

The local scribe of the Bedford County Press has an idea that more fellows will be prevented from croaking by the array of printers and preachers bills in any other line of business on earth.

—Executors and Administrators may find it well to know that under an Act of Assembly they are authorized to get authority to administer on an estate, or to the Register an affidavit setting forth, clearly as can be ascertained, the day and hour of decedent's death. Knowing this they can be prepared to furnish the required information.

—All babies are diminutive Cresars, since they come they are the center of attention, and their parents are continually and uproariously crying induced by Colic, Teething, Flatulence, etc.

—While Mr. Henry Hahn was at work in a stone quarry on Friday, Tuesday forenoon, a crow-lark with which he was engaged in trying loose a large stone suddenly slipped and one end of it struck on the right eye, driving it nearly an inch into the eye.

—The subscribers to the stock of the Belgian Glass Company held a meeting on 5th inst., in Philadelphia. The works at the Clearfield, Pa., will be entirely different from anything in America, and glass will be manufactured equal to that imported from Belgium.

—The largest saw mill in the world is at Du Bois, a small town on the waters of Sandy Lick creek, in Jefferson county. The mill is 220 feet long and 30 feet wide, and contains ten gangs, of four fourteen to thirty-two saws each, and one muley saw.

—It has been well said that the man who has got more money than he needs is rich, and that the man who has got more than he has got is poor; and it is equally true that in either event it is the best of good policy to save money by buying what is needed in the cheapest market.

—Eros Ellis, Esq., whose illness was noticed in our columns, died at his residence in Summitville township, on Saturday last. Mr. E. was a much esteemed citizen, and for many years held the office of Justice of the Peace in the town of Summitville.

—A new time table went into effect on the Pa. R. R. on Sunday last, and as a consequence the trains to and from this city are now running on a different basis.

—The summer bright, the summer fair, the summer sweet, serene, discloses, in all its realm of riches, rest, no other bloom that can be so beautiful as the flower of the year.

—The card of Mr. Caron Lohrey, another aspirant for the Democratic ticket, appears in its proper position in the FREEMAN this week, and in calling attention thereto it is right to say that the card is a very good one.

—Harry Wayne, of Johnstown, the well-known agent for the Champion Mower and Reaper, has put in a good week, and will continue to do so for another week to come, in explaining to the farmers of northern Cambria county the merits of the Champion Mower and Reaper.

—Mr. Thomas Morrow, of Altoona, who has been running as well as agent for the place and Pittsburgh, got on the Pa. R. R. on Saturday last, and got off again without knowing exactly how while the train was moving at the rate of forty miles an hour.

—A tramp named Theo. J. Shannon had his right leg fractured on Saturday morning. He was seated at the time on the platform of a car attached to the first train from west, with his feet resting on the engine suddenly bumped the two cars together, with the painful result.

—Now that the heat is for cutting hay, farmers are invited to the fact that A. A. Barker & Son have on hand a large assortment of scythes, snaths, forks, tines, etc., which they will sell at a low price.

—A remarkable and heart-rending fatality is reported to have occurred in the family of Mr. Andrew Rager, residing near what is known as Baker's Furnace, through long since abandoned as a manufacturing establishment, in Indiana county.

—On Saturday last, Mr. G. G. Borbaugh, of the town of Altoona, was killed by a falling tree while engaged in cutting hay.

—The largest saw mill in the world is at Du Bois, a small town on the waters of Sandy Lick creek, in Jefferson county. The mill is 220 feet long and 30 feet wide, and contains ten gangs, of four fourteen to thirty-two saws each, and one muley saw.

—It has been well said that the man who has got more money than he needs is rich, and that the man who has got more than he has got is poor; and it is equally true that in either event it is the best of good policy to save money by buying what is needed in the cheapest market.

—Eros Ellis, Esq., whose illness was noticed in our columns, died at his residence in Summitville township, on Saturday last. Mr. E. was a much esteemed citizen, and for many years held the office of Justice of the Peace in the town of Summitville.

—A new time table went into effect on the Pa. R. R. on Sunday last, and as a consequence the trains to and from this city are now running on a different basis.

—The summer bright, the summer fair, the summer sweet, serene, discloses, in all its realm of riches, rest, no other bloom that can be so beautiful as the flower of the year.

—The card of Mr. Caron Lohrey, another aspirant for the Democratic ticket, appears in its proper position in the FREEMAN this week, and in calling attention thereto it is right to say that the card is a very good one.

