

THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

EBENSBURG, PA., Friday Morning, - Nov. 17, 1876.

If we feel bored, as we certainly are not infrequently just now by inquirers and seekers after the latest election returns...

The stars in their courses fought against Sisera, and that fact prompts the Harrisburg Patriot to look upon Hayes as the Sisera of the Republican party.

It so happens, says the New York Sun, that every twenty-eight years the 4th of March, the day fixed for the inauguration of the President, falls on Sunday.

JOHN J. PATTERSON, an infamous political adventurer of the radical stripe who certainly needs no introduction to our readers at this late day, telegraphed to Gov. Hayes that he had a majority of ten thousand in South Carolina...

The question of usurious interest and how to prevent it is probably beyond the power of laws and courts to determine.

THE question as to who will be President of the United States from noon on Sunday, March 4th, until noon on Monday, March 5th, next ensuing, has of late puzzled more than the newspapers...

A CERTAIN man whose name was Zachariah went down from Washington to New York and fell among thieves...

The Situation.

We cannot to-day (Wednesday afternoon) announce with any absolute certainty the result of the Presidential election.

But the question is asked—to whom can the country appeal from a wrong of the Louisiana return board? Under no circumstances can there be an appeal to mere partisan prejudice...

A HEROIC WIFE.—Last Tuesday morning, about 2 o'clock, Mr. A. Rambo, who lives near Latam, was aroused by cries of distress coming from the river.

Let us hope for a peaceful solution of this apparent difficulty and that the overwhelming decree of the American people in favor of Tilden and Hendricks will eventually be recognized from Maine to Oregon...

CLOSE ELECTIONS.—The closeness of the Presidential election is almost without precedent, and it is entirely exceptional in these days of steam and electricity.

A DUTIFUL DAUGHTER.—The kind of a daughter to have is the one whom William Butler Duncan, the ruined New York merchant, recently found out he had.

THE difference between the claims of the Democrats and the Republicans in the disputed Southern States is that while the former give the figures from the different counties and parishes to support their conclusions...

What Tilden's Election Means.

GRANT KILLED THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—PEACE, FRATERNITY, PROSPERITY.

But the most potent element of Mr. Tilden's probable triumph may be given in one word—Grantism. President Grant went into office by the vote of a party, compact and all powerful.

THE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION closed November 10th with formal ceremonies. A brief resume of the statistics of the exhibition shows some very interesting features.

WONDERS OF A LAKE.—At the Dickinson Place, on Bullard Creek, near Six Mile Station, is a ten-acre field which is nothing more nor less than a subterranean lake.

EXPERIMENTS are making at the Cambria iron works, Johnstown, to test the possibility of coaling as they do in Wales.

—So after all, remarks the Pittsburgh Dispatch, Tweed, who was for a time put down as a modern Jonah who should have swamped the Franklin, permitted her to reach the West Indies...

News and Other Notings.

—West Keating, Clinton county, voted solid for Tilden.

WAITING FOR HEALTH.

Well sit on your hands and wait for health to come to you, as to wait for health to return without making an effort to grow without culture, attention to food and giving them, or without some need that's unreasonable, is a waste of five more unreasonable than you will make the means of cure.

Chronic diseases of the lungs, consumption; chronic diseases of the bowels, piles, hemorrhoids, and other ailments, are cured by Dr. KEYSER'S medicine, which strikes at the root of the disease and drives it from its fastness.

Neither Gov. Hendricks nor Gov. Hayes has reason to be especially delighted with the late election returns in Indiana.

In Chicago, Sandy Richardson, a colored waiter at the Palmer House, was killed last Thursday night by Mike Scanlan, also a waiter.

A dispatch from Calcutta says it is reported that 20,000 persons perished in the cyclone of October 31, and some estimates place the loss of lives as high as 40,000.
