

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., Friday Morning, - Oct. 20, 1876.

Democratic National Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, of New York. FOR VICE PRESIDENT: THOS. A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.

Democratic District Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS: HON. JOHN KELLY, of Altoona. STATE SENATOR: W. FISK CONRAD, of Tyrone.

Democratic County Ticket.

ASSEMBLY: JOHN DOWNEY, Johnstown. JAMES J. THOMAS, Carroll Twp. SHERIFF: JOHN RYAN, Cambria Borough. ASSOCIATE JUDGES: JOHN FLANNAGAN, Stonycreek Twp. JOHN D. THOMAS, Ebensburg. POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: ISAAC N. WISSINGER, Blacklick Twp. JURY COMMISSIONER: JOSEPH CRAMER, Allegheny Twp.

The Radical press and leaders have uttered so many falsehoods during the present campaign about Gov. Tilden's income tax that a vast majority of the people of the country have very naturally and very sensibly come to the conclusion that he ought to be the income President, and they propose to vote accordingly.

GRANT has issued a proclamation commanding the title clubs and other armed organizations in South Carolina to disperse within three days. He has also ordered Gen. Sherman to concentrate troops in that State, so far as available, from the Atlantic forces. These arbitrary proceedings will not be forgotten at the polls on the 7th of November next.

WHAT will Pennsylvania do at the November election for Tilden and Hendricks? This is the question of the day and creates a very unusual interest throughout the country. We are firm in our belief that there is a settled determination on the part of the taxpayers of this State to have a new political deal and to drive the Gots and Vandals from the capital at Washington. In this political crusade against fraud and corruption we pledge the people of Cambria county to roll up a majority for Tilden and Hendricks such as they have never given since the Presidential election in 1856.

In pursuance of the call of the Chairman of the Republican County Committee, about one half the delegates to the recent nominating convention of that party re-assembled at the Court House, in this place, at 1 o'clock yesterday (Thursday) afternoon, and organized by calling William Jones, Esq., of Chest Springs, to the chair and selecting Edgar Evans, Esq., of Ebensburg, as Secretary. This on motion of A. Lloyd, Esq. The convention then proceeded to the choosing of Senatorial conferees, and in due time John C. Gates, Esq., of White township, and Abel Lloyd and Edgar Evans, Esq., of this place, were selected, but no instructions were given them. No other business demanding attention, the convention, on motion, adjourned sine die.

Mourning troops for the South! This is the cheering news, says the Pittsburgh Post of Monday, that comes from Washington this morning. The desperate conspirators against free government, with the verdict of the West against them, now boldly resort to the bayonet to decide the Presidential election. That Hayes connives at this, there can be no doubt, since neither he nor his friends protest against it. Every man who now votes for Hayes not only endorses the crimes of the present Administration but votes to make the bayonet the controlling element in all future elections. Can the American people afford to do this? Is liberty so worthless that they are ready to cast it away? Even the more moderate of the Hayes organs raise a warning voice against this assault upon the liberties of the people.

The long agony is over at last and the name of the Democratic candidate for State Senator in this district is W. Fisk Conrad, Esq., of Tyrone, whose nomination was effected on Saturday last by Mr. John G. C. Bearer, one of the conferees from this county, casting his vote for that gentleman in conjunction with the three conferees from Blair county. It is needless to say that we were anxious the honor should be conferred upon a Cambria county man, of whom there are several whose nomination would in our estimation have been equivalent to an election, but our preferences, which could not of course be taken into the reckoning, were of a character to deter us from accepting the decision of the proper tribunal as binding upon all good Democrats, and hence, ever desirous as we are to be classed in that honorable category, we cheerfully accept the result and place at our mast-head to-day the name of the lucky man. Enjoying as we do only a slight acquaintance with Mr. Conrad, we cannot from our own knowledge inform our readers as to what manner of man he is in every particular, but we know enough about him to say that he is the possessor of much more than ordinary energy and intelligence, and that he is fully competent to perform the duties of the position to which we feel entirely confident, especially in view of the present aspect of affairs, that he will be triumphantly elected. If he is not, we are sure that Cambria county will not be to blame, as we have no hesitation in pledging him a majority much larger than can possibly be given against him in his own county of Blair. Next week we shall have more to say on this subject, at which time we shall also pay our respects to the gentlemen named on our own county ticket.

