CLOTHES PINS—Insignificant as the common wooden clothes pin is itself, its manufacture forms no mean part in American industries.

THE USE OF FORKS—Forks are rarities even now in many parts of Spain; and in taverns in many countries, particularly in France, knives are not placed on the table...

A NEW AND EXCELLENT ARTICLE OF FOOD—Crushed wheat has long been a favorite article of food with the general public and highly recommended by the medical faculty.

A new process of preparing this article has been perfected, by means of which it is made even more nutritive and its keeping qualities enhanced.

DIPHTHERIA—The following, on what appears to be good authority, is said to be an excellent remedy for diphtheria.

INVISIBLE INK FOR POSTAL CARDS.—The Deutsche Illustrirte Geneserzeitung proposes the use of what may be called "postal card ink."
