---YESTERDAY week was Governor Nicholls' thanksgiving day throughout Louisiana for the deliverance of the State from its politieal troubles. In New Orleans it was celebrated by church services, closing of busilatter. It was a refreshing spectacle to the people of that city, who remembered that two years ago the legislative hall of the State was invaded by the military and a number of members of the House driven from their seats at the point of the bayonet. Now that peace and order prevail, it was eminently proper that "grim-visaged war should smooth his wrinkled front" and share with the people in their rejoicings. Of course Packard was highly displeased at this popular demonstration, and at once revealed his "true inwardness" in a dispatch to his friend and adviser, Mr. Blaine, It was doubtless very humiliating to Packebrating his downfall.

He is reported as having delivered a very inflammatory address, on last Sanday week, in the Tabernacle at Salt Lake, to the saints and sinners, in which he gave the latter to understand that if they wanted blood they could have plenty of it, and, indeed that they were likely to have more of it let out of their veins than they could well spare. It is also said that the members of the Nauvoo Legion are drilling in Salt Lake city and most of the small towns in the territory. If all this is true, of which we have some doubt, why does Young talk in this bloody style, and why is the famous Nauvoo Legion drilling? It may be that Brigham fears being arrested for his alleged connection with the inhuman Mountain Meadows massacre. But we are not aware that the government contemplates taking any steps against him. It is true that John D. Lee, the Mormon bishop, in his confession implicated Young in the butchery, but indignant denial. The grand jury of Salt Lake city will meet next Monday, and it is rumored that criminal proceedings are likely to be commenced against certain men who stand high in the Mormon Church, Brigham in his Sunday speeches is usually full of rant and bluster, and his recent language, if he really used it, was only a repetition of what he has often threatened

If the Russian army effects a crossing, as it no doubt will, the struggle will then commence in all its dread reality. In Turkey, in Asia, a severe engagement took place last Friday at Batoum, on the eastern coast of the Black Sea, in which feat. It will thus be seen that each of the contending powers has two armies in the field, though greatly separated as to distrue causes of the war, it need only be stated that they have existed ever since the hundred years ago, and made it their seat of empire. The legislative atmosphere was highly charged with corruption both by the friends and enemies of that measure, and although only two members were disgraced, there were others who ought to have shared their well merited fate. It is a delusion legislative body depends upon the mere number of its members, instead of upon the character of the members themselves .-

But aside from this, the increase in numbers lessens, if it does not entirely remove, the feeling of ingovern the action of every member of a legislative body. When that responsibility, from whatever cause, ceases to be felt, the true occupation of a legislator is gone .--Apart from this, the change was wholly unnecessary, and is specially objectionable in view of its enormous increase of the annual expenses of legislation. Our Washington Letter,

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14, 1877. Judge Spofford, conservative Senator recently elected from Louisiana, is being urged by a good many here for the vacant position on the bench of the Supreme Court, and his name has been presented to Mi. The departure of this regiment gentleman, who has so long and ably filled the post of British Minister here, is a matter of general regret.
