-We may now be said to have reached that important epoch in the year's history when the severity of winter is about to give place to that etherial mildness which preredes the advant of Spring, but we can never hope to live long enough to find a place where it is possible to buy better clothing, suitable for any season, at fairer prices than such articles can now be purchased at the mammoth cheap clothing bazaar of Godfrey Wolff, next door to the post-office, Altoona.

They had no difficulty in pointing out several of the tramps as having been on hand at the time of the outrage, but we believe failed to connect them more closely than that with the perpetrators of the lawless act,

The gentleman who telegraphed to the Johnstown Tribune an account of the fire at the Mountain House in this place is unquestionably an abstainer from the use of intoxicating liquors, for if he were not he would certainly have known better than to have ocated the wash-house, in which the fire originated, between the bar-room and the main building. That is more than we fear can be said for the local editor of the Altoma Mirror, who locates the scene of disaster at the Mountain House, Cresson, instead of at —Major Robert Litzinger, formerly of this place, was complimented with four votes for Burgess in the Republican nominating convention held in Johnstown on Monday evening last, as was also Jos. S. Mr. Rutledge is a clever gentleman, but not by any means the strongest candidate that could have been named, and if he is not Easly beaten by the present incumbent, who is up for re-election, we are very much mistaken in our guess.

Clark, at esson, but missing his hold he fell under the wheels and was literally torn to pieces, his body being cut in two and his entrails scattered for a considerable distance flong the track. The train, we are assured, was moving at the rate of twenty-five miles an Lour, and the attempt to board it which culminated in the death of the unfortunate man was the second effort of the kind he had made, the first one resulting in throwing him with great force, but without any apparent injury, to one side of the road. There was nothing about his person to indicate his name habitation. His remains were taken in charge and buried at the expense of the -Few households have ever been more riously afflicted than is that of Mr. Lewis Hoover, of this place, where two children, ns of John and James Hoover, aged respectively about three years and nineteen months, died on Sunday last within an hour or two of each other, and two more children in the same family are still ailing, with the probabilities against their recovery. John Hoover, one of the bereaved parents, is also quite ill, his mind being or having been somewhat affected, and the house, which is comparatively small, presents, as may well conceived, the appearance of a miniature hospital. The disease which culminated in the deaths above noted, and which afflicts the two children now suffering, is said to be hooping cough, which in the two fatal cases at least was followed by lung fever, or some similar ailment, the latter in all probability being the more immediate cause of death.

—It appears that the Blair county Repub. licans, after having for some years tested and learned from bitter experience the follies and the frauds of what is well known as the "Crawford county system" of nominating candidates for county offices, and after a new mode of delegate elections having been abstitued, with which the present Republican office seekers of that county are not satisfied, have determined, on Tuesday next, to submit to the Republican voters of that county the question of either re-adopting the Crawford county system or retaining the present one. The Crawford county system ias some merits, is plausible and well calculated to deceive, and yet in almost every county in which it has been adopted it has been abandoned, after a full and disastrous experience. The Clearfield county plan of electing delegates in proportion to the Democratic vote in the different election districts is the fair and honest one, and has made that county the most thorough and reliable Demcratic county in the State. Why will not the Democracy of Cambria follow the exam-

-The Patton method of taking a short cut on the present incumbent of the Altoona post-office, as well as on the numberless other Republican aspirants in that city for the position named, looks very much like an attempt on part of President Grant and the U. S. Senate to "bull-doze" Hayes in the event f his being declared the chief magistrate of he nation on and after the 5th of March next, which is as yet, however, very far from being an accomplished though by no means an improbable fact. Still as the same pure (?) patriots who have run the Grant admintration of late years will undoubtedly be assigned to front seats in the new Republican synagogue when built, if built at all, we presume the appointment will be permitted to stand, notwithstaffding the sharp trick resorted to in securing it. Of the appointee, Mr. T. Blair Patton, it is proper to say that he is well qualified for the position, and will make an obliging and attentive officer, though that may not strike many minds as being a sufficient excuse for so unceremontruth be said that he has proven "a good and and faithful"-Stewart.

-Somewhat of a sensation was created in our midst shortly after noon on Sunday last by the arrival of a special train conveying eleven tramps to the jail in this place, seven of whom were arrested at Nineveh, Westmoreland county, where they retired to sleep in the shook shop of Nutter, Cunningham & Co., on the charge of driving wooden and fron wedges into one of the railroad frogs near Sang Hollow, below Johnstown, on Saturday evening last, with the evident intention of wrecking the Phila, Express east, but which were fortunately discovered just in the niche of time to prevent the threatened catastrophe. The four remaining tramps brought to jail here, and who are said to have been implicated with five others, not yet taken, in stoning the emloyees on a freight train west on Saturday last, were arrested in Conemangh township by Mr. Joseph Parks and others. The charge against these four is assault and battery with intent to kill John Lanahan and James Moran, employees on the freight The entire party gave their names as Wm. Himes, Chas. Clark, Sam'l Brown, Wm. Robeson, Chas. Briggs, Jas. Clark and Michael McDade, charged with the first named offence, and Jos. Davis, Chas. Murphy. Edward Jones and John Walsh, accused of the latter crime. The evidence is said to be strong against all of them.

