Thousands of unsolicited testimonials are on file in the Doctor's office, attesting its efficacy in overcoming aggravaced coughs, colds, throat and lung affections, also scrofula, tumors, ulcers, and skin diseases. Are you suffering with some chronic malady? If so, and you wish to employ medicines that are scientifically prepared : that are reflued and purified by the chemical process employed in their manufacture; that are positive in their action, and specific to the various forms of disease for the cure of which they are recommended, use Dr. Plerce's Family Medicines, Full particulars in Pierce's Memorandum Book, kept for free distribution by all druggists.

Ferlon, Esq., in the fortieth year of her age. The sad intelligence of Mrs. Fendon's death, although it was not nnexpected, caused a feeling of deep sorrow in this community, where she was so well known and respected for her many virtues. She was the youngest daughter of Mrs. Susan Rhey, of this place, and was married to Mr. Fenlon, who previously resided here, but who was then a practising attorney in Leavenworth, in the year 1861. After her removal to Kansas she was a frequent visitor to her mother's home during a portion of the summer season. Three bright and interesting chil Iren survive her the oldest a daughter and the other two twin boys, 'Tom" and "Ed" the exact counterpart of each other, and especial favorites with the people of our town, old as well as young. Mrs. F. was a lady of great culture, a faithful wife, an affectionate mother and a true thy of our people in their irreparable loss. May she rest in peace.

I WONDER WHY. BY EUGENE.

I wonder why this world's good things Should fall in such unequal shares; Why some should faste of all the joys

And others only feel the cares, wonder why the sunshine bright Should fail in paths some people tread : While others shiver in the shade Of clouds that gather over head. erline more faithfully in the future and keep

> I wonder why the trees that hang So full of luscious fruit should grow, Only where some may reach and eat, While others faint and thirsty go! Why should sweet flowers bloom for some,

For others only thorns be found?

While others till the barren ground. I wonder why the hearts of some O orflow with joy and happiness. While others go on their lore way Unblessed with anglet of tenderness.

I wonder why the eyes of some Should ne'er be moistened with a tear, Why others weep from morn till night Their bearts so crushed with sorrow here?

Ah! well, we may not know indeed The whys, the wherefores of each life. But this we know, there's One who sees

And watches us through joy and strife ach life its mission here tulfils And only He may know the end, And loving him we may be strong, Though storm or sunshine He may send.