—Harry Wayne, of Johnstown, the well-known agent for the Champion Mower and Reaper, has put in a good week, and will continue to do so for another week to come, in explaining to the farmers of northern Cambria county the merits of the Champion Mower and Reaper.

—Mr. Thomas Morrow, of Altoona, who has been running as well as agent for the place and Pittsburgh, got on the Pa. R. R. on Saturday last, and got off again without knowing exactly how while the train was moving at the rate of forty miles an hour.

—A tramp named Theo. J. Shannon had his right leg fractured on Saturday morning. He was seated at the time on the platform of a car attached to the first train from west, with his feet resting on the engine suddenly bumped the two cars together, with the painful result.

—Now that the heat is for cutting hay, farmers are invited to the fact that A. A. Barker & Son have on hand a large assortment of scythes, snaths, forks, tines, etc., which they will sell at a low price.

—A remarkable and heart-rending fatality is reported to have occurred in the family of Mr. Andrew Rager, residing near what is known as Baker's Furnace, through long since abandoned as a manufacturing establishment, in Indiana county.

—On Saturday last, Mr. G. G. Borbaugh, of the town of Altoona, was killed by a falling tree while engaged in cutting hay.

—The largest saw mill in the world is at Du Bois, a small town on the waters of Sandy Lick creek, in Jefferson county. The mill is 220 feet long and 30 feet wide, and contains ten gangs, of four fourteen to thirty-two saws each, and one muley saw.

Something about Kansas. CHICAGO, June 6, 1877. FRIEND MAC—I promised when I left Ebensburg to drop you a few lines, but so many letters have been written giving descriptions and particulars about Kansas, that I thought I would not mention it again.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

People who visit Kansas are at once struck with the beauty of the country and richness of the soil, a great part of it being high rolling prairie, with but little timber, except along the water courses.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. PIANOS. Over 250,000. Fine rosewood (not used over six months), only $120.00 cost $500.00.

THE HEALTHFUL OF US ARE LIABLE TO obstruction of the bowels, and this is a common complaint. It is not necessary to enrage the palate with nauseous drugs in such cases.

DR. KEYSER CURED ME OF DEAFNESS IN A FEW WEEKS. LOUIS MULLER, No. 20, 6th Street, Pittsburg, Pa.

THE BLACK HILLS. By N. MASTING, who has spent 12 years in that region. Latest accounts of Gold and silver prospects.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. ESTATE OF MARY E. M'COMBIE, dec'd. Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration have been granted to the undersigned on the estate of Mary E. M'Combie, late of Susquehanna county, Pa.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE. In the matter of the account of L. H. LINTON, Auditor of the Borough of Altoona, Pa., for the year ending June 30, 1877.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. School District of Ebensburg Borough FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1877.

500 Clover Seed HULLERS FOR SALE. Send for circular of our new Double Huller. Patented by James Cooper, Ebensburg, Pa.

MOLLY MAGNUS. Molly Maguire's great book. The Molly Maguire and the Detectives. It is now the most wonderful and absorbing book ever written.

COLLINS, HUNTON & Co. BANKERS. EBENSBURG, Penn'a. MONEY RECEIVED ON DEPOSIT. INTEREST ALLOWED ON TIME DEPOSITS.

JOHNSTOWN SAVINGS BANK! 120 Clinton St., Johnstown, Pa. RECEIVED SEPT. 12, 1876 DEPOSITS Interest is due in the months of June and December.

THE LAST NOTICE. WE notified all persons interested in the estate of James Cooper, late of Ebensburg, Pa., that we were holding a meeting on the 15th inst.

DR. QUINCY A. SCOTT'S. 278 PENN AVENUE, PITTSBURGH, PA. Taking the Continental Medal and Diploma over a hundred applications for their respective medals.

FOR SALE AT THE POST-OFFICE, EBENSBURG. Estate of James Keyser, dec'd. Notice is hereby given that Letters Testamentary have been granted to the undersigned on the estate of James Keyser, late of Carroll township, Cambria county, Pa.

STAY COW—Came to the premises of the subscriber, then of Susquehanna township, near Chest, on or about the 10th of April last, since when she has given birth to a calf, a red cow, three years old, with a white spot on her forehead, two white spots on each of her legs, and half tall out. The owner is anxious to come forward, prove property papers and take her away, falling in with the will be sold as the law directs.