PENN'A, OHIO AND W. VA. PRESS AS-SOCIATION .-- We found it impossible to reach Pittsburgh in time to participate in more than the closing scenes of the annual meeting of the above named association, and hence can give no account of its doings from our own personal experience, though the following from the Latrobe Advance fills the bill fully as well if not better than any account we could give of the proceedings :

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania. Ohio and West Virginia Press Association was held in the purior of the Central Hotel, Pittsburgh, on Friday last. This association has been in existence for several years, and repre-sents nearly all the country publications of the localities named. Quite a number of elltors among them the editor of this paper-were in attendance. Mr. E. Christman presided and Mr. Chill W. Hazzard officiated as secretary. The report of the managers for the year just closed showed that the business of the papers in the association had been gratifying, and that the pre-ent-situation of affairs are very flattering. Col. Foulk, the business manager of the association, presented his report, which was accompanied by the auditor's certificate. Mr. J. W. H. Resinger, of the Mealville Republic ta, presented a pian of a new method of keeping advertising accounts. Twenty-me new members were admitted to the association. At the afternoon session a vote of thanks was tendered the proprietors of the Central hotel, and steps were taken to become auxili-ary to the State Editorial Association, and also rado or Texas next summer.

CREST SPRINGS, Feb. 12, 1877. Mr. Epiror-Again we bear a pleasant voice rom the far-off land or the Pacific, and it tens of sucception, summer and showers.

The sound of a givat rain has gone out over the sound of a great rain has gone out over the land, and all nature rejoices in the teeming fertility that follows. Meanwhile we can ar-most hear the hum of the bee as it drowses along over the clover-scented hillocks, where the low of the cattle sounds mellow from a

The busy scene of labor streatches far before us in imagination, the voice of the herdsman comes (aint, from the distance; while the lervid sub pours down his effugent rays as the laborer sun pours down his effugent rays as the laborer partakes or his trough repast, in the odorous shadow of the leary thicket.

Nature's little busy body, the happy fly, goes wafting along through the moist, warm air, and the rivulet laughs for joy at nature's happiness. Yonder the cosy farm-house nestles amin the the folinge, and on the hill the harsh cry of the wild fowr breaks in upon the silence.

In the morning the robust laborer springs from his tragrant cot and haves his brow in the clear waters of the pebbied brook, and blesses God for the morning meal, while the joyous bird trills his wartung melody from a low bough near the open door, through which is waited the passing sweetness of the breath of egiantines—lit paace for a prince!

But to come back to the prosale. 'Rob Boy's' postseript, I presume, was intended as Roy's" postseript, I presume, was intended as a long pole to stir me up with; so, I thought I would arise from my wintry torpor and shake myself to see how much graumar was left in

Now, I think my occidental opponent will admit, the proposition, that clear and furcible thought is best expressed in elegant and supropriate language—you had better get Weoster's Unabridged under your arm—and, conversely, elegant and appropriate language leads to clear and forcible thought.

Do you see the point with reference to the sentence, "Him and me wont to town?"

In the above sentence the promous "him" and "me" are obviously out of place, for "nim" and "me" stand for the names of the persons speaking and the person spoken of when those names are the objects of an action or relation. You might as well put a horse's tail foremost You might as well put a horse's fall foremost into the stall, as to put the objective pronoun where the nominative one should be!

It seems to me to be inexcusable for any class of persons to speak in that manner, for language is a heavenly gift and men should speak it correctly, and not in a slovenly and perverse way.

As the meaning of words depends on correct and general usage, men should express their thoughts in language sanctioned by general con-

I understand the meaning of "Rob Roy" fuliy. I imagine, he means that as long as the action is performed it does not matter in what kind of language the fact is communicated; but if a thing is worth doing at all it is worth doing well, and good, straight-forward, logical mngunge forever!

-The shooting; and killing on Saturday evening last of a Deputy Marshal named H. H. Hughes, a former resident of Cambria township, who emoved to Missouri some ten or twelve ears ago, but as that gentleman is said not o be living in the neighborhood where the tragedy occurred, and as it is not deemed likely that he would be holding the position of Deputy Marshal, it is more than probable that the murdered man was quite a different
