-The dwelling house of Wm. C. Lingle, following an unoccupied building in the same place met with a like fate, the fire in each instance being undoubtedly the work of incendiaries. A stable was also set on fire Tuesday morning, but the flames were discovered in time to prevent the destruction of that building. As the Reveille very aptly remarks, "the most effective remedy that the case suggests is a strong halter and a friendly tree, For humanity's sake, let us have more rope and fewer fires," -Mr. John G. C. Bearer, of Susquehanna township, whose fine residence was destroyed by fire some time last fall, met with another misfortune on Saturday night last, his loss in this instance, if report speaks truly, being a $50 watch, a suit of clothes, a pair of boots and a good hat, all of which were stolen, as is supposed, by a man recently in Mr. B.'s employ, who entered the house by aid of a ladder through one of the second story windows. The thief also went to the barn and helped himself to a horse and accountrements, but as the animal was found on the following morning in a lane on the premises of Mr. Benj. Lloyd, of Cambria township, about two miles south-east of this place, in a very exhausted condition, the presumption is that the party who stole the other articles had no intention to steal the horse, his design being merely to use him in getting out of the country as speedily as possible. No arrest made so far as heard from.

-In 1866, John Gore of Cambria borongh, this county, was tried for shooting and killing Edward Holmes, a police officer in Johnstown, and being convicted of murder in the second degree, was sentenced for twelve years to the penitentiary, but when he had served about seven years of his time he was pardoned and took up his residence of a sentence of twenty-nine years for a murder committed in that city in 1865, boarded with Gore. On last Saturday afternoon, Keener was arrested for robbing the residence, of Mr. Simpson Horner, at an early hour that morning, of a large quantity of silver ware, and a true bill being found by the Grand Jury on Monday, and he having Geo. W. Osborne. plead guilty on Tuesday, a ten year term in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed upon him. Gore's house was searched on Saturday, and two pieces of carpet, which had been stolen on the night of the 20th inst. from the dwelling of Robert Bruce, jr., being found concealed therein, Gore was also tried on Tuesday for burglary, largeny and receiving stolen goods, and being convicted of the last mentioned offence, was remarded to prison to await sentence. In both of these cases justice travelled with unusual speed and caught its victims almost in the commission of the crimes of which they bave been found guilty.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENTS AT LORET-To .- The twenty-seventh annual commencement of St. Francis' College took place on Tuesday last and was attended by a large number of clergymen, and by friends of the students and the College, as well as by many citizens of Cambria and adjoining counties. A very pleasing programme was presented, onsisting of orations, speeches, declamations, drama, farce, songs and instrumental music, in all of which the pupils acquited themselves with much credit, the valedictory of J. Paul Chew, which was chaste in tyle, fine in sentiment, and exceedingly appropriate, being especially deserving of commendation. The rendition of the choruses also elicited hearty and well merited applause. The premiums distributed on the occasion were costly and handsome, and the diplomas for book keeping awarded to several of the students, among whom we may mention Master Stephen Callan, late of Cresson, and Master Robert Cox, son of John Cox, Esq., of Conemaugh borough, were as well deserved as they were fittingly bestowed. The exhibition as a whole was one of the best that has ever been witnessed at St. Francis, and reflected gret credit alike upon the faculty and pupils of an educational institution which certainly has no superior n the country. In this connection it is proper to note the fact that at a meeting of the Commercial Alumni, Francis Daly, of the class of 1875, and Robert Cox, of the class of 1877, were elected President and Secretary respectively for the ensuing year. A: St. Aloysius' Academy for young ladies the distribution of prizes took place at 2 o'clock, P. M., of the same day, and the large and appreciative audience in attendance was delightfully entertained for over two hours by choice music, recitations and riginal essays. Here as well as at St. Franeis, Father Bush, who presided in the ab-sence of the Bishop, paid a well merited compliment to the teachers and pupils on the ability and efficiency manifested by all in imparting and acquiring knowledge. And that the praise bestowed by the Rev. gentleman is fully endorsed by the public at large s, notwithstanding the hard times, abun dantly proven by the fact that during the inst closed there were more pupils in attendance at these two institutions than at any previous time in their history.

STRANGE FREAK OF LIGHTNING .- From the Decatur (III.) Daily Republican of June 19th we copy the following in relation to a rather singular occurrence which took place on the premises of Mr. R. J. Roberts, who erts, still reside in our midst. The Republi-

During the heavy thunder storm of last night the barn of Mr. R. J. Roberts, who lives just east of the Himois Central railroad, on William street, was struck by lightning, and pretty hadly torn in pieces. The fluid seems to have struck on a corner of the barn and run down the Limbers and along the roof, scattering struck on a corner of the barn and run down the timbers and along the roof, scattering shingles and boards in every direction. Two horses were in the stable at the time, but both escaped any serious injury, though both seemed to be badly frightened this morning, and from the appearance of things in the stall where one of them stood, Mr. R. thinks he was knocked down. A pircon house on the barn was literally torn to pieces, but as no dead birds was literally tern to pieces, add as no dead onto were lying about, it is presumed that none were lying about, it is presumed that none were hurt, though a large number shelter there every night. There were two tons of hay it, the barn, which the lightning had tossed about barn, which the lightning had tossed about considerably, and that it did not take fire is a wonder. Indeed, the escape of the building from being burned and the horses from being from being burned and the horses from being large markable. killed, is remarkable.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.-The MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.—The trial of Cresswell A. Reese for the murder of his father-in-law, Dr. J. A. Shade, which occupied the attention of the special term of cour; at Huntingdon for a period of two besides several grandchildren, to mourn his besides several grandchildren, to mourn his besides several grandchildren, to mourn his weeks, closed on Saturday evening last with a verdict of murder in the second degree. Speaking of the trial and its result the Local News of that place says:

"It was the longest criminal case in the annals of our county court, having commenced on Monday afternoon and continuing twelve days in sessions of from eight to eleven hours caca.