The Recent Elections.

We have no hesitation in saying that after the results of the recent elections in the States to which we will hereafter refer, no man of any political sagacity or foresight can any longer doubt or question the triumphant election of Tilden and Hendricks on the 7th day of November next. We need not waste either time or paper in referring to the recent victories in Georgia and Arkansas, as they are certain to cast their electoral votes for the Democratic candidates for President and Vice President; for although the Radical newspapers and stump orators of that party assert that the rebels, as they choose to denominate the Democrats of the South, overawed and intimidated the negro voters, the truth is, as the result in both States proves beyond a doubt, that thousands of negroes voted the Democratic ticket for the simple reason that they have discovered from bitter experience that their worst enemies are the corrupt and rapacious carpet-baggers, whose game is wholesale plunder and robbery of the negroes themselves. Experience is a severe but wholesome teacher, as well in private as in political affairs, and the negro voters, taught in the mercile school of carpet-bag infamy and plunder, are determined to assert their constitutional prerogatives and vote for the men in their own States who will protect them in their legal rights instead of flinging from their hard earnings to advance the political fortunes of thieves and scoundrels of every hue. So much, briefly stated, in regard to Georgia and Arkansas, whose glorious example every other Southern State, with the exception perhaps of South Carolina, will be sure to follow on the 7th of November next.

And now for the glorious northwest, the seat of political empire. Ohio, the home of Hayes, has substantially repudiated his pretensions to the Presidency, and in point of fact gives a Democratic victory. That State has been Republican for many years by majorities ranging from twenty to forty and even one hundred thousand. But the political sceptre has at last departed from Israel and the Republican State ticket has a beggary majority of only about six thousand. The Democrats are full of vigor and fight, and they proclaim to their brethren in all other parts of the Union that they will give Tilden and Hendricks the vote of the State, at the coming election.

Let us now turn our eyes to Indiana, the home of Hendricks. How great and glorious and how satisfactory it is to have an honest, capable and pure gentleman like Thomas A. Hendricks associated on the same ticket with Samuel J. Tilden! The result of the election in that State is the highest and most emphatic compliment that could be paid to Governor Hendricks. Republican papers may sneer and carp at him, as they are doing, but the fact still remains that the result in Indiana is an honest, unbought endorsement of her noble son. All honor then to Thomas A. Hendricks—a man who stands before the people of the entire Union as a pure and unimpeachable patriot. It was Hendricks's own State, noble and well deserving Indiana, that Morton selected as the battle ground on which to stake the political fortunes of Hayes for President, and the result of that decision has been the election of a sound old Democrat, "Blue Jeans" Williams, the farmers' and workmen's candidate for Governor, by a majority of little less than five thousand.

Of West Virginia the story we have to tell is of the same nature. The victory achieved by the Democrats and conservatives of that State is the most decisive they have ever won, the majority for Governor and the other candidates on the State ticket being from nine to twelve thousand. This has it come to pass that no sane man can for a moment honestly question the triumph in November next of Tilden and Hendricks, whose election will be the forerunner of peace, happiness and prosperity to all sections of the country.

The result of the elections last week in Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, determine the result of the Presidential election, and show the defeat of Hayes by 151 in the Electoral College, and that too after conceding him Ohio, which is, however, problematical in view of the fact that he was unable to increase his meagre majority of 1875. The electoral vote of the different States will in all probability be cast as follows:

