Handsomest Woman in France.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune, in his account of the recent ball in Paris to Don Carlos, says:

A Plucky Woman's Feat.

On the stage route between Ellenville and Summitville, N. Y., is a long steep hill known as Budd's Hill. As the stage, containing Mrs. Jane Hollingsworth and two small children, William Bram and James Low, the driver, had just begun the descent of the hill, the pole slipped through the neck-yoke and the stage ran heavily against the horses' heads.