Pa., on Friday, June 22, 1877, Mr. W.M. W. Green Hours and T. H., eldest son of Mr. Thomas Griffith, of this place, aged 31 years, 10 months and 7 days. our county court, having commenced on in sessions of from eight to eleven hours each. Over one hundred and fifty witnesses were called, and the examination was thorough, searching and skillul on part of both Common-wealth and defense. Messrs. Woods and Dor-rie, the counsel for the Commonwealth, aware of the fact the defense would set up the plea of insanity, had numerous witnesses who knew Reese from childhood, and Dr. Curwen, of the Penn'a Lunatic Hospital, and other experts, to testify to the fact that no insanity existed, while, on the other hand, the defense had a host of witnesses to prove that their denings with him since his marriage left no doubts in their minds that his reason had become desired on the state of the family troubles. throped on the subject of his family troubles. Had the defense rested upon this plea alone, however, it is the common belief that the verdict would not have been what it is; but the finely wrought theory of solf-defense as argued by Mesers. Bailey and Speer, together with the mass of evidence showing previous provoca-tion, tended, in our opinion, to create a doubt in the minds of the jurymen, and resulted in the verdiet of murder in the second degree. The defense of partial insanity as an excuse for murder is a dangerous one, and the law as quoted from Justice Gibson by his Honor Judge Dean, in his charge, appears to us to be the best to be applied in such cases. We shall endeavor to publish the able charge of the court in full in our next issue.

"The attorneys complimented the court, and the court returned the compliment to the attorneys and jurors; the long and tedious trial is over, the defendant had able counsel and a fair trial, and the jury rendered a vertical that accords with the views of nine-teaths of the committee."

IS YOUR LIFE WORTH 10 CENTS ?-Sickness prevails everywhere, and everybody complains of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; now to say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirits, Biliousness, etc., can take GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER without getting relief and cure. If you doubt this, go to your Druggists, Lemmon & Murray, Ebensburg, or Woleslagle & Son, Wilmore, and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

Why suffer with pain in the back when there is a remedy? The Barosma, or Back-ache, Liver and Kidney Cure never fails to relieve inflammation or soreness in the lumbar region, caused by a strain, cold, or female weakness, as hundreds testify every day. We do not recommend it for all dis eases, but only for the above, as it acts directly on the liver and kidneys. Prepared and sold by E. K. Thompson, (twenty-three years in the drug business.) Titusville, Pa., and for sale by Lemmon & Murray, Ebensburg. Price, $1.00 per bottle.

RUPTURE.-If you are ruptured the best thing you can do is to call on Dr. KEYSER and have a good Truss fitted. I say fitted, for there are more mistakes made by ill-fit ting Trusses in the treatment of rupture than in any other way. Dr. Keyser's Trusses are PLEASANTVILLE, June 25, 1877. MR. EDITOR-Could you through the kindly columns of your popular paper suggest a means to teach some young men not a hundred miles from your flourishing town a little common politeress, and, I may add, maniness, for they are sadly lacking in both? To give you an instance of their gallantry: They are invited to a social. The evening passes away very pleasantly and the sociable breaks up about eleven. Some of the young ladies have a quarter mile some of the young ladies have a quarter mile to walk home. Young men sit looking down their noses until the ladies go home alone; then they get up and start for home in a group, and when they get to bed no doubt dream they are the a certain sense. heroes. And so they are in a certain sense.

Were I a young man once more I would .ry to set them an example of gallantry as it was and should be. Shame on such specimens of manhood! say I. With many wishes for your welfare, I am, Mr. Editor, your friend,

OBITUARY. FOSTER.-Died, at his residence in this place

on Friday, June 22, 1877, HENRY FOSTER, aged about 50 years. Mr. F. was a native of Beden, Germany. In the early part of 1858 he removed to this place from Johnstown, and from that time until his death was engaged in the hotel business here as he had been in Johnstown before leaving there. He was naturally stout and robust, but his health began to decline several months ago. and it became evident some time before his death that his earthly career was rapidly ap-proaching its close. He was not at any time confined to bed, and when death came it found him seated in an arm-chair complacently await untimely loss. His funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Sunday afternoon, the remains being interred in Lloyd Cemetery.

Peace to his ashes. GRIFFITH .- Died, at Kane, McKean county. The remains of deceased were brought home and interred in Lloyd cometery on Monday af-ternoon, an immense concourse of sympathiztermoon, an immense concourse of sympathizing friends, including the Odd Fellows, of which organization he was a member, manifesting by their participation in his obsequies the high esteem in which he was held in the land of his birth and the home of his childhood and much of his manhood. He leaves a wife and one child, besides many other near and dear triends. to mourn his untimely death.