REDUCING THE DEMOCRATIC VOTE WITH GOVERNMENT ARMS.—An Associated Press dispatch from Boston, S. C., received on Monday night, says: "The Democratic canvass of Charleston county by the Democrats and Republicans, which has been in progress for some days, resulted in a serious collision to-day, at Cainhoe, about nine miles here. It had been agreed that both whites and negroes should attend the meeting without arms. During the attack an altercation arose between two individuals of opposite parties. A shot was fired by one of them, the negroes belonging to the State militia, and composing the large majority of the meeting, obtained their muskets, which were fired into, and simultaneously a volley was sent to the unarmed whites from the bushes skirting a neighboring ravine. The whites being few in number and altogether unprepared for a fight, retreated hastily to the city, but not before two of their number had been killed and fourteen wounded. The dead were left on the field in possession of the negroes. About eighty whites left the city this evening for Cainhoe to recover the bodies and to afford protection to the whites of that vicinity, who are in dread of being attacked or burned out."

To Arms! To Arms!

CHAIRMAN McCLELLAN ORDERS THE PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRACY INTO LINE—A SHARP CONTEST FOR THE STATE.

Hon. Wm. McClelland, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, has issued the following address to the people of Pennsylvania. In a few days he will announce appointments for meetings in every section of the State, and a strong array of the ablest orators will be called into the field. Ohio and Indiana being considered settled by both sides for November, the campaigners from those States will be thrown into Pennsylvania. General Tom Ewing and General Morgan, of Ohio, the great leaders against the resumption bill of 1875, will speak in the interior and western counties; Senator Wallace, Governors Hendricks, Curtin, and Bigler will commence in a few days, and speak daily until the election, and the entire force of party orators will be pressed into the service. The report of the Committee is that the Democrats are thoroughly inspired by the favorable results of the October elections, and there will certainly be a desperate contest for the electoral vote of Pennsylvania. Following is the address:

COMMITTEE ROOMS, HARRISBURG, October 12, 1876. To the People of Pennsylvania:

We congratulate you on the victory won by the people in the great States of Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia on Tuesday last. The contest was one of desperate energy and unscrupulous use of power by our opponents.

In the same carried the States of Indiana and West Virginia by decided majorities, and have substantially a victory in Ohio, the home of the Presidential candidate of the Republican party, for if it be saved to them at all it is "as by fire."

All who have desired purity of administration and honest government have been united with us in this desperate struggle with official patronage, money and power. The people have won. State, money and fraud have been found unable to cope with the desire for Reform and Constitutional Government.

The prestige of success is with "Tilden, Hendricks and Reform." We have beaten the enemy upon a field of their own choosing. Our lines are unbroken; their forces are demoralized and retreating. "Forward" is our word.

Pennsylvania is to be won. Our fight is to be an aggressive one. The township and county organizations will press the contest in every locality with vigor and determination. Arise the people. Attack the enemy's army. Let us be true to the wrongs of the past and the ills of the present. Arrange them for business depression, for dishonest government, for extravagance in administration, for broken law and delayed reconstruction. All old issues have passed away; there is nothing left to them to explain or defend. Our opponents are upralt.

LET THE TRUTH BE TOLD.—The Hollidaysburg Register is more zealous than was when it assails the loyal and able John Reilly. It may subvert the heated partisanship of Mr. Over, or some one for him, to howl "a copperhead of the John Reilly stripe," and "debt incurred in putting down the rebellion of Mr. Reilly's Democratic friends." In the city Mr. Reilly's unionism is well known. During the dark days of the rebellion he was one of a trusted committee to raise funds to procure men to fill the quota of Arizona.

INDIANA POLLED OVER 400,000 VOTES LAST YEAR.—A dispatch from Indianapolis says: "Indiana polled over 400,000 votes last year for the Democratic ticket, and the Republicans were defeated by a large majority."

News and Other Notings.

Harrison, of Indiana, is going to stump New Jersey. He knows how it is himself. The Empress of Brazil will spend the winter in Egypt. The Don is still on the wing. The Philadelphia Inquirer named the child before it was born. It said: "Any thing less than 15,000 majority in Ohio will be a defeat."

A Mexican woman living near Los Angeles, California, has been married twenty years and has twenty children, her age being under thirty-five. Isaac Roberts, of Abington, Montgomery county, and his family were recently poisoned by eating toastnuts instead of mushrooms. Two of his children died. A family of systematic murderers has been discovered at Montague, Texas. Seven of them, well armed, are besieged by an incensed community, and will be starved out.

