, when Cambria was a small town, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

ABOUT THAT TIME that resided in the northern part of the county, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

IN COURSE of time they were engaged and were to be married. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

Local Correspondence.

AN OLD LITTLE LOVE STORY. DEAR FREEMAN—Many years ago, when Cambria was a small town, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

ABOUT THAT TIME that resided in the northern part of the county, there lived a young man and a young woman who were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

IN COURSE of time they were engaged and were to be married. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

THEY were married, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love. They were very much in love, and they were very much in love.

JOHNSTOWN SAVINGS BANK. 120 Clinton St., Johnstown, Pa. CHARTERED SEPT. 19, 1870. DEPOSITORS received all their money back on the 1st of the month of June and December, and the withdrawal is added to the deposit, thus accumulating two years interest without trouble. Interest is paid on all deposits, and the depositors are allowed to call on or to see the deposit book at any time, and to see the interest and principal at any time. Good references, perfect titles, etc., required.

This corporation is exclusively a Savings Bank, and is not a bank for general banking purposes. It is not a bank for general banking purposes. It is not a bank for general banking purposes. It is not a bank for general banking purposes.

EVER EXPERIENCED IN EBENSBURG. THE GRANDEST DISPLAY AND Largest Array OF CHOICE GOODS, WE DARE SAY, THAT FOR MANY A DAY FOLKS HEREAWAY ONE PRICE TO ALL! READY CASH FROM ALL!

REMEMBER Our ONE PRICE and don't forget the balance of the firm of PRYCE, BAXTER, JONES & CO. IN TUDOR'S BUILDING, HIGH ST., Ebensburg.

Men's Heavy Boots, the very best in the market, can be had at our Store for $2.50. We have the largest and best selection of Calicoes in town, which we will sell at 6, 7 and 8 cents per yard.

Come and examine our stock of Muslins from 6 to 10 cents per yard. A new stock of Flannels, the very best, fully warranted and of our own make.

Cassimeres of our own make—enough to supply everybody in the county. All wool and no shoddy. A big stock of Yarns, of which this advertisement is not one. Call and see.

These only 12 1/2 cents per pound. Twelve boxes just received. Coffee, a prime article, at 22 and 25 cents.

The best Syrups, better article than have ever heretofore been brought to town, at 80 cents per gallon. We want FOUR TONS of Butter, for which we will pay the highest price in merchandise.

Orphans' Court Sale OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE! BY virtue of an order issued out of the Orphans' Court of Cambria county, and on the premises in Barr township, on the 21st of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the following described real estate, to-wit: All that part of the real estate of the late John M. Baker, deceased, which is situated in the town of Barr, and is bounded north by the public road from Carrolltown to the village of Barr, and south by the public road from the village of Barr to the village of Wrenn, and east by the public road from the village of Wrenn to the village of Barr, and west by the public road from the village of Wrenn to the village of Barr.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.

THE UNDERSIGNED, having been appointed Auditor by the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county to distribute the fund in the hands of W. J. Evans, Esq., administrator of the estate of John M. Baker, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment, at his office in Ebensburg, on Friday, the 17th day of October, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when and where all parties may appear and be heard, and where all parties may appear and be heard.