Also, trimmed hats as low as $1.50, and everything else equally cheap for each, without which there is no use in trying to buy from Mrs. Jones. is useless now to talk about what might have been, but we cannot refrain from expressing the belief that if Mr. Conrad's conferees had it to do over again they would in all probability consult the interests of the Democratic party by pominating a Cambria county man who could have been elected to the office of State Senator, rather than insist upon the selection of one who evidently does not enjoy the confidence of the Democracy of his own county, and who as a consequence finds himself very badly worsted in a Democratic district by a man certainly not his superior in any sense of the word. -Eighteen years ago yesterday Captain John Brown made his unfortunate raid into Virginia, and we remember it as well as we hope all our readers of the masculine persuasion will remember that Godfrey Wolff, the justly celebrated Altooua clothicr, is the man among men from whom to buy made-up clothing of any style, fabric, size or quality desired, and that too at prices which for cheapness can knock the spots off the very lowest figures paraded by other dealers in that eity or out of it. Don't forget also to remember that Mr. Wolff's mamuoth establishment ison Twelfth street, first door above the post-office, Altoona.

The pole had already been cut down two or ever brought to Ebensburg, three times in succession, and as a last resort the Domocrats put an armed guard on duty to protect it, but sorry indeed must they be for their act now since a terrible and by no means excusable tragedy has been the result. Young Moors was in a very precarious condition at last accounts, and if not dead ere this it is very probable that he will

-A Loretto correspondent calls our attention to an error in the official returns published in our last issue, as well as in all other papers of the county, whereby the vote for Hon. John Reilly is reduced from 47 to 41 in that borough. At his request we have examined the tally paper and returns from said district filed in the Prothonotary's office and find that the fault is not with the election board of that place, the documents referred to showing that Mr Reilly received 47 votes and Mr. Campbell 12 votes. "Of course you voted for the party that gave you your freedom and the right to which leads us to remark that know how that is," replied Bob, "but I do done their duty as Democrats they know that I voted the straight-out Democratic ticket." -The attention of the ladies is respectful- A POLITICAL MURDER IN BLAIR COUNof Altoona, occurred at Allegheny Furnace, on the line of the Hollidaysburg Branch railroad and near the southern limits of the first named city. The difficulty which cul-minated in this shocking murder grew out of a political discussion between the unfortunate victim and a man named Isaac Lantz, the former being a Democrat and the latter a Republican. The scene of bloodshed was the casting house of the furnace, which Lantz entered about the time indicated and found Haney and another Democrat named Kepper'y, beside a number of other persons, already there, to whom he commenced reading an article from the Philadelphia Press, which he held in his hand, in regard to certain alleged Democratic frauds in the Southern States, (said article also claiming the election of Hayes,) and remarked at its close that "men who would engage in transactions of that kind were s-s of b-s." Haney thereupon produced a copy of the Pittsburgh Commercial containing a speech recently delivered by Gov. Hayes, in which that gentleman deprecated the sending abroad of telegrams calculated to deceive the people, and also virtually conceded the election of Tilden. This speech Haney asked Lantz to read, but the latter paying ao attention to the request, Haney made some remark which angered Lantz, who thereupon called Haney "a d-d liar." The latter retorted in about the same language, when his antagonist dealt him a blow with his fist, whereupon Kep-perly interfered on behalf of Haney and struck Lantz on the shoulder with a piece of cinder. Meantime Haney stepped back a short distance, and picking up an iron bar about four feet long, threw it at Lantz, but failed to strike him. A hand to hand ender, but by the interposition of those present this was prevented. Haney then turned to leave, but had not taken more than a dozen steps when Lantz picked up a heavy wooden mallet or sledge and hastening after him struck him on the head with the murderous weapon felling him to the earth, and, as was subsequently ascertained, crushing in his

Haney meantime was carried to the engine house, where he soon after revived sufficiently to walk to his home, two hundred yards distant, but had not been long there before his condition became much worse, and notwithstanding the efforts of Drs. Christy and Walker, who were summoned as speedily as possible, he became unconscious and continued to sink nutil about six o'clock the same evening, when death released his immortal spirit from its earthly tenement. Meantime the murderer took refuge in his own house, from which, however, he attempted to escape when the officers of the law got on his track, but after two or three commands to halt, the last of which was accompanied by a threat to shoot, he wisely concluded to surrender ; and it is well perhaps for his own sake that he did, for threats of lynching were very freely expressed, and had it not been for the vigilance of the officers who had him in charge, and who lodged him in an iron-clad cell in the Altoona lock-up and eventually succeeded in quietly removing him to safer quarters in the Hollidaysburg jail, his life might have paid the forfeit even after his arrest became an accomplished fact. A WORD TO BUYERS .- Readers of this paper who purchase Trimmings or Furnish-ing Goods, may be interested in learning where goods of this description may be bought to the greatest advantage. To such we would recommend the establishment of F. H. Eaton & Co., No. 25 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh. This store, the finest of its kind started in that city, has always maintained a reputation for selling the best goods at the most reasonable prices. The class of articles to wit. kept in stock is very extensive, but the limits of this card will permit as to mention only a few specialties. There is almost an endless variety in the way of Ladies' Wear, including the newest styles in Cloaks, Ribbons, Ties, Gloves, Laces, Ruchings, Hats, Flowers, Plumes, Skirts, Paniers, Underwear, Veiling, Handkerchiefs, Collars, Cuffs, Stockings, Corsets, Fringes and Braids,-There has never before been a time when ready-made goods could be bought in styles so elegant and at prices so low as at present. The firm of which we now speak offer no less than FIFTY styles of Ladies' Cloaks, ranging in price from $2.75 to $120.00, in various materials-Rough Cloth, Beaver, Basket Cloth, Diagonal and Matelasse. The large daily sales alone could justify the close figures that have been placed on these goods, the prices, in most cases, being as low, and even lower, than the retail price of the material alone. The Suits and Over-Dresses, in Black, Brown, Navy, Myrtle, Plum, Drab and other popular shades, are beyond all competition in regard to price, being made in large quantities in New York and sold at the closest possible rates. All the latest novelties in Scarfs, Ties and Bows are received as soon as designed in the east. In this department the stock is the most attractive yet shown. There is a full line of Gloves now exhibited in Kid, Cloth, Cashmere and Silk. Some special bargains are offered at the Handkerchief counter in all linen goods from six cents upward. The new style Mohair Braids are worthy of notice, making heat, stylish and economical cloak trimmings from one-half to two and a half inches wide. The assortment of Black Fringes has not its equal West of the Mountains either in elegance or low prices. Children's Suits, Cloaks and Underwear from medium to the finest goods are always on hand. Men's wear of every kind-Shirts, Collars, Ties, Bows, Suspenders, Socks, Handkerchiefs, Gloves and Underwear-at very low rates. White Dress Shirts may now be purchased at manufacturer's prices. Star Shirts are kept in all styles and sizes. Those who reside out of the city are invited to call and examine the goods and prices. Orders by mail will receive the most prompt and care-ful attention. F. H. EATON & Co.,