It is claimed that the earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad from passenger traffic during the Centennial season have been without precedent in this country, England or France. Mr. Joseph C. Lewistown, owns the tract on which the parchment copy of the Repeal of the Stamp Act was brought to this country in March, 1776. It is but 15 inches long and 6 wide. A Newfoundland dog in Toronto, sixteen years old, wears three medals, each representing a human life saved. He is gray and toothless, and is carefully provided for by the mother superior of a convent. Barnes' majority in Ohio is so small that the official vote is withheld for fear that Hayes and Wheeler clubs in the country to be disbanded at once, instead of waiting till the November election.

A SURGICAL OPERATION.—The Millers-town, Pa., Ledger says: "A very critical surgical operation was performed this morning (Friday) upon John Addison, son of J. H. Ward, at the residence of Mrs. Thora township. The facts of the case are these: On Wednesday evening the child was at his grandfather's, John Ward, who lives across Raccoon creek, and was eating chestnuts, when a portion of a nut lodged in the throat, and could not be dislodged. The child was very serious at the time, but some time afterward he experienced great difficulty in breathing, and he was brought to Millers-town to Dr. Stites, who made an unsuccessful effort to remove the obstruction. The father, taken home again, in the hope that nature would do the work, but he experienced great difficulty in breathing, and he was brought to Millers-town to Dr. Stites, who made an unsuccessful effort to remove the obstruction. CENTENNIAL AWARDS.—THE GREAT COMMEMORATION IN THE PLANO DEPARTMENT.—The Steiway & Sons, of Philadelphia, have received a special dispatch from Philadelphia to the Pittsburgh Commercial, dated Sept. 27th, says: "The agency of exhibitors as to awards is over. The formal ceremonies of announcement were held this evening in the City of Philadelphia, for the Centennial Commission, and the lists of those to whom diplomas and medals have been decreed to the President of the United States, who delivered them to the several foreign and State commissioners. Owing to the absence of competition among piano manufacturers, the greatest interest was manifested to know who had carried off the highest honors. Steiway & Sons, as usual, are the victors, and the judges at Philadelphia have endorsed the verdicts of the juries at Paris and at Vienna. Forty diplomas and medals, comprising all the most important awards, have been conferred, and the American Steiway is the best. The following extract, which will serve as an illustration, tells why the judges in their report recommended the awarding of a diploma and medal to Steiway for the greatest and best grand piano, and as also the highest degree of excellence in all their styles, viz: "Largest volume, purity and duration of tone, and extraordinary carrying capacity, with precision and durability of mechanism; also, novel and original in design, string and construction and bracing of the frame. After this follows a minute description and endorsement of six of the principal and most valuable of Steiway & Sons' patents."

MATERIAL FOR A NOVEL.—Here is a story that tells itself, and is true. Several years ago a young army officer heard in a town some one say a voice so sweet that his soul was touched. He converted the young singer's acquaintance, and found her struggling to make headway against poverty and misfortune. She wished to go abroad and study music. The officer had the privilege to enable her to go to Italy and pursue her musical education in Florence and Milan. With womanly pride she declined the offer, and strove to accomplish her purpose by singing at concerts in small towns in the East and by giving music lessons in Boston. The lieutenant's net candidate for Governor, and on Congress the Democrats have a total majority of about 7,000, while the candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction is re-elected by about 10,000 majority. The rest of the Democratic State ticket has between 7,000 and 8,000 majority. Ohio is still to be held for us officially, and the Republicans have been arrested.

THE RESULT IN INDIANA.—Official returns from all the counties in the State show a net majority of 5,494 for Williams, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and on Congress the Democrats have a total majority of about 7,000, while the candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction is re-elected by about 10,000 majority. The rest of the Democratic State ticket has between 7,000 and 8,000 majority. Ohio is still to be held for us officially, and the Republicans have been arrested.
